Baltimore be and it is hereby appointed and constituted Receiver in the above entitled proceedings in the stead of Nicholas A. Huppman, deceased, and with the same power and duties granted to and imposed upon the said deceased received by the order of the Court appointing him.

William A. Fisher

Depositions as to the death of Mrs. Briscoe, &c.
(Filed 14th Jan., 1887.)

Ferdinand Bodman, et al. vs. Nicholas Poppleim, et al.	In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

Depositions taken before the Auditor, under order of Court passed in this cause on January 11th, 1887, at his office, number 21 Lexington street, Baltimore City, on Wednesday, January 13th, 1887, at 2½ o'clock P. M., when and where the following proceedings were had:

David S. Briscoe, a witness produced on behalf of James Briscoe, being first duly sworn according to law, deposes and says:

1st question. State your name, age, residence and occupation?

Answer. David S. Briscoe, age 46; Baltimore City; attorney at law.

2nd question. Do you or not know the parties to this suit?

Answer. I know some of them.

3rd question. Please state whether you were acquainted with Mrs. Amel. Briscoe?

Answer. I was.

4th question. Is she dead or alive, and if dead, did she die testate or intestate?

Answer. Dead; she died intestate.

5th question. Did she leave a husband or children, or both, her surviving, and if so, please give their names, and state whether they are infants or adults?

Answer. Yes; a husband and two children; the husband's name is James Briscoe; the oldest child is James Briscoe, Jr., about fourteen years old; the other is Elizabeth R. Briscoe, who is eleven or twelve; I don't know exactly.

6th question. Please state whether the note endorsed by you, and secured by the assignment to you, on file in this case, still remains due and unpaid?

Answer. Certainly it remains due and unpaid.

General question by the Auditor. Do you know or can you state any other matter or thing which may be of benefit or advantage to the parties to this cause, or either of them, or that may be material to the subject of this your examination, or the matters in question between the parties; if yea, state the same fully and at large in your answer.

Answer. Nothing.

D. S. Briscoe.

No further witnesses being produced before the Auditor, he accordingly closed these depositions and returns them herewith closed to the Court.