against them in default thereof: and the said Emily H. Pennington and William C. Pennington by their Attorney aforesaid, say there is no error in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the Decree aforesaid, and they pray that the Court of Appeals here will proceed to the examination as well of the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, as of the matters aforesaid, by the said Robert G. H. Pennington and William C. Pennington above for error assigned, and that the said Decree may be in all things affirmed, and so forth; thereupon further process of of and upon the premises, between the parties aforesaid is, by virtue of an Act of Assembly in such cases made and provided, continued before the Court of Appeals here, until the second Monday in January next; the same day is given to the said parties there, then to hear the Decree of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the said premises, and so forth.

And now at this day, to wit, the said second Monday in January, being the 14th day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid by their attorney aforesaid.

Whereupon as well the Record and Proceedings aforesaid, and the Decree given in form aforesaid, as the matters aforesaid, by the said Robert G. H. Pennington, and others above for error assigned, being seen, and by the Court of Appeals here fully understood, and mature deliberation thereupon had, for that it appears to the Court of Appeals here, that there is no error in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the Decree aforesaid: Therefore it is considered by the Court of Appeals here, that the Decree aforesaid, given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed, and stand in full force and effect, the said causes for error above assigned and alleged in any wise, notwithstanding. And thereupon, on the 27th day of March 1889 the Court of Appeals filed the following Decree to wit:

Robert G. H. Pennington, and others, vs. Emily H. Pennington, and William C. Pennington.	Court of Appeals of Maryland. January Term, 1889.

The Appeal in this case standing ready for hearing was argued by Counsel for the respective parties and the proceedings have since been considered by the Court.

It is thereupon, this twenty-seventh day of March 1889, by the Court of Appeals of Maryland, and by authority thereof, adjudged, ordered, and decreed that the Decree of the Circuit Court of Baltimore City dated the twenty-eighth day of December, 1888, from which this appeal was taken, be, and the same is hereby affirmed with costs.
