$50.00 REWARD!!!

FOR THE

Arrest and Conviction

OF THE

Person or Persons

WHO HAVE IN POSSESSION AN

OFFICIAL BALLOT

While Outside the Polling Rooms

ON ELECTION DAY.

I hereby offer the above reward on the conditions named, to apply throughout Talbot county.

B. F. PARLETT.

WE have been informed through the best of authority that OFFICIAL BALLOTS marked for the democratic ticket will be distributed OUTSIDE the polling rooms through the hands of unprincipled men to the illiterate and BOUGHT voter. We are also informed that other men besides Mr. Parlett are offering similar rewards and even more, for the same, or any other offense against the election law which can be proven and the parties convicted.

BE WATCHFUL AND PROTECT THE BALLOT
ALL GOOD CITIZENS.

READ THE FACTS CONTAINED IN THIS ISSUE BEFORE YOU VOTE if you are in doubt how the Republicans stand on the OYSTER QUESTION.

IT IS a matter of notoriety and needs no proof that elections in Talbot county for many years have been farces.

No one will deny that voters have been bought wholesale, whenever the corrupt ring of Talbot felt it was necessary.

Everyone will admit that the registration lists have been padded, that leaves have been cut out of the books and names on the lists have been changed. These things have been proven in our court.

Two years ago the moral sense of our county was shocked by a brazen fraud in changing the emblem on the the official ballot for the purpose of deceiving ignorant voters, perpetrated by the officers sworn to carry out the law, Messrs. Wheeler and Willis election supervisors.

And even this year the Republicans had to appeal to the Court to compel the present Board of Supervisors to obey the law and allow the Republicans to have some say as to who should represent them in the polling room.

Everyone knows that there are now on the registration books the names of men who have not lived in Talbot for years past.

Everyone knows that since the adoption of the present election law election officers have allowed ring heelers free admission to the polling room for the purpose of bringing in purchased votes.

That Ballot Clerks, contrary to their oaths, have given signs to indicate how certain parties have voted.

These things are well known—are not denied, but on the contrary, are boasted of and relied upon to carry the present election.

Now what are the intelligent, honest respectable people going to do about it? Are they going to vote to perpetuate these things? Are they going to vote to keep in office the men who are responsible for this state of affairs? Is there not virtue enough in our citizens to rise superior to their prejudices or past party affiliations to vote to remove the ineubus which has so long rested upon us?

As President Cleveland said, "It is a condition that confronts us and not a theory." There is no question now of tariff or free trade, free silver or a gold standard, prohibition or license; it is simply a question of good government by the people and for the people on the one hand, or misrule by the bosses and for the bosses on the other. Which shall it be? The votes of the good, moral Christian citizens must decide today. Which side will you be found on? Vote in the way which you will not be ashamed of after election and for the best interests of our county.

MAJ. Stewart has been industriously proclaiming throughout the county that the Republicans are in favor of leasing the oyster beds of the State. Maj. Stewart knows this is not true but he thinks the oystermen do not know it, hence he insults their intelligence by these misrepresentations hoping thereby to gain some of their votes.

The only proof he offers of his position is that in 1891 there was a meeting in Baltimore which favored this policy and that Messrs. Hodson and McComas, both Republicans, spoke there. This is true, but the veracious Major forgot to tell that six or seven democrats spoke at the same meeting in favor of leasing and that seven-eighths of the audience were democrats. Now let us look at the facts on the other side.

First; Mr. John P. Poe, now democratic Attorney General when in the Legislature introduced and labored to have passed a bill to lease our oyster grounds.

Second; Mr. Conway W. Sams of Baltimore, now a candidate for the Senate and who has been stumping the State for Mr. Hurst, when in the Legislature in 1892 introduced a bill to lease the oyster grounds of the Chesapeake Bay and did all he could to secure its passage. It came near being passed, but the Republicans without a single exception opposed it.

And third; At a meeting of the School Boards of the Counties of Maryland held at Annapolis last year the following resolution was passed unanimously:

BE IT RESOLVED, That this body endeavor to have such legislation at the next session as may bring the oyster fund to the benefit of the whole State, and not to tide-water counties only. And it is the sense of this body that the only means to attain this result would be to lease the oyster beds.

Now consider these three facts and place them with others of which you may have knowledge, alongside of the fact that the last democratic convention was perfectly silent on the oyster question and Mr. Hurst in his letter of acceptance said not a word about it, does it not strike all thinking men as significant? We can't imagine for a moment that Mr. Hurst and the convention forgot it. If it was left out intentionally does it not show conclusively that the party managers have decided to adopt the policy of Mr. Poe, Mr. Sams, the county School Boards and other leading democrats and lease the oyster grounds and thus deprive a class of hard working worthy citizens of their livelihood?

Oystermen of Talbot your only safety is in electing the Republican ticket. Vote this time for your wives and children. Vote for your homes. Vote for the right to make an honest living. Vote for the party which by a unanimous vote of the representatives of all the counties and Baltimore City announced its "unaltered opposition to the leasing of the oyster beds."

To show to what straits the democratic candidates are driven in their desperate bid for votes, reference need only be made to the recent speech of Mr. Smith at Easton.

In that address he said: "In my section of the State it is a fact long and well known among the oystermen that the republicans are the advocates of leasing and selling the oyster beds. The Baltimore American, the leading republican paper of this State, has, in leading editorials, frequently urged it and many prominent republican leaders have favored it." Then Mr. Smith added very humbly, "I shall make no effort to disguise the fact that the oyster fund is not as healthy as it was ten years ago." This is what Mr. Smith said. Let us look at what the facts are, and no honest man wants anything but facts.

As a fact ten years ago the oyster fund had to its credit $380,000. Today it is bankrupt. St. Mary's county has been forced to levy upon its own tax-payers nearly two hundred dollars and the oystermen of St. George's section had to contribute privately as much more to secure themselves a police boat for the St. George's and St. Mary's rivers. Mr. Smith is right. The fund is not as healthy as it was ten years ago, and the worst of it is that the money has been squandered by the democratic administration of State affairs on regular politics.

In alluding to the question, the American says:

"But the question we ask Mr. Smith is in reference to the partisan bias he endeavors to give to the matter. Will he give the names of the prominent republicans who have favored this thing? And lastly, will he kindly show us when and where the American has urged the sale and leasing of oyster beds? The oyster beds of the Chesapeake and its tributaries belong to the people, and no one, as far as we know, wants them sold or leased. What The American suggested and advocated was the planting and cultivation of oysters, both of which are becoming general, to the great advantage and profit of the oystermen. The American's position has the endorsement of every intelligent oysterman in the State. And, incidentally, we may remark that if Lowndes is elected, there will be no spending of oyster revenues for providing places for party workers to the detriment of the oystermen's interests."

This plain statement by The American challenging Mr. Smith to answer, and which he has not done, speaks for itself.

Let us contrast the position of the republican party in its platform so unanimously adopted at Cambridge in August last, and Mr. Lowndes' position on the oyster plank in the platform. The oyster plank of the platform, which was drawn by our own county representative on the resolution committee, E. B. Abell, Esq. and which was adopted without opposition reads as follows:

"We condemn the partisan management of the oyster police force of this State, and we hereby denounce every effort to deprive the people of their inherent rights to the public oysterbeds and we announce our positive and unaltered opposition to the leasing or selling the same."

Mr. Lowndes in his letter of acceptance says—

"I have confidence in the action of the convention in interesting the needs of the people in regard to the public oyster beds, and, if elected, I will conform my actions to the same. The management of the oyster police force has been frequently, and, I believe, justly criticised, and, it would be my earnest effort, so far as in my power, by the judicious appointment of competent officers and men, to remedy the abuses which have crept into the service."

What has the democratic platform said on the question? Not an allusion is made to the oyster question nor does Mr. Hurst allude to it in his letter of acceptance. Yet they claim to be the friend of the oystermen. Again Mr. Conway Sams, a leading democratic member of the Legislature of 1892 and now a democratic candidate for the Senate in 3d Legislative Dist., of Baltimore City and who is now stumping the State in the interest of Mr. Hurst, introduced a bill to lease the oyster grounds in the Chesapeake Bay and exhausted every personal effort in his power to secure its passage. The Journal of the House of that session will show that many democrats favored the bill and the republicans to a man opposed. How is this position of democrats reconciled with their claim of friendship for the oysterman.

THE Republicans this year have a county ticket which any party and any county might be proud of and which any law-abiding, self-respecting gentleman can vote for from top to bottom. Eleven out of twelve are consistent members of church. None of them drink or swear. None of them are brawlers and all of them well qualified for the respective offices Compare this with the Gorman ticket and then vote for the one which you think for the best interests of the county.

THE ring managers have given up all hope of electing Gorman's candidate Hurst, and are now trying to save from the wreck enough counties to control the Legislature, but it will not wore. The people are aroused as never before. The good citizens of the State have determined that the corrupt bosses must go. Let the victory be a complete one, all along the line.

IT seems to be a mystery to persons how Legislative candidates can contribute five hundred dollars to the corporation fund when their pay and perquisites amount to just that amount.

SOME of our valiant office-holders are trying to emulate the deeds of some of our Baltimore toughs in 1875. Already they are commencing to threaten colored men that they will probably get bullets through them on Tuesday.

This will not work, votes may be bought, frauds may be perpetrated but Easton will not be roughed.

LET us have officers about the Honorable Judge of the Circuit Court will not be compelled to say, "There must be either gross negligence or gross partiality on the part of the officers of the law."

TALBOT county had three Republican county commissioners in 1888 and 1889, and their record was repudiated by the people.—Star.

NO, not repudiated by the people, but their successors were placed there by purchased votes by money furnished by applicants for office, as well as by Mr. Gorman. So great was the stir after the following board was elected, because they made a man a clerk who had not "put up" funds, that two clerks were appointed, and the matter hushed.

If the econimical rule of the last Republican Board had to be repudiated, what can you say of the various boards that have kept the county heavily bonded without providing for a sinking fund or at least showing one, with the possible exception of the present board?

Eczema Isn't A Nice Disease.

It is painful, irritating, disgusting—offensive alike to the sufferer and his friends. The little watery, blistery eruptions itch and tingle. Scratching doesn't help. You may scratch to the bone and only make it worse, but it can be cured by using

Foster Gorman Army and Navy Cure

Eczema shows itself in other ways, but when little blisters, or scaly, watery patches appear, this ointment should be used at once. It cures quickly and permanently. It cures other skin diseases, too—tetter, ring worm, itch, salt rheum, dandruff, pimples, blotches and scald head. Numerous cases of itching piles, which are caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the rectum, have been permanently cured by this potent and soothing emollient.

OYSTERMEN ATTENTION.

To arms! Free men of Maryland, to arms! my fellow oystermen, crabbers and fishermen, watch that smoke house door of your fellow workers!

I have just learned that in the excitement on the re-assessment cry this fall, that there has been placed on the Democratic ticket men who will favor the LEASING OUT OF THE OYSTER BEDS OF THIS STATE. You know they tried that several years ago, but you were up to them; but this fall, they think you are lulled asleep with other matters, and there men have been slyly put on the ticket. Don't you know the thief always enters when the good man of the house is asleep, or he thinks so? Do you want them to take away your Smoke House? I hear you say in a voice long and loud, No! Then you will have to watch how you vote. Vote any ticket except the Democratic ticket. Don't keep them or you will give away the key to the smoke house. You know these industries are immense, and a means to give to our wives and children, bread and meat and clothes. This is our goose that lays the golden egg, and we do not desire to loan it. Our wives and children are as dear to us, as other people's who do not work. Now, do not be fooled. Say No, and mean it, for if you once let this great business leave your hands you will never get it back again. Don't give away the key. Go to the polls on the 5th of November and vote against that ticket. This is my appeal to you. Remember your wives and children. Yours,

GEORGE EUSTACE, Oystermen,
702 Hanover St., Baltimore, Md.

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS.

If the voter intends to vote the straight ticket of his party, it is simple enough. He stamps one mark at the top of the ticket in the square to the right of the party emblem, or in the smaller square to the right of the party name. That is all that is required, and any other mark will tend to defeat his intention. But if the intention is to vote a "split ticket"—that is, to vote for some candidates on one ticket and some on the other—he should carefully understond how to do it before going to vote. A split ticket can be voted in two ways: First, by placing the stamp after the name of each candidate the voter wishes to vote for; second, by putting the mark after the party name or emblem of one ticket and also after the names of the particular candidate he wishes to vote for on the other tickets. Thus, if the voter wishes to vote the democratic ticket except for Governor, for instance, he puts his mark in the square after the Jackson and Liberty picture and another mark after the name of Lloyd Lowndes on the Republican ticket. This will be a vote for the entire democratic ticket except Hurst. Or if he wishes to vote the entire Republican ticket except for Governor, he puts the mark to the right of Lincoln's head and another mark after the name of Hurst on the democratic ticket.

But if he wishes to vote, for instance, the full democratic ticket with the exception of one or two Republicans for the Orphans' Court or the House of Delegates, he must put the mark in the square after the democratic emblem and after the names of the Republicans he desires to vote for, and then he must erase from the democratic ticket with a lead pencil as many of the names of the democratic candidates for those offices as he marks on the Republican ticket. The reason is that he cannot vote for more than three judges of the Orphans' Court and three delegates, and he must erase the names so that in counting the ticket the election officers will know which he does not want to vote for as well as those for whom he wants to vote.

VOTERS, citizens, man, come to the rescue! We need you, your State needs your assistance. Baltimore is $15,000,000 in debt, the counties are bonded, our children are heavily taxed for the meagre equipments for learning and thousands are prevented from attending the "free" schools on that account, and who is responsible? You, in a great measure, voter, is as much responsible as any one. Come out on the side of honest government carefully administered, even if you have never voted the Republican ticket before it will not hurt this time, if for no other reason than that "a new broom sweeps clean."

All the churches are with us for reforming all Associations, (except Gorman-Raisin clubs.) All newspapers except those for boodle only and lastly but not least the ladies of the grand old commonwealth of Maryland side with reform and a new regime.

Now who are with the ring? Count in the bums of the slums, such as at Marsh Market Space, Sandy Bottom, and the Meadows, Baltimore, as well as "dark" coops throughout the State. Raisin is controlling the city and Gorman the State, to prevent further examination of the official records where great misdemeanors are suspicioned. How long will you be lashed into line? Form a new combination this fall and destroy that one now existing, or it will destroy you.

THE people of this county demand a free ballot; an honest observance of the law on the part of the election officers and a fair count. Anything less than this will be met by presentment to the Grand Jury and an invoking of the penalties prescribed by law.

WANAMAKER'S

PHILADELPHIA, November 4, 1895.

Five millions of dollars in merchandise at retail value. November opens upon the old store ready as never before to meet the demands of its vast constituency. Goods were never so pretty as now, and it is little wonder that our globe-trotting gatherers exceeded usual limits by nearly a million dollars in their determination that nothing should be lacking.

DRESS STUFFS

Depends on where prices tumble from. Some "reduced" goods you'd never suspect—though suspicion might envelope the storekeeper.

It takes shrewd watching of market conditions to enable us to sell

75c Dress Goods at 65c.
$1.00 Dress Goods at 75c.
$1.25 Dress Goods at $1.00.
$1.50 Dress Goods at $1.25.

The offerings include Fancy Cheviot, various Fancy suitings, Silk-and-Wool Novelties—mostly foreign made; dozens of good things for house and street wear.

At 65c—A neat suiting with ecru, brown, navy and black grounds, through which brightest stars sparkle—silk stars.
At 75c—A multi-colored cheviot; five designs in rich autumn tints.
At $1—Two designs, twelve colorings, in a boucle of bright mohair on a cheviot ground.
At $1.25—A bright novelty—light woven two-toned cheviot. The color combinations are blue-and-black, blue-and-red, blue-and-brown, green-and-brown, red-and-blue.

These are new, bright goods. The economy comes all from our buying.

WOMEN'S SHOES $2.

And that right in the teeth of market conditions.

Robert Foerderer made the Vici Kid.

De Ford & Co. furnished the oak-tanned sole leather. And peerless Philadelphia shoemakers turned those leathers into shoes.

Since dealers have learned that Vici Kid is a name to conjure by, the town is deluged with "Vici Kid Shoes." It is well to know your shoe store.

There are thirteen styles of these shoes and not a shoe store in town but would gladly have them to sell at $3. We say $2, because that is in keeping with the pace we have set ourselves.

There are wide, medium and pointed toes; the shoes are all kidskin

kidskin with patent leather tips kidskin with patent leather tips and cloth tops all the styles in both lace and button widths A to E; sizes 2½ to 8.

We can comfortably serve three thousand comers to-day.

BOYS' CLOTHING

The Sailor Suits for boys of 3 to 7 that we sold in the early part of this month at $5 looked very much like these. But examination proves these even better than were they. And this lot is marked at $4. They are made with red cloth collar, black braid trimmed; edged with white silk soutache.

Suppose you didn't happen to fancy this style, there are Sailor Suits from $2.50 to $8.50—and interesting, every one of them. That is our way of making the public share the benefit of this doubled clothing business. Better and better clothing values.

Don't buy a cheap-looking overcoat. Boys are hard users of clothes, and it takes our best efforts to produce garments that will stay presentable. Cape Overcoats for ages 3 to 8 are ready. $7.50 and $8.50.

BED CLOTHING

We solved the problem of Down Quilt selling when we brought the down from Russia, the satine and silk from Europe, Asia and America and made the Quilts ourselves.

8x6 ft. Down Quilts, covered with domestic satine, $8.75.
6x6 ft. Down Quilts, covered with best domestic satine, figured, $5.

Blanket Time—

White Blankets made from good clean stock and with pretty borders, $3.75.

White Blankets, wool held together by light spool cotton warp; well finished, $5 a pair.
