FOR PRESIDENT
BENJAMIN HARRISON, OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT
WHITELAW REID, OF NEW YORK.

FOR CONGRESS.
GEORGE M. RUSSUM,
OF CAROLINE COUNTY.

GRANDFATHER AND GRANDSON.

IN the Ledger of this week, referring to the republican meeting held in Easton last Saturday, the following editorial statement is made:

"Mr. Russum promulgated the fallacy that the foreigner not the consumer paid the tariff tax. His illustrations had not the slightest bearing on the proposition. Here is one that has: A mother in Ireland knit her son in America a pair of socks, worth a shilling. They came to him through the custom house, of course. He was notified that they were there and there was $1.90 custom's charges on the socks. He got the bill and sent it to McKinley, with a letter in which he said: "Mr. McKinley, please find me the foreigner who is to pay this tax." The author of the McKinley tariff has not yet answered the Irish American letter."

The above "illustration" is so ridiculously absurd and erroneous, that to the reader of ordinary intelligence, no refutation whatever is necessary. But as we are on the eve of a most important National election and the democratic press throughout the country in this "campaign of education" is so largely filled with just such false and unreliable statements, the only apparent object being to mislead and deceive the uninformed voter, it becomes the duty of every citizen to protest, or at least to insist that the "ignorant" shall have an equal opportunity of knowing the true facts in any given case.

In the first place, no Custom House in the United States ever charged a $1.90 duty on a pair of socks. No wonder Major McKinley paid no attention to such a statement. If such had been true, the original cost, a shilling, [24 cents] added to the duty would have made the socks cost $2.13—indeed a most expensive pair.

Then again, any mother in Ireland (or any other country) can "knit her son in America a pair of socks, worth a shilling,", and send them to him through any Custom House in the United States, and the son can receive them without paying one cent of duty. He can so receive a half dozen pairs. This is owing to the fact that if there is no intent to smuggle, by order of the Secretary of the Treasury, Inspectors of Customs will exact no duty whatever, when the same upon any article amounts to less than $2.00.

In reference to the consumer paying the tax, suppose we eliminate the family element, and discuss the matter of the duty on socks in general.

The duty on knitted wool fabrics, which includes socks, is 27½ cents per pound and 35 per cent. ad valorem. Assuming that the socks were of average weight, the one dozen pairs probably weighed two pounds, which would place the duty at $1.39, or 11½ cents a pair. Now, American made socks, of as good quality, can be had here from 15 to 20 cts. a pair. Hence to sell the foreign made socks, the price asked must be low enough to compete with American ones of the same grade. So the foreign manufacturer puts his price down as low as possible, say at 10 cents a pair.—The importer pays the duty, the pair thus costing him 21½ cents. He puts in a very narrow margin of profit and sells them at 25 cents a pair, knowing full well that there are plenty of fools in the country who have the erroneous belief that foreign goods are better than those made here, and that they will pay 25 cents a pair for them rather than 20 cents a pair for domestic ones.

Now, in this case, who has paid the duty? The manufacturer reduced his price to the importer because of the duty, and paid about one-half of it indirectly, that is, he let the importer have them much cheaper than he otherwise would; the importer paid one-fourth the duty in his narrower margin of profit; and the buyer paid the rest. Now, suppose there was no duty. The foreign manufacturer could continue to sell at the same low rate for a time and the importer could sell at a fair profit, and still undersell the American product. Then the American manufacturers here, finding it impossible to make any money and compete with the imported goods, would quit the business. When American competition ceased, the foreign manufacturer could and would increase his price, the importer make money because his sales had increased so much and the purchaser here would pay at least as much, and probably more than he did for American socks. Where would the cheapness come in? Would free trade help the American consumer.

Another illustration may be given, of the many, that the consumer does not pay the tax: A farmer living just this side of the Canadian line raises 100 bushels of barley and at $1 per bushel realizes $100 on the crop. But if his neighbor who lives just on the other side of the line also raises 100 bushels and wishes to sell it in the United States—to do so is charged a duty of 15 cents per bushel, he realizes but $85 on his crop. Who pays that duty, the American consumer or the Canadian farmer?

THE democrats made a big mistake when they attempted to make it appear that Ex-Pension Commissioner Tanner was luke warm in his support to the Presidential ticket, and was writing letters calculated to help the democrats. This is the way that plain spoken Corporal answers the charge:—"There is not a drop of democratic blood in my veins, nor does that party have any of my sympathy or encouragement. I am a republican, because I believe in the principles of the party, and expect to remain such."

ABSOLUTELY PURE

For Sale By J. S. GRIFFITH, and Leading Grocers of Easton.

A VERY conservative estimate of the result of the election, which gives the three votes of Nevada to Weaver and puts Delaware, New Jersey, New York and West Virginia several of which are certain to go republican, into the doubtful column, gives Harrison and Reid a certain vote in the electoral college of 225, or two more than is necessary to elect. This estimate concedes Alabama to Cleveland, which is more than the average republican will do; it also gives Cleveland Tennesee and North Carolina, in which states many well informed people believe there is a fighting chance to elect anti-Cleveland electors.

IT IS evident from the news from all sources that the campaign in West Virginia is the hottest ever seen in that state. The latest wrinkle to get out big crowds to the democraric meetings is for the railroads to carry passengers free from the surrounding country to the point at which the meeting is held. Ex-Senator Camden, who is a power in railroad circles in that State, and who is anxious to return to the Senate if the democrats can retain control of the legislature, is the originator of this scheme. It makes crowds but it will make no votes; on the contrary, it is calculated to loose some that would otherwise have gone to the democrats. No democrat in Washington will put up a cent on West Virginia, and many of them openly concede it to the republicans.

POLITICAL Mass Meetings have been the order of things for the past week, in Easton and neighboring towns. On Saturday last two parties, the Republicans and Prohibitionists held demonstrative meetings, the former in the Town Hall, the latter in the Court House. On Tuesday the Democraes held sway.

Hon. Henry Stockbridge of Balto., and Philip Goldsborough, States Attorney for Dorchester with the Hon. Geo. M. Russum, candidate for the Congress, held a large audience entire for the afternoon. They were all logical, forcible and convincing.

The Prohibition meeting was large and select. The orators of the afternoon and evening were Frank J. Silby of Georgia and W. Frank Tucker of Baltimore. They commanded perfect attention and order, and were loudly cheered by an enthusiastic and intelligent audience.

At the democratic meeting on Tuesday, Robt. F. Bratton, candidate for congress, first addressed the large audience. He was frequently applauded and several times by his democratic admirers in the wrong place. Mr. Bratton told an anecdote that was loudly applauded, but the tenor of the joke was to favor the McKinley bill while he wanted it to be the reverse. He said that Eastern Shoremen who advocated the McKinley bill were not burned in the other world—they were too green. The supposition was that democrats who did not support the idea of the McKinley bill were seasoned enough for immediate conflagration. McKinley protects even in the future world remember.

Mayor Latrobe of Baltimore next followed. He was not wearisome, the Mayor never is, but his audience which had grown restless under the former speaker rapidly left him and he talked to many empty seats.

Mr. Laird of Montgomery, Hon. J. B. Brown, candidate for the short term, and Maj. Wm. E. Stewart spoke in the evening. The first two hammered laboriously at the tariff and force bill until the audience were most exhausted, though they were brilliant speakers. Maj. Stewart roused them all by a short, crisp, speech, full of humor and did more to wake up the thinkers than the studied efforts of those who preceded him.

The GAZETTE had full reports of the above speeches but at a late hour the same had to be cut down to the present space—much to our regret.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"I was in the Army of the Potomac and in the great battle of Getiysburg was struck in the ankle by a minnie ball, which smashed the bone. My leg was amputated in the field hospital, and after a long time it healed. I was discharged and went home. After 8 years

My Wound Broke Open

afresh. Dr. Pease amputated an inch of the bone, and it healed. Four years later it once more opened, and for eight years how I suffered! I do not believe it possible for a human being to suffer worse agony. During this time I had to go on crutches, being unable to wear a wooden leg. Whenever possible I relieved my sufferings by taking opiate, but when I was obliged to go without it, I suffered fearfully and thought I should go crazy. I tried every thing I could get with my limited means. Physicians said I would never be any better. Finally my and it broke out all over my face and on some parts of my body so that my face is all covered with sears now. One day I read of what Hood's Sarsaparilla would do. The first dollar I got I sent and bought a bottle and began taking it. A week or two later, my wife in dressing my leg, said it seemed to be improving, and after taking a few months, thank God (and I say it reverently), the sores all over my body had healed, and now, four years later, have never shown any sign of reappearing." GEORGE M. HAMMOND, 219 Magnolia Street, Syracuse, N. Y.

"A Campaign of Fraud."

Mr. Henry C. Lea, of Philadelphia, a well known author and man of science—an original Mugwump—who voted for and urged the election of Mr. Cleveland in 1884 and 1888, has "got enough," and comes back to the Republican party after paying his respects to the "stuffed prophet" in the following trenchant fashion:

"The campaign has been a big bunco game, with Mr. Cleveland as Bunco-Steerer-in-Chief!

"No Independent it seems to me, can calmly survey the situation without recognizing that, beyond and above the strife of parties and politics, there is a question of higher morality involved in the canvas. We were promised a campaign of education, and thus far we have found nothing but a campaign of fraud.

"The principles of the party were enunciated at Chicago to catch the voters of the South and West, and the spectacle of the democracy of the North and East ever since scuttling away from their platform as fast as their legs can carry them would be food for laughter to gods and men were it not deplorable that a great historic party, embracing half the people, should be in the hands of leaders who imagine that they can steal the Presidency by thimble rigging. If St. Paul made himself all things to all men he did not pretend to be at once a Pagan, a Jew and a Christian, as Mr. Cleveland is striving to be at once a free trader and a moderate protectionist, a civil service reformer and a spoilsman, a believer in the popular will and a leader of those who suppress its expression.—Party and candidate alike have adopted the motto of "anything to win," whether by deceiving voters as to their policy or by surrendering the City of New York to Tammany. It will be a dark day for the Republic when such methods are crowned with success, and the chair which has been honored by Washington and Lincoln has as its incumbent a man who can stoop so low that for him victory or defeat will be attended with equal dishonor."

ANOTHER DESERTATION.

Eli Perkins goes back on the Republicans. Why he is against Harrison.

Thomas H. Carter, Chairman Republican Committee:—

Dear Sir:—Below I give the reasons why Wayne MacVeagh, Judge Gresham and I desert Harrison and Protection, and come out for noble Grover Cleveland and free trade:—

We are against Harrison because he is an honest Christian; because he is for temperance, and for twenty years has been a Christian vestryman and twice a day bows down in family prayer.

We are against Harrison because he drew his sword for the Republic in 1861, while noble Grover Cleveland bravely staid at home and hired a substitute and paid him with the money earned by hanging criminals.

We are down on Harrison because he did not desert the nation, as did the noble democrat party, with secession in the Senate, theft in the War Department, bankruptcy in the Treasury and treason in the field.

We are a democrat.

We are against Harrison and the republican party because they freed 4,000,000 slaves in 1863; because they made them citizens and gave them the right to vote for the nation for which they fought, and because if these infamous Republicans were once in power they'd honestly count these freedmen's votes and stop a noble democrat from holding by fraud the Presidential office.

We are a democrat.

We are down on Harrison because he killed Mills' English tariff bill for lowering the wages of our Northern workmen; down on him because he says he'll keep the Chinese out, and hold back ignorant paupers coming in to oust our high priced workmen of the North.

We are a democrat.

We are for Cleveland because he kicked the Yankee soldiers, vetoed 600 pension bills and sent the crippled veterans back to starve or fill the poor house, and down on Harrison because he would not turn his back on legless comrades with arms shot off while holding up the Stars and Stripes.

We are a democrat.

We are for Cleveland because England wants him, and because he favors building up great English industries by breaking down American manufacturers; because he wants the Yankee workmen to live on English pay, and because he wants the free trade South to ship direct from England and kill our Yankee workmen in the North.

We are a Democrat.

Yes, we're down on Harrison because he wants our honest silver dollar as good as gold, and because he makes us pay high wages here at home, when we could buy so cheap from starving paupers on the other side.

We love Grover Cleveland because he weeps and cries "Reform the ballot," then squelches a million freemen's ballots in the South, but I am down on Harrison because he wants every Union loving freeman, black or white, to cast his honest vote, when he knows so well an honest count will break the democratic South and stop another President by fraud.

Yours truly, ELI PERKINS.

HOW DIGNITARIES ARE BROUGHT

Magnificent Trains run Over the Pennsylvania System.

From Chicago Herald.

One of the most important and successful features in connection with the dedicatory exercises of the World's Fair grounds, and one which fully illustrates the wonderful progress which our country has made within the last half century, was the movement made by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company of the Cabinet Officers, the Supreme Court Justices, and the Diplomatic corps from Washington to this city and back. It required three special trains to perform this function and Vice-President Frank Thompson to whom the credit of the achievement is due, made requisition on the Pullman Palace Car Company for the finest equipment which those famous car builders could produce. The result was a Pullman train such as has never before glided over the rails in any country. A crew of twenty-five persons, including stewards, cooks waiters, porters, maids, electricians, and machinists, in addition to the usual quota of trainmen, was required to insure proper service. The outfit resembled in a somewhat lessened degree the personal equipment of an ocean greyhound, of which the trains were a duplication on land.

These trains were provided and tendered for the use of the distinguished guests of Chicago by Vice-President Thompson. They were run from Washington to Chicago as sections of the regular "Chicago Limited," of which they were duplicates, and they conformed to the regular schedule of that train. With the thorough organization of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and its splendid system they came through the entire distance, on the special schedule time arranged for them, without accident or delay of any kind, and this in the face of an extraordinarily increased passenger traffic. The great line is in such excellent physical condition, so well protected by the safeguards of modern invention, and so perfectly managed by a corps of men who have been educated and trained under the eyes of its high officials, that a movement of this kind, extraordinary as it may appear to the public, was effected without interfering in any manner with the routine of everday traffic.

It is safe to say that while no other country in the world would be able to move the entire organization of its government a distance of one thousand miles, so there is no other railroad company which could grapple with such a problem and solve it with the ease to the persons in interest and the credit to itself that has distinguished this achievement of the Pennsylvania Railroad. It reflects the utmost credit on Vice-President Thompson, who planned, and his associates, who executed the brilliant feat of railroad transportation, and holds out a bright promise of equally successful work when the resources of this line will be drawn upon next year to furnish adequate transportation facilities to the hosts who will visit the world's greatest fair.

NOTICE.

To Hotel Keepers, and all Others who Deal in Liquors.

For the information of all persons concerned, the following Act of the Legislature passed March 24th, 1865, is published:

CHAPTER 181.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for the keeper of any hotel, tavern, store, drinking establishment, or any other place where liquors are sold, or for any person or persons, directly or indirectly, to sell, barter, give or dispose of any spirituous or fermented liquors, ale, beer, or intoxicating drinks of any kind, on the days of election hereafter to be held in the several counties of the State,

SECTION 2. And be it enacted, That any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be liable to indictment by the Grand Jury of the county where the offence is committed, and shall upon conviction before a Judge of any Circuit Court of the State, be fined a sum not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offence—one-half of the fine shall be paid to the informer, the other half to the County Commissioners, for the use of public roads.

BETTING ON ELECTIONS.

The attention of all persons is particularly called to the following section of Article 35, Code of Public General Laws of Maryland:

46 No person shall make any bet or wager on the result of any election to take place in this State.

47. Any person offending against the last preceding section shall be liable to indictment in the Circuit Courts, if the offense be committed in any county, or in the Criminal Court of Baltimore, if the offense be committed in Baltimore, and on conviction, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, to be paid to the State for the use of the School Fund

48. Do you understand the Sheep Question?

It's furnishing a heap of political thunder just now. It furnishes a table question the year round. It's full of meat. Our side of it is the all-wool side.

Country clothes used to be a reproach. There was the Blue Jeans joke; and the home-made spinning joke; and the home-made making joke.

For over thirty-one years we've been killing off the jokes by clothing the country about us in the Wanamaker & Brown manufacture of Clothing.

We turn all-wool cloth into the most perfect Clothing that can be manufactured. We buy cloth by the carload; make Suits and Overcoats by the thousand, the five hundred or the hundred—as we think the goods are likely to be popular; and sell them as near cost as we dare to, and insure ourselves a solvent business.

Great and greater sales have attended us every year in this generous plan of clothing you; and our Ready-Made
