James Osborne's Lessee against James Philips

Maryland Sct. Harford County, to wit —

Be it remembered, that on the twenty second day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, James Philips late of Harford County Labourer was attached to answer unto Charles Good Title of a plea wherefore with force and arms and so forth, into all that Tract or parcell of Plantable Land called Eyres Marsh lying and being in the County aforesaid with the appurtenances, containing three hundred and fifty acres, and also into all that Tract or parcell of plantable Land called Common Garden lying and being in the County aforesaid with the appurtenances containing four hundred and fifty acres and also into all that Tract or parcell of Plantable Land Called Common Garden corrected lying and being in the County aforesaid with the appurtenances containing four hundred and twenty five acres, which three Tracts or parcels of Land James Osborne to him the said Charles demised for a term not yet past, he the said James Philips did enter and him the said Charles from his Franks aforesaid did eject and other harms to him the said Charles there did to the great damage of the said Charles and against the peace, Government and Dignity of the State, &c.

And whereupon the said Charles by Luther Martin his attorney complains that whereas the aforesaid James Osborne on the eleventh day of March in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and seventy nine at Harford County aforesaid had demised unto him the said Charles the said Premises with the appurtenances thereto belonging to have and to occupy the same Premises with the appurtenances to him the said Charles and his assigns from the tenth day of the same Month of March until the full end and term of fifteen years then next fully to be compleated and ended by virtue of which demise the aforesaid Charles into the premises aforesaid with the appurtenances did enter and was thereof possessed and the said Charles so being thereof possessed the aforesaid James Philips afterwards to wit on the said eleventh day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy nine at Harford County aforesaid with force and arms &c. into the aforesaid Premises aforesaid with their appurtenances aforesaid which the said James so as aforesaid to him the said Charles for the term aforesaid which is not yet past had demised entered and him the said Charles from his Franks did eject and other harms to him the said Charles then and there did to the great damage of him the said Charles and against the Peace, Government and Dignity of the State &c. whereby the said Charles saith that he is the worse and hath damage to the value of Five thousand pounds Current Money of Maryland and therefore he brings suit &c —
