FOR SALE BY

S. LEE TUCKER,

Opp. Brick Hotel.

The merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is not accidental but is the result of careful study and experiment by educated pharmacists.

Go and Enjoy an early visit to Ocean City —only $1.00 on June 23rd.

—J. E. Shannahan is strictly headquarters for Hosiery, Gloves, Corsets and Ribbons.

—To-morrow will be Children's Day at the Ebenezer M. E. Church, Easton.

—Heard him, 'hic, Gorm'land for Pres'dnt.' We think "Highly" of it.

—That Tuckahoe bridge is a good thing—but we need more bridges. Let us bridge over the depression that bedies about us.

—Embroideries and Laces in endless variety at J. E. Shannahan. tf

—Echo says they were all for Gorman and Glory and only used poor old Grover for political mulch.

—The farmers are getting their machines ready and will be busy sawing wheat straw in a few days.

—Saw a man looking for the delegates from the Baltimore convention. He only wanted to see them: that's all.

—M. C. Forsyth, Photographer, has opened a first-class Photo. Gallery in the Shanahan Building on Dover street, where he is now prepared to do all kinds of Photo. work, such as Pastel, Crayon, India Ink, Cabinet, Tin-Type, &c. Give him a trial and be convinced.

—The work upon Mr. W. P. Chaffinch's residence, cor. Brooklett's avenue and Harrison street, is being pushed. The foundation walls are now ready for the superstructure.

—For the cheapest line of Carpets, Mattings, Rugs, Window Shades go to J. E. Shannahan's. tf

—What is that? Another Cleveland Club for Gorman, to be organized in Easton?

—Dreamed that the Talbot Times declared for Gorman under cover of Cleveland.

—The Choptank Company intends to build another large propeller; she is to be christened "Easton." The new steamer will be larger and handsomer than the "Cambridge," which is the flagship of that company.

—The two unoccupied storerooms in the old Masonic building, Dover and Washington streets, are to be modernized, when they will be able to step in the procession to the tune of progress. Mr. J. C. Godwin will occupy the corner room after this year.

We want a short "swim" to the Calvert Co. shore and a short run to Washington city, the best market for perishable produce on the Atlantic "slope"—only about 40 or 50 miles away. Why can't we have it? It would help the B. & E. S., and develop our antiquated western shore neighbor. Would also give us close connection and quick trip to Baltimore over that Drum Point Railway.

—The Talbot tariff "deformers" are grinding their saws for the 'fray. You will soon see them busy sawing between themselves and their own prosperity.

—Can it be that our neighbor the Democrat is offended at anything the GAZETTE has said? Something has caused it to pick up its galleys and "Todd"le off, around the corner. Probably that new brick building on Market Space, where it will have room commeasurable with its strength, has had something to do with this movement.

—Rumor says that certain democratic commodores invariably keep their feet dry.

—Their strongest Cleveland men seem to be for Gorman—first, last and all the time.

—We are beginning to realize that Denton and Easton are much nearer since the completion of Tuckahoe (God bless you) bridge. Now let sister Caroline and brother Talbot be more social.

—Dress Goods of all kinds extra cheap at J. E. Shannahan's. Blk Dress Goods a specialty. tf

—The Island City Telegraph Company has been consolidated with the general system of the Western Union. The tariff rates on that line which extends from Island City to Claiborne, will be the same as those from other points in the county. This is a good thing for the citizens of Bay Hundred. That 'Eden' is now in instantaneous communication with the wide world.

—Washington people want a near cut to the Maryland ocean beach. They want to come right across Prince George and Calvert counties, to the Talbot shore—then go on their way rejoicing to the blue sea. They will never enjoy our heaven, on earth, to any extent so long as they have to go around by "Robin Hood's barn" to get here. Life is too short.

—The next issue of the GAZETTE will give you the name of the next President.—Gazette.

His name has been at the head of our editorial column for quite awhile. They pronounce it Grover Cleveland.—Trappe Times.

We don't hear anything pronounced like that, up here. Our Democratic atmosphere is all twisted and tangled up. All we are able to make out is a half-hearted mumble about Grover Gorman, Arthur P. Cleveland, David Hell—Bennett Hill or something of that kind that we don't understand or care to. So we still reserve the privilege of announcing the name of the next President.

Tolchester.—The B. & E. S. R. R. Co. will run a Special Excursion to Tolchester, June 30th. 75c. from Easton.

Summer Specialties.-Ice Cream Freezer, Refrigerators, Hammocks and Lap Dusters. Cheap. Shannahan & Wrightson HardwareCo.

Death of Miss Kerr.—The remains of Miss Eliza G, Kerr of Baltimore were brought to Easton on Thursday and interred in Spring Hill Cemetery. The funeral services were held at the Cathedral at 6 P.M. Miss Kerr was the daughter of the late John Leeds Kerr of Talbot Co., and sister of Charles G. Kerr, the present States Attorney, Baltimore

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

Personals.—Miss Helen Lippincott, and Miss Corrie Cole, of Riverton, N. J., Miss Caroline Biddle of Lansdoun, Pa., and Miss Fannie White of Atlantic City, are visiting Mrs. Isaac Dixon.

Mrs. Mary D. Bartlett of Baltimore, is sojourning at North Bend.

Mr. Harry J. Hopkins of Annapolis is enjoying a vacation in Talbot.

The Easton High School graduating class is as follows: Misses Carrie R. Burnite, Claude B. Dawson, Fannie H. Hollyday, Emilie Pratt, Lulu C. Roberts, Mary K. Saulsbury, M. Mabel Smith, Masters Frederick Bartlett, Mason Shehan and Denny Willson.

Wm. T. Dixon and family, of Baltimore, have taken up their residence at Bloomfield for the summer.

The GAZETTE wishes to correct an error of last week, in regard to the prospective marriage of Miss Helen Hunt. The wedding will occur at the residence of her mother on Rail road avenue, and not at the M. P. Church, as tated.

Mr. Clayland Mullikin, who is a student of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, has returned home for vacation.

Rev. F. T. Tagg and family have removed to Baltimore.

Mr. John B. McNeal, of McDanieltown, who is able to be out again, paid his respects to the GAZETTE on Tuesday.

Mrs. George E. Haddaway returned Thursday from San Francisco. Miss Sallie K. Powell and Wilson M. Tylor are expected home to-day.

Mr. T. H. Hicks Pritchett, our efficient Postal clerk, has received a well-earned promotion, and will soon be transferred to the Phila. and Crisfield R. P. O. The GAZETTE congratulates him upon his advancement—but very much regrets to lose him as a citizen.

Mr. S. E. Jump, of the Custom House, Baltimore, is spending a short vacation at his home, Matthews.

Sam'l H. Dawson, of St. Michaels, assumed the duties of Day Inspector at the Baltimore Custom House on June 1st.

Mr. M. M. Higgins, of the 1st Md. district, was a member of the Committee on Rules at Minneapolis Convention.

Lawn Mowers.-Shannahan & Wrightson Hardware Co. will sell you a first-class Lawn Mower at bottom price.

From Friend to Friend

Goes the story of the excellence of Hood's Sarsaparilla and what it has accomplished, and this is the strongest advertising which is done on behalf of this medicine. We endeavor to tell honestly what Hood's Sarsaparilla is and what it will do, but what it has done is far more important and far more potent. Its unequalled record of cures is sure to convince those who have never tried Hood's Sarsaparilla that it is an excellent medicine.

Half Rates to Chicago via Pennsylvania Railroad.

For the benefit of delegates and visitors to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago, on June 21st, 1892, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Chicago, from all principal stations on its lines, at a single fare for the round trip. The rate from New York is $20 00; Philadelphia. $18 25; Baltimore, $17.00; Washington $17.00 and other stations in proportion. The tickets will be sold from June 16th to 20th, inclusive, and the return coupons will be good to leave Chicago until July 8th, 1892. Tickets will be accepted for passage on the Pennsylvania Limited in either direction in connection with proper extra fare checks.

Guaranteed Cure.

We authorize our advertised druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition. If you are afflicted with a Cough, Cold or any lung, Throat or Chest trouble, and will use this remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We could not make this offer did we not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied on. It never disappoints. Trial bottles free at J. C. Henry & Bro.'s Drug Store. Large size 50c. and $1.00.

Death of Murphy Shannahan.—The sudden death of J. W. Murphy Shannahan, which occurred on Tuesday evening, while bathing at Deep Point, Tred Avon river, was a particularily sad occurrence. It is the opinion of the physicians, who were summoned, that death resulted from apoplexy. Mr. Shannahan was brought to shore by Frank A. White, who discovered his helpless condition in time to prevent his sinking. When word of the sad affair first reached Easton it was presumed that he had been drowned at Deep Point, where so many have lost their lives. His father, Mr J. H. K. Shannahan reached home at 7.30 P. M. Tuesday from a business trip to Baltimore, expecting to leave with his son on the 9 P. M. train for Ocean City, where they had a business engagement. Murphy was twenty-one years of age, a general favorite, bright and honorable; just entering the period of useful manhood. Idolized by an invalid mother, companionable to a kind father and loved by his brothers, his memory will be cherished. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of their friends and neighbors, which is all that mortals can give. The funeral services were held at the residence of Mr. Shannahan on Bay St. at 3 P. M. Thursday, conducted by Rev. Mr. Avery of the M. E. Church, assisted by Rev. Mr. Sherman of the M. P. Church. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. The interment was in Spring Hill Cemetery. The honorary pall bearers were W. H. Myers, J. Harry Covington, W. H. Kemp, and Jos. T. White. The active bearers were Walter C. Hughes, Frank A. White, Frank A. Shannahan, Willard Shannahan, Fred Harris and John Jump.

Let all who are interested in the cause of Peace and Arbitration, and other branches of the W. C. T. U. work, lend us their aid in extending the circulation of our little papers, that the influence of the Department may be widespread and effective in winning more helpers in this work for God and humanity. We shall "strive as much as in us lies," and with the aid of our esteemed contributors and co-workers, to make these papers as valuable aids as possible in the grand cause to which we have dedicated them, and in asking you to subscribe we are not asking you to help build up a newspaper enterprise, (for, as we have previously stated, our aim in publishing them is not to make money), but we trust that in securing a large subscription list for the papers, the principles of Peace may be more widely diffused and new friends and helpers may be gained for the Master's work, whose interests they advocate.

SAVE MY SON.

A gentleman once visited an evangelist and requested him to speak to his son who was being carried away by the desire for strong drink. He said: "My father died a drunkard and I am going to die a drunkard, as many of my relations have done."

I protested, but he insisted, "Nothing is more certain; we need talk no more about it. But you have some influence over my son, and I wish you could persuade him to be a total abstainer. He is beginning to take wine, every little just now, but that is just how I began at his age, and I know that with the hereditary bias towards intemperance which he has, nothing can save him but total abstinence."

Some may make an excuse of heridity, but it is a most mighty and solemn fact. Medical men affirm that the hereditary taint may overleap a generation and concentrate itself in one or two of a family, and at your table where you only take wine moderately, the dormant tendency may be aroused which may cause your beloved child to join the great army of drunkards. Total abstinence is the only safeguard for the young. For within that cup of wine, even at the home table of the moderation drinker, there is concealed the fangs of a demon which shall poison the lives, character and purpose of every partaker. Touch not, taste not, handle not is the only trinity, by God's help, which can take a life safely through this world of temptation and vice.

THE OLD AND THE NEW.

BY CLINTON.

In ages past, as sacred record shows,
And as the God above us only knows,
When He led forth from cruel Pharoah's hand
His chosen people to the promised land;
When in a cloud He guarded them by day,
And in the night by fire made plain the way;
When in the front the raging billows tossed,
And on their rear pressed the Egyptian host,
The waters rolling back at His command,
The people all passed over on dry land;
When in the wilderness they wandered long,
Sometimes rebuking God add doing wrong;
It was His will, in those dark days of yore,
When God's true men grew less, the heathen more.
That He should slay the mockers of His name,
And give His chosen ones the power and fame;
So nation after nation conquered lay
Before this little band, the writers say.
Lives were destroyed, and all the people saw
That Israel followed One whose will was law.
In those dark times God saw that it was best
To free the land and give his people rest.
The times have changed—'twas war and fighting then,
But since Christ came 'tis "Peace, good-will to men."
He bid wars cease and fightings have an end,
And to His own the Comforter did send.
Which shall we choose—the old law or the new?
Which would be best for this our land to do?
We see how Greece has fallen to decay,
And how that Rome has trod the same hard way;
That of the once proud realm she used to own
She now stands most deserted and alone.
These both arose by fighting and the sword,
And, as recorded in God's written word,
"They that take up the sword 'gainst fellowmen
Shall perish by the sword,"—'tis now as then.
So they have fallen, and we too shall fall
If avarice leads the way.
Though boundaries shrink and governments grow small,
Let peace alone hold sway.

Experience.—Applicable to many shades of life and full of suggestive food for reflection, is the "S'perience of Reb'rend Quacko Strong."

Swing dat gate wide, 'Postle Peter,
Ring de big bell, beat be gong,
Saints and martyrs, den will meet dar
Brudder, Reb'rnd Quacko Strong.

Sound dat bugle, Angel Gabriel!
Tell de elders loud and long,
Cl'ar out dem high seats ob Heaben,
Here comes Reb'rend Quacko Strong.

Turn de guards out, Gin'ral Michael,
Arms present, de line along
Let de band play "Conk'rin Hero"
For de Reb'rend Quacko Strong.

Joseph maren down wid your bred'ren,
Tribes and banners musterin' strong,
Speech of welcome from old Abram,
Answer, Reb'rend Quacko Strong.

Tune your harp-strings tight, King David,
Sing you, good Ole Hundred song,
Let de seraphs dance wid cymbals
'Round de Reb'rend Quacko Strong.

Angels hear me yell Hossanner,
Hear my dulcem speritool song;
Halleluyer! I'm a comin',
I'm de Reb'rend Quacko Strong.

Make dat white robe radder spacious,
And the waist belt 'strodn'ry long,
'Cause 'twill take some room in glory
For de Reb'rend Quacko Strong.

What! No one at de landin'!
'Pears like suff'in 'nudder's wrong;
Guess I'll gib dat sleepy Peter
Fitts—from Reb'rend Quacko Strong.

What a narrer little gateway!
My! dat gate am hard to move.
"Who am dat?" says 'Postle Peter
From the Parapet above.

Uncle Peter don't you know me—
Me a shinin' light so long?
Why de berry niggers call me
Good ole Reb'rend Quacko Strong.

Dun'no me--de shoutin' preacher,
Reg'lar hull hog Wesleyan too;
Whar' in the woods you've been a loafin'?
Some old rooster's bodder'd you.

I reckon. Why! I've convarted
Hundreds o' darkies in a song.
Dun'no me! nor yet my massa!
I'm de Reb'rend Quacko Strong.

Hark to that ar' cur'us roarin'
Far away, but rollin nigher;
See de dreffle drajon flyin',
Head like night and mouf on fire!

'Tis de berry king ob debbils,
An' he am rushin' right along,
Oh, dear Peter, please to open
To Class leader Quacko Strong.

Ole Nick's comin'; I can feel it
Gettin warmer all about.
Oh! my good, kind Kurnel Peter,
Let me in, I'm all too stout.

To go along with Major Satan
Into dat warm climate, 'mong
Fire an' brimstone. Hear me knockin'
Ole church member, Quack Strong.

Dat loud noise am comin' nearer,
Dreffle smell, like powder smoke;
'Nudder screech! Good heben help me—
Lord forgive this poor ole moke.

Allers was so berry holy,
Singin' and prayin' extra long;
Now de debil's guine to catch me,
Poor old nigger, Quacko Strong.

Hi! dat gate swing back a little,
Mighty squeezin to get froo!
Ole Appolon howlin' louder!
Everything around am blue.

Bang de gate goes! an Belzebub,
Bunch ob wool npon his prong,
Goes along widout de soul ob
Missable sinner, name ob Strong.

Protection and Agriculture.

From the American Economist.

Our American Policy of Protection was inaugurated by farmers for the special benefit of farmers.

The First Congress, which framed the first Tariff, was composed for the most part of farmers, and it was signed by a farmer President —George Washington.

These men felt the need of Protection in order to create a home market for their products.

They had all the farmers they wanted, but were suffering for a non-agricultural population to buy what they raised.

They could not sell their wheat and vegetables to one another.

From the first our Tariff system has depended for its maintenance in every election on farmers' votes. They remembered how wretched they were when all were agriculturists and how protection brought them relief exactly as the framers of the first Tariff had predicted.

So nothing has ever been able to wean the American farmer from his love for Washington's and Hamilton's, and Jefferson's and Madison's Protective Policy. And the Free-Trade "reformer" is unable to do so to-day.

Farmers see the land of Virginia which has few factories, selling on the average at about $11 an acre, while the poorer land of Pennsylvania, with many factories, brings $49 an acre.

In Mississippi, devoted exclusively to agriculture, land sell for less than six dollars an acre, but brings $42 in sterile, but manufacturing, Massachusetts.

The average in Georgia, where mills are almost unknown, is between $4 and $5 an acre; but in New Jersey, with all its swamps and clay beds, the average value of land is $65.

So the farmers continue, and will continue, to vote for Protection and against Free-Trade, because they do not want to vote away one-half the value of their farms.

And who can blame them for it?

SUMMER TOURS.

The Latest Publication of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The 1st of June is a date looked forward to by the thousands who make their preliminary plans for summer outings, and their main guide is the Summer Excursion book issued yearly by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, which regularly appears on that date. Advanced copies for the season of 1892 are fresh from the press, and certainly excel anything of like character ever published by this progressive railroad company.

It is not only a compendium of all the rates prevailing over its own and connecting lines to the principal resorts of the land, but it is equally as valuable as a guide-book, with full and explicit information as to how trips may be made, and as to what desirable variations may be utilized to enhance their pleasure and profit. Nearly five hundred resorts, ranging from Prince Edward Island to the mountains of western North Carolina, from the southern extremity of New Jersey to the wild lakes of Canada, from the mineral springs of Virginia to the great inland lakes, are described at length, and over fifteen hundred routes, representing a stock of fifteen hundred special forms of tickets, are set out clearly and intelligibly within its pages.

In arranging these routes care has been observed in making them read over lines that present the greatest number of interesting points, and in every case there is a wide field for choice. They also provide for a return trip by a different direction, so that the tourist may find his outing a continual succession of changing scenes.

It is so comprehensive that one could hardly ask for a ticket to an Eastern resort of any prominence and fail to find it ready-made by a variety of routes. One hundred and thirty railroad and steamb at lines are represented in the coupons of these tickets, every one of them connecting directly or remotely with the Pennsylvania system.

The cover to this handsome edition represents one of the famous Pennsylvania Railroad Observation Cars artistically executed. The illustrations are the finest style of half tone work, on as high a grade as the popular magazine productions.

Pungent Paragraphs from Jones.—Among the pleasant things Sam Jones told the people of Roanoke we find the following:

The man who drinks whiskey isn't as good as a decent dog.

The church is the only thing in town deader than a grave yard.

The devil is unable to ruin a man unless he has some assistance.

I would rather go home with the smallpox or the cholera than with whisky on my breath.

Some of you preachers have been living here a year, and your own people don't know it.

If the people were as diligent in making christians as the saloons are in making sinners, Roanoke could be saved in forty eight hours.

A man who serves the devil all the week and goes to church on Sunday and asks the Lord to bless him, is the lowest down rascal in the gang.

I don't believe there is a more infernal character than the man who will enter a house of infamy, and then go home and pillow his head by the side of his pure wife.

American society never will measure up to the proper standard, until every young man is as pure as his sister.

There is many a church official in hell, and a good many more going the same road.

You can't keep bad company without being ruined. If it don't burn you it will smut you.

The price of a woman's virtue ought to be the price of her life.

For Over Fifty Years
