Issued (3d September 1787. (T. Jennings / W. Cooke)

And the said Daniel Dulany assignee as aforesaid by his Attornies aforesaid in declared against the said Denton Jacques in the plea aforesaid as follows to wit.

Maryland Washington County to wit Denton Jacques late of Washington County Gentleman, otherwise called Denton Jacques of Washington County Maryland, was summoned to answer unto Daniel Dulany of a plea that he render unto him the sum of Seven hundred and thirty five pounds two shillings sterling Money of Great Britain of the value of Twelve hundred and twenty five pounds three shillings and four pence current Money which from him he unjustly detains &c. And whereupon the said Daniel by Thomas Jennings his Attorney saith that whereas the aforesaid Denton, and a certain Thomas Cresap since deceased, in the life time of the said Thomas Cresap, (whom the said Denton hath survived) on the tenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty three at Washington County aforesaid by their certain Writing obligatory acknowledged themselves to be held and firmly bound unto the said Daniel Dulany in the said sum of Seven hundred and thirty five pounds two shillings sterling Money to be paid to the said Daniel when afterwards they should be thereto required And the said Daniel in fact saith that the said sum of Seven hundred and thirty five pounds two shillings sterling Money was at the time of making the Writing obligatory aforesaid and always hitherto since hath been and now is of the value of Twelve hundred and twenty five pounds current money to wit at Washington County aforesaid Nevertheless the said Denton and Thomas Cresap (whom he the said Denton hath survived) although often thereunto required, have not rendered, or paid the said Sum of Sterling Money, or the value thereof nor hath either of
