"O, just look, mother, did you ever see such a handsome array of ladies' cloaks in Easton before.

"Well, if Jarrell & Nichols have not tried themselves this season, they could have done only about one-half and then had plenty of room to brag about their elegant store.

"Carpets and Rugs have just been going, madam, so fast that we can hardly keep stocked up. You see we were fortunate to get the inside track on a very desirable line of this goods and we are keeping it.

Royal Oak Items.—At noon on Monday Dec. 7 the Royal Oak M. E. Church was well filled wite persons assembled to witness the marriage of Miss Elezebeth E. Pastorfield to Mr. G S. Gates.

Five minutes before twelve o'clock the bride and the bridegroom entered the church and took their places before the altar under a large arch from woich was suspended an enormous wish-bone and were united in matromony by Rev. Jere Pastorfield the father of the bride.

Besides very prettily arranged potted plants and mural decorations there were small arches spanning the aisles; the one over the right was surmounted by the word Pastorfield and that over the left was barred by a pair of gates which were kindly opened by Master Jamie Pastorfield and Miss Mary Thompson for the happy pair to make their exit.

Mr. O. H. Fenson of St Michaels presided at the organ.

The friends and relatives of the family repaired immediately to the parsonage where they were bountifully served to a wedding breakfast.

A public reception was held from three to five.

The newly married couple left on Tuesday morning for a trip through New England after which they will go to Welaka Fla., their future home.

Revival services are in progress in the M. E. Chnrch.

Miss Clara E. Benson is in Sheffield Mass. visiting her sister, Mrs. B. C. Warren.

Mr. Jere Pastorfield who has resided in this place for some months has removed to Welaka Florida.

The W. C. T. U. will meet in the M. E. Church South Friday evening Dec. 18th.

W. C. T. U.

Womens' Christian Temperance Union meets every Sabbath afternoon at 3 30 o'clock in its hall (second floor) cornor of Washington and Dover streets; entrance on Dover St. An invitation is extended to all who wish to attend these meetings.

At the commencement of the Election Campaign we were informed that our column would be needed and that we could resume after the election; which we acknowledge we have been slow to do, but hope in future to be on duty.

It has been so long since our last report and so much of interest has been done that we hardly know where to begin; but will first give an account of Mrs. Lucy H. Washington's ten days work in our county, the latter part of October; during which time she organized three new unions and reorganized two, making now eight unions in the county. At each place delivering pleasing and effectual addresses, also in Easton on Saturday afternoon, speaking to the Loyal Leegion, Sabbath afternoon addressing a Union Temperance Meeting held in the M. P. Church and filling the pulpit morning and evening for the Rev. R. H. Adams.

We would be glad to have a report from each union at least once a month. Communications of interest to this column will be thankfully received by Mrs. Mary L. Kelly Supt. of Press Work of Easton Union.

Our Gospel temperance meetings have all been held since our last report, except one, and at times well attened. Business and parlor meetings usually held once a month. The last parlor meeting at Mrs. John Mason's was well attended; the Loyal Legion in which there seeme to be a growing interest, claimed their attention. The Loyal Legion, for the instruction of children in Temperance meets every Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock superintended by Mrs. R. H. Adams, assisted by Mrs, Sue Cox, Misses May Hubbard, Mary Jump and Annie Adams.

The Union Signal is publishing a continued account of the origin and complication of the different headquarters belonging to the Womans Christian Temperance Union, from which we select for insertion that of our state and hope all that have opportunity will not fail to call and see what is being done there. Gospel meetings every day from 12 to 1 o'clock

The Bazar, held in the old Cresent Club Building, cornor of Fayette and Paca Sts. in Balto. from Nov. 22 to 28 for the purpose of lessening the debt on the State Headquarters was the source of much pleasure to visitors and netted about $1,000 for which purpose a box of produce was sent by our Union.

The Maryland W. C. T. U. have state headquarters at Baltimore a description of which is sent us from a Baltimore paper. The interesting report of the dedicatory services was published in The Union Signal of November 5.

The Womans Cnristian Temperance Union of Baltimore has just purchased the old building of the First National Bank, on South Gay St., near Balto. St., as a memorial to Mrs. Mary W. Thomas. It will be known as the Memorial Building and will be used as a headquarters of the W. C. T. U., and as a centre of industrial and educational work. The price of the building was $25,000 in fee, of which $21,000 has already been subscribed. The balance of the money and about $5,000 needed for repairs and alterations, will, it is expected, be raised in a short time by subscriptions and other means. thus nearly making up the $30,000 which the W. C. T. U. started out to collect about five years ago for this purpose.

The building has 65 feet front and extends back 115 feet. No extensive alterations will be made at first except in the basement, but electric lights will be put in, some papering and painting done and a number of partitions taken down. In the future, the room which will be used as a hall, and wnich at present will seat about seven hundred persons will be enlarged, the lot being big enough to admit of an extension.

What will be done with the basement is not yet decided upon. Converting into it a lunch room, bright and attractive enough to keep men from going to saloons, was first talked of but it probably will be fitted up for offices, the rent of which will bring an income to the union. In that case, a lunch roon may be built on part of the lot. On the first floor will be a reading room for boys and men, a parlor for the use of the ladies' committees and meetings, and a large hall, where religious meetings for working people will be held and practical illustrated lectures given to teach people how to live cheaply and healthfully. The first floor will contain kindergarten rooms for children with dining room attached, and also a room for mothers' meeting where the mothers of children will meet once a week to sew and have practical, helpful talks and religious teachings. There will also be a "kitchen garden" on the second floor, where the older girls from twelve years old and upward, will be taught housework and cooking. The third floor, except one room to be set apart for the use of the Memorial Union for helping homeless and friendless girls, will be used as an industrial department for women. Here work will be provided for all women who need it, from sorting rags up. It is expected to have a laundry and mending department in connection with it.

The building is the old Oliver mansion, a part of the estate of Robert Oliver, who owned the land which is now Greenmont Cemetery. During the war the building was used by the quartermaster of the United States army as headquarsers. From the close of the war until the building of the new bank on South street, it was occupied by the First National Bank.

Do not say anything you would not wish God to hear.

Do not engage in anything you would be unwilling god should see.

Do not write anything you would not wish God to read.

Do not go to any place where you would not desire God to find you.

Do not read anything which you know would not please God.

One Good Husband.—When Theodore Parker was married he entered in his journal on his wedding day the following resolutions:

First.—Never, except for the best reasons, to oppose my wife's will.

Second.—To discharge all duties for her sake freely.

Third.—Never to scold.

Fourth.—Never to look cross at her.

Fifth.—Never worry her with commands.

Sixth.—To promote her piety.

Seventh.—To bear her burdens.

Eighth.—To overlook her foibles.

Ninth.—To save, cherish and forever defend her.

Tenth.—To remember her always in my prayers. Thus, God willing, we shall be blessed.—Household.

Victoria's Family—Queen Victoria has a large family. There are, besides her own children, forty grandchildren and a rapidly increasing progeny of great grandchildren. Here are the grandchildren up to date:

Emperor William, Princess Charlotte, Prince Albert, William Henry, Prince Sigismund, Princess Victoria, Prince Waldemar, Princess Frederika, Princess Sophia and the Princess Margaret, all belonging to the Empress Frederick.

Prince of Wales has five children, Albert Victor, George, Louise Victoria, Victoria and Maud.

The Princess Alice has seven, namely, Victoria, Elizabeth, Irene, Earnest, Frederick, Alix and Mary.

The Duke of Edinborough is quite in the shade, with only five, namely, Alfred, Marie, Victoria, Alexendria and Beatrice.

The Princess Christian has achieved only five. They are named Chrsitian, Albert John, Victoria, Louise Augusta and Harold.

The Duke of Connaught has three, Margaret, Arthur and Victoria.

Alice Mary and Leopold are children of the Duke of Albany.

The Princess Beatrice, dearly beloved of her mother, has four children, Albert Alexander, Leopold Arthur, Victoria and a new little prince that has just flapped its wings above Balmoral castle.

Comfort for the Cow.—Cold barns are an everlasting reproach to a dairyman. No man who undstands the working of the materlal function will for a moment expect to get a profitable flow of milk from a cow in a cold stable. Cold shrinks milk giving. Warmth produces it. Any farmer's wife knows this, and if farmers would consult their wives more about the treatment they accord the bovine mother, they would get more milk. A cow stable should be warm enough so the manure pile will not freeze. A good way to make it warm is to save all the old newspapers and tack them on the inside of the stedding; then tack building paper over the newspapers. This wil cost but a trifle and will warm the stable wonderfully.

—Prices greatly reduced on everything.

What to Smoke.

Do you smoke? What a joke! Of course I do.
If you had such fine cigars you'd smoke too.
The kind I use is manufactured not far away,
By Martin & Co., at McSherrystown, P—a.
We make the best; try "Flor do Colombo," you'll see,
Or our "First Prize," which bears the name
of "Henry Lee."
Our "Bon Tons" are tony; to make their minds steady
They take the "White Veil" or try "Rough and Ready."
Or should you chance a good old pipe to choose,
You'll find "Junalusha" the best tobacco to use;
Or our choice Southern friend, our "Virginia
Rose,"
With "Billy Buck," has a pleasant odor for your nose.
Yet in cigars "Our Hustler" takes a "Cuban Puff,"
And 'Our Imperials' think that good enough.
"Our Special" is a "Dandy Dot," and "The Easton Star"—
Well, just try them, and you'll see what they are.
The "Twins," our "Jolly Boys," in an orderly manner,
Have hung a "Black Bass" on the "Royal Banner."
The "J. M. W." is just what you need,
The "People's Choice" is always a fragrant weed;
Also the "Longfellows;" not quite six-footers,
You'll want them, For sale by J. M. WOOTERS,

GODEY'S FOR 1892

YOU NEED A MAGAZINE IN YOUR FAMILY.

GET ONE THAT GIVES THE BEST SATISFACTION FOR THE MONEY.

GODEY'S will save you in "Dress Hints" ten times its cost in one year.

GODEY'S will give you a better idea of how to dress and what materials to use than any similar publication.

GODEY'S will give you better reading than most of the high classed (so-called) magazines.

GODEY'S will give you a choice of 12 cut Paper Patterns during the year, alone worth double the subscription price.

GODEY'S will give the best Illustrated Fashions, both in Colors and Black. Selected from the Parisian and Berlin Models.

GODEY'S will continue the Children's Corner, which has been so favorably received and enjoyed by our younger readers.

GODEY'S will give you in fact the best of everything within its covers. Including as it does Literature, Fashions, Music, Engravings, Dress Hints, Home Talks, Etiquette, etc.

With the January issue we will begin two new serials, entitled:

THE DISCIPLINE OF PAIN,
By EDGAR FAWCETT,

A story of New York life, written in his best vein and manner. His national reputation is at any time a guarantee of an interesting novelette.

MARJORIE LEE,
By MARGARET SPENCER.

Whose bright and attractive letters from Washington have met with so much favor from our readers. The story is located in the Capital, and as the authoress herself resides there it is full of real incidents. We predict for "Marjorie Lee," a warm reception from our subscribers, who will be sure to find her very winsome, and feel that the authoress has worked for them a fairy web that has many beauties and real interest woven in its meshes.

For the latter months we have a number of Serials and Short Stories by the best authors.

THE LEGEND OF THE LANTERN,
By MRS. OLIVIA LOVELL WILSON.

This charming story will run through several numbers, and will be illustrated with original photogravures by W. Phillip Hooper.

THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF MARY.
By ADA MARIE PECK.

To those who have read "The Filjean Mystery," by this author, we need say nothing except that it is thought to be better (if possible) than any of her previous efforts.

In addition to our usual number of Short Stories, we shall publish a series of articles entitled:

ADVICE FROM EVERYWHERE.
By OLIVIA PHILLIPS.

Embracing such subjects as "The Sick Room," "Home Nursery," "Children's Nursery," "Amusements for the Shut-Ins," "A Minister's Outing," "A Year Well Spent," etc.

AUGUSTA SALISBURY PRESCOTT,

well known from her writing for the great New York newspapers, the World, Advertiser, etc., continues to write for us, and during the year will be worth the price of the magazine, entitled "New Year Receptions," "An Afternoon Tea," "Jennie is Going to be Married," "Wedding Presents," etc.

BELLE C. GREENE, whose humorous sketches, The Hawkins Family, have made her famous in this way, will give us some new features which (we are assured) will be more mirth-provoking than her previous efforts.

TOTAL. GODEY furnishes during the year OVER 1000 PAGES OF ENTERTAINING ILLUSTRATIVE, USEFUL HOME MATTER, desirable and instructive to every lady in the land.

NOTICE.—Any person desiring to raise a Club should send for our circular to club raisers. We pay large cash commissions or beautiful and costly premiums.

Single Subscription, $2 a Year, Always in Advance. Sample Copy, 15 Cts.

Address "GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK." Box H. H., Philadelphia, Pa.

In Club with this paper, GODEY'S and the GAZETTE, price $2.60, which should be sent to the office of this paper. 12de3t
