or descendants ought for their lives, or for any lessor period, to receive only said dividends, income or interest, and not the principal, such deceased so declaring his or her wish or opinion in or by any last will, or any writing in nature thereof, or any writing specially declared to be meant as restricting as aforesaid such children or descendants, such children or descendants named or designated by such will or writings, shall conformably to the terms of such restriction, wish or opinion, receive for the prescribed period only the said dividends, income or interest, and such share in such case of my estate as forms the said principal, shall be deemed the property of such restricted children or descendants, only so far as that at their deaths it shall be distributable among their next of kin, and shall be disposable of by their last wills and testaments.

Thirdly. I do hereby constitute Nicholas Popplein, Nicholas Huppman and George Popplein, and the survivors and survivor of them, executors and trustees of and under my said will, and I hereby will and direct that the compensation to my said executors and trustees for their services as such, shall be six per centum on the amount of proceeds or value of all my estate, and no more.

In testimony whereof, I, Andrew (Andreas) Popplein have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal at Baltimore, this sixth day of September, in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-eight.

Andrew Popplein. (Seal.)

Signed, published, sealed and declared by Andrew (Andreas) Popplein, the-named testator, as and for a codicil to his last will and testament, in the presence of each other, who, at his request, and his presence, and in the presence of each other, hereunto subscribe our names as witnesses to said signing, publishing, sealing and declaring.

Jacob Albert.
John R. Moore.
John Herdebaugh.

Bill of Revivor or Supplement.
(Filed 21 April, 1863.)

| | |
|---|---|
| Bodman et al., vs. Popplein et al. | In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City. |

To the Honorable William George Krebs,
Judge of the Circuit Court of Baltimore City:

The bill of revivor and supplement of Ferdinand Bodman and Catharine P., his wife, humbly shows, that heretofore they filed their bill of complaint in this Honorable Court against certain Nicholas Popplein, Nicholas Huppman and Margaretta, his wife, and others, praying amongst other things for an account of the administration of the of the estate of Andrew Popplein, deceased, by the