Isaac Van Bibber against William Moore and Thomas Hell Executors of William Hell —

Be it remembered, that heretofore, to wit, on the ninth day of October, in the year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and eighty eight, the said Isaac VanBibber by Samuel Johnson his attorney sued out of the General Court, the writ of the State of Maryland of Capias Ad Respondendum, directed to the Sheriff of Baltimore County in the words and figures, following, to wit —

The State of Maryland, &c. To the Sheriff of Baltimore County, Greeting. We command you that you take William Moore and Thomas Hell late of Baltimore County Gentleman, Executors of the last will and Testament of William Hell late of Baltimore County Gentleman deceased otherwise lately called William Hell of Baltimore Town if they shall be found in your bailiwick and them safe keep, so that you have their bodies before the Judges of our General Court, to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Tuesday of October Instant to answer Isaac VanBibber Esquire of a plea that they render unto him the sum of Eight hundred pounds Specie of the value of Eight hundred pounds Current Money which from him they unjustly detain and so forth — Hereof fail not at your peril, and have you then and there this writ. Witness Robert Harrison Harrison Esquire, Chief Judge of our said Court, the 8th day of October Anno Domini 1788.

Issued the 9th day of October 1788 — S.J. John Gwinn Clerk —

And the aforesaid Isaac VanBibber by his attorney aforesaid, on the day of the signing of the aforesaid writ filed in Court here, the following Declaration and Oyer of Bond, a Copy whereof was made and sent with the said writ, to the Sheriff of the County aforesaid, to wit —

In the General Court for the Western Shore of the State of Maryland.

Baltimore County, to wit: William Moore and Thomas Hell both late of Baltimore County Gentlemen deceased otherwise lately called William Hell of Baltimore Town were summoned to answer Isaac VanBibber Esquire of a plea that they render unto him the sum of Eight hundred pounds Specie of the value of Eight hundred pounds Current Money which from him they unjustly detain and so forth — And whereupon the said Isaac VanBibber by Samuel Johnson his attorney saith that whereas the said William Hell in his lifetime, to wit the twenty fourth day of August in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eighty six at Baltimore County aforesaid, by his certain writing Obligatory, acknowledged himself to be bound unto the said Isaac in the sum of Eight hundred pounds Specie to be paid to the said Isaac when he the said William Hell should be thereto afterwards requested: And the said Isaac avers that the said sum of Eight hundred pounds Specie in the writing Obligatory aforesaid mentioned, was at the time of making the said writing Obligatory, hitherto hath been and now is of the value of Eight hundred pounds Current Money, to wit, at Baltimore County aforesaid, whereof the said William Hell in his lifetime and the said William Moore and Thomas Hell there had notice — Nevertheless the said William Hell in his lifetime or the said William Moore and Thomas Hell or either of them since the Death of the said William Hell, have not rendered to the said
