THE amateur musical talent of Easton will present the sparkling opera Pinafore, in Music Hall, May 17 and 18, Wednesday and Thursday nights. Few towns have finer musicians than Easton, and the careful rehearsing, under the directorship of Mr. Alfred L. Tharp, will, we feel assured, bring forth good results. Full notice will be found in local columns.

THE good people of Annapolis, may well feel proud of their talented young folks in their refined musical and elocutionary efforts. If the sample who came over to this town on last Wednesday in the steamer McLain may be taken as representative talented Annapolitans, and they lack encomiums at home or at other places they visit, they may send to Easton and get all they want. Come again fair ladies and noble escorts from the city over the bay, and we will give you a packed house regardless of weather this time.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.

Washington, May 1, 1893.

Gen. Harrison must smile when he reads of democrats claiming credit for the administration for its financial policy. The administration has no financial policy, or if it has the public has not been taken into its confidence. In using a part of the gold reserve fund to redeem Treasury notes it has but followed the policy laid down by President Harrison and Sec. Foster, and while it deserves credit for having been so sensible as to have followed the republican plan of dealing with the gold problem it should not be credited with having originated that policy. In fact it has as yet originated no policy on any subject, unless the sending of Mr. Blount to Hawaii to lower the American flag can be dignified by the name of policy.

Ex-Secretary Rusk was a voluntary witness on Saturday in the investigation of the Weather Bureau. He was questioned in regard to several appointments made by him, and stated that he considered them good and proper appointments and would make them again if he were Secretary.—And as one of the ladies he appointed for temporary duty has since received a regular appointment from Sec. Morton it looks as though "Uncle Jerry" was talking sense, as he generally does. None of the sensations promised have been brought out by this investigation, which is daily becoming more farcical.

The democratic Commissioner of Pensions goes on duty this week, and much interest is felt in his actions.—All sorts of rumors are current about his intentions, but as his acts will soon begin to speak for themselves I shall wait before criticising. Judge Lochren is so highly spoken of by those familiar with him during and since the war that it seems only fair to do this.

Only a very few office-seekers remained in Washington after the departure of the President and his cabinet—they probably found it cheaper to put in the time waiting for the return of the administration elsewhere—but there were some very mad men among those who did stay, because of the fact that five of the Government departments were left in charge of republicans while hungry democrats howled for the places of these very republicans. However, the men left in charge of those departments did not attempt to revolutionize the government or to put any of the department builings on wheels and take them away; but that some of them did enjoy the crazy antics and language of the kicking office seekers, who made exhibition of themselves and their disappointments in public places, your correspondent happens to know by personal knowledge.

Much has been said by democrats about the attempts of the republican assistants of the heads of the departments to retain their offices under a democratic administration that has no foundation whatever. As a matter of fact, about the first official documents that were brought to the attention of members of the cabinet after they assumed office were the resignations of their republican assistants, many of whom have made business arrangements which make their remaining in office an inconvenience to them. There may be one or two of these men who are trying to keep their offices, but the most of them are just as anxious to get their resignations accepted as the democratic office seekers are to get appointments, but they cannot without being discourteous, demand that their resignations be accepted immediately, and that is why they are waiting as they can the pleasure of the heads of the departments.

Political converts have been since there were political parties more zealous than the old party war horses, and Sec. Gresham has proven that he is no exception to the rule. He has made more changes in the important positions in the State Department than have been made in any other department, and what makes this all the more striking is that it has been an unwritten rule of that department since it was established that no changes should take place on account of a change in the head of the department, with the exception of the two or three men whose relations with the Secretary are of a confidential nature, and that unwritten rule has been observed by all the Secretaries except Gresham. He, although not yet two months in office, has left only one important place unchanged—third assistant secretary—and the reason for that exception probably lies in his inability to find a democrat possessing the peculiar qualifications needed to perform the duties of Mr. Adee, the present third assistant.

Comptroller of Currency Eckels has taken charge of his office. He good naturedly confesses that he knows nothing about banking, which is the principal business with which his office has to deal, but says he intends that all of his sub-ordinates shall be banking experts. He doesn't explain how he will select them without knowing anything about the business himself.

CAROLINE DEPARTMENT.

Edited by Edward E. Rogers.

While playing about in the premises of Mr. Carroll, on the Talbot side of the river, on Saturday last, a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Dunham, of Choptank, fell into the river and was drowned. The water was very shallow at the point where the child met his death, and when found his feet were resting on the shore. He was two years old. The remains were interred in the cemetery at Preston on Sunday last.

Mr. J. F. Lednum went to Baltimore last week to consult Professor Cheezum in reference to an affection of the eyes. After an examination, the Professor pronounced the trouble serious, probably involving the loss of the sight of one eye.

Mr. John Stafford lost a valuable horse recently.

Mr. E. Bowdle died at the residence of Mr. Wm. Pritchett, Jr., where he was visiting, on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. E. L. Pritchett has sold the house and lot adjoining the P. O. to Mrs. Mary Dean for $350. He reserves the shop and lot on which it stands.

A fence enclosing the parsonage premises is a recent improvement.

An election was held in Preston on Monday, May first, at which the following gentlemen, composing a Board of Town Commissioners, were elected: J. Frank Lednum, Wm. H. Hollis, Wm. E. Todd, J. H. Douglass, J. B. Fletcher.

Mr. Wm. Hollis is beautifying his town property by grading the lawn, laying walks and constructing a neat fence.

Mr. Jos. Sisk, of Cordova, visited his mother, Mrs. L. Sisk, on Sunday last.

IF YOUR BACK ACHES
Or you are all worn out, really good for nothing it is general debility. Try
BROWN'S IRON BITTERS.
It will cure you, and give a good appetite. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

The Bicycle Craze.

If you step upon the street,
Or pause a friend to greet,
And think you will not meet
Bicycles horrid;
The chances are that you,
E'en though you scarcely knew
A piping whistle blew,
Will be much worried.

As the fierce wild osprey
Sweeps swiftly down the bay,
And pounces on its prey,
With loud, shrill screaming;
So surely on your track,
In front or at your back,
The Cycle will not slack,
But break your dreaming.

For fleetly o'er the pave,
And e'er you've time to save
Yourself from thoughtless wave,
'T will knock you sprawling;
Or if by fortune's freak,
You do escape so sleek,
The friend so mild and meek,
To you'll be calling:

"Please have a little care,
Nor next time even dare
To think that I will spare
You from a deader.
My toot if you don't heed,
On you will draw a bead,
And crush you in my speed,
Or take a header."

Scarce will the boaster leave,
Or give you space to grieve
For treatment you receive
From the marauders,
E'er boldly up the way,
Another one will play,
In pomp and pride, so gay,
Will give you orders.

My friend, please be so kind,
And keep this thought in mind,
When shrilly from behind
Sounds bell or whistle;
Don't pause a whit to say
You have a right this way,
Or threats upon us lay,
Nor raise a bristle.

Don't let your temper loose,
To give the boys abuse,
For sure 'twill be no use,
'Tis all the rage.
Nor blame the boys alone,—
Girls, ladies, mount this throne,
And call the sport their own,
In this fast age.

No more she'll use three wheels,
The girl above it feels,
But o'er the walk she reels
Like man a-straddle;
Then like a meteor's flash,
Pass you she'll rudely dash,
Or strike you with a crash,
And keep her saddle.

The craze is reaching all;
Bicycles large and small,
Ridden by short and tall,
Sold by all dealers;
Clergy and teachers wise,
Lads, lasses of all size
Ride the two wheelers.

No more can you escape,
The thing in any shape,
Most people seem to ape
It with great passion;
Don't kick nor make appeal,
Nor turn your heart to steel,
But get yourself a wheel,
And be in fashion!

ATTENTION FARMERS.

WE ARE IN THE FIELD THIS SEASON with the best and most complete assortment of Implements and Machinery ever offered on the Eastern Shore. First come Plows, and the "Bissell" leads them all in lightness of draft and best work in all conditions of land. Next comes the "Oliver" pattern plow manufactured by Bissell, which is, we claim, superior to any Oliver sold; this plow we have sold a great many of during the past and present seasons and can give a host of references supporting our claim. Lastly comes the "Advance," which is too well known to need any comments. Of the Harrows we are selling the complete line made by D. M. Osborne & Co., including Spring Tooth, Spike Tooth; and Disc—the Spring Tooth especially being the grandest thing of its kind ever put on the market. One of them last winter sold at a sale for $16 which was within $2 of what it cost originally, the bidding having commenced at $10.

In Corn Planters we have the U. S. Combined Check Row Corn Planter. This Planter uses a plunger direct from the check row rod to the rotary seed plates and does away with all the shakebar and center irons between the seed boxes. A single pin spring anchor is furnished with the U. S. and with their use the wire can be drawn the same tension at each end of the field, thereby insuring great accuracy in planting.

Our Sulky Cultivator is the "Akron," which is already at the top of the heap both as a cultivator and as a fallow worker.

We are still selling the Osborne Binders and Mowers, which are most reliable, and also the Empire Binders and Mowers, which are new to this section, but have more good points than any machine ever sold.

Farm Wagons—We are handling the "Jackson" and "Auburn." The Jackson is the old Webster ver much improved and no one should think of buying a wagon without seeing them. To continue to enumerate all the good things that we have would take up so much of your time that we will cease with the assurance that no matter what you may want we believe we can suit you from a shoe peg to a traction engine.

P. S.—Barb Wire is lower than ever before. Do you need some? We have a large supply.

E. T. NICOLS.
