Bodman,

vs.

Popplein, et al.

} In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

To the Hon. J. Upshur Dennis,
Judge of the Circuit Court.

1. That by an order of this Court, dated the 24th day of April, A. D. 1890, passed in the cause in this Court of "Ex parte, in the matter of the estate of Annie S. Briscoe, deceased," they were appointed trustees to receive from the Safe Deposit and Trust Company of Baltimore City, and also to receive from any source, any and all the estate of the said Annie S. Briscoe, deceased, and to hold and dispose of the same under the orders of this Court, and not otherwise; and they were further ordered and required by said order to file a bond, as designated in said cause, to be appointed by the Court, or the Clerk thereof, before proceeding to execute their duties thereunder, which has been done.

2. That they have also been appointed by the Orphans' Court of Baltimore City, administrators of the goods and chattels of said Annie S. Briscoe, deceased, and then they have qualified as said administrators, as will appear by the exemplification of letters of administration herewith filed as a part of this petition, marked "Petition Exhibit 1."

May it please your Honor to pass an order directing your petitioners to be made parties to this cause, thereby enabling them to properly appear herein for the purposes of the distribution of the estate in course of distribution by the proceedings herein, to which, as said trustees and administrators, they are respectively entitled.

And as in duty bound.

L. S. Briscoe,
Atty.

Petitioners Exhibit No. 1.

(Filed 29th April, 1890, in the above Petition.)

The State of Maryland,
