BERNARD C. STEINER, LL. B., of the Baltimore Bar has just published an attractive book tracing the history of Citizenship and Suffrage in Maryland. It comments on all the laws bearing upon the question, enacted, amended, repealed or allowed to become obselete from the earliest colonial days to the present time. One on reading this excellent work will be forcibly impressed with the causes that regulated citizenship or allegiance, how these causes changed, thereby necessitating new legislation; the suffrage as affected by religion or heredity; the proper import of the ballot and valuable decisions by the courts. The book contains an appendix with important cases and decisions up to the time of the late election. It is without doubt invaluable to every lawyer and intelligent citizen Cushing & Co., Balto., $2.00 by mail.

GOLD BALANCE DECREASING.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—Within the current week the gold reserve has dropped to $86,893,595. A further withdrawal of only $12,000,000 will carry the reserve below $75,000,000 and the indications are by no means assuring there will not be a run on the treasury akin to that of last January, and if such a run should occur a further bond issue by Mr. Carlisle would be sure to follow. It is true that the "financial optimists" as well as those who are not of that class, but who stand close to the side of the administration and are permitted to romp with the White House babies maintain and assure the crowds around the hotel reading rooms that as Congress is now in session, no action in regard to the issue of bonds will be taken by Mr. Carlisle. The President and his Cabinet, it is well known of all men who have given the matter intelligent and thoughtful consideration during Mr. Cleveland's administration since he came in power in March, 1893, have signally disclosed a lamentable lacking in executive and administrative capacities, necessary for the successful conduct of National affairs, and in the management of our financial and international interests, the Administration has been, to say the least of it, a wretched and deplorable failure and hence having at last discovered his inability to administer governmental affairs with success along the lines of democratic free trade, Cleveland now proposes to give the Republican Congress an opportunity to deal with the the financial problems which the last democratic Congress so stupidly and ignorantly bungled, thus throwing the responsibility from his own shoulders upon that body for providing the means and protecting the public credit. The President is playing a subtile game and hopes through the exercise of a little democratic "legerdemain" to use Republican Congressmen as the Master of the game of chess, handles the titular dignitaries of the chessboard and thus have no cause to grieve, whether the Republicans are equal to the responsibility thrown upon them or not. Mr. Cleveland however, will find that his game is one in which two can play, and Speaker Reed will hold the winning cards, and hold them too, without artifice or deception, as unfolding event wills fully prove. The administration democrats are "laying the flattering unction to their souls" and with a smirching of the Populists' "ghoulish glee" are chuckling over the fact that upon Mr. Reed will be placed the weight and responsibility of providing means to meet the existing depletion of the National Treasury of its gold reserve, a depletion wholly due to the free trade and gold standard policies of the present democratic administration, and that the "man from Maine" must face the problem on the day the President's message reached Congress, and that if he proves unequal to it the country will again look to a democratic President and Secretary of the Treasury to maintain the public credit. Herein we have a solution of the whole scheme of the Cleveland democracy for retaining power, but if they did but know it, they are casting a sprat to catch a whale,"

The President, in his message to Congress, backed by the insistence of Mr. Carlisle of the adoption of the scheme will recommend the retiring of the greenbacks, and this will create an interesting fight in Congress. A majority of the democrats and all the white metal republicans of both the Houses intend that there shall be no retirement of the greenbacks, and this means that they will fight it early and late, whether with a majority with them or not. If they have a majority the contest will be of short duration, but if in the minority an effort to pass the measure will culminate in a struggle similar to that for the repeal of the Sherman law, and will prolong the session indefinitely, and to this end the most cunning energies and shrewdest machinations of the democracy will be employed, because it is presumed by them that the republicans do not desire to get into such a fight just on the eve of a presidential election, and that so far as the Senate is concerned that body will "dodge the issue" until the second session, and in the meantime, so say the democrats, an issue of bonds is sure to follow; for which crime a republican Congress will be held responsible and the democratic party will swallow the oyster and hand to its discomfitted foe, the empty shells.

NON MULTA, SED MULTUM.

Pean to The Gazette.

Shall others write and I not scrawl a little
now and then?
Wield the "mighty instrument" of both big
and little men.
"Prepare for rhyme—I'll publish right or wrong,"
THE GAZETTE'S eightieth birthday is my theme, but not satire my song.

If you're a "jingler" of words, your work will surely show it,
So many rhymers fall below the higher plane
of poets;
Dwarfed in intellect, we play the mimic,
imitate the elf,
So, pray excuse our little pranks, we're often
"struck upon ourself."

Speed on Pegasus, be not jaded, halt not yet
Till we have neighed in rhythmical measure
in praise of THE GAZETTE.
It's truth and rhyme we seek—hence what care we,
Who constitute themselves judges of our poetry.

Eighty years our county's people faithfully
serving,
Is there a single local paper more deserving?
Is there another so old, and yet so young:
For which more worthy peans might be sung?

Four-score years a laborer in the journalistic field,
Exponent of right on wrong its condemnation ever sealed,
Friend of the oppressed, strengthener of the strong,
Be guardian of the weak, avenger of the
wrong.

Long live Talbot's veteran journal, another
eighty years and more,
Exemplary transmitter of local news on our
Eastern and Western Shore;
If all its editors in the past have not been
salons or sages,
No dust or rust can now be found on its ever brightening pages.

Conservative, progressive, enterprising, and
I wou'd say more than that,
Could I proselyte its editor—make him a Cleveland Democrat.
Who then would fight the senatorial battle
in the interest of the Colonel,
Well we'll leave it Generalissimo, a good republican journal.

A READER.

Think About This.

Here are some very good instructions for killing a newspaper. Just let your subscription go. It's only a dollar or two—the publisher don't need it. If he asks you for it get just as mad as you can and tell him to stop the paper—you never read it, anyhow. Then go and borrow your neighbor's. When the reporter comes for news always be busy. Make him feel as if he were intruding—that your time is worth $100 a minute. When the advertising and job man comes tell him you don't need to advertise—everybody knows you; that you will try and get along without any printed stationery—it's too expensive that business is slack and you must economize. Never drop in to see the editor unless you want a free complimentary notice or a lengthy obituary for a beloved relative. Never recommend the paper to anybody. When you speak of it always say, "Yes we have a little sheet, but it don't amount to much." Keep this up a year or two and you will have a dead newspaper, a dead set of merchants and a dead town.

Causes a Stubborn Running Sore

Inflammation Removed and Wound Healed by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I have been a cripple for 27 years, caused by being thrown from a horse and striking on a large stone. Two years ago I received a blow on my crippled foot by fall of a large piece of timber, which cut through the flesh. It festered and and the inflammation extended to my leg. The treatment not satisfying me, I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Soon the inflammation had gone, the wound healed and I have been benefited in many ways. Hood's Sarsaparilla has purified my blood, built up my system and given me an appetite so that I relish any kind of food. I improved in flesh very rapidly, and feel

The Contagious Holiday Spirit

Pervades the entire store. The phiz of Santa Claus laughs at you, the greens and the holly bloom here and there to tell you that the mid-Winter Christmas is the Spring-time of the heart.

The goods show will increase daily, as will the fun of the happy crowds, and the sales of the happy salespeople until the apex—Christmas Eve. And then the great Holiday having been kept in church and home, will remain a happy memory until the passing of another year will bring another Christmas-tide to enshrine itself in the blessed record of the ages.

WATCHES

A long time and very great care have been expended upon securing the perfection of the Watches described herein. Only long negotiations have sufficed to bring the price to the figures named.

They are Men's Watches, finished in Louis XIV style, with red gold cases. The movements are jeweled and are adjusted to heat and cold. These Watches are very fine and are from one of the best Geneva makers. They are also in the market of slightly different finish under the trade mark of a famous name at VERY MUCH HIGHER PRICES.

A bone fide order for ONE THOUSAND of these Watches enables us to offer them at each. Equal watches have never before been offered at the price, and we are informed that it was the largest single order ever given for watches of equal grade and of a single pattern.

$50

Guaranteed for two years—maker's certificate furnished with each watch.

PHILADELPHIA.

Figures for Farmers.

Doesn't cost much to dress in good shape. Of course you've got to pick the purchasing place when you come to town, same as you do your insurance company. Some are reliable, some are not. You know we are. Here's a table of cost for one rig:

Overcoat	$10.00, $7.50 or $6.50
Sack or Cutaway Suit	$5.00 or 7.50
Derby Hat	1.50
Pair of Shoes	1.98
Half-dozen Collars	.60
Half-dozen pair Cuffs	.90
Two suits Underwear	2.00
Four pairs of Hosiery	.50
One Scarf	.50
Two Shirts	2.00
One pair Gloves	1.00
Total	$24.98

The cheapest tailor would want more than that for the suit and overcoat alone.

Catalogue Free. Send for Catalogue and order by mail. If in town check your parcels at our store—free—glad to accommodate you.
