—Buy Miller's harness.

—Printing of all kinds neatly and promptly done.

—Peach plucks are taking a vacation until next season.

—The new route to Baltimore will begin begin on Monday.

—The laborer is worthy of his hire, the student of his lore.

—Smyrna has suffered with dead birds at the bottom of the stand pipe.

—The deed of an incendiary is correctly referred to as a "burning shame."

—A poet sings: "A little on I shall find rest." Keep him movi g.—Puck.

—A shoemaker advertised 'medicinal boots,' the virtue was in the heel.—Exchange.

—It is surprising the amount of trouble a man will endure before it reaches him.

—Practical harness maker and the place to get honest goods for the honest dollar—Miller.

—Handsome is as handsome does. A five cent fan will give as good a breeze as all gold and feathers.

—Men would be very wise if they could only learn as much as their boys think they could learn them.

—By a recent appliance to kitchen ranges the refuse from the kitchen is thoroughly dried, converted into charcoal and used as fuel.

—A recent invention used in factories enables any person in any part of the factory to stop the main engine by simply pushing an electric button.

—Green paper wanted at this office, the kind issued by the Government preferred, and that containing X's or Y's in the corner cheerfully receipted for.

—"I feel now quite satisfied that there is no life so happy as a married one." "And how long have you been married?" Since last Wednesday."—The Fairy.

—Honest Confession—"No, I cannot be your wife. Try some other girl" "I've tried 'em all and none of 'em would have me. That's why I came to you."

—Professor (looking at his watch.),, As we have a few minutes, I shall be glad to answer any question any may wish to ask." Student—What time is it, please?"

—It always bothers a Frenchman who is learning English, to read one day that a murder has been committed and the next that the murderer has been committed.—Ex.

—Showman—"Look here. Your bill says: 'Forty-nine days' board for camel!" You've only had him seven days." Keeper—"That's all right; that camel has seven stomachs.—See?"

—"It's but a step from the sublime to the ridiculous." "How so?". "Heres a man offers $1000 for a bird dog. That's sublime. Here's the owner who won't take it. That's ridiculous.

—"I say, Jenkins, can you tell a young tender chicken from an old tough one?" "Of course I can." "Well how?" "By the teeth." "Chickens have no teeth." "No, but I have" —Puck.

—An Implied Refusal.—Harry—"Did she positively refuse you?" Jack (dejectedly)—"Not exactly. When I asked her if she ever thought of marrying, she said she had never yet had a man to ask her about it."

—School children advertise their learning by lugging home huge piles of books. The desire to advertise starts early and often gives out because there are few at the top of the ladder. The persistant advertiser generally is seen perched high up.

—Mrs. Mary White Martinot, the mother of the actress Sadie Martinot, has patented in seven foreign countries a steam washing machine, a foot bath, an ice cream freezer, and a clothes dryer, and she makes her models with her own hands. She has taken a dozen first prizes and her inventions altogether have proved a great success.

—Imitation gold is a new compound which was recently discovered and which puzzles the best jewlers to detect. Experts tell us that its weight is that of gold and the acid tests are the same, except that the acid boils a trifle when applied to it, although when it is wiped off no spot is left. It is cheap and is easily worked. It's chief factor is aluminum composit, from 5 to 8 per cent.

—The assertion made by workers in ornamental wood that yellow pine, hard finished in oils, is the rival in beauty of appearance of any wood that grows, not excepting the costliest of the well known hard species, it being susceptible of receiving and maintaining as high a degree of polish as any known wood, while, when impregnated with oil, it is well nigh indestructible.

A Grand Opening of Fashionable Fall Millinery, Laces, Notions and Trimmings will take place at Annie E. Rathell & Co.'s, Limited, to-day. All persons are invited.

Personal.—Mr. Thomas A. Councell in attendance with Dr. J. B. Merritt, of Easton went to Baltimore last Wednesday for the purpose of matriculating at the College of Physicians and Surgeons. He will take the full three years' medical course.

Miss Florence A. Dixon, daughter of Robt. B. Dixon, was attacked last Saturday, and severely bitten on the head by a large dog which had for years been on the place Miss Dixon bas been right critical since, but is now considered out of danger.

Miss Annie Barrett, daughter of Editor and Post Master Barrett of Cambridge, is visiting Mr. Richard Roberts, Easton.

Mr. W. Q. Price of Oxford has left and his whereabouts are unknown to his friends.

Mrs. Stone and her daughter, Miss Mary, have gone to New York city, where they expect to reside permenently. They leave many friends in Easton and vicinity.

Mrs. T. M. Arringdale is visiting friends in Dorche-ter county.

Dinner and Supper.—The ladies of SS. Peter and Paul's will give a supper on Friday and Saturday evenings, Oct. 16th and 17th and will also give a dinner on Saturday Oct. 17th. This will give everybody who attends the mass meetings an opportunity to get a first class dinner. Price of dinner will be 40 cts. Supper both evenings 25 cts. In addition to the dinner and Supper there will be another attraction. A handsome gold headed cane will be voted to the most popular candidate in the November election. Everybody will have an opportunity to vote for his friend. Price of vote will be 10 cts each.

Do not fail to vi-it the Millinery Opening of P. J. Thompson & Sister, Oct. 3d and 6th, Saturday and Tuesday.

W. C. T. U. Convention.—A Convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held at the M. E. Church in Easton on Tuesday, October 6th, commencing at 10:30 o'clock A. M., and also in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, and in the evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Lucy Washington, National organizer, and distinguished speaker as well as state officers are expected. The Convention should have been held sooner, but we have been waiting to secure a speaker, which proved very hard to do, owing to the demand there is for them. We feel we have been rewarded in this effort in securing Mrs. Washington and ask for be. a full attendance. Such occasions are rare in our midst, and we feel that all who avail themselves of this opportunity will not regret it.

SUPT. PRESS WORK.

Church Notes.—M. E. Church.—The services of the M. E. Church will be of special character tomorrow. A meeting for christian testimony will be held at 10 A. M., to be followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at 11 A. M. The program for the Sunday School in the afternoon will be interesting and instructive Addresses will be made by R. S. Fountain, Col. J. C. Mullikin, Maj. W. E. Stewart and Walter H. Thompson, interspersed with singing by the school. In the evening the pastor will discuss an appropriate theme to c'ose the exercises of the day.

TRINITY M. E. CHURCH SOUTH.—Rev. J. H. Wells of Queen Anne's circuit, preached two very interesting sermons on Sunday last to our congregation, while the pastor was absent re-opening the M. E. Church, South at Sudlersville. The topics of the Wednesday evening service commences next Wednesday night with "Autumn Leaves." Prof. R. T. Savage will lead the meeting. All invited.

The pastor will preach on next Sunday morning on "One of the Great Events of the Age," and at night on "The Secret of Successful Fishing."

Wanted.—Man and boy to work farm near St. Michaels for year 1892, or would rent, stocked and seeded in wheat.
29sept P. O. box 86, St. Michaels.

Wanted.—Everybody in Easton to go to Tuttle's for some fine Candies when they visit Baltimore, where you get a mixture for 25 cts. per pound, not equaled anywhere for 40c. Don't forget our fine stock at Christmas time. Tuttle's white front stores, 322 and 324 West Lexington near Eutah. Don't forget to look for the White Front. 3oc3m

Card of Thanks.—My visit to Easton having come to a close, I take this means to return thanks to the citizens of the town and county for their liberal patronage and their kind hospitality shown me during my stay and hope that we may again have the pleasure of meeting.

And hope those for whom I have done work are well pleased.

To Mr. and Mrs. Lechler, of the Hotel Avon, I wish to show my appreciation of the many kindnesses extended me while a guest at their most excellent house.

Again thanking you, I am

Yours very resp.,

H. B. SMITH, Artist,

Washington, D. C.

Do not forget the days and dates of our Millinery opening, Oct. 3d and 6th. Our styles are prettier than ever.

What is a Pestle Head?—A pestle head is a fellow who does not know a good thing when he sees it. For instance, if a person should read over the new advertisement of Jarrell & Nichols and fail to understand that that firm was still in existence and very, very lively, that person would come close to being a pestle head. Moreover the said dry goods house is doing such a rushing trade in the Carpet department that it is hard work to fill orders. They have a very handsome assortment. The same can be said of the other departments of their immense trade.

Another Week of Pleasure Promised.—The Harry Lindley Dramatic Co. which is so well known in Easton will begin a week's engagement at MusicHall, commencing Saturday. October 31st for the benefit of Star of the East Lodge No. 106. Knights of Pythias. This company is composed of first class actors, and always meet with a warm reception by the people of Easton, and as their next appearance here is for the benefit of a home institution, the citizens of Easton and vicinity should give them a crouded house every night. A change of program every night

Commissioner Cox Married.—The Talbot Times reports an article from a Roanoke, Va., paper relative to the wedding of Mr. Jas. Cox, and says: Mr. James Cox, a well known farmer, and one of the county commissioners of Talbot county, Maryland, and Miss Flora M. Nelms were married at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary E. Nelms near Roanoke on Thursday afternoon, the 24th inst. Rev. B. S. Highley, a former pastor, now editor of the Trappe, Md., Times, officiated. There were about one hundred and fifty relatives and friends of the bride, who was exceedingly popular, present to witness the marriage. The bridal party, including the officiating minister and a number of relatives and friends were entertained at supper at the hotel Ponce de Leon at eight o'clock.

The bride was becomingly attired in a handsome gray traveling suit and held a large bequet of flowers in her hand.

There were one hundred useful and ornamental bridal presents, some of which were quite costly. Mr. and Mrs. Cox were accompanied to the station by a number of friends and left on the midnight train for their home near Royal Oak, Maryland.

Frank G. Wrightson, administrator of T. E. Sinclair, presented account of sales, interest, debts sperate, first and final account of administration, and distribution; all passed.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

County Commissioners met on Tuesday. Bills previously passed amounting to $502.51 were paid.

Receipts were:

John H. Holt, collector, 1891, $805.00

John S. Redmond was authorized to repair Leed's Creek bridge.

A. Chaplain was given permission to use the court room to examine colored applicants for teachers' certificates.

The Board directed the publication of the county statement immediately after the first of October.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 29th.—Receipts were:

T. A. Lloyd,	collector, 1891,	$1,119 00
"	" 1890,	100 25
W. T. H. Lee,	" 1891,	1000.00
S. B. Melson, J. P.,	oyster fines,	50 00
E. J. Stevens, J. P.'s,	oyster fines,	3 00
Total.		$2,272 25

$5,589-89 was paid out, including the interest on the railroad bonds, semi annual, to October 1st, $1,440; interest on school bonds, semi-annual, to October 1st, $315; and school bonds Nos 5 and 6 were taken up; the amount due the Commissioners of Easton, $300, for road tax was also paid. A check for $1,750.43 was drawn and deposited in Bank to the credit of the Talbot county sinking fund, being the balance due that fund from the levy of 1890. The coupons taken from the jail bonds were destroyed by fire in the presence of the Board.

Gratifying to All.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

"There are millions in it" said a druggist when asked about Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.—Price 25 cts.

For some time past I've been a rheumatic. I recently tried Salvation Oil which gave me almost instant relief. I sincerely recommend it as it has entirely cured me.

THE SABBATH.

Holy Sabbath, day of rest,
One in seven God has blest;
We would in thy moments find,
Rest and comfort to our minds.
What would be our lot below,
If no Sabbath we should know?
If mid the temoils of this life,
We had no resting from the strife?

See the man who dares to break
The Sabbath day for business' sake;
Is he happy? Is he well?
Months or years at least will tell.
He may prosper for a while,
And hide his feelings with a smile;
But will be compelled at last,
To own his folly in the past.

Note the men who will not deign
To break the Sabbath day for gain;
Read contentment on his face,
As in God's house he takes his place.
No regrets to him will come,
When life's journey shall be run:
But will the God of Sabbath bless,
To his comfort, peace and rest.

We in our city bright and fair,
The joy of our Sabbath share;
Should do our duty with our might,
To save the Holy-day from blight.
We hope the Sabbath soon will come,
On which no milk-man's bell is rung.
And we no news-boy on our street,
With the Sunday papers meet.

May boats and cars cease to run,
When the Sabbath has begun;
Bearing hundreds to a place,
Where men, God's Holy-day disgrace.
We hope that prohibition as it goes,
Will all the drinking houses close;
We'll cease within our courts to hear
Such tales of woe because of beer.

When we to this position gain,
Peace in our streets will surely reign;
And we will own the loving sway,
Of Him who blessed the Sabbath day.
Then our churches will be full—
Our children in the Sunday school,
And no sad, neglected one,
Shall in our streets on this day run.

E. E. B. Camden, N. J.

Come Early and make your selection for a nice winter hat. Hats are going fast. The styles and trimmings are prettier this season than ever before. Remember our opening Saturday and Tuesday, 3d and 6th of October.

What to Smoke.

Do you smoke? What a joke! Of course I do. If you had such fine cigars you'd smoke too. The kind I use is manufactured not far away, By Martin & Co., at McSherrystown, P—a. We make the best; try "Flor do Colombo," you'll see,
Or our "First Prize," which bears the name of "Henry Lee."
Our "Bon Tons" are tony; to make their minds steady
They take the "White Veil" or try "Rough and Ready."
Or should you chance a good old pipe to choose,
You'll find "Junalusha" the best tobacco to use;
Or our choice Southern friend, our "Virginia Rose,"
With "Billy Buck," has a pleasant odor for your nose.
Yet in cigars "Our Hustler" takes a "Cuban Puff,"
And 'Our Imperials' think that good enough.
"Our Special" is a "Dandy Dot," and "The Easton Star"—
Well, just try them, and you'll see what they are.
The "Twins," our "Jolly Boys," in an orderly manner,
Have hung a "Black Bass" on the "Royal Banner."
The "J. M. W." is just what you need,
The "People's Choice" is always a fragrant weed;
Also the "Longfellows;" not quite six-footers,
You'll want them. For sale by J. M. WOOTERS, je20 of MARTIN & Co.

For Over Fifty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething. If disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures Diarrhœa, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup."

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles!

SYMPTOMS—Moisture; intense itchin and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cts. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

St. Michaels Items.—From our regular correspondent.—There will be a Prohibition meeting held at this place October 13th or 14th. Prominent speakers will tell the people who to vote for in November.

Mrs. Caulk has opened a school for children, on East Chestnut St.

Daniel Cox has contracted with Jas. Valliant Esq., to build for him a large canoe, to be built the coming winter.

Good Democrats of this section and lower down are asking this question: "Why was E. O. Hambleton left off the Democratic ticket for sheriff?" A good man and a popular one and would have polled a big vote and if elected, would have gone to Easton and been sheriff in its full sense.

Josiah Fairbank who has been very sick the past ten weeks, is now slowly improving.

Rev. Alvan Willey was in town lately. He has been transferred to the New York conference and has an appointment in Syracuse.

Henry Hambleton is now found at the Comet office.

Thos. J. Wells, for many years a resident os this place, and who was here a short time ago for medical treatment, he being afflicted with a cancer in the mouth. He received no benefit here and went to John's Hopkins hospital, where he died while an operation was being performed on him. His remains were brought here Sept. 24th.

Rev. Oliver H. Murphy preached at Christ church last Tuesday evening. He had a large audience, many of them being his friends dating from boyhood days, he being a native of this place. There is is one thing St. Michaels is noted for, turning out in the world good preachers, and many of them.

First Tuesday in November there will be a political game of ball. From what I can learn, Billie has persuaded Johnnie to do his running. Billie says that he is too big to run much, but he is the devil at the bat, and as Johnnie at one time belonged to the other club he thinks Johnnie stands a good chance of making a home run. This is all very good but the other club has a man that makes his own way, in fact he is a way man, and will do his own batting, his own running and in all probability will put Johnnie out on first base.

We have a fire engine, buckets and ladders and everything necessary for putting out a fire; but a few weeks ago we had a fire, something was out of order and the engine was of no use and I do not know whose fault it was, but here's to our fire laddies and the engine. May the engine and everything to it be like an old maid, always ready but never wanted.

Every one that you may hear talking of the ticket made last Tuesday in Easton, speck well of it. Good men, good ticket, a winning ticket.

Oystermen are faring rather badly. Warm weather and no market, and prices when they do sell, are not near as good as at this time last year.

Horace M. Turner has sold his lot on front street adjoining Sewell & Co. coal yard, price three hundred and thirty five dollars.

John Barnes Esq. has rented Long Hall farm for 1892.

Jno. Neil and wife spent part of last week in St. Michaels, guests of Jas. Harrison Jr.

Mr. Caldwell and Mr. Jake Gibson of Bay Hundred had a few unpleasant words last week which ended in Mr. C. striking Mr. Gibson with a rake, who thought this was rather rough treatment from a neighbor. He had no rake, but he had a pistol and with that he tried to kill the man who had struck him with that garden implement. First the missed striking the target but the other two hit him in the same place. Tried before Justice Sparks and the case held for court.

A. H. and E. S. Hambleton have commenced to build H. M. Turner's new house on Dodson St.

C. H. Spencer is putting in a handsome front in Miss Stella Smithman's millinery and notion store on Front St.

We promise to show you the finest assortment of Trimmed Hats ever exhibited in Easton at our opening, Saturday and Tuesday, Oct. 3d and 6th.

P. J. THOMPSON & SISTER.

Desirable for Ladies.—The new Fashion Journals published by A. McDowell & Co., 4 West 14th St., New York, are again on our table. The superiority of these Journals is abundantly shown on every page—"La Mode de Paris" is the smallest of the three, and is intended for family use. It has many styles for children, and is only $1.50 per year, or 15 cents per copy. "La Mode de Paris" is an elegant journal, filled with everything of the latest style in Paris. This is a great favorite with ladies who wish to keep posted in the new styles as they come out 'Album des Modes' is also a popular Parisian publication, many ladies giving it the preference. It is replete with such styles as are patronized by the middle classes, its designs being neat and plain, yet all of the richest characters. These three monthly journals claim to give the earliest fashions, and are all printed in Paris. They contain lessons in practical dressmaking, which are of incomparable value and easy to understand "La Mode de Paris" and "Album des Modes" are each $3.50 per annum, or 35 cents for a single copy. Samples can be obtained from the house at single copy prices if there is any difficulty in obtaining them from newsdealers.

A Real Balsam is Kemp's Balsam.

The dictionary says: "A balsam is a thick, pure, aromatic substance flowing from trees." Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs is the only cough medicine that is a real balsam. Many thin, watery cough medicines are called balsams, but such are not. Look through a bottle of Kemp's Balsam and notice what a pure, thick preparation it is. If you cough use Kemp's Balsam. At all druggists'. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

NOTICE.

All persons opposed to high license and in favor of the prohibition of the liquor traffic, are earnestly requested to meet at Easton on Saturday, Sept. 26, for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend a convention to be held in Easton the following Saturday, Oct. 3d, to nominate candidates for the State and County Prohibition Ticket. The convention will be held over J. T. Rathell's shoe store at 1½ o'clock. I hope that the Temperance people in every district in the county will turn out in force at this meeting, and that you may send delegates to the convention of your choice.

JOHN W. JUMP, Chairman.

TAKE NOTICE.

The Prohibition party of Talbot county will hold a mass meeting in the Court House at Easton, on Tuesday, the 13th of October, commencing at 2 o'clock in the afternoon; also at 7½ o'clock in the evening of the same day. In the evening of October 14th there will be a meeting in the town Hall at St. Michaels, beginning at 7½ o'clock. There will be able speakers from abroad to address these meetings. All persons interested in Temperance and good government are earnestly requested to come out and hear the truth as it will be presented to you. The time has come for honest men to show their hand. The good of your families, the welfare of your homes, your love for God, and your county demand it. Come out and bring your friends.

JOHN W. JUMP,
Chairman County Cen. Com.

The Ladies' Home Journal.

"Mr. Beecher as I Knew Him" is an attractive title, and under it Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher begins her series of personal reminiscences of her husband in the October Ladies' Home Journal. In a delightfully frank manner she tells of her first meeting with Mr. Beecher and how he looked; their courtship and engagement; how he earned his engagement ring; his first sermon, and early religious belief. The October Journal is absolutely crowded with good things. Major McKinley has his wife sketched for the first time in print, with portraits, in the series of "Unknown Wives of Well known Men;" the domestic tendencies of New Yorks' social leaders are described in 'Society Women as Housekeeping" Henry Clews, the New York banker, tells all about "The Making and Saving of Money"; Maria Parloa starts her new domestic department as does Foster Coates his boys' page; Eila Wheeler Wilcox discusses "Social Slave Markets"; Susan Coolidge, Mrs. A. D. T. Whitney and Kate Tannatt Woods each have a story; To Entertain Evening Parties" is treated fully by six writers, Talmage writes very happily, and altogether the October Journal is the strongest number ever issued of this marvelous periodical which has now reached a circulation of 700,000 copies each month. One dollar a year, or ten cents a single number. Published in Philadelphia by the Curtis Publishing Company.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India Missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by his motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full direction for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. A. NOYES, 820 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y. 25july

DIED.

HAMBLETON.—On Oct. 1st, Mrs. Susan Hambleton, aged seventy nine, widow of the late Philemon Hambleton.

WRIGHT.—Fell asleep in Jesus, Sunday September 27, 1891, Charles Norman, youngest child of John F. and Eleanor Wright, aged sixteen months.

Angels called they, little darling,
Called thee to their sunny home,
And we know thou art waiting
For the dear ones here to come;
Sweetest, fairest, brightest flower,
Darling of our heart's fond love.
Oh, we miss thee every hour,
Since they called thee up above.

Angels called thee, little darling,
Called the in thy early bloom,
Now thy little form is lying
In the cold and silent tomb:
Small white hands are gently folded,
Quiet now thy dainty feet,
Brightest eyes are closed forever,
Gone, the smiles that were so sweet.

Angels called thee, little darling,
From all care and pain away,
To the realm of joy eternal,
To that land of purest day;
We will miss thee, oh so sadly,
No sweet baby boy now to kiss,
But we'll meet our darling baby,
In the home of perfect bliss.

The Wanamaker & Brown

Famously Reliable Clothing.

Fall and Winter Clothing for 1891-2 is manufactured and ready for you—a marvellously big supply. Lower prices than ever. Quality, style, everything about the clothing, better than ever.

The thirty-first Fall season of our business opens brightly. Everybody accepts good times as a certainty. We'll do our share to make them. Our advantages as producers of clothing are peculiar. We don't wholesale our goods. We do what's better. A home market, large enough, and steadily increasing, lets us buy cloth at first hand at the mills, and lets us sell our cloth
