ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON

THERE WILL BE A
GRAND REPUBLICAN
MASS MEETING IN EASTON.

The following distinguished gentlemen will positively be present and address the meeting:

HON. GEORGE M. RUSSUM,
Candidate for Congress.

GEORGE R GAITHER, ESQ.,
A Convert to Protection.

HON. HENRY STOCKBRIDGE,
Late Congressman.

P. L. GOLDSBOROUGH, ESQ.,

S. W. BRADFORD, ESQ.,

and probably others. It is expected that arrangements will be made to teach on this occasion the workings of the new ballot law, and Republicans and democrats alike are invited to be present.

M. M. HIGGINS,
Chairman Rep. State Cen. Com. for Talbot Co.

REPUBLICAN Mass Meeting to day.

HEAR Russum and Gaither to-day.

MRS. HARRISON, wife of the President, died Tuesday morning.

THE Republicans have grave cause for complaining at improper registration, and have filed a petition to the Court to have a special sitting here before election. As in the case one year ago, so far, no attention has been paid to said petition. Perhaps the Court will see fit to do something later.

THE democrats won in '84 on a protective tariff platform, and, as said in a speech at Cambridge last Tuesday night by a republican orator, that during 116 years, the age of the nation not once has the party elected been elected on a free trade platform. Protection has always succeeded when it confronted the American people as an issue. He predicts the coming election of Harrison and Reid on that ground.

IN the presence of a number of persons in the town of Elkton, Mr. Samuel H. Miller a reputable gentleman, and a good Democrat, and who is engaged in the business of packing fruits and vegetables—this season principally tomatoes—said publicly last week "That tariff or no tariff, I have bought tin cans this year cheaper than ever before!"—Whig.

Mr. Hubbard of this town report very differently from the above. He showed us receipts for invoices received in the past two years where the advance has been from 10 to 25 per cent on the grade he was using, and which he says in that time has cost him about $11,000 extra. There can no harm come from stating facts. We know that tin has advanced owing to sundry causes, but for all that, we think after a fair trial of the working of Protection on the infant industry we will eventually be enabled to produce our own, and like other home products, the price will go down. It is worth a trial, and if it succeeds, the $15,000,000 spent on it will be comparatively nothing, while if it proves hopeless it will not be equal to some of the mistakes made by democratic legislation—wild-cat banks, for instance, entailing a loss of hundreds of millions.

"THE United States to-day is not only the most prosperous nation of the world, but it has never itself been so prosperous as it is now. The students of American history may confidently challenge the Democratic orators who are painting such dismal and distressing pictures to point to any other period when there was so much of a diffusion of the comforts of life among the people or when the workingman has been able to get so much for a dollar as he does now.—There is nothing more ridiculous and unfounded, in view of what well-informed men know of former industrial conditions of the American people, than the lamentations and moanings of such profound thinkers and scholars as Grover Cleveland over the degradation and penury of the "toiling masses."—Jas. G. Blaine.

THE Prohibitionists of Talbot county will have a grand rally in Easton to-day. The meeting will be continued in the evening, in the Court House. Ladies are particularly invited. Seats will be reserved for them. The rooms of the W. C. T. U. on the on the corner of Washington and Dover Sts., over Godwin's store will be kept open all day for the accomodation of the ladies and visitors generally. The orator of the day will be the Hon. Frank J. Silby, of Georgia, a renowned temperance orator, whose reputation as an eloquent and effective speaker is known all over the U. S. Mr. Cranfill, who was expected to be here has been compelled to cancel all his engagements in consequence of threatened loss of eyesight. This is expected to be the largest and most interesting Prohibition meeting ever held in Easton. Mr. R. H. T. Councell, Chairmnn for Talbot Co., has a telegram, which sufficiently explains the reason of Mr. Cranfill's failure to be here.

REPUBLICAN Mass Meeting to-day.

They Don't Agree.

The democrat candidate for Vice President at Bloomington, Ill. Aug.27, 1892, says:

"The decade and a half extending from the passage of the low tariff law of 1846 to the beginning of our civil war has been truly called the golden period of our history. The cost of the necessaries of life had reached the minimum, and at no time in our history was it so easy to support a family. The farmer, the mechanic, the day laborer alike realized the benefit of low taxation. * * * Our manufactories did not languish. The fires did not go out in our furnaces.—The wheels and spindles were not idle in our great hives of industry. The demand for labor was not lessened, nor was its value depreciated.'

President Buchanan, in his annual message to Congress, Dec. 3, 1857, says:

"We have possessed all of the elements of national wealth in rich abundance, and yet, notwithstanding all these advantages, our country, in its monetary interests, is at the present moment, in a deplorable condition. In the midst of unsurpassed plenty in all the productions of agriculture, and in all the elements of national wealth, we find our manufactories suspended, our private enterprises of different kinds abandoned and thousands of useful laborers thrown out of employment and reduced to want."

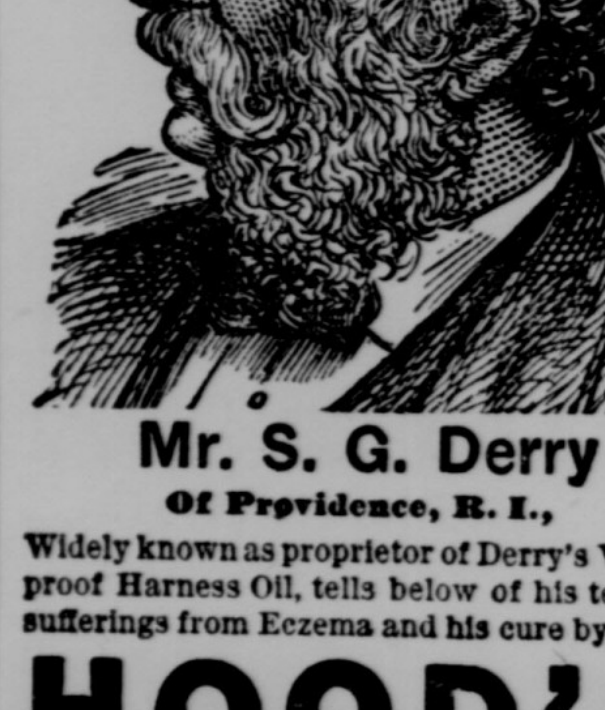
WASHINGTON LETTER.

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Oct. 24, '92.

Senator Quay is in Washington; he came to look after some of his private business, but he also looked after some political matter. Everyone who knows the Senator knows that he never talks for publication on things political. During the campaign of 1888 the only newspaper interview he gave was on the night of the election, when, rising from his desk at National Committee headquarters, and turning to a group of newspaper men said: "Well boys, it's all over, except the shouting, and the victory is ours." He is just the same Quay now that he was then, and the man who thinks he can find out from him what he is doing or going to do is doomed to disappointment. Nevertheless I can say upon good authority that he will go to New York this week to assist in the election of Harrison and Reid, in fact he has already been assisting very materially, as the good work that is being done to expose and prevent fradulent registration and voting in New York city, by National Committeeman Martin, is the result of Senator Quay's advice and suggestions. It can also be said that he thinks the campaign is in excellent shape and only requires that the full republican vote be brought out to make the victory so decisive that free trade and bunco currency will never again be endorsed by the national platform of a political party.

All the political news that comes to Washington, and it all comes here, tends to increase the confidence of republicans, not only in the election of the national ticket, but also in maintaining republican ascendancy in the Senate, and in largely cutting down the democratic majority, if not actually controlling the next House of Representatives. The democrats are whistling to keep up their courage, but they are feeling decidedly squeamish over the outlook; the latest news from Indiana sent a shiver down their backs, as it made it plain to them that the Hoosier state would give the President a larger majority next month than it did in 1888. For the first time in many years the National democratic committee has had to send money into North Carolina, and well informed democrats admit that unless the Third Party movement in that State can be stampeded there is a probability that its electoral votes will be cast for the Republican ticket. Republican advices from West Virginia say that state is almost certain to go republican, and prominent democrats openly class it as doubtful. The republicans have done no bragging about Virginia, but the still hunt that has been conducted in the State has already placed it in the doubtful column. It will cause little surprise in Washington if Cleveland fails to receive a single electoral vote outside the South; on the contrary it will be a general surprise to republicans and democrats alike if he gets the entire vote of the South.



Mr. S. G. Derry
Of Providence, R. I.,
Widely known as proprietor of Derry's Waterproof Harness Oil, tells below of his terrible sufferings from Eczema and his cure by

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

"Gentlemen: Fifteen years ago I had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, which was followed by eczema or salt rheum, breaking out on my right leg. The humor spread all over my legs, back and arms,

A Foul Mass of Sores, swollen and itching terribly, causing intense pain if the skin was broken by scratching, and discharging constantly. It is impossible to describe my suffering in those years of agony and torture. I spent in futile efforts to get well, and was discouraged and ready to die. At this time I was unable to lie down in bed, had to sit up all the time, and was unable to walk without crutches. I had to hold my arms away from my body, and had to have my arms, back and legs bandaged by my faithful wife twice a day.

Thousands of Dollars

"Finally a friend who was visiting at our house, urged me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I began by taking half a teaspoonful. My

Stomach Was All Out of Order

But the medicine soon corrected this, and in six weeks I could see a change in the condition of the humor which nearly covered my body. It was driven to the surface by the Sarsaparilla, the sores soon healed, and the scales fell off. I was soon able to give up bandages and crutches, and a happy man I was. I had been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for seven months; and since that time, nearly two years, I have worn no bandages whatever and my legs and arms are sound and well.

The Delight

of myself and wife at my recovery it is impossible to tell. To all my business friends in Boston and over the country, I recommend from personal experience." S. G. DERRY, 45 Bradford street, Providence, R. I.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

If you are Bilious, take Hood's Pills.

It seems a little hard to quote what a man says when he is even slightly under the influence of liquor, but a few remarks made in this city by a democrat of National prominence who had loosened his tongue by getting too intimate with that treacherous individual known as John Barleycorn, are so pertinent to the situation that it would be harder to suppress them. The talking was in a Washington hotel where this democrat, just returned from a stumping tour in New York for Cleveland, was, in company with half a dozen other gentleman, several of them republicans. The direct cause of the speech was a little good natured guying on the part of his republican companions on the dismal democratic outlook. "The fact of the matter is," said the democrat, the growing prosperity of the country under the McKinley tariff law is what we find is the hardest to talk against, and that will elect Harrison. A big mistake was made by the Chicago convention in not adopting the tariff straddle prepared for it by Whitney, instead of that infernal free trade plank; it was another mistake to have inserted that confounded state bank plank. Were Cleveland a saint, instead of a very ordinary man, almost entirely lacking in tact, he could not be elected on such a platform, and nine out of every ten men on the stump for him know it as well as I do. We were licked the minute that platform was adopted;

but, of course, we shall fight to the end, hoping that the closing hours of the campaign may produce another Burchard, without whose intervention Cleveland never would have been President any way." It would not be fair to print the name of the democrat who thus freely spoke his mind, as the talk was entirely among personal friends and not intended for publication. H.

WONDERFUL

The cures which are being effected by Drs Starkey & Palen, 1529 Arch St., Philadelphia Pa., in Consumption, Catarrh, Neuralgia, Bronchitis, Rheumatism, and all chronic diseases, by their Compound Oxygen Treatment are indeed marvelous.

If you are a sufferer from any disease which your physician has failed to cure, write for information about this treatment, and their book of 200 pages, giving a history of Compound Oxygen, its nature and effects, with numerous testimonials from patients, to whom you may refer for still further information, will be promptly sent, without charge.

This book, aside from its great merit as a medical work, giving, as it does, the result of years of study and experience, you will find a very interesting one.

Do you understand the Sheep Question?

It's furnishing a heap of political thunder just now. It furnishes a table question the year round. It's full of meat. Our side of it is the all-wool side.

Country clothes used to be a reproach. There was the Blue Jeans joke; and the home-made spinning joke; and the home-made making joke.

For over thirty-one years we've been killing off the jokes by clothing the country about us in the Wanamaker & Brown manufacture of Clothing.

We turn all-wool cloth into the most perfect Clothing that can be manufactured. We buy cloth by the carload; make Suits and Overcoats by the thousand, the five hundred or the hundred—as we think the goods are likely to be popular; and sell them as near cost as we dare to, and insure ourselves a solvent business.

Great and greater sales have attended us every year in this generous plan of clothing you; and our Ready-Made Clothing has become the American standard.

Dress Clothing and Every-Day Clothing, of qualities we know to be reliable, sold at lower prices by 15 to 20 per cent. than prices usual in Clothing stores, because we save a profit by manufacturing and selling the Clothing ourselves.
