Answer of Nicholas M. Huppman, an Infant.
(Filed May 12, 1884.)

Bodman and Wife, vs. Nicholas Popplein and Others	In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

The answer of Nicholas Maynard Huppman, an infant, by Mary Virginia Huppman, his mother, guardian and next friend, to the petition filed in this cause by Nicholas Popplein, on May 12, 1884.
This respondent does not admit any of the matters or facts set up in his petition, and prays the Court to protect his rights and interest in the premises.

Mary Virginia Huppman,
By her Solicitor, S. T. Wallis.

Petition for the appointment of Receiver, on the part of James Sloan and Wife, and Others.
(Filed 7th April, 1884.)

Bodman and Others, vs. Popplein and Others.	In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

To the Honorable, the
Circuit Court of Baltimore City;
The petition of the defendants, James Sloan, Jr., and Abigail C. Sloan, his wife, Eliza H. Huppman, Etta R. Huppman, James Briscoe and Anna Briscoe, his wife, respectfully represents to the Court:
That by reason of the death of the late Receiver in this case, Nicholas A. Huppman, it has become necessary that a successor to him should be appointed, and it is eminently desirable, in view of the various and much divided interests of the parties to this proceeding, that such receivership should be placed in the hands of some indifferent, impartial and thoroughly competent and responsible person.
These petitioners accordingly unite in recommending the Safe Deposit and Trust Company of Baltimore as a proper and suitable Receiver, and respectfully pray the Court to appoint said company in the stead of the said Huppman.
And they will, &c.

S. T. Wallis
Solr. for Petitioner.

Order of Court on above Petition.
(Filed 8th April, 1884.)

Ordered by the Court upon the prayer of the aforegoing petition of Mary E. Popplein and others, and John B. Gibson and Laurella B. Gibson, in the premises.
That the Safe Deposit and Trust Company of
