Recommends it for whooping cough. Mr. John H. Ogden, Ashville, N. C. writes: "I have used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in my family for six years and can cheerfully recommend it as one of the best remedies I ever used. Have also tried it for whooping cough with the best results."

"Tales From Town Topics" (No. 5). Town Topics, 21 West 23d Street, N. Y., 50 cents.

The latest quarterly volume issued by the proprietors of New York's fashionable society journal has just appeared and is equally as captivating in regard to matter as its predecessors. The riskiness of some of the stories is so delicately covered, and the stories themselves so charming told, that they are in nowise repulsive. Clever verses and bon mots go to complete a volume that will no doubt be as widely welcomed by the public as were the previous numbers. 1t

A Little Girl's Experience In A Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at J. C. Henry & Bro's.

Travelers Take Notice.—When you come to Easton, or leave the town simply enquire for Cook's buss, always in attendance at the trains and boats. You will be guaranteed polite and careful attention. Avoid the clamorings and pullings of the bussmen. Cook will wait on you in a gentlemanly manner. tf Lane's Family Medicine Moves the Bowels each day. Most people need to use it.

To our Patrons and Whom it may concern.—We take this opportunity to inform you that we have made reductions in our prices and that it would give us great pleasure to supply you with anything in our line that you may desire. We assure you our stock of beef, veal, lamb, pork and mutton is as fine as can be found in Easton. Our meats are always fresh and of first quality.—Please examine the following cash prices Porterhouse steak, 16 cts.; sirloin steak, 15 and 16 cts; round steak 12½ cts.; best rib roast, 14 and 16 cts.; chuck rib roast, 10 and 12½ cts.; pork steak, 12½ and 15 cts; lamb and mutton by pound or quarter, 10 and 15 cts; corned beef 8 and 10 cts. We make it our aim at all times to keep abreast of the market, and whenever there is the slightest 'drop' from the above prices, we give our customers the advantage of it.

Truly Yours,

Death of Marion Pippin.—Mr. Marion R. Pippin, a few years ago a popular young man of this town, died at his home in Denton on Monday evening, and was buried in Greensborough, Wednesday.

Consumption pointed its pallid finger toward one of the promising young men of the day, and after months of pain and quiet forbearance, the pride of a family, the joy of an accomplished young wife and the admiration of his numerous friends, succumbed with Christian resignation. Mr. Pippin was intelligent and won favor with those with whom he associated in business. He kept a masterly set of books. From the house of Avery & Co. of Easton, as bookkeeper, to the Denton National Bank, thence to the Munufacturers' Bank of Baltimore. This place was tendered to him from the recommendation of the State Bank Examiner who was so pleased with his books in the Denton Bank. The deceased married the elder daughter of the Hon. R. J. Jump, of Denton, and is now for the second time a widow. He leaves many relatives in Caroline, Queen Anne and Talbot counties, Mrs. Harry Potchett of this town being a niece, and Mr. T. C. West, cashier of the Denton National Bank, a brother-in-law.

Among Our Churches.—Trinity M. E. Church, South.—Rev. C. D. Harris, pastor. Last Sunday evening the annual Harvest Ingathering Service was held. The occasion was replete with interesting and appropriate features and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large number of people who attended. The program was a beautiful one and every participant rendered his or her part admirably. The Church was decorated with autumn fruits, and the committee have reason to pride themselves on their work. The liberal collection taken was for the benefit of Foreign Missions.

The subject for tomorrow morning will be "A dying wish remembered," after which the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. The evening subject "The Election." All invited.

Christ Church.—Rev. L. B. Baldwin, the new pastor of Christ P. E. Church arrived in Easton this week and will hold his first service to-morrow. Mr. Baldwin comes to Easton with the highest recommendations both as a rector and as a gentleman.

Calvary M. P. Church.—Rev. J. M. Sheridan pastor.—Sunday last was a day of special interest at Calvary M. P. Church. At 11 A. M. the pastor preached on "The Christians' Hope of the Heavenly Inheritance," 1 Peter 3.4. There was a very large congregation in attendance. Hon. Frank Tucker of Baltimore, who spent Sunday in Easton attended the morning service. The Sunday School at 2 P. M. was large and the exercises interesting. Mr. Wheatley favored the school with a beautiful hymn. At night the pastor preached and conducted Revival Services. The Revival has been well attended and much interest manifested. There has been six penitents and four conversions.

Sunday next 6th inst., 11 A. M., Monthly communion and reception of members. 7½ P. M. Preaching and Revival Services. Revival Services every evening next week.

Ebenezer M. E. Church.—Rev W. E. Avery, pastor.—Rev. J. D. Lecates will preach in the Ebenezer Church tomorrow morning and evening. The choir will render some extra music for the occasion. All are cordially invited to attend. The services last Sunday were highly interesting. Mr. Avery's morning subject upon "The Erring Restored" was considered by many, one of the ablest sermons ever listened to from that pulpit.

SS. Peter and Paul Church.—Rev. Fr Waldron, pastor.—Last Sunday evening in addition to the usual service two statues lately presented to the church were unveiled. The ceremony attending the unveiling was beautiful and inspiring. The decorations of the altars were far prettier than has ever been seen in Easton. Father Waldron is an artist in this respect. S. E. St. Michaels Items.—From our regular correspondent.—Dear GAZETTE, I've not seen any items from our saintly town in your columns. Why are things thus? We are full of good things, items included. I've noted down a few that are straying around.

Wm. McMahan has rented Ed. Jones store room and will sell shoes and boots to those who may need either. We have at this writing five stores in town where you can buy shoes. No one need go barefooted if they have the needful.

Saml. E. Marshall, late of Easton, has opened a store on Talbot st., next door to Comet office.

Wm. Legg has removed from Grace St., and will occupy in the future Jas. Fairbanks' house.

Fire last Saturday night and Sunday morning in the woods near Rob't, Brown's place, wind blowing a gale from nort-west fanned the flames, and for a long while it seemed a matter of impossibility for men to conquer. How the fire started, was the query, some said from the engine of the railroad, others that the section men who were working near left some fire. There was a fire, that much was a certainty.

W. P. Harrison with his mother and sisters are living in his new house, Talbot St.

Col. R. S. Dodson has bought the Canton farm near St. Michaels.

Republican Mass Meeting here last Thursday night. Col. Mullikin add Mr. Russum talked to the people.

Mr. and Mrs. Whaley, of Church Neck celebrated the fourth anniversary of their marriage Monday night.

Our friends, the democrats, had a public meeting here last Tuesday evening. Speakers were in attendance as usual, so was the brass band. By the way, I believe the people of our town have the credit of being able to reason after they have read, and to form their conclusions as to any subject that may come before them. You would not have thought so had you heard those speakers who come from afar. Judging them by their assertions, you would have supposed that they thought they were talking to people that had never seen a paper, and that no one present at the meeting had lived in the days that wild cat money was out.

Have you noticed the Comet of late? Did you notice the length of its great fiery tail? And at the end of that tail was attached a slip chain so that they could easily be parted from said tail—the noble Grover and his mate Stevenson. For a long time our Comet has struggled through the air with these heavy weights attached, swinging them to and fro. But after next Tuesday the chain will part and the Comet will drop them into the immensity of space. Swing on, oh Comet unencumbered at last!

The constant demand of the traveling public to the far West for a comfortable and at the same time an economical mode of traveling, has led to the establishment of what is known as Pullman Colonist Sleepers.

These cars are built on the same general plan as the regular first class Pullman Sleeper, the only difference is that they are not upholstered.

They are furnished complete with good comfortable hair mattresses, warm blankets, snow white linen, curtains, plenty of towels, combs, brushes, etc., which secure to the occupant of a berth as much privacy as is to be had in first-class sleepers. There are also separate toilet rooms for ladies and gentlemen, and smoking is absolutely prohibited. For full information send for Pullman Colonist Sleeper Leaflet. E. L. The Grand Canon of the Colorado River, in Arizona, is now for the first time easily accessible to tourists. A regular stage line has been established from Flagstaff, Arizona, on the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad, making the trip from Flagstaff to the most imposing part of the Canon in less than 12 hours. The stage fare for the round trip is only $20.00, and meals and comfortable lodgings are provided throughout the trip at a reasonable price. The view of the Grand Canon afforded at the terminus of the stage route is the most stupendous panorama known in nature There is also a trail at this point leading down the Canon wall more than 6,000 feet vertically, to the river below. The descent of the trail is a grander experience than climbing the Alps, for in the bottom of this terrific and sublime chasm are hundreds of mountains greater than any of the Alpine range.

A book describing the trip to the Grand Canon, illustrated by many full-page engravings from special photographs, and furnishing all needful information, may be obtained free upon application to Jno. J. Byrne, 723 Monadnock Block, Chicago, Ill.

To Work the Australian Ballot Law.

—Prepared by the Secretary of State, and issued under the Provisions contained in Chapter 538 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1890, and the supplements thereto.

1. Any person desiring to vote must enter the voting room and give his name, and residence if requested, to one of the ballot clerk; if his name is found upon the list of registered voters, he must enter the space inside the rail; a ballot clerk shall then give him one ticket, to be marked with initials of the clerk before delivery to the voter.

2.—After receiving the ballot, the voter must retire alone to one of the voting compartments and prepare his ballot by marking in the margin a X at the right of and opposite the name or emblem of party as a vote for all the group of candidates of that party; or make such X mark at the right of and opposite the name of the candidate or candidates of his choice for each office to be filled; or he can write the name of the candidate for each office to be filled in a blank space provided, and make a X opposite thereto. If the election be upon a question submitted to the vote of the people, the voter shall indicate his choice by making in the margin a X opposite the answer or vote he desires to give. A stamp with a X (cross) thereon will be provided for the use of the voter. In marking his ballot, voter can use or copy any unofficial sample ballot to assist him in preparing his official ballot; but the sample ballot used must not be of the color or quality of paper of the official ballot; and the voter must make and deposit his ballot without undue delay. Before leaving the compartment the voter must fold his ballot without displaying the X marks, or in same way as when given him; he shall then hand the folded ballot to the judge of election. As soon as his vote is taken he must leave the polling-room, and cannot again enter the enclosed space.

3.—If the voter shall make his cross mark opposite a party emblem or name and also opposite one or more of the names of persons in any other column or group, then the vote so cast shall be regarded as given for all the candidates under such party emblem or name except the candidates under such party emblem or name, whose name or names is or are opposite the name or names so marked, and also for the candidate or candidates whose name or names is or are so marked.

4.—A voter must not go into any compartment occupied by another, or overlook or converse with any other voter while engaged in a compartment, nor can he occupy one for more than five minutes if others are waiting.

5.—No person shall take or remove any ballot from the polling place before the close of the polls If a person spoils a ballot he may obtain others from the ballot clerks, one at a time, not exceeding three in all upon returning each spoiled one.

6.—A voter who is blind, or one who cannot read, or who from physical disability is unable to mark his ballot, may apply to the TWO ballot clerks to assist him in marking the same. A voter of foreign birth who cannot speak English is allowed to bring to the rail one person who can speak English to assist the voter in properly stating and spelling his name and in establishing his residence, and to aid him in correctly understanding questions.

7.—A voter must not mark more names than there are persons to be elected; if he does, the ballot will not be counted.

8.—Any voter who shall allow his ballot to be seen, with an apparent intention of letting it be known how he is to vote, or places any distinguishing mark thereon, or any person who shall attempt to interfere with any voter inside the enclosed space, shall be fined not less than five dollars or more than one hundred dollars.

FOR SALE.

One of the Best Estates on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

'CHESTNUT RIDGE.'

located on Skipton Creek, will be sold at Public Auction on

The 26th day of November, '92.
AT EASTON, MD.

BETWEEN THE HOURS OF 2 AND 4 O'CLOCK P. M. THIS ESTATE CONTAINS about 275 of which are in cultivation. The character of the land is gently rolling, finely watered, alluvial soil with red clay sub soil, and well adapted to the growth of all grains and fruits. It is a fine wheat farm and one of the best for peach culture on the peninsula.—The estate is divided by a public road, making it susceptible of being used as two farms, each portion of which would have orchards and buildings.

407 1-2 ACRES,

THE IMPROVEMENTS ARE TWO GOOD RESIDENCES,

Barns with storage for 60 tons of hay, and good stabling and granary.

THREE TENEMENT HOUSES,

AND GOOD CHESTNUT FENCING.

Produce from the farm can be shipped by vessels from the wharf on the premises; and as the farm is less than 60 miles from Baltimore by water, and less than 100 miles to Philadelphia by rail, it is convenient to our best markets. Much of the timber is valuable chestnut. Springs of water abound and a good quality of marl on the premises The climate is mild, winters comparatively short and the springs and autumns long Society is good churches and schools convenient—Fish, oysters and water-fowl abound, and it is seldom a farm is offered for sale possessing so many advantages.

This is located 8 miles from Easton and 2 miles from Longwood, in Talbot county, Md. and will be sold subject to a mortgage incumberance of $11,000, with interest at 6 per cent. since March 1st of this year and the taxes for 1891 and 1892, amounting to about $270. Woodland station on the D. & C. R. R. is within three miles of the premeses.

WONDERFUL

The cures which are being effected by Drs. Starkey & Palen, 1529 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa., in Consumption, Catarrh, Neuralgia, Bronchitis, Rheumatism, and all chronic diseases, by their Compound Oxygen Treatment, are indeed marvelous.

If you are a sufferer from any disease which your physician has failed to cure, write for information about this treatment, and their book of 200 pages, giving a history of Compound Oxygen, its nature and effects, with numerous testimonials from patients, to whom you may refer for still further information, will be promptly sent, without charge.

This book, aside from its great merit as a medical work, giving, as it does, the result of years of study and experience, you will find a very interesting one.

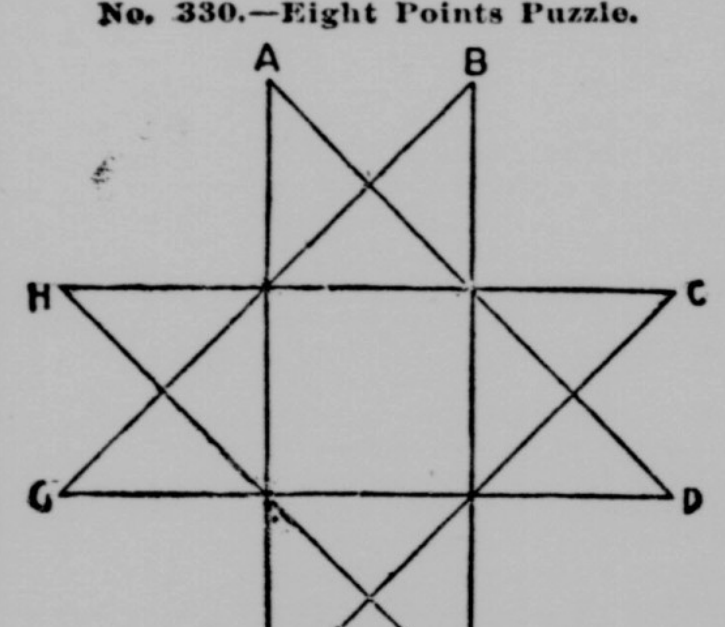
No. 330.—Eight Points Puzzle.



Draw a figure with eight points (see cut), which points are connected together by the lines A D, D G, G B, B E, E H, H C, C F, F A. Provide yourself with eight counters, numbered from one to eight. With these the points of the star are to be covered and in the following manner: Begin by placing a counter upon any uncovered point of the star, push it along the line which unites it to the opposite point, and leave it lying there. You must proceed in this way with the seven counters, when you place the eighth upon the remaining uncovered point, which makes the star complete.

ONE is an excellent timber for ships—
The tree in the East Indies grows;
The branches are flower-covered clear to the tips,
And beautiful, too, I suppose.

It must SECOND some labor, I think, to procure
The timber from such a far source;
But the best things are not always easiest, sure—
Which applies to this timber of course.

And the west is all aglow,
'Tis then the sun ONE up the mist
Before he sinketh low.

Now the TWO is resting,
For the boys are in their beds;
The tiny blades, all trampled down,
Lift up their drooping heads.

The String Trick.

This trick consists in suffering a person to tie your thumbs tightly together, and yet that you shall be able to release them in a moment without assistance and tie them together again. The mode of performing this trick is as follows:

Lay a piece of string across the palms of your hands, placed side by side, letting the ends hang down; then bring your palms quickly together, at the same time privately catching hold of the middle of the string with your fourth and fifth fingers. Then direct any person to tie your thumbs together as tight as he pleases, but he will not of course in reality be tying them, because you have hold of the string, yet it will nevertheless appear to him that he is doing so. Request him to place a hat over your hands; then blow upon the hat and say, "Be loose," slipping your thumb from under the string; direct him to remove the hat, and show your thumbs free. You then request the hat may again be placed over your hands, and blowing upon it as before, you say, "Be tied," slipping your thumbs under the string again, and when the hat is removed your thumbs will appear to be tied as at first. After you have performed the trick you must convey the string into your pocket that it may not be detected.

A Downpour.

The Business Methods Of To-day.

Although the fundamental principles of business are as old as the hills, it is only by using the latest and most approved methods that the best results can be attained.

The clipper ship and the stage coach of a century ago were adapted to the needs of that time, but the "Ocean Greyhound" and the "Limited Express" are required to meet the demands of the present day.

In a large business, such as ours has grown to be, from a very modest beginning, it is evident that to be abrest of the times in the distributing of an immense volume of dry goods yearly, we must adopt every new idea that tends to facilitate the transaction of business. This we have done, and so, through a process of years, have evolved what we may call, without egotism, a model Dry Goods Store of the Nineteenth Century.

Our aim is ever toward the best service for our patrons, and realilizing that in every essential we are equipped to serve the public satisfactorily, we invite inspection of our superb stock which includes everything that properly belongs to a comprehensively organized Retail Dry Goods Establishment.
