Daniel Roberdeau. Plaintiff against
Nathaniel Owings. Defendant

In the General Court for the Western shore of the State of Maryland.

This Cause being referred to us the subscribers by the Honorable the General Court with the consent of the parties, And we having read, heard, and deliberately and maturely examined and considered all papers, Witnesses,

Evidences and Allegations, offered and advanced by both parties relative to the matters in controversy, Do thereupon Award, arbitrate and determine by these presents that the said Nathaniel Owings pay unto the said Daniel Roberdeau the Sum of Eight hundred and thirteen pounds, one shilling and eleven pence current Money of Maryland with Interest to be computed thereon from the Date of these presents together with all legal Costs which have accrued or may hereafter accrue in the said Suit. And we do also award and determine that the said Daniel Roberdeau do and shall upon payment of the said Sum of Money with Interest as aforesaid and the Costs of Suit by the said Nathaniel Owings his heirs Executors, Administrators or Assigns execute a good and sufficient release and acquittal, to the said Nathaniel Owings his heirs Executors Administrators and Assigns of all Judgments, Debts, Claims, Causes of Action Suits and demands whatsoever, which the said Daniel Roberdeau may have against the said Nathaniel Owings. And whereas it appears to us that the said Nathaniel Owings and John Cockey are jointly and severally bound unto the said Daniel Roberdeau and there being the Sum of Eight hundred and thirteen pounds one shilling and eleven pence current Money of Maryland only due from the said Owings and Cockey to the said Roberdeau in all dealings and transactions between the said Roberdeau, Cockey and Owings. We do therefore hereby further award and determine that the said Daniel Roberdeau do and shall upon payment and satisfaction made of the said Sum of Eight hundred and thirteen pounds one shilling and eleven pence with Interest and the legal Costs of Both the said Suits by the said Nathaniel Owings and John Cockey execute good and sufficient Releases and Acquittals to the said Nathaniel Owings of all Judgments Debts, Causes of Actions, Suits, claims and demands whatsoever against him. In Witness whereof We have hereunto put our hands and seals this fifth day of November 1782.
