—"Is the money now spent for public roads used to the best advantage?" is the question for discussion at the next regular meeting of the Grange at Matthews, May 28. It is requested that all members take part in same; perhaps we can hit upon some plan that we can get more work done for the money.

—For the cheapest line of Carpets, Mattings, Rugs, Window Shades go to J. E. Shannahan's. tf —Easton presents a lively appearance, owing to the session of the Circuit Court, the Ladies Fair, and the innate "hustle" of our manufacturers and merchants. It is difficult to fully realize, to-day, that this is staid old Easton; the purely Agricultural town of former days. Then our avenues were not awhirl with the busy throng, our hotel had not climbed to the fifth story, our omnibuses did not clog the street corners, the mills and factories did not rend the air and smoke the atmosphere as now. We reposed in those bygone days. Hail!! Progress!!

—Dress Goods of all kinds extra cheap at J. E. Shannahan's. Blk Dress Goods a specialty. tf —Our sister city, St. Michaels, is having a veritable building boom. New residences are appearing and are about to appear all about the town.

Ship-building too is not being "left." Messrs. T. H. Kirby and Son, at the marine railway, are being overrun with new work and repairs.

—Mr. Wrightson, who drives for Dr. Barber's Mill at St. Michaels, was injured by being thrown from his wagon, while crossing the B. & E. S. R. R. at the crossing near Dr. Seth's place.

—Embroideries and Laces in endless variety at J. E. Shannahan. tf

—Now we need that railroad from Cambridge Ferry to the north, via Easton, Centreville, Chestertown, etc. The people of Dorchester, Queen Anne's and Kent will want easy access to the Eastern Shore Fair.

Lost.—On the 18th inst., between our shop and R. F. Walker's office, a Note bearing the endorsement of Dr. Bateman. The finder will be liberally rewarded. Biery & Son.

An Eventful Day.—Thursday was an eventful day for the Talbot County Fair Association. Efforts of the officers and directors of the Association to secure assistance and substantial co-operation of influential citizens of neighboring counties of the Eastern Shore in enlarging the scope of our Fair, met with great encouragement. The following advisory boards which had been previously appointed, were invited to meet with the Directors on Thursday:

Kent county.—Thos. Gale, L. C. Justise, Jr, S. Vannort, W. B. Usliton, T. W. Eliason, Jr., Chas. T. Westcott.

Queen Anne's county.—W. McKenney, Dr. W. H. Decoursy, E. B. Emory, W. S. Roberts, J. F. Godwin, S. T. Earle.

Caroline county.—W. J. Clark, J. W. Kerr, Rufus C. Harris, H. C. Ramsdell, R. H. Messick, J. H. Bernhard.

Dorchester county.—W. H. Barton, Jr., Dr. T. H. Williams, Dr. B. L. Smith, W. L. Henry, Dr. J. H. Houston, W. Stevens.

Wicomico county.—E. S. Toadvin, I. H. White, F. S. Todd, Hon. E. E. Jackson, T. Perry, W. L. Mann.

Worcester county.—Dr. T. Franklin, Hon. J. W. Smith, A. D. Irwin, Z. P. Wharton, C. L. Vincent, Dr. J. Derrickson.

Somerset county.—Dr. Adkinson, H. P. Dashiell, J. S, Sudler, E. G. Polk, J. T. Brown Hon. Henry. Page.

Invitations were sent the above gentlemen in each county of the First Congressional District. Seventeen were accepted. About noon on Thursday the local board and county editors met in the hall corner Washington and Dover streets to welcome the gentlemen of the Advisory Board. Gen. McKenney, W.S. Roberts, W. J. Clark, J. W, Kerr, Dr. J. H. Houston, W. L. Aenry, T. Y. Franklin, A.D. Irwin, L. P. Wharton, Dr. J. Derrickson, J. S. Sudler. Col. Goldsborough, president and Mr. M. M. Higgins, sec. and treas., explained the situation and aims of the Association and object of the meeting, and several speeches were also made by the visiting gentlemen, all tending toward expanding our fair to an Eastern Shore Fair.

The chair appointed Messrs. Vannort, McKenney, Clark, Henry, Perry, Derrickson, Sudler, Lloyd, to bring forward a new name for the Association. After deliberation this committee reported that they did not deem it wise to change the name of the fair for this year. At 2.30 the directors, advisory board and press representatives repaired to the bazar in Music Hall where a sumptuous dinner was served by the ladies of the dinner committee.

After dinner speeches were made by G. E. Haddaway, W. S. Roberts, Philip Goldsborough, W. E. Stewart, Gen. Seth and J.W. Kerr. These speeches were all good and jovial in character. The good things to be said of the Eastern Shore were not overlooked. The occasion throughout was enjoyable. It is gratifying to the gentlemen who have labored so earnestly for the fair association's life and prosperity, to realize that the future is so full of promise. With a fine track, new and commodiuos buildings, acquired knowledge of all the essential details. No competitor in all the eight counties, whose citizens, it is believed, will become interested in the fair, with central location as to these counties railroad and water accessibility and hotel accommodations, combine to make Easton the centre of the plain whose citizens will thereby be brought into closer affiliation. Yes, Thursday was an eventful day for the association and Easton as well.

Factory News.—We are glad to know of the efforts of Mr. J. M. Wooters to establish a cigar factory in Easton; which we understand will give renumerative employment to fifty or more people. The success of this enterprise, we suppose, will depend largely upon home encouragement and patronage, together with the company's efforts and quality of goods manufactured. This gives an opportunity for our Board of Trade to tender substantial aid to Mr. Wooters in his enterprising efforts to bring capital and labor to our town and county. It is our understanding that Mr. Wooters does not ask our citizens to subscribe to the capital stock of the concern but desires the encouragement and patronage of our people. Would this not be an opportunity for the people of Easton and Talbot to avail themselves of the privileges offered under the law passed by the last Legislature, exempting new facturies plants from county and town taxes?

It is for our Board of Trade and citizens to determine, whether or not, it is to the best interest of our community to exempt, for a reasonable time, all manufacturies that will locate in our midst. Now is the accepted time. Let us hear about it. We seem to have arrived at a point whele we must have one thing or the other—progress, or decay. If it is to be the former, how can we best attain it?

Deer Park and Oakland.—To those contemplating during the coming summer a trip to the mountains in search of health or pleasure, Deer Park on the dome of the Alleghany Mountains, 3,000 feet above the sea level, offers such varied attractions as a delightful atmosphere during both day and night, pure water, smooth, winding roads through the mountains and valleys, and the most picturesque scenery in the Alleghany range. The hotel is equipped with such adjuncts conductive to the entertainment, pleasure and comfort of its guests, as Turkish and Russian Baths, swimming pools for both ladies and gentlemen, billard rooms, supurbly furnished parlors, and rooms single or en suite, an unexcelled cuisine and superior service.

The surrounding grounds as well as well as the hotel are lighted by electricity, have cosy and shady nocks, meandering walks, lawn tennis courts and grassy play-grounds for children within full view of the inviting verandas. Six miles on the same mountain summit is Oakland, the twin resort of Deer Park, and equally as well equipped for the entertainment and accomodation of its guests. Both hotels are upon the main line of the B. & O. R. R., have the advantage of its splendid vestibuled Limited Express trains between East and West, and are, therefore, readily accessible from all parts of the country. Season Excursion tickets, good for return passage until October 31st, will be placed on sale at greatly reduced rates at all principal ticket offices throughout the country. One way ticket, reading St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnatti, Columbus, Chicago and any points on B. & O. system to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia or New York, or vice versa. are good to stop off at either Deer Park or Oakland, and the time limit will be extended by agent at either resort upon application.

The season at these popular resorts commences June 22nd.

A HUMANE PROCESS.

We are told that Alexandra, wife of the Prince of Wales has given orders that no lady in her house shall wear a bonnet with a bird on it, remarks the Apostolic Guide. She regards it barbarity to encourage the slaughter of birds for the sake of mere adornment and is determined, so far as she is concerned that no responsibility shall rest at her door. It is a noble stand by a noble woman and is worthy of imitation by all women in America. The most shocking cruelty in this line we have recently known is the killing of humming birds, those "loveliest bits of nature's gallery of beauty," the brillancy of whose plumage is said to be preserved by their heartless slayers by skinning them alive! The wonder is that a tender hearted woman will consent to wear any kind of a bird on her bonnet.

———:o:———

We print as of especial current interest, the following extract from Lady Henry Somerset's annual address of May 3d, before the British Women's Temperance Association. Cablegrams of May 6th and 7th notify us of a most successful and fraternal meeting of the British Women's Temperance Association, and also of the World's Convention, the latter being Luke 1:45.

One of the most unique experiences that came to me in America was the meeting held in Washington on the closing evening of the great Ecumenical Council of the Methodist church. After a session of many days, this remarkable body, representing twenty million Methodists, adjourned in the afternoon that the W. C. T. U. might occupy the Metropolitan church that afternoon; and so great was the interest in the white ribbon gathering that an overflow meeting was addressed by Mrs. Hannah Whitall Smith. I regard it as the crowning opportunity for my life to have spoken to these faithful pastors from every quarter of the globe. Their council has been remarkable, by reason of the liberality of its sentiments towards women's work; and we have reason to be proud of the British delegation whose members were perhaps the most progressive of all in their enlightened recognition of the great truth that in Christ there is neither male nor female.

The question of admitting women to the highest ecclesiastical council—which meets once in four years, and is made up of ministers and laymen—now agitates the Methodist Church of America from center to circumference. A public vote has been called for, and sixty-two per cent of all who voted cast their ballots for the equality of women in the legislative council of the church; of whose membership as in every other, women form two-thirds. The ministers voted by themselves in their conferences, and haev given a majority in favor of this progressive step. Unfortunately, the church requires a three fourths vote of the ministry before any change can be made in its constitution. The whole question will come before the general council this month at Omaha, Neb., and all thoughtful Christians must await the verdict with prayerful eagerness. Perhaps the high-water mark of opinion on the great reform by which woman shall be recognized in the church, not only as a postulant, but as a power, is the rumored action of General Booth in designating his eldest daughter, the Marechale Clibborn Booth, as the one upon whom he looks as his successor. Every one knows that the gigantic progress of the Salvation Army, is due to nothing so much as to that large comprehension, inspired, as I believe, by the Spirit of God, which led General and Mrs. Booth (the mother of the army) to put woman, from the beginning, in her rightful place as the equal companion of man, in the holy war for the enthronement of Christ's Gospel in the earth.

No group of Christians has done so much to advance the gospel idea of women as equal partners with men in the work of evangelizing the world as the Society of Friends. To this everlasting honor be it said that in this particular they were a hundred years ahead of their time and generation, and leavened the world's thought by proving by their placid faces, sweet voices and gentle bearing that when the wife and mother takes her equal place beside the father and the husband in the walks of life, she still remains "pure, womanly."

Fire in Bozman.—On Monday last between the hours of two and three o'clock p. m. the residence of James H. Sutton of Bozman was discovered to be on fire. The fire broke out around the chimney of the kitchen and had been burning some time before it was discovered. An alarm was sounded and the neighbors quickly gathered to assist in extinguishing the fire, but too late, it had already broken out around tha roof and all attempts to put it out proved futile. It was not long before the entire dwelling was on fire and in a short space of time all that remained was the smouldering ashes. The building was insured for $800, and his loss about $1200. A fine large library said to be one of the best in the county, was destroyed. The Gazette extends deep sympathy to Mr. Sutton in his loss.

Progress at Longwoods.—Rev. E. C. Allard has fitted up the P. O. with a new and handsome cabinet, consisting of wire bottom call boxes, delivery window, letter drop, general delivery case for letters and papers, cash and stamp drawers, etc. This elegant cabinet was manufactured by the Sadler Publishing Co. of Balto., who supply a P. O. with everything needed. The patrons of a postoffice will take pride in its neat appearance and rent more boxes and thus lessen the labor and increase the income of the fourth-class postmaster. The hard lot of this class of P. M.'s is being extensively commented upon. Relief will come in time. This much they can do for themselves—"brush up" and put in modern fixtures. This will please the whole neighborhood.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India Missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. A. Noyes, 820 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y. 25jully

A Curculio Remedy.—"The Curculio flies," says a plum grower, "are our greatest enemy. But in Florida I learned of a curious method of saving the fruit, which the flies destroy when it is very young. Just when the bloom is falling off, and when the plums are no larger than marrowfat peas, half a dozen tin cans, empty tomato cans will do, two thirds full of molasses and water, with a teaspoonful of vinegar added, must be hung from the branches of each tree. The curculio fly will be attracted by the mixture and eat it greedily, forgetting at the same time to sting the baby plums."—New York Tribune.

THE PUZZLER

No. 138.—Double Acrostic.

The initials and finals, read downward, will give the name of a famous French general and the last battle he fought in:

1. Not old. 2. A girl's name. 3. A harbor. 4. A giant. 5. One who makes laws. 6. Wicked. 7. To surpass. 8. A native of Africa.

No. 139.—A Novel Word Square.

I had a young playmate named 1–2–2–1,
And I went to school with her once, just for fun;
But at 2–3–3–2, when recess was most through,
I said that she was a 2–3–4–2.
She said she was not, that my grammar was new,
But that if "she" was one, then "I" was one too.
So we quarreled and parted, as others have done,
And I went home alone, without 1–2–2–1.

The words to be supplied may be arranged so as to form a word square.

No. 140.—A Pyramid.

        X
      x X x x x X x x x x x X x x x
x x x x X x x x x

The single letter represents a consonant. The horizontal row of three, a cape at the southern extremity of a middle Atlantic state noted for its zinc mines. The row of five, a strait at the extreme north of a continent whose principal plateaus may be found in the western part. The row of seven, the capital city of the state noted for zinc and also for garden vegetable, apples and peaches. The row of nine, an important city in the "Lone Star State." The vertical of five large letters, a state noted for its numerous lakes and streams and the great number of its harbors. It is sometimes called the "Pine Tree State."

No. 141.—Anagram.

Pet was a hungry girl, no doubt;
Her mother and her school were out,
So to the pantry she inclined,
To lunch on such as she could find.
A mince pie stood within the corner,
And, emulating famed Jack Horner,
She cut a piece, by no means small,
Then more and more; she ate it all!
To find the word you scarce need try,
If once you witness "Pet at pie."

No. 142.—The Way You Look at a Thing.

VIII JO Jo 4 11406

5113612379

So much depends on the way you look at a thing. For instance, these figures seem meaningless, do they not?

Yet, if you hold the paper up to the looking glass you will find that they give you the name of a famous American.—Journal of Education.

No. 143.—Zigzags.

All of the words described contain the same number of letters. When rightly guessed and placed one below another the diagonals, beginning at the upper left hand letter and ending at the lower right hand letter, will spell a name given to Nicodemus Boffin.

1. A webfooted water fowl. 2. A warehouse. 3. A vegetable. 4. A pert, conceited fellow. 5. The fruit of the blackthorn. 6. One related to another by any tie. 7. Part of a clock. 8. The harness of beasts of burden. 9. A torch. 10. A fish highly prized for food. 11. The cheven. 12. To look narrowly. 13. To throw with the hand. 14. To discharge. 15. A thin piece of marble having plain surfaces. 16. A large stove or oven.

No. 144.—Decapitation.

Behead a public ground,
A vessel large is found;
Behead what means once more,
We have increase of store;
Behead not far away,
What's left hears what we say;
Part of a tree behead,
And leave to ask for aid;
Behead to long with pain,
And leave by work to gain.
These letters we removed
Will spell a pretty flower,
Which for its rich and varied tints
Is known the country o'er.

No. 145.—Concealed Rivers.

1. Do you care, Dan, if I take your sled?
2. You look pale, Nathan. Take this chair.
3. Do be quick, Rob, I am in a hurry.
4. I want to send by Ruth a message to her mother.
5. Uncle has given Miriam a zone for her waist.
6. Oh, I ought to write to Susie!

Contentment.

A small boy was hoeing in a sterile field by the roadside when a passer by stopped and said, "'Pears your corn is rather small."

"Certainly," said the boy. "It's dwarf corn."

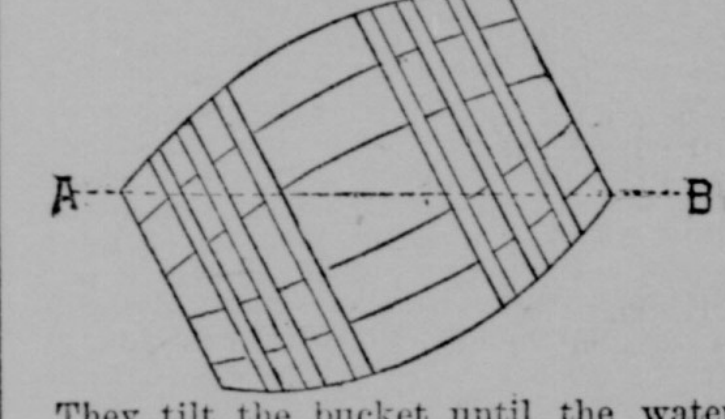
No. 131.—The Old Oaken Bucket:



They tilt the bucket until the water reaches the mouth at the point B. Then if the bucket is half full the water will touch the point A, as shown by the diagram. This trick can be shown with a tumbler, provided the tumbler is true in every direction. Showing it in this way has the advantage of enabling the persons to whom the problem is propounded to see easily where the water touches, owing to the transparency of the glass.

The geographical distribution of Indian corn has undergone a change to a certain degree during the past half century. Considering the relative positions held by the ten great corn growing states these are placed as follows in The American Agriculturist. It is to be noted that the growth of population has materially influenced the relative standing, and consequently the geographical location of the largest corn growing states:

1849—Ohio, Kentucky, Illinois, Indiana, Tennessee, Missouri, Virginia, Georgia, Alabama North Carolina.

1859—Illinois, Ohio, Missouri, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Iowa, Virginia, Alabama, Georgia.

1869—Illinois, Iowa, Ohio, Missouri, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Pennsylvania, Texas, North Carolina.

1879—Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Indiana, Ohio, Kansas, Nebraska, Kentucky, Tennessee, Pennsylvania.

1889—Iowa, Illinois, Missouri, Indiana, Tennessee, Ohio, Texas, Kentucky, Nebraska, Kansas.

After 1859 Virginia and Alabama are dropped from the list, and Tennessee, which stood fifth in 1849, drops to the ninth place in 1879, but comes back again to the fifth place in 1889. While Ohio was first in the beginning, she stands sixth in 1889.

America is the home of the corn plant, and it thrives in perfection along the line of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa and Nebraska. A hardier, quicker growing plant must be grown north of these states, where the seasons are short, frosts occurring late in the spring and early in the fall. The development of new, quick growing varieties has made the possibilities of corn growing in these more northern states greater at the present than at any other time in their history. Through the sequence of progress maize is grown in greater variety; is used as food more extensively and variably; is grown and harvested more economically at the present than at any other time in the history of the plant.

WONDERFUL

The cures which are being effected by Drs. Starkey & Palen, 1529 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa., in Consumption, Catarrh, Neuralgia, Bronchitis, Rheumatism, and all chronic diseases, by their Compound Oxygen Treatment, are indeed marvelous.

If you are a sufferer from any disease which your physician has failed to cure, write for information about this treatment, and their book of 200 pages, giving a history of Compound Oxygen, its nature and effects, with numerous testimonials from patients, to whom you may refer for still further information, will be promptly sent, without charge.

This book, aside from its great merit as a medical work, giving, as it does, the result of years of study and experience, you will find a very interesting one.

HE Missed his Opportunity! DON'T Miss Yours, Reader. The majority neglect their opportunities, and from that cause live in poverty and die in obscurity! Harrowing despair is the lot of many, as they look back on lost, forever lost, opportunity. Life is passing! Reach out. Be up and doing. Improve your opportunity, and secure prosperity, prominence, peace. It was said by a philosopher, that "the Goddess of Fortune offers a golden opportunity to each person at some period of life; embrace the chance, and she pours out her riches; fail to do so and she departs, never to return." How shall you find the golden opportunity? Investigate every chance that appears worthy, and of fair promise; that is what all successful men do. Here is an opportunity, such as is not often within the reach of laboring people. Improved, it will give, at least, a grand start in life. The golden opportunity for many is here. Money to be made rapidly and honorably by any industrious person of either sex. All ages. You can do the work and live at home, wherever you are. Even beginners are easily earning from $5 to $10 per day. You can do as well if you will work, not too hard, but industriously; and you can increase your income as you go on. You can give spare time only, or all your time to the work. Easy to learn. Capital not required. We start you. All is comparatively new and really wonderful. We instruct and show you how, free. Failure unknown among our workers. No room to explain here. Write and learn all free, by return mail. Unwise to delay. Address at once, H. Hallett & Co., Box 880, Portland, Maine.
