Petition of Safe Deposit and Trust Company, Receiver
(Filed 14th January, 1887.)

Bodman and Others, vs. Popplein and Others.	In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

To the Honorable, the
Circuit Court of Baltimore City;

The petition of the Safe Deposit and Trust Company of Baltimore, Receiver in the above entitled case, respectfully represents:

1. That Annie S. Briscoe, one of the cestui que trusts in this case, recently departed this life, leaving her surviving James Briscoe, her husband, who is already a party to this suit, and two infant children, James Briscoe, Jr., and Elizabeth R. Briscoe.

2. That said Anne S. Briscoe died intestate, and your petitioner is advised that her said husband, is entitled to the income of the trust estate (for life) administered in this case by it as Receiver as aforesaid, but nevertheless it deemed it but prudent and proper that the said James Briscoe, Jr., and Elizabeth R. Briscoe, infants, should be parties thereto.

Your petitioner therefor prays that subpoena may issue, directed to said James Briscoe Jr., and Elizabeth R. Briscoe, infants as aforesaid, to the end that they may be made parties defendant in this case.

S. T. Wallis,
For Petitioner.

Order of Court on Above Petition.
(Filed Jan. 14th, 1887.)

Ordered by the Court this 14th day of January, 1887, that subpoena issue as prayed.

J. Upshur Dennis.

Thereupon, subpoena to answer petition issued in form following, to wit:

The State of Maryland to James Briscoe, Jr., and
(L. S.) Elizabeth R. Briscoe, infants, of Baltimore City, greeting:

We command, and enjoin you, that all excuses set aside, you be in your person before the Circuit Court of Baltimore City, at the Court House in said city, on the first Monday of February next, to answer the petition of the Safe Deposit and Trust Company of Baltimore, trustee, against you in said Court exhibited.

Hereof fail not, as you will answer the contrary at your peril.

Witness the Honorable George Wm. Brown, Chief Judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, the 3rd day of January, 1887.

Issued the 14th day of January, in the year 1887.

Wm Robertson, Clerk.
