for the Willow Springs property. If, as you intimated yesterday, the property cannot be purchased at that price, ask her to name her figure, and I will let you know whether she will take it or not, so that I may submit to other parties in the Co., which I represent, as to my good faith in the premises, I refer you to the firm of Hinkly & Morris, through whom I lately made a purchase.

Per C. M. Shute,
Philadelphia, Pa.

(Seal's Place) In testimony whereof, I hereunto subscribe my name and affix the seal of said Circuit Court, this 24th day of November, A.D. 1890.

John H. Shanklin,
Clerk, Circuit Court for Baltimore County.

But because the Court of Appeals here are not yet advised what Order to give of and upon the premises, a day therefore is further given to the parties aforesaid, with the consent of the said parties by their attorneys aforesaid, to come before the Court of Appeals here, on the second Monday in January next, to hear the Order of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the premises; for that the Court now here, as yet, are not, &c.

And now at this day to wit, the said second Monday in January, being the twelfth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety one come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid by their attorney aforesaid.

Whereupon, as well the Record and Proceedings aforesaid, and the order given in form aforesaid, as the matters aforesaid, by the said Hannah E. Garitee and others above for error assigned, being seen, and by the Court of Appeals here fully understood, and mature deliberation thereupon had, for that it appears to the Court of Appeals here, that there is no error in the Record of Proceedings aforesaid, nor in the passing of the order aforesaid. Therefore it is considered by the Court of Appeals here, that the order aforesaid, given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed, and stand in full force and effect, the said causes for error above assigned and alleged in anywise notwithstanding. And afterwards to wit, on the 16th day of January 1891 the Court of Appeals filed the following order.

Hannah E. Garitee, William L. Garitee, and John H. Bennett, Trustee, vs. Susannah Popplein.	Court of Appeals of Maryland. January Term, 1891.

The Appeal in this case standing ready for hearing, was argued by Counsel for the respective parties, and the proceedings have since been considered by the Court.

It is thereupon, this sixteenth day of January, 1891, by the Court of Appeals of Maryland, and by authority thereof, adjudged and ordered, that the Order of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, in Equity, dated the 20th day of December, 1889, from which this appeal was taken, be, and the same is hereby affirmed with costs to the appellee.
