Every testimonial regarding Hood's Sarsaparilla is an honest unpurchased statement of what this medicine has actually done.

—Did you attend the fair?

—Dust is laid lower than John L.

—Prepare your fall advertisement.

—Watermelon season is about over.

—Hotel Avon has been over full this week.

—Gunners are oiling up their fowling-pieces.

—Prohibition and protection work all right in cholera.

—No drunkenness observed in our banner town during fair week.

—Delmar is not only being rebuilt, but is being remodeled.

—Good looking girls in Easton worry the eyes of unhandsome youths.

—The organ grinder takes his weary round and never wearies in well doing.

—Excuse short comings, but we have to come short of excusing delinquents.

—Crap seems to be the chief source of revenue for our officials. What will the officers do when they break the boys up?

—The Smyrna Creamery Association last month received 91,645 pounds of milk and made therefrom 3,623 pounds of butter.—Call.

—Peaches have been selling at one dollar a basket in Easton this week and last. They are most as scarce as dollars themselves. We must be content with the recollection of peaches and cream of other years.

—See Hamilton Easter & Sons' card, also Strawbridge & Clothier's and Wannamaker & Brown's in to-day's issue. These leading houses return to the Gazette with the season. Would they do it if it did not pay?

—The passage last week of a large number of immigrants through Salisbury, en route to New York from Baltimore, and from New York to points in the South has caused fear of an invasion of cholera in that place. Immigrant trains pass over the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk railroad every night and stop at Salisbury for water, and measures are being taken to prevent a lodgment of the disease from these trains. Cholera was introduced into Salisbury in 1832 by bay a vessel from Baltimore, says an exchange.

50cts. 50cts. 50cts. 50cts. Only 50cts. to Ocean City next Wednesday, Sept. 21st. Train will leave bay shore 7:45 A. M. and stop at all points, leaving Easton at 8:30 A. M.

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

W. C. T. U.—The business meeting which was announced for Sept. 14 is postponed until Wednesday the 21. By order of President.

For Hog Cholera.—Go to Shannahan & Wrightson Hardware Co. and get a package of "Pratt's Cattle Food." For poultry, use "Pratt's Poultry Food." It is a splendid remedy. Try it. 3t

Special Notice.—Fall and Winter Schedule for the Baltimore & Eastern Shore R. R. will go in effect Monday next Sept. 19th, and will be similar to that of last fall and winter.

For full information regarding the above, see new time tables posted at all stations.

Boots and Shoes at Cost.—Jarrell & Nichols have decided to sell their shoe department on Oct. 1st to another party and from this date until Oct. 1st they will sell all shoes and boots at cost for cash. This is a good opportunity for families to lay in their winter boots and shoes. 2t

Personals.—Mr. Thomas Ford and family spent this week with his parents on Dover road.

Miss Sadie C. Nicols will reopen her school for girls and boys in the Engine House, Monday, Sept. 19.

A. H. Valliant has bought out E. W. Norris at Hambleton.

Mr. Chas Stevens of Denton attended the fair on Thursday, and continued his subscription to the old reliable Gazette.

Editor Reese of the Crisfield Leader made the Gazette a pleasant call this week. He once resided in Easton and says we are progressing.

Miss Vergie Montague after spending five very pleasant weeks in Baltimore county returned home Tuesday morning accompanied by her cousin, Mr. Wilbert Hutchins.

Wm. P. Wright, Esq. of Talbot, but who has for several months been living in Kent county, was yesterday appointed keeper of Beacon Light House by Collector Marine of the Baltimore Custom House. The Beacon Light is situated near the Baltimore harbor. Mr. Wright is much gratified at his appointment.

Misses Clara, Eva and Sadie Donoho, three attractive and very entertaining young ladies of Baltimore, have been enjoying the sweets of country life in Talbot county during the past few days. They were accompanied by Messrs. Jacob Breidenstein, John Gebelein, Chas. Begnelle, William Porcher, and Hurbert Horn.

Mr. Jas. A. Barwick of Sacramento, California, was on east last week attending to Government business at Rochester in the interest of science. He spent a day with his relative, Mr. Chas. Wooters of this town, and made the Gazette a special call to talk over the recent meeting the Gazette man had with him on car Itasca as it went through the favored state of California. Sergant Barwick, it is remembered, rode many miles in said car pointing out places of interest and helping Sacramento do honor to the editors on that noted trip. Mr. Barwick is a "big" man there, and well deserves to be, for he hails from "My Maryland" and does honor to his native state. But notwithstanding his oyster episode—at the expense of the Centreville Record, whose editor still bewails the Californian's capacity for Chesapeake bivalves—Mr. Barwick was able to inquire carefully and particularly after a certain young widow he met on car Itasca. He also said that Dr Earl's field of corn between Easton and Centreville is the finest his eye has rested on this year. California, Illinois and Kansas not excepted.

Don't forget the last grand excursion to Ocean City is next Wednesday. Only 50 cts. round trip. Train will leave Easton 8:30 A.M. Returning after the fireworks at Ocean City at night.

No Service.—There will be no service at M. E. Church, South, on Sunday morning, owing to the dedicatory service of Smithson's Chapel. A hymn, composed expressly for the occasion will be sung to "My Maryland." Prizes will be presented. Rev. Ramsey Smithson will conduct the services. Dover Bridge is in good condition, so all from Easton who desire can attend. Service in the evening, Epworth League 6.30. Preaching by Rev. Dashiell in the Easton church.

G. A. R.—Hicks Post No. 24 G. A. R. will leave Easton on Sunday evening the 18th inst. on the Steamer Joppa of Md. Steamboat line, for Washington to participate in the parade and other ceremonies in connection with the meeting of the National Encampment G.A.R. All comrades who can will take the boat at Easton Point and all others can join us at the most convenient point on the route. Those who go by other routes will report at Camp Farragut immediately on their arrival in Washington. The fare by the boat will be one dollar for the round trip to Baltimore and return, and the fare from Baltimore to Washington and return will be $1.20. Free quarters have been engaged for the members of the Post and good board will be furnished at $1.00 per day each. All comrades who can possibly do so are urged to unite with us.

By command of Thos. H. Coburn.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

"From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Lord of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in, and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. Kings New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at J. C. Henry Bro.'s Drug store, regular size, 50c. and $1.00

Talbot's Seventh Annual Fair.—Monday commenced the busy week of the Fair and hundreds of vehicles entered the gates on that day carrying exhibits, Tuesday was slightly clouded in the morning but being children's day was largely attended, the slight showers in the afternoon did not prevent the racing nor the arranged program from being carried out. Tuesday night a heavy storm threatened to finish the prospects for a financial success, but the following day was clear and thousands were in attendance. Thursday surpassed all previous records in numbers, a constant stream of people and vehicles flowing fair-ward until late in the day. The trains were well filled too. This day was perfect and should argue favorable results to the association. Friday did not fall far behind the greatest expectation and it is safe to predict, early as it is, that there will be something left over the expenses this year.

Batring the races there was not so much to attract as has sometimes been on the grounds. There were fewer exhibits than ever before, judging entirely from a survey, and not from the Secretary's books. Certain is it there were fewer gambling concerns, in fact no genuine fakirs on the grounds. The usual three-balls-for-a-nickle man was there in all his glory, and so were the venders of various wares. All these conspired to entertain those who wandered aimlessly, while the races and jugglers gave entertainment to those who were seated in the grand stand.

Hubbard & Brother had a fine exhibit of Phospates and Fertilizer, their unique stand never presented a handsomer appearance.

Shannahan & Wrightson Hardware Co. had their usual large exhibit of machinery, farming utensils, stoves, carriages and wagons.

Ed. T. Nicols had a very select and interesting exhibit of agricultural machinery.

N. Tuthill & Son exhibited the Bickford & Huffman drill and other agricultural implements.

The Nickerson Fertilizer Co. had a large and attractive display of their goods.

Jos. T. White had his usual interesting display of brick and tile.

The Crystal Washer Co. of Easton entertained hundreds by showing how easy a thing it was to wash dirty clothes until they were clean.

The Singer Sewing Machine, represented by Mr. Moore, had its usual corner in the Household department filled, and drew crowds to witness the excellent work of these machines.

The floral department was quite full of beautiful specimens, but the fruit and vegetables were lacking in quantity.

The poultry house was full and the sheep and swine pens all taken. But few cattle, compared with other years, were on exhibition.

It is not possible at this writing to obtain complete lists of awards.

Under the horse and mule division the following are all that obtained first premiums: Class 1st, Standard, F. C. Goldsborough, for stallion over 4 yrs. old. M. T. Goldsborough for mare over 4 yrs. old. Ashby Stock Farm for mare 3 yrs. old. Dr. Jarman, Chestertown, for stallion 2 yrs. old. Frank Ehlen, Balto., for mare or gelding 2 yrs. old. Ashby Stock Farm for stallion 1 yr. old. E. H. Roe for mare or gelding 1 yr. old. Ashby Stock Farm for spring colt. E. H. Roe for brood mare with two or more colts. Ashby Stock Farm for brood mare with foal at her foot.

Under Class 7 for general utility, Wm. E. Roe for stallion over 4 yrs. old. Jno. K. Caulk for mare over 4 yrs., also for stallion 3 yrs. T. T. Smith, Trappe, for mare or gelding 3 yrs. J. Harold Wheeler for mare 2 yrs. Owen Norris for stallion 1 yr. J. H. Wheeler for mare 1 yr. James Dixon for spring colt. F. C. Goldsborough for brood mare with two or more colts. M. T. Goldsborough for brood mare with foal at foot.

Under Class 8, Miscellaneous, E. H. Roe for pr. light harness horses. Jno. K. Caulk, single driving horse. Ed. Hardcastle, gentleman's driving horse.

Under class 9, mules, R. J. Wilson, Queenstown, for pair mules 16 hands high, also for pair 15 hands high, and for mare with mule foal at foot, J. H. Wheeler for single mule. Dr. Johnson for mule colt 2 yrs. old. The divisions not mentioned had no entries.

Diplomas were awarded to The Crystal Washer Co. of Easton, The Singer Sewing Machine Co., represented by Mr. Moore, Jos. H. White for draining tile, also for bricks, Samuel Smith, Easton, for buggies with top, and also for buggy without top. G. M. Wingard, Oxford, exhibited steam plow, engine, and separator, which attracted crowds; a large piece of dry sod was plowed in a short time before the audience in the grand stand; diploma.

C. E. Carothers, Houstonville, Pa., captured all the premiums on short horn cattle, ten first and seven second premiums. Col. Edw'd Lloyd took all on Herefords, four first and four second. R. J. Wilson, Queenstown, took all on Devons, three first premiums and one second. F. H. Johnston took all on grades in beef cattle, he exhibited four Hereford cows—beauties. E. T. Benson took first premium on best display of dairy cattle, and C. E. Carothers on beef cattle. Col. Ed. Lloyd took the sweepstakes prize on best herd. J. J. Reese, Matthews, took first on best Holstein heifer, also second on best Holstein yearling bull. W. G. Dawson, 2nd on Holstein full grown bull. More entries were made in Jerseys than in any other breed of cattle. Of these Jos. Blain took two 1st premiums, Jas. L. Banning one, E. T. Benson one, Jos. B. Seth one first and three second, Henry Rieman one first, Jno. P. Horney and G. A. Marvel each second. Jos. Blain took all premiums on dairy cows—any breed. Six first and five second premiums were awarded to grades in dairy breeds, Jno. P. Horney taking two 1st and one 2d. Wm. G. Dawson one 1st. E. T. Benson two first and two second. Henry Reiman one 1st, one 2d. Dr. J. A. Johnson one 2d. F. B. Eastman took first premium on Ayrshire heifer. C. E. Carothers took second on fat heifer and W. H. DeCourcy, of Queen Annes took first. No competition in other individuals represented by Mr. Carothers large exhibit of splendid cattle. This completes the awards in cattle.

The books of the household department were not obtainable at this writing, and were most too voluminous to undertake. The other departments are omitted for want of time, as this paper goes to press before the fair closes.

Of the races, those interested have already informed themselves through regular reports, and those not interested will not be disappointed in seeing no allusion to them in this report.

Thursday was a tremendous day and the receipts were close to being the most ever taken in one day through the history of the fair.

The Association this year gave more than ever before to entertain the people, having provided the unusual attractions of balloon ascension three days and the other novelty exhibits, such as tight wire performances, rifle practice by experts, dog trainer's exhibit, etc. There were also some respectable side shows on the grounds, but no swindling schemes.

Lane's Family Medicine Moves the Bowels each day. Most people need to use it.

School Trustees Must Take The Oath.—The opinion of Attorney-General John P. Poe, given in response to the request of the State board of education, has been sent to the county school commissioners of the State by Prof E. B. Prettyman, secretary of the board. Mr. Poe says: "I see no reason why district school trustees should be excused from taking the oath of office prescribed by the constitution. They are undoubtedly officers appointed under a law 'made pursuant' to the constitution, and the general regulation requiring 'every person hereafter elected or appointed to office in this State' to take the oath of office plainly includes them. Section 19, article 77 of the code, as amended and re-enacted by the act of 1892, chapter 628, does not provide by whom the oath shall be administered to them, nor repeal, either in express terms or by implication, section 6 and 7 of article 70 of the code, title 'Official Oaths,' and accordingly I am of opinion that the district school trustees should take and subscribe the oath before the clerk of the Circuit Court of the several counties, as provided by section 6 of that article.—*Balto. THE TITAN OF CHASMS.

A Mile Deep, 13 Miles Wide, 217 Miles Long, and Painted Like a Flower.

The Grand Canon of the Colorado River, in Arizona, is now for the first time easily accessible to tourists. A regular stage line has been established from Flagstaff, Arizona, on the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad, making the trip from Flagstaff to the most imposing part of the Canon in less than 12 hours. The stage fare for the round trip is only $20.00, and meals and comfortable lodgings are provided throughout the trip at a reasonable price. The view of the Grand Canon afforded at the terminus of the stage route is the most stupendous panorama known in nature. There is also a trail at this point leading down the Canon wall, more than 6,000 feet vertically, to the river below. The descent of the trail is a grander experience than climbing the Alps, for in the bottom of this terrific and sublime chasm are hundreds of mountains greater than any of the Alpine range.

A book describing the trip to the Grand Canon, illustrated by many full-page engravings from special photographs, and furnishing all needful information, may be obtained free upon application to Jno. J. Byrne, 723 Monadnock Block, Chicago, Ill.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Board of County Commissioners met on Tuesday.

Receipts were:

W. T. H. Lee, collector 1892,		$1,500 00
T. A. Lloyd,	" "	182 00
J. H. Holt,	" "	3,200 00
Total, - - -		$4,882 00

Disbursements were $2,311,85.

Isaac Demby, colored, and Samuel J. Carpenter, white, were put on the out pension list and paid ten dollars each.

Anna Sherwood, colored, was given a permit to occupy Talbot county's bed in the hospital of the Good Samaritans, Baltimore.

The contract to furnish the necessary election equipments for the eleven voting places, was awarded to Col. Edward Roberts, for $142, he being the lowest bidder.

M. B. Nichols resigned as trustee of the poor. His resignation was accepted, and W. P. Chaffinch was appointed in his place.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles!

Symptoms—Moisture; intense itchin and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swayne's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cts. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

The Ocean City Season Closed.—On Sunday last the Baltimore & Eastern Shore Railroad Company gave their employes a free excursion to Ocean City. This took in all the employes from the general office in Salisbury to the coal-heavers on the piers at Claiborne. Each employe was allowed to take his family or best girl. A jollier train load never went to old ocean. The season at Ocean City is about over. All the guests of the different hotels, except the gunners who remain over for the fine fall shooting, have departed.

On last Thursday the Atlantic Hotel reduced help and closed up all the house except that part kept open for the sportsmen. There is some talk of keeping a portion of the house open all winter to accommodate the sportsmen from Baltimore, New York and Philadelphia. The shooting at Ocean City this season is better than it has been for a number of years.

At the Congress Hall Hotel the Camphine Club, of Philadelphia, composed entirely of policemen of that city, had their headquarters this week. They take things easy and keep open house.

It is said to be almost a certainty that the Sinepuxent Beach Company will make some extended improvements in the Atlantic Hotel the coming spring. There was talk at first of building a new hotel, but it has now been definitely settled that the present house will be enlarged. The company own the space of ground between the hotel and Ocean avenue, and a wing or L will be built out so as to give a dining room with an ocean frontage.

All the permanent boarders and cottagers have left. Dr. Trippe's family returned to Easton Thursday.

New Oyster Tongs.—J. W. Newbry, of St. Michaels, has designed and perfected an ingenious pair of oyster tongs. The tongs in appearance are somewhat similar to the patent oyster tongs. The main shaft is of wood and is used as an upright. At the proper distance from the bottom a slot is made through this shaft into which is inserted a pulley. Through this slot passes the working shaft made of iron for the sake of weight and resistance. This shaft is given the proper sweep each way, to be controlled from above by a rope and pulley, fastened to the mast of the oyster vessel. Of course the teeth for catching oysters are on each shaft. The iron shaft is practically an automatic arrangement and will open on the bar without difficulty.

The Decision of Judge Robinson and Major Stewart's Advice.—A dispatch from Easton to the Baltimore Sun says:—Maj. W. E. Stewart, State's attorney for Talbot county received a letter from Judge John M. Robinson, dated Sept. 8, in regard to the conviction of an oyster tonger. Judge Robinson says: "Commander Seth brought before me to-day for trial a man arrested for the violation of the oyster act of 1882. He admitted that it was proved that he was found engaged in taking oysters not for private use, nor for a private bed, but in the public waters and on the public beds. His defense was that he was merely taking up the oysters for the purpose of selling them after the 15th of September, and not before. It was said that you had so construed the act of 1892 as to allow persons to take oysters from the public beds between the 1st and 15th of September provided they did not mean or in fact offer them for sale til after the 15th of September. I can hardly believe that you could have given such a construction. It seems to me, with deference, to be a palpable violation of the spirit and the letter of the law. No one, in my judgment, has the right to take up oysters for sale till after the 15th of September. I mean to take them up and keep them until that time and then offer them for sale. Any other construction would defeat the plain purpose of the act. So I found the traverser guilty and told the officers it was their duty to arrest every one taking oysters before the 15th if they were taken up for the purpose of sale and not for private use."

Major Stewart says: "In the case tried before Judge Robinson, the party admitted that he was engaged in taking oysters 'not for private use,' and that he was merely taking up the oysters 'for the purpose of selling them after the 15th of September.' I cannot see how the conviction of the party on such admissions and proof upsets my opinion given to the general oyster measurer on the 29th of August and published in the Sun September 8, for I say there that it is unlawful from the 1st to the 15th of September to catch oysters for sale.

"In the Sun, September 6, Gen. Seth says "he authorized the deputy commanders of the State Fishery Force to arrest all persons found taking oysters before Sept. 15."

"My opinion to Mr. Burns says 'any citizen of Talbot can from the 1st to the 15th day of September, with rakes or tongs, catch and take oysters, if not for sale.

"Judge Robinson told the officers to arrets every one taking oysters before the 15th if they were taken up for the purpose of sale and not for private use'. If oysters are taken for private use and not for sale, is it not unlawful to arrest the persons so taking them? Yet the commander says he has authorized his deputies to arrest 'all persons' found taking oysters before Sept. 15."

For Rent for 1893.—The large, glass-front storeroom known as the J. J. Jump dry goods department, lately occupied by Mr. Godwin. Lease will be given for reasonable time if desired. The store may be occupied after Sept. 1st 1892 if wanted. Terms reasonable. Apply immdiately to,

THE PUZZLER

No. 269.—Curtailments.

Remove a letter from each word to form the next word.

A one looking boy was going about the streets playing upon a two and collecting pennies of the passers by. One kindly faced gentleman said to him as he dropped a coin into the boy's hand, "Pray tell me by what three you are brought to this?" "Four," said the boy, "it is the oft repeated story: Father is five drunkard and I am the family's support."

No. 270.—A Pyramid.

The single circle represents a consonant. The row of three, "anger," "wrath." The row of five, a bird of dark plumage. The row of seven, a city in Michigan. The row of nine, an African tree named in honor of a botanist who went to the river Senegal in 1748; the tree is sometimes called baobab or monkey's bread. The row of eleven, the common name of a plant used in medicine. The row of thirteen, a Latin word meaning "four leaved."

From left corner of base to apex, thence to right corner of base, a Latin word of thirteen letters, "having four teeth on the edge."

No. 271.—Charades.

I.

Ned is always doing errands, and he never gets them done,
As he usually has total what his mother sent him one.
When he comes to count his purchases, 'tis certain as can be
That for every article he two he wholly one-two-three.

II.

Does lofty station whole high thought?
Ask of the owl, who dwells
Up one the old church two, with nought
Above him but the bells,
What aspirations fill his breast?
What aims he may pursue,
Who knows? And from his ivied nest
His owlship cries, "Ah, who-o-o?"

No. 272.—Single Acrostic.

No. 275.—Riddle.

Wheresoever I may be,
Every man must follow me;
He must go where I may lead,
Though it be to change his creed.
Though I vary in my size,
I am still beneath your eyes;
And though you may go astray,
I must ever lead the way.
Every creature in the land
Has me close at his command,
For I lead to things unseen
By my properties so keen.
And I often may detect
What you never would suspect,
For my value is immense
When you're guided by my sense.
Though I'm sometimes raised in scorn,
Sometimes drooping and forlorn,
Yet each deems his own the best,
Nor would swap for all the rest.

No. 276.—Quite Popular.

The coachman to the wheelwright went,
And told him he could see
The felloe rims were growing thin,
And so they needed me.

Sometimes, perchance, a soldier brave
Before the foe will flee;
The dailies, telling of the fact,
Will likely speak of me.

The farmer had a tollsome day,
And so, soon after tea,
He said, with weary, smothered yawn,
"'Twould soon be time for me."

No. 277.—Geographical.

1. What county in Washington is surrounded by water?
2. Which county in Colorado is at the top?

MORE OF CHAPEL'S DISGRACE.

On last Saturday night more of the liquor fiend's soul and body destroying work was added to Chapel's disgraceful record.

From dark until near midnight the carousing and fighting went on, white and colored mingling freely in the melee. Some having drank to excess lay in the dusty road, at the mercy of passing teams, powerless to move hand or foot, through the night and part of the next day.

People sitting quietly in their homes were startled and shocked by the yells and curses of drunken wretches, racing their long suffering horses up and down the roads. Worse and worse it grows all the time, Chapel is faithfully reviewing her past history.

The youths of to day bid fair to equal their fathers' wickedness and debauchery. This is the generation which is expected to supply the voters and lawmakers of the future.

But of course it must be all right because the proprietors of this rum hole are "licensed to sell;" their rights seem to be paramount to those of respectable temperance people who wish their sons to become honest, sober men.

What can men be thinking of, not to guard more carefully the interests of the country of which we are so justly proud? How long must decent people be subjected to such outrages?

Happy is the man who can say of his birthplace with honest pride, "I was born there." Unfortunate is that person, who with a blush of shame must say, "I am a native of Chapel."
