It saved my boy's life. Mr. D. A. Curry, Conductor C. & A. R. R., Slater, Mo., gives his convictions thus: "I highly praise Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for saving the life of my little boy, who is five years old. He had a severe case of the croup which the Syrup relieved immediately.

Don't forget the grand Millinery Opening at Ida V. Stewart's on Dover street, October 8th-11th. Everybody welcome.

Oyster Supper.—The patrons and teacher of the Dover road school have decided to give an oyster supper at the residence of Mr. L. S. Fleckenstein, Friday evening, Oct. 14, if fair; if not, Saturday evening, Oct. 15. The house is large and commodious. Everybody is invited. We will endeavor to make all present have a good social time. Proceeds to be used in repairing the schoolhouse.

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

Church Notices.—At M. E. Church, the pastor will have themes of special interest both morning and evening. Besides the sermons, one of the features of the day will be good music. Three new cornets have been added to the choir and they will be used in the future, beginning with tomorrow. All are cordially invited.

Morning Subject—Hezekiah's sickness and recovery.

Evening Subject—Saul, the persecutor and christian.

Mr. Chas. Wrightson, superintendent of the M. E. Sunday School, would be pleased to see all of his school present tomorrow and in the future. The warm weather is over and none need stay away because of the heat. The study of the lesson is proving of great interest and benefit. Everyone welcome.

Rev. I. W. Canter, P. E. of the East Balto. District, will hold love feast at 10 a. m. in M. E. Church, South, and will preach at 11 a. m. Please remember the Sunday School and Epworth League, also preaching at 7.30 p.m.—You will be welcome.

There will be no service at the Catholic Church tomorrow, Father Waldron being on his monthly circuit in Dorchester county.

King's Creek M. E. Church will be reopened after some recent improvements, Sunday, October 16th. All day services will be held. Preachers for the day are Rev. H. S. Dulany, Rev. H. C. Turner and Rev. I. L. Wood or W. E. Avery for the afternoon. Come everybody. A grand day expected.

J. M. Lindale, Pastor.

Our 50c. Brussels Carpet attracts attention. See our line of Carpets. B. P. Cox.

Delightful Service.—The 300 people who attended the song service at the M. E. Church last Sunday evening unanimously declared it to be the best service of its kind ever held in Easton. The singing was exceptionally fine, and every member of the choir deserves the highest praise for the manner in which they acquitted themselves. There was some disappointment felt when it was learned that the orchestra was, owing to unavoidable circumstances, unable to take their part in the program; but this disappointment soon wore off as the excellent singing fully atoned for the absence of the orchestra. The program as published in last week's Gazette was fully carried out. The song service is fast gaining popularity and if those of the future, attain the excellence of last Sunday's service we bespeak a larger attendance than ever.

This choir is composed of some of the best musical talent in the town. They are preparing for an entertainment to be given in the Town Hall early in November.

For Rent for 1893.—The large, glass-front storeroom known as the J. J. Jump dry goods department, lately occupied by Mr. Godwin. Lease will be given for reasonable time if desired. The store may be occupied after Sept. 1st 1892 if wanted. Terms reasonable. Apply immdiately to,

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. J. C. Henry & Bro., druggists.

Many have found immediate relief and permanent cure of aggravated cases of rheumatism by the persistent use of Salvation Oil. When applied according to directions it rarely ever fails to cure the most obstinate cases. As a pain-cure it has no equal in the market. Price 25 cents.

Hymeneal.—Mid the fragrance of flowers and the suggestive symbol of the evergreen under the soft glow of the gas-light, "the twain were made one." At the residence of the bride, Oct. 6th, Mr. Samuel Norris and Mrs. Virginia Williams plighted their troths. Promptly at 6 o'clock A. M. as Miss Ella Williams, daughter of the bride, rendered Mendelshon's march on the piano, the prospective bride and groom entered the parlors. The ceremony of the ring was performed by Rev. J. M. Sheridan, of Calvary M. P. Church, of which Mr. and Mrs. Norris have long been consistent members. The bride was attired in gray cloth, while the groom was dressed in the customary suit of black.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Satterfield and Miss Tilda Satterfield, Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan, Mrs. Denny Williams and daughter of St. Michaels, Miss Mollie Norris of Hambleton, Mrs. Richard Roberts, Mr. Luthur McNeal, Mr. Walter Elliott and others. After the ceremonies a wedding breakfast was served and immediately after the bridal party took the D. & C. train for Saratoga, New York, Niagara, Atlantic City, etc. The presents were costly and numerous. The Gazette extends hearty congratulations and wishes Mr. and Mrs. Norris a long and happy life.

Personals.—Senator Gibson and Col. J. C. Mullikin are in Denton this week attending the session of the Circuit Court for Caroline county.

Mrs. David Bell who has been visiting Mrs. W. H. Thompson, returned home Saturday last.

Hon. Judge Stump spent Sunday in Easton.

The Chesapeake Bay Yacht Club entertained the officers and directors of the D. & C. R. R. at their club room on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Mary E. MacTilden, of Columbus, O. is visiting friends and relatives near town.

Mr. Brad Merrick has removed to the store lately occupied by Jarrell & Nichols shoe department.

Mr. Garrison Collins and wife spent Sunday in Caroline.

Mr. Edw. Roe and wife left Easton Tuesday for a visit to relatives in Kentucky.

Mr. James B. Rathell, formerly a clerk in the dry goods store of Mr. B. P. Cox, went to Philadelphia Thursday afternoon to live.

Married.—Seldom have the people of Easton witnessed a more attractive wedding than that at Christ Church on Wednesday evening last at 6.30 P. M. The parties were Miss Ida M. Taylor and Mr. James Locke Erwin of Burlington, N. C. The Rev. Albert Walker performed the ceremony. The bridal party consisted of eight bridesmaids, Miss Bertie Wolford of Kentucky, Miss Madie Thomas of Trappe and Miss Annie Taylor, Miss Jennie Adkins, Miss H. Anna Powell, Miss Ethel Boyle, Miss Rellie Hening and Miss Alice Adams of Easton, all of whom wore white mull and carried large bunches of nephetes roses. They were preceded in the church by the eight ushers. Messrs. Ed Jenkins, Ed Hughlett, Marion Dawson, Albert Walker, Charlie Henry, Louis Wolford, Dr. McCormick and Ed Nicols, all in evening dress. The bride looked unusually pretty in a handsome white beng dlice, elaborately trimmed in lace over which she wore a long tulle veil; she carried a handsome bunch of bride's roses. Her ornaments were diamonds, the gift of the groom. Dr. Hardcastle gave her away and Mr. Harper Erwin acted as best man. The wedding march was sung by the choir, accompanied by Mrs. Aldridge at the organ. After the wedding a reception was given at the house of the bride's mother where those present greatly enjoyed the sumptuous repast served. Mr. and Mrs. Erwin left amid a shower of rice taking the steamer for Baltimore thence to enjoy a two weeks' trip through the south, when they will return to their future home in Burlington, N. C. The presents were numerous and handsome, consisting of several elaborate cases of solid silver a handsome meat set, beautiful pieces in cut glass, vases, lamps, and many other attractive articles.

Resurrected From The Past.—Through the courtesy of Mr. Samuel E. Shannahan there has been handed in at this office one of our forerunners—a copy of the Easton Gazette, printed in 1818, 74 years ago. The paper is well preserved and reading clear. It was then called the "Easton Gazette and Eastern Shore Intelligencer" and made its appearance every Monday evening, edited by Alexander Graham, with a subscription price of $2.50 per annum in advance. The columns were filled with interesting reading from various parts of the world, and the local news is not slighted. The November term of the Circuit Court was in session with Hon. Richard T. Earle, Chief Judge, and Lemuel Purnell, Associate on the bench. There were two hundred and thirty cases on the docket.

The money market concerned the people then, banks whose notes were "not worth ten dollars on the hundred out of the immediate vicinity of their several places of location" were enumerated. Wheat was quoted at $1.98 and $2.10 per bushel; flour, superfine, at $9.50 corn at 82 cents, etc.

Mr. James W. Ringgold was married to Miss Annie W. Comegys at Chestertown and the death of Daniel S. Sexton of the U. S. Navy of Lake Erie, is noted as the only one under the heading as "Died."

Among the advertisers are such names as Lambert Clayland, merchant. Lambert Reardon advertises himself a Taylor, he also sold leather and paid highest cash prices for hydes. Samuel Groome had property to rent, and Richard Martindale, land for sale at Greensborough, Caroline county. This curious clause was inserted: "In the tract there is one hundred acres of land, is of good quality and is joining the tract of land, that Mr. Richard Hughlett, has advertised for sale in the Easton Gazette. I propose to offer on the same day, because the person, that buys of Mr. Richard Hughlett, ought to have mine, as they lay directly along side of each other, and both farms can be fenced in, or very near with the rails it takes for one."

Dr. Martin wants these who owe him to pay that he may have it in his power to satisfy all claims against himself.

Jo. Richardson, Clerk of the Court for Caroline, and John Young, Register of Wills for Caroline had notices in the paper. There were several Caroline advertisemsnts because this paper was the medium for that county. Among the merchant advertisers were William Clark, Scott Warfield, Thomas & Groome Jenkins & Stevens and Groome & Lambdin. Jesse Sheffer kept the Easton Hotel. The Steamboat Surprise left Commerce St. wharf, Baltimore every Sunday and Thursday mornings for Annapolis and Easton, and Tuesday for Centreville. Clement Vickers ran the sloop General Benson from Easton Point to Baltimore, and Edward Auld ran the sloop Edward Lloyd, both had "excellent accommodations for passengers" and letters for and from Baltimore could be left at the drug store of Thomas H. Dawson.

Patent medicines had their claim for public attention then the same as now. Charles Ridgely, Governor of Maryland had a proclamation in the paper relative to Regulating Elections—something of a Force bill character. A notice "To All Whom It May Concern" was signed by James Monroe, President of the U. S., and John Quincy Adams, Secretary of State.

A Mile Deep, 13 Miles Wide, 217 Miles Long, and Painted Like a Flower.

The Grand Canon of the Colorado River, in Arizona, is now for the first time easily accessible to tourists. A regular stage line has been established from Flagstaff, Arizona, on the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad, making the trip from Flagstaff to the most imposing part of the Canon in less than 12 hours. The stage fare for the round trip is only $20.00, and meals and comfortable lodgings are provided throughout the trip at a reasonable price. The view of the Grand Canon afforded at the terminus of the stage route is the most stupendous panorama known in nature. There is also a trail at this point leading down the Canon wall, more than 6,000 feet vertically, to the river below. The descent of the trail is a grander experience than climbing the Alps, for in the bottom of this terrific and sublime chasm are hundreds of mountains greater than any of the Alpine ranges.

A book describing the trip to the Grand Canon, illustrated by many full-page engravings from special photographs, and furnishing all needful information, may be obtained free upon application to Jno. J. Byrne, 723 Monadnock Block, Chicago, Ill.

The constant demand of the traveling public is the far West for a comfortable and at the same time an economical mode of traveling, has led to the establishment of what is known as Pullman Colonist Sleepers.

These cars are built on the same general plan as the regular first class Pullman Sleeper, the only difference is that they are not upholstered.

They are furnished complete with good comfortable hair mattresses, warm blankets, snow white linen, curtains, plenty of towels, combs, brushes, etc., which secure to the occupant of a berth as much privacy as is to be had in first class sleepers. There are also separate toilet rooms for ladies and gentlemen, and smoking is absolutely prohibited. For full information send for Pullman Colonist Sleeper Leaflet. E. L. W. C. T. U.

Women's Christian Temperance Union meets every Sabbath afternoon at 3.30 o'clock in its hall (second floor) corner of Washington and Dover streets; entrance on Dover St. An invitation is extended to all who wish to attend these meetings.

Our Annual Business Meeting for the election of officers for the Easton Union was held on Sept. 21st. All of the officers were reelected, and the following list of superintendents of the departments of work taken up in our Local Union to correspond with work done in the county. Evangelistic Work, Miss Maggie Dawson; Juvenile Work, Miss Katurah E. Yoe; Legislative Petition Work, Mrs. Susie Jump; Temperance Literature, Mrs. N. K. Jarrell; Sacramental Wine, Mrs. Eliza Fountain; Press Work, Mrs. Mary L. Kelly; Scientific Temperance Instructions, Mrs. W. H. Thompson; White Cross and Shield, Mrs. Susie S. Yoe; Narcotics, Mrs. Mary Greenman; Flower Mission, Mrs. W. H. Thompson; Work Among Colored People, Mrs. A. K. Burnite.

At our County Convention Mrs. A. L. Bush was also reelected as county President, but refused to serve unless she is released from the Local Union, which makes it necessary for us to elect a new President at our next business meeting, which is on Wednesday, Oct. 12th.

To the members of the Easton W. C. T. U.—In resigning my position as President of the Easton Union, let me assure my successor of my hearty co-operation in all temperance work. What may be brought before the Union for deliberation of prompt action. There is a link of unity that binds me to all the faithful ones, that have been my earnest supporters and cheerful advisers. May our future leader be a chosen vessel unto us and a wise leader of the many.

Yours in the bonds of Temperance Unity.

Mrs. A. L. Bush.

The W. C. T. U. at Point Island, Minn., recently entertained a rousing county convention, and among other resolutions adopted the following. Would that our women generally would go and do likewise: "Resolved, that inasmuch as the wearing of trained dresses is compulsory at the courts of kings, it is a fashion that may well be set at naught by the women of a republic; and, since, a style of dress which keeps a woman continually clutching at her garments detracts from her dignity and moral influence as well as from her freedom and comfort, and whereas, by the wearing of trains our sisters are made weak, we will wear no trains while the world stands."

Election Officers.—The following gentlemen have been appointed election officers by the supervisors at the meeting held Tuesday of this week.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Board of County Commissioners met on Tuesday.

Receipts were:

W. T. H. Lee, collector, 1892,	$500
T. A. Lloyd, " "	409

Disbursements were $2,618.69, including $1,000 for school bonds Nos. 7 and 8, due October 1st, taken up and cancelled, the Hopkins Place Savings Bank, Baltimore, had the bonds; and including $825 paid to H. M. Mason, cashier, to pay October coupons of the railroad redemption loan.

It was decided to build a new shell road from Stewart's or Vancouver's Island, Oxford, to the mainland, a distance of 80 yards.

The following appointments for the local oyster boats were made. The captains were appointed by the governor upon recommendation of the county commissioners.

Oxford boat—Kate Gerdes—Captain, William Kirwan; crew, John R. Hughlett and Charles H. Morgan.

St. Michaels boat-Captain, Frank T. Lowe; crew, D. Olenza Caulk and Robert T. Kirby.

The clerk exhibited replies from the county commissioners of other counties, to whom he had written about the matter of clerk to the board of election supervisors. All the answers were to the effect that in their respective counties one of the supervisors acted as clerk without compensation.

Complaint having been made to the Board that certain persons had left dead horses to decompose so near the public road leading to Miles River Ferry, near Easton, as to cause some alarm, the attention of all persons causing and maintaining unhealthy nuisances is called to Sections 12 and 35, Article 43, of Code. The Board of County Commissioners is now sitting weekly as a Board of Health, and will enforce the health code in their determination to remove and abate all nuisances.

The Puzzler

No. 292.—Enigma.

Here's a curious word, although frequently heard;
'Tis of use when large weights would be lifted or stirred.
Reverse, and a riotous feast takes its place,
Which can bring the partakers naught else but disgrace.
Curtail and behead, and a lady that's dead,
But of whom you no doubt have frequently read,
Stands forth to the view. I will give you a clew:
But for her we would have very little to do.

No. 300.—Charade.

I do not love the WHOLE; it seems to me
A stiff and artificial form of song:
Too scientific yes, no doubt I'm wrong:
But only notice how, on yonder lea,
Where butterflies are dancing, two and three,
Science's small rules creeps warily along,
The tassled grass and blooming weeds among;
His second o'er his shoulder floating free,
Banner and weapon of his expedition;
For summer's painted darlings to his eye
Are "specimens," to be impaled and classed
In a "collection," kept for exhibition,
All ranged in formal order, prim and dry,
Like flying fancies in a winter caught fast.

No. 301.—Curtailments.

Curtail prepared and leave insane.
Entirely and leave to leave.
A kind of type and leave first.
A feather and leave a fruit.
A drove of cattle and leave a pronoun.
To grumble and leave to vegetate.

A Sign in the Teacup.

When a bit of the stem or twig of the ten is seen floating in the cup, it is a sign that a "visitor" may be expected. If the stalk has a hard feeling when pressed between the thumb and finger, the caller will be a man; if yielding, a woman. When the opening of a masculine friend is thus indicated to a young lady, she should

Bite him in two and throw him under the table.

He will come if he is able.

Youthful Musical Critics.

Miss Candour (aged seven, to a lady who has been singing with a good deal of tremole to her mother's guests)—I laugh in the nursery.

"What was Nero's great crime?" asked the teacher of the Roman history class. "He played the fiddle," replied Sammy Wiffles.

Poisoned by Scrofula

Is the sad story of many lives made miserable through no fault of their own. Scrofula is more especially than any other a hereditary disease, and for this simple reason: Arising from impure and insufficient blood, the disease locates itself in the lymphatics, which are composed of white tissues; there is a period of social life when the whole body consists of white tissues, and therefore the unborn child is especially susceptible to this dreadful disease. But there is a remedy for scrofula, whether hereditary or acquired. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which by its powerful effect on the blood, expels all trace of the disease and gives to the vital fluid the quality and color of health. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not accept any substitute.
