said Nicholas Popplein and Nicholas Huppman, and that the trusts thereof created by the last will of the deceased might be carried into execution under the direction of this Court, to which said bill the said Nicholas Popplein, Nicholas Huppman and Margaretta, his wife, appeared, and other proceedings were thereupon had. But before any answer had been filed in said cause, the said Nicholas Huppman departed this life, leaving his aforesaid wife, Margaretta Huppman, surviving him, but leaving no children or child, and that the said Nicholas left a last will and testament, and appointed the said Margaretta the executor thereof, and that the said Margaretta hath only proved said last will before the Orphans Court of Baltimore City, and obtained letters testamentary thereon, and in virtue thereof, hath possessed herself of personal estate of her said testator of a value sufficient to satisfy the claims of your orators against her said testator, and your orators are advised that the said suit ought to be revived against the said Margaretta, as executrix of the said Nicholas, deceased.

And your orators further say that the said Margaretta was and is one of the devisees and legatees of the said Andrew Popplein, deceased, and is therefore in her own right interested in the subject of this suit, and in her character of devisee and legatee aforesaid, was made party defendant to the original bill, and that this cause ought to be continued in promotion against her.

And they further charge, that the said Valentine Huppman, who is named in said last will of the said Andrew Popplein, deceased, as one of the devisees and legatees of said deceased, hath departed this life, leaving an only child, Anna Huppman, an infant, under the age of twenty one years, and that by his death the interest in said estate, which was represented by him in his lifetime on his estate hath been granted to the said Nicholas Huppman, deceased, who fully administered the same.

And your orators further charge, that the said Nicholas Huppman, deceased, was one of the — and legatees of the said Andrew Popplein, deceased, and that by his death without children, the interest in said estate, which was represented by him in his lifetime, devolved on George Huppman, Margaretta Eudiker and George Schull, who are named as parties defendant to the original bill, and the said Anna Huppman.

To the end, therefore, that the said Margaretta Huppman, Anna Huppman, George Huppman, Margaretta Eudiker, and George Schull, may answer or well the matters charged in this bill of revivor and supplement, and that your orators may be thereupon relieved as their case may require.

May it please your Honor to grant unto your orators the writ of subpoena to the said Margaretta Huppman, Anna Huppman, George Huppman, John P. Eudiker and Margaretta, his wife, and George Schull, commanding them to be and appear in
