by the Court here, that the said Hannah E. Gantee and others assign the errors in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, or in the passing the order aforesaid, so as aforesaid brought before the Court of Appeals here for correcting the errors supposed to be therein, or order by the Court of Appeals here for correcting the errors supposed to be therein, or order by the Court of Appeals here, will be entered against them in default thereof; and the said Hannah E. Gantee and others by their Attorneys aforesaid say that in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, and also in the giving of order aforesaid, there is manifest error in this, to wit: that by the Record aforesaid it appears that the order aforesaid, in the plea aforesaid given, was given for the said Susannah Popplein against the said Hannah E. Gantee and others, when by the law of the land that order ought to have been given for the said Hannah E. Gantee against the said Susannah Popplein therefore, in that there is manifest error, and they pray that the order aforesaid, for that error and others being in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, may be reversed, annulled, and held entirely as void, and that they the said Hannah E. Gantee and others may be restored to all things which they have lost by occasion of the said order and that the said Susannah Popplein may rejoin to the errors aforesaid, and soforth; and thereupon it is ruled by the Court of Appeals here, that the said Susannah Popplein join in the errors by the said Hannah E. Gantee above assigned in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, or order by the Court of Appeals here, will be rendered against her in default thereof; and the said Susannah Popplein by her Attorney aforesaid, says there is no error in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the order aforesaid, and she prays that the Court of Appeals here will proceed to the examination as well of the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, as of the matters aforesaid, by the said Hannah E. Gantee and others above for error assigned, and that the said order may be in all things affirmed, and soforth; thereupon further process of and upon the premises, between the parties aforesaid is, by virtue of an Act of Assembly in such cases made and provided, continued before the Court of Appeals here, until the first Monday in October next; the same day is given to the said parties there, then to hear the order of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the said premises, and soforth.

At which said First Monday in October being the sixth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid, by their attorneys aforesaid, afterwards to wit on the 29th day of November 1890 was filed the following Diminution record—
