(Filed 4th June, 1890.)

Bodman, et al.,

vs.

Popplein, et al.

In the Circuit Court of Baltimore City.

To the Honorable, the Judge of the Circuit Court of Balto. City:

The report of sales of the Safe Deposit and Trust Company of Baltimore, trustee, respectfully shows: That, after having given the public notice of the time, place, manner, and terms of sale by advertisement published in the "Sun", a daily newspaper published in the City of Baltimore, for more than three successive weeks before the day of sale, and by further advertisement in the "American", another daily newspaper published in said city, it did, in pursuance of the decree passed in this cause on the 19th day of December, 1889, offer for sale, at public auction, at the Real Estate Exchange, No. 122 East Fayette street, in said city, on Thursday the 29th day of May, 1890, at one o'clock, P.M., the following described property decreed to be sold by said decree, and mentioned in the annexed advertisement, and shown on the "Sales Plat" hereunto annexed:

First: The lot in ground situate in Baltimore City, being lot designated on said plat as "Lot No. 1," and fully described in the annexed description as "Lot No. 1," and sold the same to James Sloan, at and for the — of eleven thousand one hundred and fifty dollars ($11,150) he being then and there the highest bidder therefor.

Second: The lot of ground situate in Baltimore City, being lot designated on said plat as "Lot No. 2," and fully described in the annexed description as "Lot No. 2," and sold the same to James Sloan, at and for the sum of ten thousand two hundred and forty-eight dollars, ($10,248) he being then and there the highest bidder therefor.

Third: The lot of ground situate in Baltimore City, being designated on said plat as "Lot No. 8," and fully described in the annexed description as "Lot No. 8," and sold the same to James H. Atkinson, at and for the sum of eight thousand and fifty dollars ($8,050) he being then and there the highest bidder therefor.
