Jarrell & Nichols'

EMPORIUM OF DRY GOODS.

IT IS NOT often we are compelled to reduce prices beyond a resonable profit, but we have done this in one department, namely, in our

DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT

BECAUSE we bought very heavily when we saw that the market was at its lowest point. We have sold largely and have realized quite as much as we had reason to expect. Hence it is natural for us to feel "good" on the result And now to shift the remainder of these superb fabrics to the cash drawer in the shape of cash we have cut down the prices too low for profit. But this is our pleasure. Come immediately if you want bargains, for we have them. Our name stands too high in this community for us to say one thing and mean another, so we mean just what we say when we tell you we have

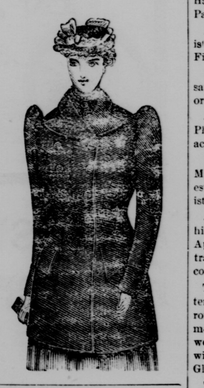

BARGAINS.

IN OTHER departments this is also true. For instance we keep a 50 cent under vest which is the best in the market for the money or we will give it to you.

CARPETS

ARE GOING like the roses of Summer—pretty things they are, household ornaments and comfort combined, but we have some of the prettiest patters of the season just in.

THE READY MADE CLOTHING,

BOOT and shoe departments are simply full to overflowing, and are still calculated to dazzle the most fastidious seeker after goods in those lines.

CUM GOODS

ARE better this season than formerly and we have the latest improvements in the manufacture.

The shoemaker sang, as he hammered away
So merrily on his old lapstone.
"My life is work with but little play.
But I always can call my soul my own."
"Not always," his wife remarked in g'es,
As she gave his witty remark a flout;
"For the iron oft pierces your soul you, see
And what can you do when your soul pegs out?" —Phila. Press.

Death of Charles Emory.—The announcement of the death of young Mr. Emory on Thanksgiving day did not greatly surprise his relatives and friends though sorrow in the extreme was felt by those who knew the deceased. He was a young man of pleasing and cultured address, a native of this county, and for several years a resident of Easton where he made many and lasting friendships. He went to Philadelphia early in the 80's and was doing well until ill health fell upon him, when last May he was compelled to give up his city life and retire to his native county. Hoping to regain his health, he bought the "Barnett farm" in Island Creek Neck, and expected there to make his home. About eight weeks ago he was stricken to his bed at the residence of his brother-in law, Mr. James Bartlett, from which he never rallied. Mr. Emory leaves a charming young wife, formerly Miss Helen Clara Martin, of Talbot, whom he married in April, 1890.

Mark Twain will contribute to the December number of Harper's Magazine a curiously interesting article on "Mental Telegraphy," which will doubtless awake inquiry and provoke no little discussion, especially among people who are at all interested in psychological problems.

Circuit Court for Talbot County.—The grand jury made the following report and were discharged by the court:

To the Honorable Judges of the Circuit Court for Talbot county, Md:

The grand jury for Talbot county, November term, 1891 respectfully report to your Honors that they have been in session five days during which time they investigated 38 cases of various grades of crimes. In the course of investigations they have examined 81 witnesses and made 24 presentments.

They have visited jail and found it in excellent condition and the prisoners well cared for. There were seven prisoners therein, one white and six colored man, of these, four are awaiting trial, two serving out sentences and one awaiting removal to House of Correction.

They have found in the course of their examinations that the public roads are in fair condition and no complaint in relation to their management has come to their knowledge.

Much of the time of the Grand Jury has been consumed in pretty cases, coming to this body for magistrates, under the act of 1890.

The Grand Jury desires to return thanks to your Honors, as well as to the State's Attorney, for the courtesies received, and would say that the clerk and other officers of the Court have been prompt in discharge of their duties to this jury.

Licenses to sell liquor were granted to the following gentlemen: Alexander Gadd, J. M. Beaven, J. A Morgan, T. T. Martin, Henry M. Zeigler, Jos. H. Ross, Spencer W. Calloway, Wm A Walls, John G. Elliott, John W. Anthony and William H. Warner.

Their labors being now concluded, the Grand Jury for the November term, 1891, respectfully ask to be discharged.

Respectfully Submitted,
F. G. Wrightson, Foreman.

In the case of Parrott vs. Chaplain, the jury disagreed and was discharged.

The Court extended the time of W. T. H. Lee tax collector for 1890 one year.

F. Eugenia Smith, by her next friend, Sidney W. Smith vs. Jerome B. Bennett. Ejectment case against the property in Easton where Mr. Bennet lives, which she claims under the will of her grandfather, Samuel Mackey. Shanahan and Tharp for plaintiff; Gibson & Carrington for defendant. Verdict for defendant.

School Commissioners Re-appointed. The judges of the Circuit Court have re-appointed Henry P. Hopkins, Dr. E. M. Hardcastle and Dr. Jas. Seth school commissioners for the next two years.

Fire at Tunis Mills.—On last Saturday night Earnest Meire's store and stock of goods at Tunis Mills were totally destroyed by fire. A defective flue, it is thought, caused the fire. Mr. Meire resumed business immediately in another house near by. The goods were insured.

Its Excellent Qualities

Commend to the public approval the California fruit remedy Syrup of Figs. It is pleasing to the eye, and to the taste and by general acting on the kidneys liver, and bowels, it cleanses the system effectually, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it,

—On Wednesday night next, at the Hall, the Ford Opera Company of Baltimore will either produce "The Runaway Match" or "The School for Scandal," not decided at the time of this announcement.

—Hall, Library, Parlor, Banquet and Piano Lamps at F. A. Shannahan's.

Alliance Resolutions.—The following resolutions were passed at the regular meeting of the Easton Alliance the 21st inst.

Resolved, That we regret the action of Gov. Jackson in displacing from his position as chief justice of the Orphans' Court, our fellow citizen, Ormond Hammond, believing that for many years he has filled the position with dignity and justice, and that in positions on our judiciary such qualities should ensure continuance in office.

Resolved, That this resolution be published in one of our county papers and a copy of it sent to Gov. Jackson.

The Loyal Temperance Legion of Royal Oak held a very interesting meeting Sunday afternoon, Nov. 22. There was a large attendance and a number of new members were enrolled. The exercises were; singing, reading and concert recitation of pledge and mottos. The next public meeting of the Union will be held Friday evening Dec. 4th.

—A beautiful assortment of Lamps at F. A. Shannahan's. 98w6tdec19

—The December no. of LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE is a special Southern number; all the contributions are from well-known Southern authors. The complete novel is written by T. C. DeLeon, author of "Creole and Puritan," "The Puritan's Daughter," "Four Years in Rebel Capitals," etc., and is a stirring tale of Civil War, entitled "A Fair Blockade-Breaker." It is well-known that some of the most daring blockade breakers during the war were Southern women. Mr. DeLeon makes one of these women, a beautiful, brave, captivating girl, the heroism of his story. The tale is replete with exciting adventures, and has a dash and go about it which insures its success.

Trappe Items.—From our Regular Correspondent.—Mr. Charles B. Emory, who had been ill for several months, died on Thursday morning at the home of Mr. J. T. Bartlett.

Mr. Wm. U. Price, near town, died on Monday morning. Although he had been critically ill so long, yet his death was sudden.

Miss Emma Ozman died on Sunday at her father's residence near Trappe Station. Her sickness was of a painful nature and of long duration. Burial took place in Oxford cemetery on Monday afternoon, services conducted by Rev. W. L. Dolly.

A masquerade ball was given by the young folks of Trappe in the Town Hall, on Thursday night. Many unique and fanciful characters were represented, and the occasion was one of enjoyment and pleasure.

Mr. W. H. Mules and Miss Alice McLane will be married in Baltimore, Franklin St. M. E. Church, on Tuesday, Dec. 1st.

Among the visitors to Baltimore last week are Dr. and Mrs. Greenley, Miss Carrie Newnam, Col. and Mrs. McKnett, Rev. W. R. McFarlane and wife, Mrs. J. T. Clark, Miss Ella Armstrong.

The colored folks gave a supper on Thursday night in the church for the purpose of paying some indebtedness.

Mr. R. M. Farring, assistant in the high school, is spending a few days with his mother near Baltimore.

Thanksgiving exercises were held in St. Paul's P. E. Church on Thursday.

The different Methodist branches held a union meeting in the M. E. Church South, on Thursday. The sermon was preached by Rev. W. R. McFarlane. The sermon was earnestly delivered, having been carefully arranged. It related somewhat to the Jewish devotion, to their country and religion, and to giving of thanks as expressed by the Psalmist. He spoke largely of gratitude and its opposite, ingratitude, Ingratitude is a foul sin, the result of ignorance. The speaker expressed the utmost contempt for the person who says he has nothing for which to be thankful. If anyone in America is not thankful, under present prosperity, a short time of banishment to Russia would make him repent in sackcloth. The Jews were devoted to Jerusalem. The Romans were proud to be called such; St. Paul exclaimed "I appeal to Caesar;" much more exultingly should every person in this country say "I am an American!" He thinks America will sometime "rule the waves." Our civil and religious institutions are the admiration of all nations. In conclusion he spoke of the need of living a thankful Christian life, helping others and being a public witness of God's goodness giving a poem from Anna L. Barbauld, one stanza being the following:

Praise to God, immortal praise
For the love that crowns our days;
Bounteous source of every joy,
Let thy praise our tongues employ.

Bozman Items—From our regular correspondent.—Farmers are killing their hogs.

The weather is very dry throughout this section, and it is rather hard on the wheat, in some fields it has not got up.

Rev. J. W. Collins has just closed a very successful revival meeting at Chathams Chapel, there was about twenty conversions

I see by an editorial in a recent issue that another correspondent has been trying his hand from Bozman.

Mr. J. B. Fairbank, the newly elected sheriff of Talbot county, left on last Wednesday to sojourn in your town for two years.—Mr. F. was a good citizen and his many personal friends are sorry to lose him, but he has our best wishes for success and that the office may prove beneficial.

The Farmer's Alliance has been slow since and before the election, but we think there is a revival at hand

Wild fowl are very scarce in our waters, no geese have been killed yet and a very few ducks, partridges and rabbits seem to be more plentiful.

Oystering is very dull with our people except those who work at Poplar Island. Prices are low and market is very scarce in the creeks. The oystermen report that there is plenty of small oysters on the bars, the cull law has been some benefit if the license law was twisted.

The great election is over and politics has all quieted down and the people have accepted the result and will make the best of it they can for the future.

Hon. Charles H. Gibson's friends were very much elated over his appointment to the U. S. Senate, and hope that he may secure a continuance of the same from the Legislature next winter, as they desire to be represented by a man with brains.

The mercantile trade is not as good in all cases as it has been during previous falls, I suppose owing to the low prices of oysters and farm products.

Needed—rain, coming—winter, gone—some politicians, hopeful—some office seekers, not wanted at Bozman—the national convention next year.

Church Notice.—Rev. Dr. Bascom Ridgeaway will preach at King's Creek church, tomorrow at 11 a.m. Services in the afternoon at 3 o'clock by the Pastor. All converts are expected to be received in the church on probation. Revival service at night conducted by the pastor. All are invite to these services.

What to Smoke.

Do you smoke? What a joke! Of course I do.
If you had such fine cigars you'd smoke too.
The kind I use is manufactured not far away,
By Martin & Co., at McSherrystown, P—a.
We make the best; try "Flor do Colombo," you'll see,
Or our "First Prize," which bears the name of "Henry Lee."
Our "Bon Tons" are tony; to make their minds steady
They take the "White Veil" or try "Rough and Ready."
Or should you chance a good old pipe to choose,
You'll find "Junalusha" the best tobacco to use;
Or our choice Southern friend, our "Virginia Rose,"
With "Billy Buck," has a pleasant odor for your nose.
Yet in cigars "Our Hustler" takes a "Cuban Puff,"
And 'Our Imperials' think that good enough.
"Our Special" is a "Dandy Dot," and "The Easton Star"—
Well, just try them, and you'll see what they are.
The "Twins," our "Jolly Boys," in an orderly manner,
Have hung a "Black Bass" on the "Royal Banner."
The "J. M. W." is just what you need,
The "People's Choice" is always a fragrant weed;
Also the "Longfellows," not quite six-footers,
You'll want them, For sale by J. M. WOOERS, of MARTIN & Co.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS.
All dealers keep it, $1 per bottle. Genuine has trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles!

SYMPTOMS—Moisture; intense itchin and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cts. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

A Real Balsam is Kemp's Balsam.

The dictionary says: "A balsam is a thick, pure, aromatic substance flowing from trees." Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs is the only cough medicine that is a real balsam. Many thin, watery cough medicines are called balsams, but such are not. Look through a bottle of Kemp's Balsam and notice what a pure, thick preparation it is. If you cough use Kemp's Balsam. At all druggists'. Large bottles 60c. and $1.

Do you Cough?

Don't delay. Take Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. It will cure your coughs and colds. It will cure pains in the chest. It will cure influenza and bronchitis and all diseases pertaining to the lungs because it is a pure balsam. Hold it to the light and see how clear and thick it is. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, headaches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Syrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

Harper's Magazine!

ILLUSTRATED.

The Magazine will celebrate the fourth Centenary of the discovery of America by its RE-DISCOVERY through articles giving a more thorough exposition than has hitherto been made of the Recent Unprecedented Development of our Country, and especially in the Great West. Particular attention will also be given to Dramatic Episodes of American History.

The FIELD OF THE NEXT EUROPEAN WAR will be described in a Series of Papers on the Danube "From the Black Forest to the Black Sea," by POULTNEY BIGELOW and F. D. MILLET, Illustrated by Mr. MILLET and ALFRED PARSONS. Articles will also be given on the German, Austrian, and Italian Armies, illustrated by T. DE THULSTRUP.

Mr. W. D. HOWELLS will contribute a new novel, "A World of Chance," characteristically American. Especial prominence will be given to SHORT STORIES, which will be contributed by T. B. ALDRICH, R. H. DAVIS, A. C. DOYLE, Margaret DELAND, Miss Woolson, and other popular writers.

Among the literary features will be PERSONAL REMINISCENCES OF NATHANIAL HAWTHORNE, by his college class-mate and life long friend, Horatio Bridge, and a Personal Memoir of the Drownings, by Anne Thackeray Ritchie.

Harper's Weekly!

ILLUSTRATED.

Harper's Weekly for the coming year will contain more attractive features, more and finer illustrations, and a greater number of articles of live, intense interest than will be in any other periodical. Among these latter will be a series of articles on the twenty-five greatest cities of the world, including five hundred illustrations. The Columbia Exposition, the Army and Navy, great public events, disasters on land and sea, and the doings of the celebrated people of the day will be described in an attractive and timely manner. The department of Amateur Sport will continue under the direction of Casper W. Whitney. The best of modern writers will contribute short stories and the most distinguished artists will make the illustrations. The editorial articles of Mr. George William Curtis will remain as an especial attraction.

Harper's Bazar!

ILLUSTRATED.

Harper's Bazar is a journal for the home. It gives the latest information with regard to the fashions, and its numerous illustrations, Paris designs and pattern sheet supplements are indispensable alike to the home dress maker and the professional modestie. No expense is spared to make its attractiveness of the highest order. Its bright stories, amusing comedies and thoughtful essays satisfy all tastes and its last page is famous as a budget for wit and humor. In its weekly issues every thing is included which is of use to women. The Serials for 1892 will be written by Walter Besant and Wm Black. Mrs. Oliphant will become a contributor. Mary Harland's Timely Talks "Day In and Day Out", are intended for matrons, and Helen Marshal North will specially address girls. T. W. Higginson, in "Women and Men," will please a cultivated audience.
