Dat 'Stralian Business Bodders Me.—Faithful old Nick Brooks, a sworn official of the Government, (he carries the mail pouches to and from the depot) was considerably puzzled to know how to work the booth.—He rapped on the back of the booth for some one to "open up" and take his ballot until the judge called time on him. He then delivered his ticket to the judge and went out with a very loud and happy smile on his jolly countenance.

Fire, Fire.—The roof of the Hayward house on Washington and Cabinet Sts., was seen to be in a blaze early Tuesday morning. Prompt attention of the fire department prevented a total destruction, also kept the fire confined in spite of a stiff breeze. The house is a three-story brick and was temporarily unoccupied. Several theories are advanced for the fire originating in the roof but the best one seems to be, that as a colony of bees had secreted considerable honey in the cornice, some parties had entered the house to secure it, and with torch or candle set the roof on fire.

Travelers Take Notice.—When you come to Easton, or leave the town simply enquire for Cook's buss, always in attendance at the trains and boats. You will be guaranteed polite and careful attention. Avoid the clamorings and pullings of the bussmen. Cook will wait on you in a gentlemanly manner. tf

KEEP THE GATE SHUT.

A farmer was one day at work in his fields when he saw a party of horsemen riding about his farm. He had one field that he was especially anxious that they should not ride over, as the crop was in a condition to be badly injured by the tramp of horses. So he dispatched one of his boys to the field, telling him to shut the gate, and then keep watch over it, and on no account to suffer it to be opened.

The boy went as he was bidden, but was scarcely at his post before the huntsmen came up, peremptorily ordering the gate to be opened. This the boy declined to do, stating the orders he had received, and his determination not to disobey them. Threats and bribes were offered, alike in vain; one after another came forward as spokesman, but all with the same result; the boy remained immovable in his determination not to open the gate. After awhile one of noble presence advanced and said, in commanding tones, "My boy, you do not know me. I am the Duke of Wellington, one not accustomed to be disobeyed, and I command you to open that gate, that I and my friends may pass through."

The boy lifted his cap and stood uncovered before the man whom all England delighted to honor, then answered firmly: "I am sure the Duke of Wellington would not wish me to disobey orders. I must keep this gate shut and not allow anyone to pass without my master's express permission."

Greatly pleased the old warrior lifted his own hat and said: "I honor the man or boy can be neither bribed nor frightened into doing wrong. With an army of such soldiers I could conquer not only the French but the world."

And handing the boy a glittering sovereign, the old Duke put spurs to his horse and galloped away, while the boy ran off to his work, shouting at the top of his voice: "Hurrah! hurrah! I've done what Napoleon could nor do; I've kept out the Duke of Wellington."

Every boy is a gate keeper, and his Master's command is, "Be thou faithful unto death." Are you tempted to drink, to smoke or chew tobacco? Keep the gate of your mouth fast closed, and allow no evil company to enter.

When evil companions would counsel you to lie, to deal falsely to disobey your parents, keep the gate of your ears fast shut against such enticements. And when the bold blasphemer would instil doubts of the great truths of revelation, then keep the door of your heart locked and barred against his infamous suggestions remembering that it is only the fool that hath "said in his hearth, there is no God."—B. of H. Review.

IS MODERATE DRINKING A SIN?

BY HON. JOHN BRIGHT.

To drink deeply—to be drunk—is a sin! this is not denied. At what point does the taking of strong drink become a sin? The state in which the body is when not excited by intoxicating drink is its proper and natural state, drunkenness is the state farthest removed from it. The state of drundenness is a state of sin. At what state does it become a sin?

We suppose a man perfectly sober who has not tasted anything that can intoxicate; one glass excites him, and to some extent disturbs the state of sobriety, and so far destroys it: another glass excites him still more: a third fires his eye, heats his blood, loosens his tongue, inflames his passions: a fourth increases all this: a fifth makes him foolish and partly insane: a sixth makes him savage: a seventh or eighth makes him stupid, a senseless degraded mass, his reason quenched, his faculties are for the time destroyed, every noble and generous and holy principle within him withers, and the image of God is polluted and defiled. This is a sin awful sin! for drunkards shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But where does the sin begin? At the first glass, at the first step toward completed intoxication, or at the sixth seventh or eighth? In every step from the natural state of the system toward the state of stupid intoxication an advance in sin, and a yielding to the temper of the soul?

Among Our Churches.—SS. Peter and Paul Church, Fr. Waldron.—The pastor being on his regular monthly tour, there will be no service tomorrow. The services last Sunday were unusually interesting. In the morning Father Waldron favored his large congregation with a fine sermon which was very well received. The excellent choir rendered some special music, which, in addition to the lovely decorations, made the service very enjoyable. One of the charms of Father Waldron's decorations is its originality, the same design is used but once, and every Sabbath the altar presents a highly attractive appearance. The Forty Hours of Devotion, which begins next Sunday week and lasts till Tuesday night, will form an important epoch in the history of this church. Further particulars will appear next week.

Christ Church, Rev. L. B. Baldwin, rector.—The members of this church were greatly pleased last Sunday with the Rev. Baldwin who preached his first sermon at 11 a. m.—He is a gentleman of the highest culture and a preacher of great ability, as his eloquent sermon of last Sabbath will testify. Services tomorrow at the usual hours.

Ebenezer M. E. Church, Rev. W. E. Avery, pastor.—Last Sunday morning and evening Rev. Lecates of Tilghman, ably filled the plupit of this church. Rev. Lecates is one of the rising young ministers of the Conference and is noted for great zeal and energy in revival work. His sermons were not lacking those essentials which make all sermons appreciated. His remarks in the evening were especially interesting and instructive. Owing to the absence of several members the choir did not render any special music. The session of the Sunday School was well attended, much enthusiasm is manifest at the attempt to make this the banner Sunday School of the Shore. Attention is called to the weekly classes, to all of which everyone is invited. Tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock Communion will be administered. In the evening at 7.30, preaching by Rev. T. H. Woodring, D. D., of the Pittsburg Conference.

Trinity Cathedral, Rev. A. R. Walker, rector.—Next week, in this church, the 25th session of the Middle Convocation of the Diocese of Easton will be held. The session begins on Tuesday night, Nov. 15th, at 7.30 p. m. and continues until Thursday evening, the 17th. A program replete with interest and instruction has been arranged. The public is cordially invited.

Calvary M. P. Church, Rev. J. M. Sheridan, pastor.—Last Sunday morning the pastor conducted communion service and received five new members into the church. Owing to the sickness of the pastor, Mr. C. A. Hughes had charge of the revival service at 7.30, and gave a very interesting address to a large congregation. Rev. F. A. Mullineaux, of Oxford, has had charge of the services during the week. Rev. Sheridan will be in his pulpit tomorrow. Revival continued.

M. E. Church, South, Rev. C. D. Harris, pastor.—Last Sunday evening this church was well filled with an appreciative congregation, who listened with rapt attention to the remarks of the popular young pastor on "The Election." The sermon was unique and interesting to a degree, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The choir sang some good music which added to the pleasure of the service. Tomorrow morning the pastor will preach a special sermon to the children, in the evening his theme will be in harmony with the season—"Autumn Leaves." S. E. S.

G. A. R.—The regular meeting of Hicks Post No. 24 G. A. R. will be held on Tuesday next, Nov. 15th, at 2 o'clock P. M. in the room corner of Dover and Washington streets, over the store of J. C. Godwin.

The Commander of the Department of Md. and his Staff will be present and the work of the Order will be fully explained and illustrated, and the Annual Inspection of the Post will be held by the Department Inspector in person. Comrades will appear in full uniform and officers with their side arms. A full attendance is earnestly requested. Let us make a good showing to our Department Officers.

A preliminary meeting to the above will be held at the Post room on Monday evening, the 14th inst., at which we hope to see as many of our comrades as can conveniently attend. By command of THOS. H. COBURN, Commander.

Meeting of Doctors.—The Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland will hold its semi-annual meeting in this town on Tuesday and Wednesday the 15th and 16th. A number of interesting papers will be read and discussed. Dr. E. R. Trippe will deliver the address of welcome. The morning session will be at 10, the afternoon at 3 each day. On Wednesday afternoon Dr. Fred Dunning of this town will read a paper on Clinical Obstetrics. Twenty-three physicians are on the program with papers assigned them. This meeting will be a treat to all practicing physicians who attend it.

Catarrh, Not Local But Constitutional.

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all medical treatment of catarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose—a Local exhibition of a Constitutional trouble." Therefore, he argues, the use of snuff and other local applications is wrong, and while they seem to give temporary relief, they really do more harm than good. Other leading authorities agree with Dr. Lewis. Hence, the only proper method of cure for catarrh is by taking a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, reaching every part of the body through the blood, does eliminate all impurities and makes the whole man healthier. It removes the cause of the trouble and restores the diseased membrane to proper condition. That this is the practical result is proven by thousands of people who have been cured of catarrh by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

St. Michaels Items.—From our regular correspondent.—Our oystermen have had a very dull market for oysters, since they were allowed to work. Losing fifteen days in September was a bad thing for them—for which they give Col. Lloyd the credit—and, Oh! but don't they cuss him with fearful cuss words. They swear by all that's holy and bad that they will cut him the very first time that he is before the public as a candidate for anything. But the most of this using of bad word is done by Democrats, they have cussed before, yet when the time came for them to assert their manhood, they were as sheep led to be slaughtered, voting as always a straight Democrat ticket.

Milton Fairbank has rented William Whitman's house on West Chestnut street. Will occupy in a week or two.

William Whitman and family have removed to Pocomoke City, where he will work at his trade as ship carpenter. Mr. W. gives a glowing account of Pocomoke as a town to live in.

Miss Addie Dean and mother spent last Sunday in Baltimore.

C. H. Mansfield of Baltimore is visiting friends in St. Michaels.

Mr. Will Fleckenstein, of Easton, and Miss Mary Saulsbury, teacher in one of the schools in Easton, spent last Sunday with Miss Maggie Hambleton, North Talbot street.

Miss Annie Boothe and her brother Frank were at Miss Alice McDaniel's last Sunday.

Wm. J. Holland has opened a restaurant corner Talbot and Grace streets.

Mrs. M. A. Hambleton, of this town, is in Easton as the guest of her niece Mrs. S. Alex Benson.

Constable Barnes arrested two strange men last Tuesday night, supposing that they were the tramps that have been annoying the people of St. M. the last week or so. He took them before 'Squire Gibson. They proved to be sailors from some dredge boat. They had been badly treated. After several attempts they escaped to the shore. The 'Squire discharged them. The tramp is still at large.

Miss Belle Dodson is in the city selecting Christmas goods for her store; also for G. K. Benson's Christmas goods department.

Rev. Dr. Morris, of the St. Michaels M. E. Church, preached at the Royal Oak church last Tuesday evening.

Jos. B. Hunt has rented Captain George Tyler's blackrmith shop on Mulberry street, where he will do all kinds of ironwork.

I've heard that William Harrison, Jr., of Broad Creek, will soon occupy and carry on the blacksmith business in the building owned by the late Stephen Harrison.

Thos. Carey has rented for 1893 Mrs. Ball's farm near St. Michaels. We do not like to lose Mr. Carey as a citizen, as he is a thorough Prohibitionist.

Another cheap excursion last Thursday to Baltimore via the B. & E. S. R. R.—well patronized. Money that should be kept in our town goes to Baltimore. This is not encouraging to our merchants who spend their lives behind the counter to accommodate the public. Almost everything can be bought as cheap here as in the city, where rents are high and expenses great. The people don't seem to realize this great fact, but it is a true one.

Oh! the scramble for office, under the new administration that will soon be on us. Who shall be Postmaster? and echo answers who? There are enough aspirants for office in this one little town to drive Grover clear out of his senses. Eleven applicants with first class Democrat backing for the handling of Uncle Sam's mail. Thirty-three have declared their willingness to take Mr. Dodson's place with an assistant as sampler or taster. Charlie Gibson will soon find that he has something on his hands worse than fighting forest fires. Lord help him when the great struggle for office comes. They are hung .

Colored Man Killed.—The only son of Rev. Charles Horsey, colored minister at Trappe was killed on Tuesday, election day while gunning. He placed his gun against the tree with the hammers set, and ascended the same tree to shake down an opossum. Upon descending, the gun was discharged, the load taking effect in his left side under the arm nearly severing it. He bled to death before his companions could get him home.

Sixty Million Bushels of Wheat—A Bushel for Every Inhabitant of the United States. The Kansas Crop of '92.

Never in the history of Kansas has that state had such bountiful crops as this year. The farmers cannot get enough hands to harvest the great crop, and the Santa Fe Railroad has made special rates from Kansas City and other Missouri River towns, to induce harvest hands to go into the state. The wheat crop of the state will be from sixty to sixty five million bushels, and the quality is high. The grass crop is made and is a very large one; the early potatoes, rye, barley and oat crops are made, and are all large. The weather has been propitious for corn, and it is the cleanest, best looking corn to be found in the country to-day. Cheap rates will be made from Chicago, St. Louis and all points on the Santa Fe east of the Missouri River to all Kansas points, on August 30 and September 27, and these excursions will give a chance for the eastern farmers to see what the great Sunflower State can do. A good map of Kansas will be mailed free upon application to Jno. J. Byrne, 723 Monadnock Block, Chicago Ill., together with reliable statistics and information about Kansas lands.

THE PUZZLER

No. 337.—Transposition.

Two little words I'd have you find,
Five letters use in each;
These self same letters, bear in mind,
Two varied lessons teach.

The first two letters place the same;
A prefix I have heard;
Transpose the others and they name—
Presto!—another word.

To wed these letters five aright
May tax your utmost skill;
But yet again, an effort slight
May loose the knot at will.

No. 338.—Anagram.

'Twas in an open one horse sleigh,
Upon the smoothly frozen bay,
That Inez, in the robes so warm,
Encircled by her lover's arm,
Murmured in a dreamy way,
"Jack, I think we ought to say
A thousand blessings on the ice
Whose smoothness lets 'US SLIDE SO NICE.'"

No. 339.—Numerical Enigma.

My whole, composed of thirty-two letters, were the last words of Goethe.

My 18, 3, 28, 20, 12, 29, 25, 23 is an obliteration.

My 2, 7, 26, 11, 31 is a city in Scotland.

My 4, 22, 17, 27 is a number.

My 24, 16, 14, 32 is a market.

No. 330.—Eight Points Puzzle: This feat, although a merely mechanical one, cannot be effected unless the person attempting it proceeds in the following order: The first counter you place, say, upon point A, move it to the point F and leave it there. The second counter you place upon the point D, move it to A and leave it there. The third you place upon G, move it to D and leave it; the fourth you place upon B, and move it to G; the fifth upon E, and move it to B; the sixth upon H, and move it to E; the seventh upon C, and move it to H; and finally place the eighth counter upon C, when every point of the star will be covered. The solution lies simply in these words, "Always slide one to the last point you started from." Thus, if you begin at F and slide one to A, send one to A, and so on till you have got the whole of them on.

Remember.—That imaginary troubles that never come are often hardest to bear.

That some people are so busy about the Lord's work that they have no time to be pious.

That zeal for the church may increase while its possessor is back-sliding in heart.

That manufactured revivals leave the cause of God in a more barren condition than ever.

That only the revival that comes down from heaven will arouse the devil.

That dancing Christians are the kind that make the devil dance for joy.

That dying men never seek consolation from card-playing Christians.—Christian Witness.

The Business Methods Of To-day.

Although the fundamental principles of business are as old as the hills, it is only by using the latest and most approved methods that the best results can be attained.

The clipper ship and the stage coach of a century ago were adapted to the needs of that time, but the "Ocean Greyhound" and the "Limited Express" are required to meet the demands of the present day.

In a large business, such as ours has grown to be, from a very modest beginning, it is evident that to be abrest of the times in the distributing of an immense volume of dry goods yearly, we must adopt every new idea that tends to facilitate the transaction of business. This we have done, and so, through a process of years, have evolved what we may call, without egotism, a model Dry Goods Store of the Nineteenth Century.

Our aim is ever toward the best service for our patrons, and realilizing that in every essential we are equipped to serve the public satisfactorily, we invite inspection of our superb stock which includes everything that properly belongs to a comprehensively organized Retail Dry Goods Establishment.
