—A jam at meals—Marmalade.

—A bad strike—Poverty stricken.

—A man with a history—Macaulay.

—A song without words—The canary's.

—All for lawn—Croquet, tennis, quoits, etc

—How is Mars illuminated, is the all absorbing question among scientists.

—No trouble to receipt bills, call early and get one.

—The festive mosquito is looking for city quarters where he can live in luxury until Christmas.

—The ice waneth less fast, now that mornings are cooler.

—Ignorance is the mother of impudence.

—Always use a wooden fork or spoon to stir salads.

—Handkerchiefs were first manufactured at Paisley in 1743.

—It is hard to find fault with people who think just as we do.

—If mud must be thrown, it had better be thrown with a shovel rather than with a pen.

—Live fish have been sent with safety in the mails from India to the British museum.

—England is said to have to-day a much lower rate of mortality than Massachusetts.

—A Brussels syndicate is going to cultivate tobacco extensively in the Congo Free State.

—An inverted rainbow was reported a few days ago as having been seen near Jefferson, Iowa.

—The Turkish Government has forbidden the importation of all patent medicines into that country.

—In Germany, while the production of pig iron has increased, the consumption of that article has declined.

—The authorities in Berlin have determined to cremate all paupers who may die while being a public charge.

—When the preacher is wide awake himself it is not hard for him to keep his congregation from going to sleep.

—King Hurbert of Italy takes great delight in amateur cooking, in which useful occupation he shows great skill.

—The mosquito is said to have twenty-two teeth in his bill. They are so diminutive as to be visible only through a microscope.

—Hibernia is "utmost" or "last habitation," for beyond this to the westward the Phœnicians never extended their voyage.

—The value of the words "not transferable" often found printed upon tickets has been tested in England and found to be unimpeachable.

—Some large blasts of rocks have been made to provide material for the new harbor of refuge at Brest, as much at 100,000 cubic yards being thrown out at one time.

We Call attention to the notice of Annie E. Rathell & Co., Limited, and commend their establishment to the public.

Dover Fair.—The Fair at Dover has been well attended, and the weather for the first two days was unusually fine. The awarding of premiums for the live stock took place in the center of the track Wednesday morning. The exhibits in the art department were very good this yaer. The fakirs did an excellent business and many were the victims that they fleeced. One man lost $150 in a short time by one of the games of chance. The men who conducted these games had any quantity of men and boys from town who act as decoys or stool-pigeons. It is said that one young man, who was doing this work, slipped off with $20 and has not been seen since. Thus is the education in rascally business going on.

Satisfactory Sale.—The sale of stock, etc., advertised in the GAZETTE last week to come off on the W. L. Hubbard farm on Thursday, notwithstanding the inclement weather, was well attended and the articles brought satisfactory prices. In fact, Mr. Hubbard was well pleased with the sale. The posters were printed at this office.

Foot Prints in the Sand.—Talbot has a young lover, old at the business but young in years. His summer girl has gone—vacated—adjourned sine die to her city domicile, She had heard of his fickleness, heard of the other summer girls he had aforetime, how their images left his heart before the November winds chilled his breath and she resolved to try a new kick, or rather step in order to make an impression. She required him to procure a box of sand in which she left the imprint of her dainty slipper, with her full weight in it, clearly cut on the smooth surface. He must cherish that imprint until the return of twelve full moons, and if it is still as true as when first made she will consider the impression made on his pliant heart quite as durable. Awfully romantic, but alas! Being out late the other evening with his all-the-year-round girl he entered his room in the dark and in feeling for matches knocked down the precious sand and the dainty imprint is no more. Lost hopes, bewildered visions, spooks and hobgobblins surround his pillow, and will so continue until the next summer girl looms up.

The State Board of Public Works has appointed Crittenden Harper, of Talbot county to command the oyster police sloop Mary Compton in place of J. E. Price. The Mary Compton is the vessel which carried away her masts in the recent regatta at Bay Ridge. She is assigned to duty in the Choptank during the oyster season and is not regularly with the force.

Mr. O. T. Wharton of Chicago, came on to attend the late Talbot County Fair, and also to visit old acquaintances. He was once office boy on the Easton GAZETTE and rapidly advanced in the profession of the printer. He enjoyed looking over old land marks at this office as well as in the town with which he was familiar twenty years ago. He visited Trappe and St. Michaels, and was accompanied by wife and child. Mr. Higgins also entertained him.

jul9tf SAM. E. SHANNAHAN.

Men's Eyes.—The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says: "I always remember a man by his eyes," said Capt. Allen Jordan, one of the old-time detectives. "If I once get a good look at a man's eyes I would recognize him if I met him in Calcutta. The eyes never change; the face is always changing.—A man without strongly marked features can deceive the shrewdest detectives if the latter have not made a study of his eyes. There are men whose faces are completely altered by shaving off a mustache. Even a week's growth of beard and a change of clothing will completely disguise some men. There are men who look like gentlemen when clean shaven and like tramps with a three days' stubble on their faces. A change from a stiff to a soft hat completely alters some, but if you have noted their eyes you can not mistake them. Every trade and profession stamps its imprint upon the eyes. If you will notice closely you will see that the eyes of the merchant differ from those of the lawyer, the eyes of the day laborer from those of the skilled mechanic. Next to the eyes I note the walk of men. No two get over the ground exactly alike. A crook cannot walk like an honest man. I can almost tell a thief by listening to his footsteps on the sidewalk."

Sixty Million Bushels of Wheat—A Bushel for Every Inhabitant of the United States. The Kansas Crop of '92.

Never in the history of Kansas has that state had such bountiful crops as this year. The farmers cannot get enough hands to harvest the great crop, and the Santa Fe Railroad has made special rates from Kansas City and other Missouri River towns, to induce harvest hands to go into the state. The wheat crop of the state will be from sixty to sixty-five million bushels, and the quality is high. The grass crop is made and is a very large one; the early potatoes, rye, barley and oat crops are made, and are all large. The weather has been propitious for corn, and it is the cleanest, best looking corn to be found in the country to-day. Cheap rates will be made from Chicago, St. Louis and all points on the Santa Fe east of the Missouri River to all Kansas points, on August 30 and September 27, and these excursions will give a chance for the eastern farmers to see what the great Sunflower State can do. A good map of Kansas will be mailed free upon application to Jno. J. Byrne, 723 Monadnock Block, Chicago Ill., together with reliable statistics and information about Kansas lands.

Oregon, Washington and the Northwest Pacific Coast.

The constant demand of the traveling public to the far West for a comfortable and at the same time an economical mode of traveling, has led to the establishment of what is known as Pullman Colonist Sleepers.

These cars are built on the same general plan as the regular first-class Pullman Sleeper, the only difference is that they are not upholstered.

They are furnished complete with good comfortable hair mattresses, warm blankets, snow white linen, curtains, plenty of towels, combs, brushes, etc., which secure to the occupant of a berth as much privacy as is to be had in first-class sleepers. There are also separate toilet rooms for ladies and gentlemen, and smoking is absolutely prohibited. For full information send for Pullman Colonist Sleeper Leaflet. E. L. No. 280.—A Dickens Acrostic.

When the following names have been rightly guessed and placed one below another, the initial letters will spell the name of a character called "Lignum Vitæ:"

Crosswords: 1. The Christian name of a young man who was bound to be jolly under creditable circumstances. 2. The surname of a young lady who was an acquaintance of the Veneerings. 3. The surname of the young man who married "the dearest girl in the world." 4. The Christian name of an untidy nursemaid. 5. The surname of a very "humble" young man. 6. The Christian name of Little Dorrit's brother. 7. The surname of a man who warned his son against widows. 8. The surname of a major who was "sly." 9. The Christian name of David Copperfield's second wife. 10. The surname of a professional nurse. 11. The name of Mrs. Jarley's little assistant. 12. The Christian name of a daughter of Wilkins Micawber. 13. The surname of a woman who kept a commercial boarding house.

No. 281.—Transformations.

I'm an animal now,
But just cut off my head
And transpose me a bit,
I am used for making bread.

Now transpose me once more
And I limp as I go;
I am masculine when
One more change makes me so.

The horizontal row of nine letters represents the name of a large district extending along both sides of the Jordan. The row of seven, a mountain range in the north of Palestine. The row of five, an island where Paul was shipwrecked. The row of three, a sea of much historic interest. The single letter, a consonant. The row of three, an abbreviated term for natural elevations found in the north of Palestine. The row of five, an island mentioned in Paul's return voyage from Troas to Cæsarea. The row of seven, a place on the east of Jordan named as the point to which Jephthah's slaughter of the Ammonites extended. The row of nine, a spring which formed one of the landmarks on the north boundary of Judah and the south boundary of Benjamin. The vertical of nine large letters, the Holy Land.

Dr. A. FONTAINE, Tacoma, Wash.

HE Missed his Opportunity! DON'T Miss Yours, Reader. The majority neglect their opportunities, and from that cause live in poverty and die in obscurity! Harrowing despair is the lot of many, as they look back on lost, forever lost, opportunity. Life is passing! Reach out. Be up and doing. Improve your opportunity, and secure prosperity, prominence, peace. It was said by a philosopher, that "the Goddess of Fortune offers a golden opportunity to each person at some period of life; embrace the chance, and she pours out her riches; fail to do so and she departs, never to return." How shall you find the GOLDEN opportunity? Investigate every chance that appears worthy, and of fair promise; that is what all successful men do. Here is an opportunity, such as is not often within the reach of laboring people. Improved, it will give, at least, a grand start in life. The GOLDEN opportunity for many is here. Money to be made rapidly and honorably by any industrious person of either sex. All ages. You can do the work and live at home, wherever you are. Even beginners are easily earning from $5 to $10 per day. You can do as well if you will work, not too hard, but industriously; and you can increase your income as you go on. You can give spare time only, or all your time to the work. Easy to learn. Capital not required. We start you. All is comparatively new and really wonderful. We instruct and show you how, free. Failure unknown among our workers. No room to explain here. Write and learn all free, by return mail. Unwise to delay. Address at once, H. Hallett & Co., Box 880, Portland, Maine.
