COUNTY CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONVENTION.

The Second Annual Convention Held This Week At Oxford.—Interesting Program.

OXFORD, Nov. 22.—The second annual convention of the Talbot C. E. Union was held at the M. P. Church of this town on Tuesday and Wednesday. Several delegates were present from St. Michaels and Royal Oak, and others were prevented from attending by the inclemency of the weather. Mr. Claud D. Lee, who was President of the Union, having been obliged to be absent, Mr. James L. Nichols, of Oxford, presided.

The program was opened on Tuesday evening with a song service conducted by Rev. W. S. Phillips, of St. Michaels, after which the convention sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Mullican, of Royal Oak. On Wednesday morning Rev. J. W. Balderston conducted a devotional service; Miss Mary L. Norris read a paper upon "What a Christian Endeavor Society can do for the Church;" Miss Kate Baker discussed "The value of junior work in the C. E. movement," and Miss Ardie M. Thompson spoke upon the topic "What is the real object and purpose of the C. E. Society?"

The election of officers took place at 2.00 p. m., and the following selections were made: President, James L. Nichols; First Vice President, Claud D. Lee; Second Vice President, Archie Thomas; Recording Secretary; P. M. Pastorfield; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. W. S. Phillips; Treasurer, H. G. Mullikin. At this session the following papers were presented: "How can we aid a C. E. Society?" Miss Nannie Stevens; "How can an Associate Member help an active one?" Mr. P. M. Pastorfield; "How the look-out committee can help a C. E. Society," Mr. P. T. Fairbanks. The closing session was held on Wednesday evening, when Miss Myra L. Loughfield read a paper upon "What a C. E. Society can do for the Church." Addresses then followed by Mr. N. Price Turner and Dr. J. A. Robinson, the former speaking upon "For What is our County Union organized;" and the latter upon "What is the pledge and do we keep it?"

Rev. W. M. Poisal was to have closed the convention by conducting a consecration service but not being present his place was filled by Mr. P. M. Pastorfield. Each topic after having been presented was thoroughly discussed by the various members of the Convention. The next session will be held at Royal Oak in the fall of 1896.

Council—Collier.

Dr. Thomas Atkinson Council, of Easton, Md., was married Wednesday at Wilmington, N. C., to Miss Mary Collier, daughter of Mr. S. P. Collier, of that city.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Robert Stunge, at St. James Protestant Episcopal Church. The maids of honor were Misses Sallie Henderson and Athalia Rankin The bridesmaids were Misses Katherine de Rossett, Dena Angele, Mary Steeb, Carrie Lord, Mary Polk Davis, Carrie Davis and Katherine Wilson. The ushers were Messrs. James K. Collier, Samuel P. Collier, Jr., R. B. Mason, William Merryll, W. J. Dick, T. H. Willard, D. P. McMillan and W. F. Bunting. Dr. Harry R. Barton, of Easton, was best man.

The bride's gown was of ivory white satin en traine, trimmed in point applique. Her ornaments were pearls, and she carried whitecarnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Council arrived in Easton Thursday evening from Baltimore. They will reside at Easton. Dr. Council was well known in Baltimore, where he was a student for three years at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and was afterward resident physician at the City Hospital.

Additions To The Mercantile Library.

Mr. James Dixon has given the library "Flute and Violin," Dean Sutton gave "Aleandale's Choice, A Village Chronicle," Mrs. H. C. Winchester gave "The Innocents Abroad," by Mark Twain.

The following have been purchased: The Duchesse DeLangeais, Catherine DeMedici, Kerrigan's Quality, The Strange Adventures of a Phaeton, Through One Administration, John March Southerner, The Prophet of the Great Smoky Mountains, One Of Cleopatra's Nights, A Roman Singer, A Cigarette Makers Romance, The Prisoner Of Zenda, The Bishop's Idale Romance, The Story of Bessie Costriel, A Gentleman Of France, My Lady Rotha, Madame Chrysanthime, The King of Schnorrers, Lord Ormont and His Aminta, At Odds, The Squirrell Inn, Uncle Tom's Cabin, The Rise Of The Dutch Republic, Vol. I, II, III, and a complete set of History for Ready Reference, 5 vols.

The Literary Society of the Mercantile Library will be addressed by the Rev. William Wood of Virginia, at 3.30 p. m. today.

Sugar and Coffee Party.

On Thanksgiving evening at 8 o'clock the Epworth League of Easton M. E. Church will give a Sugar and Coffee party at the parsonage. Every body is expected to bring either sugar or coffee; but, no one is allowed to bring more than one pound of coffee nor more than three pounds of sugar. Sugar and coffee thus collected is to be given to the Mercy and Help department of the League for the poor of the town. The first thirty minutes will be allotted to receiving guests. A "literary salad" will be served, after which the company will be invited to partake of refreshments. During the evening a vote will be taken for the most popular lady and gentleman present who will be required to lead the league prayermeeting following Sunday evening. Everyone is invited to be present.

COMMITTEE ON ENTERTAINMENT.

High Class Entertainment.

The Langdon Dramatic Company which is billed to play in the Easton Opera House every evening next week, comes to us highly recommended. It has been playing on the Peninsula of late and all of our exchanges speak of it in highest terms. The management have wisely considered the state of the times, and have placed the prices of admission within the reach of all. Each performance will be different. Two matinees also.

Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills.

For thirty years Dr. Deane has made a study of dyspepsia, and in thirty years has cured more cases of it than probably any other fifty physicians combined. He gave up the study of theology and took to medicine, because the most eminent physician of that day gave him up as a chronic dyspeptic, with only a short time to live.

Result of this change—a hearty, healthy, useful life, an enormous practice, and a demand for his pills greater than for all others combined wherever known. For sale at all druggists'. Send for a free sample. White wrapper if constipated, yellow if bowels are loose.

Barney H. Seidler,	Charles H. Brunker,
James Nichols,	William S. Horney,
William T. Simpson,	Joseph O. Kemp,
John R. Wrightson,	James H. Caulk.
William B. Ewing,

After the oath was administered to each of the members of the jury, Judge Stump delivered the charge to them, in which he called attention to the Acts of Assembly relating to defaulters in which he said that any officer State or county, who collected money and failed to pay same over made themselves liable to indictment.

He also called attention to the law relating to abortion, of which the State's Attorney, if necessary, would acquaint them. The duty of the jury in regard to granting licenses for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors in Chapel district of this county was referred to, in which he said it it devolved upon them to say who were competent and capable to dispense such. The jury then retired to their room.

The following compose the

Jas D. Haddaway,

The appeal docket was taken up and a jury empaneled in the case of Percy Marville vs. S. R. Harrison; appeal from Justice C. T. Stevens; action for damages for the killing of a dog. Harrison and Marville are neighbors and Harrison, it appears, had a valuable sheperd dog which Marville found trespassing on his premises and killed. Harrison brought suit before Justice Stevens, who awarded him $50. Marville took an appeal. At the adjournment of court on Monday the case was not concluded. Martin for Marville; Clayland Mullikin for Harrison.

On Tuesday the case of Marville vs. Harrison was concluded with a verdict for appelle for $1.00 and damages.

Richard J. Mason vs. State, appeal from Justice Gibson; Stewart for State; Covington for appellant; trial before court; verdict not guilty.

Easton National Bank, use of alexis A. Pascault, vs. Samuel T. Love, William B. Dulin and Charles R. Wooters, appeal from Justice N. E. Nicols; J. Dawson for appellant; Martin for appellee: trial before court; held sub curia.

William A. Dennis vs. State, appeal from Justice Sparks; trial before court; bail forfeited.

Henry Dennis vs. State. appeal from Justice Sparks; trial before court; bail forfeited.

Josiah Brooks vs. State and William F. Brooks, appeal from Justice Sparks; trial before court; fined $20 and costs and committed until paid.

Charles Locke vs. State, appeal from Justice Sparks: trial before court; verdict not guilty.

John Leverton vs. State, appeal from Justice Sparks; bail forfeited.

State vs. William J. Johnson, throwing stick through car window. Turner and Covington for defense; trial before jury; verdict guilty, sentence deferred. This is the case referred to in a recent issue. Johnson was arrested for throwing sticks through a car window for the D. & C. R. R. near Easton, and was caught outside the State line and brought to Easton by Constable Lockerman. The company have been annoyed often in this manner and hence the arrest and trial.

State vs. Edward Jones, resisting an officer. Sheriff returned writ non est and case continued.

State vs. Lewis Dixon, larceny of horse and carriage from Willis T. Trice. Sheriff returned writ non est and case continued.

State vs. Chester C. Stilwell, larceny of goods from Michael B. Nichols, valued at $51.90. Prisoner arraigned; plea not guilty; tried before the Court. Eighteen jurymen called, six challenged by prisoner, twelve sworn. Verdict guilty with recommendation to mercy. Stewart for State, Martin for defence.

Talbot is to again, for the second time this year, have its attention drawn to a murder trial, and as in the first instance, a colored murder. The grand jury has presented George Curtis, colored, for the murder of Frederick Bell. The particulars in the case, as reported in a recent issue are that the shooting was occasioned by a quarrel over Curtis's wife. Curtis claims that he shot in self defense. The case will come up Monday. Gibson and Carrington are counsel for the prisoner.

HOW TO PREVENT CROUP.

Some Reading That Will Prove Interesting To Young Mothers. How To Guard Against The Disease.

Croup is a terror to young mothers and to post them concerning the case, first symptoms and treatment is the object of this item. The origin of croup is a common cold. Children who are subject to it take cold very easily and croup is almost sure to follow. The first symptom is hoarsness; this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given at this stage the attack will prevent it. There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Harry Roberts, Easton; A. D. Harrison, St. Michaels; J. F. Sisk, Cordova.

Gorton's Minstrels.

Enlarged and extended in all its branches from season to season, Gorton's performance now, in its entirety, undoubtedly approaches nearer to the genuine minstrel entertainment than any other company now traveling. It has aptly been termed "The idea assemblage all that is true, original and refined in minstrelsy up to date." Among the very many concessions made to modern innovation must be prominently mentioned the stage setting for the first part. As the curtain rises the stage is discovered set completely and elaborately with massive draped curtains of creme, satin and plush add to this the entire company in full evening dress together with the contrast of the gold band instruments against the silken curtains and you have the picture. An evening of refined fun in genuine minstrelsy follows. They appear in Easton tonight. Reserve seats 50c. at Hayward's drug store.

The New Game Law.

Here is the way an exchange understands the new game law. Book agents may be killed from August 1st, spring poets from March to July; scandal mongers from January 1st to December 31st inclusive; umbrella fun in genuine minstrelsy follows. They appear in Easton tonight. Reserve seats 50c. at Hayward's drug store.

AT EASTON MUSIC HALL.

Eastonians Need Not Grow Despondent For A Lack Of Amusement This Fall.

The season for theatricals is now at hand, and to the amusement loving population of our town and county The GAZETTE announces a very interesting season this fall.

Gorton's Minstrels will open the season tonight in Music Hall. This show needs no commendation from us, its annual performances here testifying to the worth of the company. Read the local notices in another column.

Next week the Langdon Dramatic Company will appear at Music Hall during the entire week, giving a performance each evening, and also two matinees, a change of program each time. This company comes to Easton highly recommended, as the following from the Centreville Observer of Nov. 16th, testifies.

Saturday night last the Langdon Dramatic Company played its concluding performance of the week in the town hall. It was the dramatization of Irvings. "Rip Van Winkle." To pronounce it a great success would be but bestowing well-merited praise, for it was indeed splendidly rendered. It was the crowning effort of the week's entertainments. This company certainly deserves to prosper. It is composed of ladies and gentlemen of marked histrionic talent. Each one of their performances was presented to our people in a manner which would have done credit to any theatre. Their repertoir consists of a variety of comedies and melodramas each one of which afforded the large audiences of this town with no end of amusement and enjoyment. Our people were certainly delighted, and have been unstinted in their sincere applause. Wherever they may go we recommend them to everyone as well worthy the patronage of those whom they may visit. Everything is of the most refined order, and the most elite of any community will be entertained by the company.

Over a hundred children and young people take part in the rendition of the fairy operetta "Geraldine" at the Easton Opera House, Wednesday evening, Dec. 4. The Geraldine will be Miss Marion Avery and Queen Lady Bird Miss Annabel Bail. Miss Edith May Thompson, owing to other arrangements is precluded from taking part. The caste comprises the cream of our home talent, and the operetta is spoken of as being very attractive

The Noss Family will be in Easton some time during the next month, it is reported.

THE REPORT IS UNTRUE.

Senator Gibson Denies The Rumor of His Acceptance of a Flattering Railroad Position.

Senator Gibson returned from Washington on Wednesday, and when approached by a reporter of the GAZETTE he denied the rumor that he had accepted a position with a large steamship company as counsel, or that he had accepted a similar position with a northern railroad.

"No such offer has been tendered me," said the Senator, "I intend to be a fixture right here in Easton, and shall devote my time to my law practice."

The report of the Senator accepting a position with a steamship company was doubtless originated from the fact that Doctor George Glavis, a distinguished lawyer and the agent and counsel for several large steamship companies, was the guest of the Senator at Ratcliffe Manor last Sunday.

The Senator is now the chairman of the Senate committee on Naval Affairs.

'Cave-in" on South Street.

The old well on South street opposite Col. Hughlett's residence suddenly caved in Thursday morning, carrying part of the side-walk and almost half the width of the road with it. The well is one of the large ones sunk years ago for use of the fire engine and when the water works were established they were all covered up. These wells have caved in before in different parts of the town, and some years ago the well on the corner of Dover and Aurora street caved in carrying a young man, Harry Fitzjarrell, with it. Fortunately no one was near the well on South street, Thursday at the time it caved. The Town Commissioners promptly set a number of men to work on the place, and have taken measures whereby the same trouble shall not again occur in town.

Cause Early to Avoid The Rush.

A newspaper man, at any season of the year, is put to his wit's ends to scrape together enough ready cash to meet the demands of his business, and gradually the demands grow larger and larger, until at last he sits in his sanctum and tears his hair and wonders if some of his patrons really have any conscience, or if they will ever come around and drop that $1, $2, $5, or $10 bill into the hand where it properly belongs. With us such is not the case; every one of our patrons are eager to pay; they want to stand on a solid footing; they know we are a millionaire (all editors are), and being such our daily income is—well—enormous. If you want to pay your bill come early and avoid the rush.

George Councell Released.

George Councell, who was held as a witness in the murder case of Captain and Mrs Frederick Lang of Gardenville, Baltimore county, and form erly of St. Michaels, this county, has been released on $300 security for his appearance at court. His brother Jerome who was arrested on suspicion of committing the murder is still held in custody. As stated in a recent issue of this paper Jerome Councell lived in Easton in the house adjoining the Masonic Temple which was torn down some months ago. He and his family are well remembered by citizens of Easton.

Will Change Its Quarters.

The Avon Cycle Club of Easton will probably change its quarters from the present rooms on Market Space to th suit of rooms over J. R. Shannahan's store. The club is now organizing an orchestra among its members, and a literary committee has been appointed and lectures and debates together with music will form the amusement for the club members during the coming winter.

Col. J... Mullikin.

An Interesting Sketch Of A Distinguished Citizen.

BRIGHT POLITICAL CAREER.

Won Honors For Bravery And Efficiency During The Late War.—The Senatorship.

The Baltimore Sunday Herald published the following interesting sketch of Colone James C. Mullikin, in connection with his candidacy for the seat to be made vacant by Hon. Charles H. Gibson in the United States Senate:

"Colonel James Clayland Mullikin was born in Trappe, Talbot county, May 27th, 1841, and soon after his parents moved to Baltimore, where he was raised and educated. He was graduated from the Baltimore City College in the class of '58. He taught school in Baltimore for some years, and then moved back to his native county, where he continued to teach until the breaking out of the war.

"He recruited the only company raised in Talbot county for the Federal army at the special request of Governor Hicks. The company went into commission in September, 1861, and Colonel Mullikin was commissioned second lieutenant, he preferring to have older men in command. He served with this company as second and first lieutenants until May, 1863, when he was assigned as aide-de-camp on the staff of General Lockwood. He served on this staff in different capacities until his promotion to the rank of lieutenant colonel, commanding the First and Second Volunteer Eastern Shore Regiments. This battalion was afterward merged into the Eleventh Maryland. While under General Lockwood, he took part in the battles of Gettysburg, Cold Harbor, Bethesda Church, and others.

"After the close of the war Colonel Mullikin returned to Talbot county, and again engaged in teaching. He subsequently studied law under General Joseph B. Seth, and in 1880 moved to Easton and entered upon the practice of his profession, and has since had a large practice, and stands among our best lawyers in the county.

"Politically, Colonel Mullikin has always been a Republican. Immediately after the war the Colonel and some few other young men determined to organize the Republican party in Talbot. This was no easy thing to do. The politicians were, almost to man, with the opposite party. Every effort was made to heap odium upon those who had espoused the Union cause during the war.—Some five or six in each district were found who were willing to become actively and openly engaged with the then hated Republican party.

"Colonel Mullikin was the prime worker and leading spirit in this movement. Since that time he has labored unceasingly, hopefully, cheerfully, and unselfishly for the upbuilding and strengthening of the party. He has never sulked and left work for others to do that he could and ought to perform. He has never sought a nomination for any office, nor even asked to be sent as a delegate to any convention. Every nomination that has come to him has been unanimously. The same spirit that led him to offer the captaincy of the company he had raised to others has led him to work faithfully and persistently for the advancement and preferment of others to places of honor and trust in the party. He has, however, responded to the call, when there appeared a general wish for him to serve as a candidate.

"In 1879 Colonel Mullikin was unanimously nominated for Clerk of the Circuit Court for Talbot County. In 1880 he was unanimously chosen elector-at-large by an anti-Blaine convention, which selected no other Blaine man for any position. In 1882 he was unanimously nominated for Congress, though he earnestly besought the convention to name some other man. In 1883 he was unanimously nominated for Comptroller. In 1884 he was a delegate to the national convention, and the same year was chosen chairman of the State committee, which position he held until he resigned in 1887.

"Colonel Mullikin was married in 1865, and has but one child living, who has just been elected State's Attorney for Talbot county, over Maj. W. E. Stewart, who was conceded the hardest man on the Democratic ticket to beat. The Colonel's family is one of the oldest in Talbot county. He owns the farm that was taken up by his ancestor by patent under Lord Baltimore in 1662, and which has been in his family ever since.

"In all the heat and bitterness which characterized politics in the '60s and '70s, he has been on terms of intimate friendship with the leading Democrats in the county. He has never been known to do anything dishonorable or dishonest. One of the characteristics of the colonel which his friends admire most is his ability to keep cool. He was never known to lose his temper, even in most trying situations.

"In appearance the colonel is tall and erect, with the bearing of a man of character and importance, though far from appearing conscious of the same. He seldom frowns, which makes his face a pleasant one to look into. In manner he is as gentle as men generally become, and always has time to attend to the little demands made upon him by people whose business is of minor or trivial importance. This makes him sought after possibly more than any other lawyer or business man in Easton. He is distinctly the friend of every class, and no one in his presence feels otherwise than in just the place the colonel would prefer to have him. He has a wonderful memory for detail, and with smoothness of speech and no lack of words there are few that can equal him when placed before the public in an off-hand speech.

"Colonel Mullikin is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a class leader and a Sunday-school superintendent. His accomplishments and personal attributes make him one of the most charming companions and trustworthy friends."

The wife of Mr. Leonard Wells, of Eas Brimfield, Mass., had been suffering from neuralgia for two days, not being able to sleep or hardly keep still, when Mr Holden, the merchant there sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and asked that she give it a thorough trial. On meeting Mr. Wells the next day he was told that she was all right, the pain had left her within two hours, and that the bottle of Pain Balm was worth $5.00 if it could not be had for less. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by Harry Roberts, Easton; A. D. Harrison, St. Michaels; J. F. Sisk, Cordova.

County Commissioners Meeting.

The County Commissioners met on Tuesday, at which the entire board was present. There was but little to come before them.

Receipts were: W. T. H. Lee, collector 1894, $530; Joseph B. Wrightson, collector 1894, $200; Total, $730.

Disbursements, including court expenses were $667.25.

In the published annual statement the item, "Joseph S. Callahan, 7200 bushels shells, $148 11," is a misprint. It should read, "Joseph S. Callahan, hauling 3600 bushels shells, $60.11; George B. Callahan, 3600 do.; $87; total, $148.11."

Accidental Shooting.

J. Hall White Accidentally Shot His Mother.

AND SHE DIED INSTANTLY.

Occured At Their Home In Landing Neck While Trying To Unload a Pistol.—Particulars.

The distressing news was received here Thursday morning that a young man, J. Hall White, accidentally shot and instantly killed his mother, Mrs. Helen White, shortly after eight o'clock that morning, at their home in Landing Neck.

The shooting was purely accidental and was reported to THE GAZETTE in this way: The young man had a revolver which he was going to take to his shop to fix, and on taking it from a drawer to unload it the pistol was discharged.

Mrs. White was on the other side of the room, and the bullet struck her in the right side. She never uttered a word, but fell dead into the arms of her agonized son, who had rushed to his mother's side. Crazed with grief he laid her gently upon the floor.

Several persons driving along the road, near which the house stood, attracted by the report of the pistol and the young man's cries, hastily drove up to the door.

It was a heartrending sight that met their gaze. The unfortunate woman lying on the floor, with her son overcome with grief, wailing in anguish over his mother's dead body. The unfortunate affair has prostrated the young man with grief.

The family are among the well known and highly respected of Trappe District, and the accident has cast a deep gloom over the entire community. Mrs. White was much loved by a wide circle of friends, and the keenest sympathy is felt for the bereaved family and son.

Hall is the youngest son, and in his misfortune has many sincere friends who grieve with him. Mr. White, his father, was instantly killed two years ago by a boiler explosion.

Stole A Team.

On Tuesday morning a colored man, name uuknown, stole a team from in front of W. T. Williams' store on Washington street and drove off with it. The owner of the team, George Reams came up shortly after the negro had made off and was told that the man had taken it. He hunted up Constable Stoops and together they followed him almost to Wye Mills, and had almost caught up with him when the man abandoned the carriage into a tree and smashed the wheels after which he made for the woods. All efforts to find him that day were in vain, but the officers have continued the search since. This thing has occurred several times here of late throughout the county.

LATER.—Since the above was put in type Constable Stoops has located the man. His name is John Simms and he was arrested in Queenstown on a charge of stealing shoes, and was lodged in Centreville jail. He will be brought to Easton.

Blotches And Pimples

indicate inactivity of the skin. They show that the pores are clogged and that poisonous refuse matter has been denied an egress. The accumulation of this matter, under the skin shows in red lumps, blotches and possibly in pimples.

Foster's Common Kemp and Navy Cure

softens the impeding matter, penetrates the pores and draws the poison out. All the time it is soothing the inflammation caused by the congested state, and finally leaves the skin smooth, clear, active and healthy. It is absolutely the best and most efficacious skin medicine in the world. Its action on the skin is perfectly in accord with science, but its curative effect is almost miraculous in its quickness and thoroughness.

It has cured innumerable stubborn cases of pimples, blotches, ring worm, tetter, eczema, dandruff, itch and salt rheum. It will cure the worst kind of itching piles.

50 cents. Druggists.
