FOR PRESIDENT

BENJAMIN HARRISON,

OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT

WHITELAW REID,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR CONGRESS.

GEORGE M. RUSSUM,

OF CAROLINE COUNTY.

GRANDFATHER AND GRANDSON.

McCOMAS is scheduled for a foreign mission.

If you want to make a democrat sick, refer to the last Congress in comparison with the former "Billion Dollar Congress."

A TEXAS newspaper tells us of a couple that were "nuptiated." The possibilities of the English language have not been half exhausted.

CONGRESSMAN PAIGE is not so strong in the First District as many suppose. He may win, but it is our earnest opinion that Mr. Russum will give him a very close race.

With Russum and Wellington in Congress—assisted by their colleague to be selected in the Fifth District, Mr. Harrison will know next year upon whom he can rely for correct advice as to what will best promote the interests of his party in this State.

IT looks as if Hon. Barnes Compton will be nominated to-day at the Fifth District Democratic Congressional Convention. Compton is sharp—and knowing ones surmise a "method" in his recent letter declining to be a candidate.

MAJOR MCKINLEY bids eastern Republicans have no fear about the north-western states. He says we will carry safely every one of them and several of the southern states besides. McKinley generally knows what he is talking about.

HON. GEORGE M. RUSSUM, nominee for Congress, expects to visit every section of the First District, and will make some telling speeches. Talbot gave him a Republican majority two years ago—she will do it again this fall. Let's send Russum to Congress. A vigorous campaign will do it.

SECRETARY FOSTER on Tuesday named twenty-two beneficent results of the McKinley law. These were all based on actual figures. If the average free trader would take the trouble to read, he would ascertain much which he does not now know—or with dogged pertinacity does not want to know.

CLEVELAND is at Buzzard's Bay trying to write his letter of acceptance. When he reads his letter of 1884, saying "the eligibility of the President for re-election is a most serious danger to a government"—and then in a hasty turn to his letter of 1888, comes to 'inocuous desuetude'—he may well remark that he is confronted with a "condition."

MR. HARRISONS' policy of reciprocity has so much benefited New Orleans that the Picayune, of that city, says that within the few months that the treaty has been in force with Cuba it has been instrumental in bringing several additional steamers into Havanna traffic with that city. Previously only imports were received from Cuba; but now there is an increased export of flour, corn and other commodities.

THE larger number of accidents and fatalities that occur in hot weather is in the main accounted for by the greatly increased amount of travel incident to the heated term. Big excursions, heavily loaded trains and steamers, pleasure driving and boating and large crowds are the features of the season. The danger from these sources is apparent and all that can be done is to minimize it by care, prudence and good management.

THE bidding which is going on for the half-dollar admission coins which are to be used as tickets to the World's Fair creates the impression that the poor will have no business with the exposition. Perhaps the Chicago people will be good enough to bid all the coins in for souvenirs at about $300 apiece—which seems to be the going rate—and then permit the masses to use ordinary fifty-cent pieces. They would no more than come up then to the promises they made when they were besieging Congress to let them have the fair in Chicago instead of in New. York.

THE Baltimore News views with alarm the discouraging situation, from a democratic standpoint, of the Fifth and Sixth Congressional Districts, and calls for subscriptions to meet in those districts "legitimate expenses of a vigorous campaign of education."

Now the News should know, if it doesn't, that the more the people are trully educated in regard to the issues now pending—the more Republican votes there will be. And the News should still further know, if it doesn't, that the Democratic National committee is amply prepared at its own expense to flood every doubtful Congressional District in this country with loads upon loads of free-trade literature—from Clevelands' message to a Mills' speech, and to disseminate and spread out this kind of "education," does not depend upon any local subscriptions, whatever. But the News does know that its generous fund as well as all other subscriptions, will be dumped into a common pot—not so much to push a "vigorous campaign of education," as to push a vigorous bribery business on election day.

The News knows this—if it does not say so.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

For Sale By J. S. GRIFFITH, and Leading Grocers of Easton.

THIS IS NO REPUBLICAN TALK, But it is one of those straight-hitting editors from the Baltimore Argus of last Saturday—a democratic journal that usually "speaks out" when it has anything to say, and this is one thing it says:

"Somebody with a keen sense of the ridiculous, or an immense fund of sarcasm and satire, suggest "Baby," alias "Widow's Mite," Brown as the nominee for Congress from the Fifth Congressional District. This must be one of the Rev. Joel Haddaway Rowlenson's jokes. "Cyclops," better look again, and go it one better. Baby Brown could not be elected to a scavenger's place in the State House to-day if the people had to vote for him. His treatment of George Colton, his failure to pay his election expenses, his lies and deceits, his imbecilities and idiocies, have marked him so definitely as only an apology in the shape of a man that, compared to him, Judus Iscariot stands forth as a model of gratitude, Benedict Arnold as a patriot and Ananias as an embodiment of truth, self-sacrifice and unselfishness. "Cæsar has his Brutus, Charles I. his Cromwell," but it has remained for Maryland and this generation to be cursed with such a political abortion, labeled Frank Brown that every passer-by exclaims, "What is it?" Providence, evidently, in him has designed to show us how small a man may be."

WE would enquire of the Baltimore Argus if the democratic party has of recent years given Maryland a Governor who could sustain the confidence of the people—or even the democratic party, throughout his term? This party evidently cares more about nominating a man who will "shell out" before election than it cares how he will "pan out" after he is elected. Then, even if he is a "weakling," (with the managers,) and hasn't read the State Constitution, or has to be told to mind his own business—as was the case recently when Col. Thomas Hunt of the House of Correction Board is reported to have thus paid his compliments to Gov. Brown—it matters not. The democratic party, without a blush, is not only ready to villify for the short comings of those of its own making (though too often extols them) but turns to a defeated people with that cancerous cry of "reform" tagged on to the word "tax" or "ballot"—and then with another instrument selected solely for its "shelling out" possibilities proceeds again to fix up the "next job."

The Republican party is proud of its past record and by reference to which it receives renewed strength and assurances to fight the battles of the future. But how it is possible for the people of Maryland to turn with any degree of pride to the record of the democratic party in this State—or to vote to keep the same in power, is indeed a mystery.

Federalsburg, Md., Aug. 22, '92.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—In an interview with a reporter of the Baltimore News published in that paper, dated Aug. 11, we find Col. Frances A. Benson of Talbot county said, "Why he left them," which places Col. Benson and the Farmers' Alliance in a false light before the public. Through a desire that justice may prevail, standing as I do in my Alliance upon the principles of the truth, upon which Col. Benson once stood in his, and having at heart unselfishly the good of the noblest order chartered by this government. So that the damage and injustice perpetrated and designed against our cause may be, in a measure, made known even at this late date.

In the article in question, Col. Benson is made to say that he withdrew from the Alliance on the 10th because it had gone into the third party movement; that when the Alliance decided to go into the third party movement, as a democrat, he was compelled to leave the Alliance, etc., which implies, and from which the inference may be drawn, that the session of the Maryland State Alliance just then closed had thrown down its true non partisan principles and hoisted a partisan flag, all of which is falsely misleading in the extreme.

Col. Benson was vice president and served in that capacity throughout the session referred to. He was prompt in attendance, cheerfully took active part in the proceedings even up to installation of new officers at the close of the session; and he knows as well as any man living that there was not a motion or resolution offered during the entire session that savored in the least of political partisanship, or that could be reasonably construed to mean that the Alliance had gone, or is going into a first, second, third, or any other political party. He, and all other members who have attended the previous State Alliance meetings know full well that the session just closed was a strictly non-partisan session as all such meetings should be, and that it was the freest from anything of a partisan nature of any State meeting ever held in Maryland. Furthermore, the first resolution offered, as published in the report of the proceedings, reiterates with renewed emphasis our non-partisan character. Now in the face of all these facts, the Colonel says the Alliance decided to go into politics, and that because he is a democrat he was compelled to withdraw.

I remember another circumstance that has a bearing on the subject and calculated to place the Colonel in his true light. About the 12th of August 1891, Col. Benson was elected vice president of Maryland State Alliance. At that very meeting, before the election of officers took place, there was passed by a large majority vote, a disgustingly strong partisan resolution fully endorsing the great democratic mogul, "Farmer Frank Brown for Governor of the State, and to the best of my recollection, Col. Benson voted in favor of that resolution.—There was red hot politics in that, and Caroline delegates did not vote for it. It was, however, democratic politics, which makes all the difference in the world to some people. No one heard the Colonel kicking about the Alliance going into politics on that occasion, though it went further into them then, and came near destroying its usefulness by so doing, than ever before or since. So taking the whole evidence together, in summing up, we have before us the undeniable fact that Col. Benson is out of the Alliance to-day simply because it will not go into politics, and into so-called democratic politics at that.

Now there are lots of people, in the Alliance and out, who freely say they are going to support the Peoples' party, which they yet have a perfect and inherent right to do, and Col. Benson has a right to do the same thing, or to support the democratic party, or any other he chooses; and the Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union of America has no rights specified or implied, justifying it in objecting to the Colonel's exercise of his privilege. He could have remained in the Alliance and voted as he pleased, as every member knows full well. And this fact, carefully considered, shows up the injustice of his course in very glaring colors indeed. It shows that the Third party is not what he is striking at, or at least not what he is hitting, but he is stabbing the Alliance in the back. And while in this train of thoughts, under existing circumstances while the Alliance has been stuffed so full of enemies within its ranks, men of ability working underhandedly for political preferment and personal aggrandizement, it is easy to imagine that the Colonel has a special political object in view, and that he will be politically rewarded in due time.

Col. Benson, personally, is a very genial gentleman, of good pleasing address, intelligent and entertaining in conversation, and occupies a position in society that qualifies him for great good in his community; but if he has decided to antagonized the Farmers' and Laborers' legitimate efforts to better their condition, it is to be feared that his usefulness among his fellow men is about ended.

No true Alliance man will question the Colonel's privilege to be a democrat or a republican, if, with the lights before him he can do so conscieniously. But every true Alliance member who allows his partisanship to cause him to forget his obligations to his Order and his fellow men.

It is a source of much sorrow that so many otherwise good men act so strangely wicked in politics, as if when politics go in reason goes out.—But however sad to contemplate, such are facts, and the Alliance in this State has been wofully cursed with just that sort of element. However, our Order is improving in proportion to such characters repenting or dropping out of our ranks, and showing of what they are made; and there is lots of encouragement for the "good and true" just now. Notwithstanding the false statements that our membership has dwindled down to three or four hundred, inquiry of the state secretary will show that we have an actual membership of about fifteen hundred—somewhat reduced in numbers, it is true, but a thousand per cent. purer, still growing and more united in our purposes to day than ever before.

A great many who were 'blown out' by the cold wave of last fall are coming back into the fold again, and it is to be hoped that even those who, in their thoughtlessness, have done us much injury, will truly repent when they see themselves as others see them, and will ever after be found ready to help the oppressed wealth producers, the farmers and laborers in their efforts to improve their condition mentally, morally, socially and financially. For to all such truly penitent sinners who are willing to refrain from ever trifling of a partisan nature in our Alliance halls, who are willing to use only purely legitimate means in a purely non-partisan spirit, our Alliance doors stand wide open with a sincere fraternal welcome.

Yours for the right,
FRANK H. JONES,
State Lecturer.

Important Typewriter Decision.

Judge Lacombe, sitting in the U. S. Circuit Court, has, on the motion of the Remington Typewriter Company, granted an injunction against the agents of the Franklin, restraining the sale of that machine on account of infringement of Remington patents. The decision is an important one, as it proves the control of the fundamental patents, and may affect other makers of typewriters. The Remington people have heretofore been quite passive, but it is stated on good authority that they are now likely to proceed against all other typewriter manufacturing companies. In some cases purchasers of machines which infringe Remington patents may also be proceeded against for infringement.—N. Y. Tribune. tf
