estate, of every description, as follows:

A. One sixth part thereof to Henry Fidler, Jr., and Jacob Arnold, and the survivor of them, and the heirs, executors and administrators of such survivor, the trust for the use and benefit of her brother, Henry Fidler, for and during the term of his natural life, and from and after his death, in trust that the said one sixth should descend to and become the estate and property of all the children the said Henry, her brother, then had or might thereafter have, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, as tenants in common, to be equally divided between them, share and share alike.

B. One other sixth part thereof she gave and devised to the children of her deceased brother, John Fidler, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, as tenants-in-common, to be equally divided among them, share and share alike, as tenants-in-common.

C. One other sixth part thereof she gave and devised to her sister, Elizabeth Klopp, her heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.

D. One other sixth part thereof she gave and devised to the children of her deceased sister, Mattelein Reed, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, as tenants-in-common, to be equally divided between them, share and share alike.

E. One other sixth part thereof she gave and devised to her brother, Jacob Fidler, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns; and.

F. The remaining one sixth part thereof she gave and devised to her nephew, George Brendel, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.

5th. 1. That it is unknown to your orators whether the said

Henry Fidler, Jr., and Jacob Arnold, trustees, to whom one-sixth was devised and bequeathed as aforesaid, are living or dead or whether the said Henry Fidler, Sr., is living or dead, and if dead, whether he left surviving him any children; and if so, whether or not the said children of Henry Fidler, Sr., are living or dead; and if dead, have left any heirs.

2. That the children of John Fidler and the representatives of deceased children, to whom one other sixth was devised and bequeathed as aforesaid, were as follows:

John Fidler.

Daniel Fidler.

Samuel Fidler;

Susannah, who intermarried with Jacob Foust;

Mary, who intermarried with Benjamin Berger, and died before the death of the said testatrix, leaving issue as follows:

a. Nelson Berger.

b. Franklin Berger.

c. Elizabeth, who intermarried with Benjamin Snyder, and left issue as follows:

a. Sarah Snyder.

b. Joseph Snyder.

c. Abraham Snyder.

d. Elizabeth Snyder.

e. Benneville Snyder;

Catharine, who intermarried with John K. Fertig, and left issue, to wit:

a. Hannah Fertig.

b. Joseph Fertig.

c. Abigail Fertig.

d. Lizetta Fertig.

It is, however, unknown to your orators whether any or all