Easton, Md.

"I was deaf for a year, caused by catarrh in the head, but was perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla." H. Hicks, Rochester, N. Y.

—An immense stock of wraps of all kinds very low at J. E. Shannahan's.

See our line of Dress Goods; pretty, stylish, and cheap. B. P. Cox.

—Do not overlook Miller when buying a wardrobe for your horse. He makes a specialty of everything that goes on a horse.

—Creamery butter in half and pound prints for sale by S. Lee Tucker. nov19tf

—W. J. Bierry & Son are offering bargains in carriages and wagons.

—Toys, toys for girls and boys.
At S. A. Meintzer's Great toy house!

—A ton or two of clover hay wanted at this office.

It is positively without a peer. Mr. Walter Brewer, Minton, Iowa, says: "I had a very bad cough and a few doses of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup gave relief and effected a cure. I would not be without it in my family.

—Miller is on Market Space. He keeps harness etc. in large quantities.

—J. E. Shannahon is headquarters for hosiery, gloves, corsets and underware.

Beautiful line of children's Suits, just in, nobby style. B. P. Cox.

—The most delicate and delicious cake of all varieties made at reasonable rates, by Meintzer, the baker.

—Inspect the road vehicles of W. J. Biery & Son.

The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 3, '90. I have heard Mr. Gilbert Walden, the Southern Elocutionist, read a number of his selections in this city, and have enjoyed them very much. Especially have I enjoyed his felicitous renditions of the negro dialect. His art here seems to me to be very fine. His conception of negro-character—half-humorous, half-pathetic,—and his management of the intonation are the best I have ever heard. I take great pleasure, therefore, in commending him most heartily to all.

Joel Chandler Harris,
("Uncle Remus"),
(Greatest Southern Dialect Author).

—For half-pound prints of fine creamery butter go to S. Lee Tucker's, nov19tf —Bargain Days at J. E. Shannahan's from Monday morning until Saturday night. Call and be convinced.

—Miller's harness, blankets and whips lead in low prices.

Our 50c. Brussels Carpet attracts attention. See our line of Carpets. B. P. Cox.

—W. J. Biery & Son have the finest wagons and carriages on sale at great bargains.

—"Angela, love, where will you get our bride's cake?" "At S. A. Meintzer's, where the most artistic and bewilderingly lovely cakes are made."

The greatest of all pain cures, Salvation Oil may be confidently relied on to speedily heal scalds and burns. It is recommended by many prominent housekeepers and cooks as a curative that "just fills the bill." Its effect is magical.

—A correspondent from Hillsborough to the Observer says, "Some light-fingered gentry have been engaged lately in depleting hen roosts. Some poultry owners who do not care to lose their poultry thus, talk of feeding their fowls nux vomica. This poison it is said is perfectly harmless to an animal possessing a gizzard. But a chicken fed on nux vomica, is sure death to a fox, hawk, or any other animal wirhout a gizzard."

—You can save money on Carpets, Oil Cloths, Rugs, Window Shades at S. E. Shannahan's.

—School boys and girls! Stop at Meintzer's and see the great supply of caramels, cream cocoanut bars, melt-in-your-mouth taffies, and other delicious luxuries.

—One of the nicest Christmas presents you can make a lady would be a $45.00 sewing machine. If ordered at the Gazette office, one (the best on the market) will be furnished for $15.50. There are dozens in this county all winning highest praise.

—All classes of forging and repairing of machinery, wheelwright work, etc., done promptly and cheaply by W. J. Bierry & Son.

—This year, Meintzer has a big line of all kinds of confectioneries—chocolate bon bons, French mixture, finest assortment of conserves, cream almonds, cream walnuts, burnt almonds, and delicious marsh mallows.—Everything to please the most delicate palate.

—A beautiful line of lace curtains, porteirs, table covers, towels, napkins, and tapestries extra cheap at J. E. Shannahan's.

Death of Mrs. Elizabeth Bartlett.—Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Bartlett, of this county, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thos. W. Wilson, in Dover, on Sunday, November 13th, 1892. She was born in Caroline county October 19th, 1815, and was the widow of Jas. Bartlett, who died May 3d, 1865. Her maiden name was Cheezum, being the daughter of the late Daniel Cheezum, and sister of the late John W. Cheezum, for many years one of Easton's leading merchants. These sons and daughters survive her: Judge John C. Bartlett, Robert Bartlett, James T. Bartlett, Mrs. Thomas R. Kent, who lives in California, Mrs. Mary A. Wilson, Dover, and Edward H. Bartlett. The funeral was on Tuesday, from Trinity Cathedral, Easton. The interment was in Third Haven Friends' burial ground, where her husband was buried. Rev. A. R. Walker officiated. Pall-bearers were her grandchildren, James D. Bartlett, Thomas M. Bartlett, George L. Bartlett, Frederick R. Bartlett and Emory Bartlett, also James Dixon, her great nephew.

Mrs. Bartlett married James Bartlett of Talbot county, a member of the Society of Friends, and removed with him to Bloomfield, the home of his ancestors for several generations, and now belonging to the heirs of the late James Dixon. They afterward went to Cottage Mills near Trappe where she spent the remainder of her long and useful life until within five weeks of her death. Though of retiring disposition, her influence for good extended beyond her home circle. She seemed peculiarly endowed with the gift of healing and her touch seemed to have a gentle magic for soothing pain. There are many living who can testify of her kindness and attention to the afflicted of all ages and conditions of life; how she possessed the innate knowledge of what to do and went about to immediately perform—making surprising cures with apparently simple applications—all as a matter of duty and mercy and not for pecuniary returns. Her quiet, unassuming Christian life made her beloved as a wife, mother and friend.

The Great Southern Elocutionist.—Our people will have the opportunity on Monday night, Nov. 29 of hearing Wilbert Walden, the great southern master of the negro dialect, who by his wonderful power in recitations, readings etc., causes audiences to weep and cry and then turns them to uproarious laughter. Plantation tales, tender incidents, eloquent frights will form part of his program. 8000 people heard him in Baltimore, 1500 in one night in Philadelphia. Such leading papers as the Baltimore Sun, Washington Post, Philadelphia Inquirer, Richmond Dispatch, and Atlanta Constitution speak of his wonderful powers in humor and pathos.

Public Business.—Orphans' Court met Tuesday.

Samuel F. Nichols, executor of Adelaide E. Nichols, presented 2d and final account of administration.

Christian Endeavor Convention.—The third annual convention of the Christian Endeavor Societies of Maryland will be held in the Immanuel Baptist Tabernacle, Baltimore on Thursday and Friday, December 8th and 9th.

A very interesting program is being prepared, including addresses by prominent Christian Endeavor Workers, Free Parliament, Open Meetings on Missionary, Junior and Committee Work, Early Morning Prayer Meeting, Pastor's Hour, Junior Rally, etc. etc.

The Convention will partly emphasize Junior work, Missionary Efforts and Systematic Bible Study, and increased interest along these lines is expected among the Societies throughout the State.

The music will be a special feature, a choir of 75 or 100 voices now being in training for the occasion. The Committee expects the railroads to grant a reduced fare from all points in the State.

After Business—Pleasure.—"All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

One of the most unique and successful features of the winter season in the city of Philadelphia is the course of entertainments given by the great Dry Goods merchants, Messrs. Strawbridge and Clothier, to their employes and families at absolutely no charge, what ever for admission tickets and reserved seats. The Academy of Music is engaged for the purpose, and all the arrangements are laid upon a broad and liberal foundation.

There is nothing sensational about these entertainments, nor anything that savors of advertising. The tickets are distributed among the employes with the greatest care, and the interest that is shown and the delight manifested by the recipients must be ample repay to the firm for all the money and time expended.

As illustrating the class of artists who have appeared at these entertainments, the following are selected from the great number who have appeared upon the Course, which entered upon its eighth year this Winter.

The New York Sympony Orthestra, under the leadership of Mr. Walter Damrosch, the Boston Symphony Orchestra, under the directions of Gerick and again under Nickish, Gilmore's Band, led by that prince of leaders the late Patrick S. Gilmore, The Theodore Thomas Orchestra, when in the height of its fame, and the New York Church Choir Amateur Opera Company, which has rendered in different seasons the "Chimes of Normandy" the "Mascot," the "Mikado" and "Iolanthe" while the Jubilee Singers of Fiske University Madame Scalchi, Emma Juch, Emma Thursby, Clara Louise Kellogg, Medora Henson, Max Alvary (whose tenor voice will never be forgotten by those who have heard it), and Emil Fisher, the glorious basso, have sung before the great audience. Among the lecturers John B. Gough, John L. Stoddart, H. H. Rajan, and the lamented Daniel Dougherty have appeared. The long list of elocutionists and humorists include:

Helen Potter, Nella F. Brown, A. P. Burbank, J. W. Macy, Marshall P. Wilder and J. S. Burdett.

Surely this list of artists is sufficient to mark this course of entertainments as overtopping any similar course in any American city.

A unique feature of these entertainments is as follows:

Although regular coupons for reserved seats are issued, at 8 o'clock promptly a gong in the corrider is struck, when all seats not at that time occupied, are thrown open to holders of admission tickets. This is a feature that might be readily adopted by the management of other public entertainments, and so do away with the sight that is often noted in crowded assemblages, of seats remaining vacant through an entire evening, because the owners of them have not been able to attend, and no one else is allowed to occupy them.

The enterprise of Messrs. Strawbridge and Clothier is commendable in every feature, and illustrates in a remarkable degree the interest shown by these enterprising merchants in the great industrial army that is employed at Eighth and Market Streets, Philadelphia.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. J. C. Henry & Bro., druggists.

Business Change.—Mr. M. B. Nichols has purchased of his partner, Mr. Jarrell, his entire interest in the business, and will continue at the same stand. Mr. Jarrell's withdrawal will be regretted by his host of friends.

Supper and Lunch.—A superb supper and splendid lunch will be served on next Monday and Tuesday evenings, and lunch also during the day on Tuesday and Wednesday in the Hubbard Building, on Dover St., by the ladies of Trinity M. E. Church, South. All the delicasies of the season at most reasonable rates.

Best Day's Sport Yet.—Mr.———, a leading aspirant for the Easton post office, went gunning the other day. He found a dead hawk and some one gave him a rabbit. He told his family that he only shot once but was able to bring home game enough for dinner—that it was his best day's sport yet.

—Gilbert Walden, of Virginia, the Southern Elocutionist, delighted for two hours last night a large audience at the First Baptist Church with his humorous and pathetic recitals. He is young but has achieved great success as an elocutionist. In negro dialect he is excellent, and his renditions were greeted with uproarious laughter and applause. He has a musical voice, to which, in a great measure, he owes his fine success.—Baltimore Sun, Baltimore, Md., February 11, 1891.

Lane's Family Medicine Moves the Bowels each day. Most people need to use it.

Santa Claus' Great Headquarters at S. A. Meintzer's! Elegant Christmas Tree Ornaments. Beautiful Christmas gifts. The latest and best toys for the children.

Personals.—Lawyer Wm. R. Martin had legal business in Denton on Monday.

At the meeting in Baltimore last week of the Maryland Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, Mr. E. R. Trippe was elected Grand King,—the office next to the highest in the body.

Col. Wm. T. Elben will remove from Mrs. Campbell's house on Hanson street to Mr. Chaffince's house on South street. Dr. Dunning has taken Mrs. Campbell's house.

Samuel Thompson of Philadelphia is spending a few days with his brother-in-law Henry Shreve.

He Knew a Havana.—A prominent business man of this town was recently tendered by Hon. C. H. Gibson a costly Havana cigar, —something extra fine. Said gentleman immediately bought some two centers and offered them to a friend with the remark that he had just been treated by the Senator. How delicious was that 2-cent puff to that friend—he knew it was a genuine Havana—could tell by the flavor—by the delicacy of the aroma after being relighted—never smoked a richer, better cigar—finer than any in Easton, for he had sampled them all. At this juncture the beneficent donor collapsed and sprung the joke on the smoker who slid out on the street with very important business to attend to.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by J. C. Henry & Bro.

The Noss Entertainment.—Easton was never better entertained than on last Wednesday evening at the performance of the Noss Jollity Company in their refined Comedy and musical novelties. To take one's eye off the stage for a moment was to lose something especially pleasing. Their surprises were intensely captivating and their resources for performing them seemed endless. For more than two full hours the audience was kept in continuous delight and the encores were most enthusiastic and prolonged. It is not possible to do justice to the individual character, they were all so winsome in their specialties. Every seat was taken in the large hall but should the company return soon, it is probable standing room will go at a high premium. This company of artists give an entertainment which so far eclipses the ordinary traveling companies, that it is odious to make a camparison.

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam will stop the cough at once.

Official Figures Err.—In the official returns reported in this paper last week, and since in the other papers of the county, it appears that the Prohibitionists polled nine votes for the straight electoral ticket in Royal Oak Precinct, while they polled but one for the Congressional Candidate, Miles. Since the other Congressional Candidates did not receive the eight surplus, it looked as though the reporter had copied incorrectly the figures, and that Miles should have had his nine votes.

Through the courtesy of Mr. R. T. Martin the Gazette is prepared to set the matter straight.

The official figures show the votes as printed, but the report from which the figures were taken, show that the word nine was called off one by the party reading off the report. It was an official error and not the error of the reporter nor typo. This gives Miles 174 in this county instead of 166.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds.—If you have never used this Great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at J. C. Henry & Bro.'s drug store. Large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

Among Our Churches.—Ebenezer M. E. Church, Rev. W. E. Avery, pastor.—The services in this church last Sunday were a source of much good. All the services were well attended, and they proved very interesting and beneficial. The pastor administered Communion at the morning gathering, assisted by Dr. Woodring, of the Pittsburg Conference. The afternoon session of the Sunday School was better attended than usual. The monthly report for October was read by the secretary, which showed an increase in every feature of Sunday School work. Major Stewart's class is the banner class for this month. At the evening service Dr. Woodring delivered a sermon on a text taken from the book of Numbers. The sermon was of a high degree of excellence, impressive and well delivered, but nevertheless it fell short of the expectations of some, which, evidently was caused by a severe cold under which he was laboring and necessiated him making his remarks brief. Services to-morrow at the usual hour. Subject for morning service "Christ and Simon, the Pharasee;" evening subject "God's ability and willingness to help." On Thanksgiving morning service will be held in this church at 10.30 a. m. Everybody welcome. Those who will contribute provisions for the poor will please leave them at the church by 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

Calvary M. P. Church, Rev. J. M. Sheridan, pastor.—The usual services were held in this church last Sunday. The pastor having recovered from his recent severe illness, filled his pulpit both morning and night. His themes were taken Eph. 6:8., and his congregation was eminently pleased at his remarks. Rev. Sheridan ever does subjects justice, and keeps his listeners interested throughout his discourse. Last Sunday's remarks were no exception to this rule. The choir added some beautiful selections to the pleasure of the day. Services tomorrow as usual, the evening service to be followed by a revival. All welcome.

M. E. Church, South, Rev. C. D. Harris, pastor.—The Topics at Trinity M. E. Church, South, Sunday morning will be "The Modern Martyr;" Sunday evening, "The Strangest Funeral Ever Seen on Earth." Congregational singing. Everybody invited.

Trinity Cathedral, Rev. A. R. Walker, rector.—Bishop Adams will officiate at the services tomorrow at 11 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Rev. Mr. Walker will be absent from town

The 65th session of the Middle Convocation composed of the Counties of Queen Annes, Caroline, Dorchester and Talbot of the Diocese of Easton has been held this week, beginning on Tuesday evening with Evening Prayer with addresses on Baptism. Discussion followed by Revs. J. H. Chesley of Christ Church, St. Michaels; W. Y. Beaven of All Saints, Long Woods; and George C. Sutton, Dean of the Northern Convocation. The meeting was highly profitable and interesting, and it is to be regretted that the storminess of the weather prevented a larger gathering of the laity. On Wednesday morning there was Holy Communion with a sermon by Rev. L. B. Baldwin, the Bishop as celebrant. In the evening there was a mission service and addresses on Diocesan Missions by Rev. G. C. Sutton and on General Missions by Rev. Dr. Joshua Kimber, Associate Sect. of the General Missionary Association. The congregation was larger than on the previous evening On Thursday the session closed. The Morning Prayer and sermon was by Rev. E. R. Rich of Greensborough.

In the evening were short services, consisting of the Apostle's creed and several collects, with addresses on the parable of the Great Supper by Revs. L. B. Baldwin, A. Battle of Church Hill and James A. Mitchell of Centreville. Conclusion by the Bishop.

SS. Peter and Paul Church, Fr. Waldron.—Tomorrow at 11 a. m. the services known as the Forty Hours' Devotion will be celebrated in the Catholic Church. Rev. T. F. Waldron will be celebrant, assisted by two priests in the capacity of Deacon and Sub-Deacon. The sermon on the occasion will be delivered by a Jesuit Father from New York. After Mass a procession of the Blessed Sacrament will take place. All the little girls of the congregation will be dressed in white and strew flowers. In the evening at 7.30 Solemn Vespers, Sermon and Benediction will take place. On Monday, Low Mass at 6 o'clock, followed at 10 a. m. by Solemn High Mass. In the evening Solemn Vespers, sermon by Rev. Fr. Mickle, a former pastor, to be followed by Solemn Benediction. On Tuesday, Mass at 6 o'clock, Solemn High Mass at 10 a. m., sermon by Rev. Francis Farley of Philadelphia. In the evening at 7.30, Solemn Vespers and sermon by Rev. Fr. Berringham, of Wilmington, procession, chanting the litany of the Saints and the benediction. The church and altar will be elaborately decorated with choice cut flowers, potted plants and hundreds of wax candles. The choir, under the efficient leadership of Mr. John McHale, is arranging an elaborate musical program for he occasion. Mrs. Carrol and other musicians from Baltimore and the Wilmington Cathedral will assist in the singing. The public is cordially invited to attend. S. E. S.

The B. & E. S. R. R. Co. will sell special low rate excursion tickets from all points East of Easton to Easton on train No 6, Nov. 25th good to return Nov. 26th. Will also sell special low rate excursion tickets from all points west of Salisbury to Salisbury on train No. 14, Nov. 29th good to return Wednesday, Nov. 30th, also from all points to Berlin inclusive to Baltimore on Thursday, Dec. 1st good to return Friday Dec, 2d. See posters.

Doctors Meet.—As previously announced the semi annual meeting of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland, began its session in Easton on Tuesday and closed it Wednesday. The first day was so very inclement that but few outside the profession attended. The following day was more pleasant. At no time was there an inappreciative audience. The doctors, as may be imagined, were a scholarly looking set and were more interested in hearing each other talk than in trying to appear oratorical before an audience of non-professionals. They met for each other and not for the edification of the public. Their papers were not only learned but right up to the times, while their views on certain methods and treatment of symptoms were freely exchanged with profit and satisfaction.

The old saying that doctors disagree, was exemplified there, though the disagreement did not in these cases stake its results on the life or health of a patient. These meetings are for the discussion of doubtful points—and is the proper place for disagreements.

One Baltimore physician told of an experience he had with the use of quinine in fever, which amused as well as surprised the fraternity. He was suddenly called from the street to the room of a very poor patient whose temperature was 107. He prescribed a five-grain pill of quinine every two hours. The ignorant, Bohemian nurse gave two pills every hour, thereby quadrupling the dose. The physician did not call on his patient until some hours after and to his amazement found her temperature to be 102 under the treatment. He did not chide the nurse for disobedience, but told her to continue. The next day there was no fever. And strange to say, the physician was called in for two similar cases the next two days and he practiced the same treatment with the same result.

The members held a banquet at Hotel Avon on Tuesday evening.

The menu was,

Oysters on half shell,

Soup,	Quail on Toast,
Fried Oysters,	Salads,
Pomme de terra,	St. Julian,
Terrapin—diamond back, a la Hotel Avon.
Tea.	Coffee.

For Rent for 1893.—The large, glass-front storeroom known as the J. J. Jump dry goods department, lately occupied by Mr. Godwin. Lease will be given for reasonable time if desired. The store may be occupied after Sept. 1st 1892 if wanted. Terms reasonable. Apply immediately to,

THE LAND OF SUNSHINE.

A Unique Country where the Skies are almost Never Clouded, while the air is Cool and Bracing, like Perpetual Spring.

As an anomalous southern resort, by reason of the fact that there one may escape summer heat no less than winter cold, New Mexico is rapidly becoming famous. Averaging through out the entire territory 5,000 feet in altitude above sea-level, and characterized by dry air which, unlike a humid atmosphere, is incapable of communicating heat, the temperature in midsummer remains at a delightfully comfortable degree through the day, and at night becomes invariably brisk and bracing. The sunshine is almost constant, yet the most violent out-of door exertion may be undertaken without fear of distressful consequences. Sunstroke or prostration are absolutely unknown there. It is an ideal land for a summer outing. Its climate is prescribed by reputable physicians as a specific for pulmonary complaints and the medicinal Hot Springs at Las Vegas are noted for their curative virtues. The most sumptuous hotel in the west, the Montezuma, is located at these springs. Write to Jno. J. Byrne, 723 Monadnock Block, Chicago, for "The Land of Sunshine," an entertaining and profusely illustrated book descriptive of this region, the most picturesque and romantic in the United States.

Oregon, Washington and the Northwest Pacific Coast.

The constant demand of the traveling public to the far West for a comfortable and at the same time an economical mode of traveling, has led to the establishment of what is known as Pullman Colonist Sleepers.

These cars are built on the same general plan as the regular first class Pullman Sleeper, the only difference is that they are not upholstered.

They are furnished complete with good comfortable hair mattresses, warm blankets, snow white linen, curtains, plenty of towels, combs, brushes, etc., which secure to the occupant of a berth as much privacy as is to be had in first-class sleepers. There are also separate toilet rooms for ladies and gentlemen, and smoking is absolutely prohibited. For full information send for Pullman Colonist Sleeper Leaflet. E. L. Colored Man Killed.—The only son of Rev. Charles Horsey, colored minister at Trappe was killed on Tuesday, election day while gunning. He placed his gun against the tree with the hammers set, and ascended the same tree to shake down an opossum. Upon descending, the gun was discharged, the load taking effect in his left side under the arm nearly severing it. He bled to death before his companions could get him home.

INTERRESTING CHANCERY CASE.—CONSTRUCTION OF A WILL, ETC.

Easton, Md., Nov. 2, 1892.

Mr. Editor:—It may be of interest to many of your numerous readers, certainly to the friends of Mrs. Sallie Harrison, widow of Joshua Harrison, deceased, to know that she is entitled under the Will of her father and the death of her brother William Camper without issue and intestate, to an undivided one-half interest in fee simple to the farm in Broad Creek Neck, known as Larrimore's Addition, being part of the real estate of which Martin O. Camper died seized and possessed, and as one of the heirs of her half brother, the said Martin who has died without issue and intestate, she is entitled to one-third of his estate of which he died rightfully possessed. The other heirs of the said Martin being Joseph Camper of Indiana, and the widow and children (per stirpes) of Thos. O. Millis, deceased of the State of Texas.

This property not being susceptible division among the said heirs without material loss and injury. Mrs. Harrison filed in Aug. last her Bill of Partition praying that a Decree may be passed for the sale of the said real estate and the proceeds of said sale may be distributed among the parties to said Bill according to their respective rights and interests. Evidence was taken to sustain the allegations of the Bill; but before the decree was passed, her Solicitor discovered that the said Martin O. Camper had only an undivided one half interest in the said farm.

John Camper, father of Mrs. Harrison, who died in 1842, by his last Will and Testament devised as follows —"First I give to my son, William Camper, all my right, title, interest and claim in and to the Plantation on which I now live, it being known by the name of 'Larrimore's Addition,' freely by him and his heirs to be possessed and enjoyed forever. . . . . If William Camper should die without issue it is my will that the land above mentioned should go to his oldest surviving Brother and his heirs." Now, by this Will, William did not take a "life estate" but the fee; it is not strictly an entailment which under our laws since 1786 would carry the fee; but is "vold for remoteness," for uncertainity; an attempt to create a fee upon a fee. William having died Aug. 3, '89, without issue and intestate, and the said estate having vested in him by "purchase," (that is by deed or devise), it descended to his only surviving brother (Joseph) and sister (Mrs. Harrison), of the whole blood, who were each entitled to an undivided one-half interest in said farm im fee simple.

Joseph, believing that he had the sole title thereto entered into possession of said farm and sold the same to Martin O. Camper for $3,000. The Court being advised of the facts, refused to pass the decree, and upon Petition ordered an Amended Bill to be filed, and there being Infants (some of the Millis heirs) in the case an Order of Publication, and further evidence will be taken.

A decree will probably be passed in December or early in January, and then all the property will be advertised through your valuable columns and offered at public sale.

At the request of some of the friends of Mrs. H., I have hurridly penned this communication, and some of the points drawn out in the conduct of this case may be suggestive to those about purchasing lands without first having their titles carefully examined by a competent person.

Royal Oak Items.—From our regular correspondent.—The revival in the M. E. Church still continues, and from appearances we think they are doing much good. There have been a number of conversions and ten persons have joined the church on probation. The meeting on Thursday and Friday evening of last week was in charge of Dr. E. M. Hoffecker, of the New York Conference. On the first evening Dr. Palmer, of St. Paul's Church, New York City, preached and on Friday Dr. Colburn of the same conference delivered a very fine discourse.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Cox, formerly of this place have removed to Oxford.

F. P. Dimpfel, Jr. and daughter spent the early part of the week in Baltimore.

Mr. Norman Reese has recently recovered from a severe attack of malaria fever.

Mr. N. B. Battel has been in Baltimore this week.

THE TITAN OF CHASMS.

A Mile Deep, 13 Miles Wide, 217 Miles Long, and Painted Like a Flower.

The Grand Canon of the Colorado River, in Arizona, is now for the first time easily accessible to tourists. A regular stage line has been established from Flagstaff, Arizona, on the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad, making the trip from Flagstaff to the most imposing part of the Canon in less than 12 hours. The stage fare for the round trip is only $20.00, and meals and comfortable lodgings are provided throughout the trip at a reasonable price. The view of the Grand Canon afforded at the terminus of the stage route is the most stupendous panorama known in nature. There is also a trail at this point leading down the Canon wall, more than 6,000 feet vertically, to the river below. The descent of the trail is a grander experience than climbing the Alps, for in the bottom of this terrific and sublime chasm are hundreds of mountains greater than any of the Alpine range.

A book describing the trip to the Grand Canon, illustrated by many full-page engravings from special photographs, and furnishing all needful information, may be obtained free upon application to Jno. J. Byrne, 723 Monadnock Block, Chicago, Ill.

Thirteen Thirteens.—The discovery has been made that on one side of the new quarter dollar there are thirteen separate representations of the number thirteen. It was probably the intention of the designer of the new quarter to have thirteen stars occur thirteen times but there are few people who have noticed this fact. There are thirteen stars, thirteen letters in the scroll held in the eagle's beak, 13 marginal feathers in each wing, 13 tail feathers in each wing, 13 parallel lines in the shield, 13 horizontal bars, 13 arrow heads in one foot and 13 letters in the words "quarter dollar."

The next time you get a quarter of the new series hunt them up.

Household Helps.—Tea and coffee kept in glass fruit jars instead of tin boxes is much improved in flavor.

Vegetables should always be put in cold water half an hour before using them; it will freshen them up wonderfully.

If you have set something hot on oil cloth and it turns it white, drop on a little spirits of camphor and rub with a dry cloth.

For chocolate tarts take a quarter of a pound of sugar, one ounce and a half of grated chocolate and the yolks of six eggs. Stir for a quarter of an hour, then add three ounces of corn starch and the white of the eggs beaten to a snow.
