TILGHMAN, Hammond, Collins and Wrightson can get what they ask for in a democratic legislature;
But
Barber, Hall, Dodson and Stewart could get nothing.—Ledger.

Yes, they could get the plaudits of "well done good and faithful servants," which was more than the members from Talbot to the last legislature got.

THE Greensborough Free Press in a recent editorial headed "The Tariff Sufferers" seems to be fully elated over the idea that the article in its issue of the 18th of September, under the head of "The Trunk Line," has aroused the ire of the Republicans: and its editors express sorrow that any of its readers should be offended at their uttering what they conceive to be the truth. We apprehend that our contemporary has a very vague conception of what the truth is in the matter which they attempt to treat in this instance.

The writer who enters the arena of debate on the McKinley tariff law and hopes to "wallop" that measure, may readily find an antagonist around with both truth and the sword that will leave the assailant of that salutary law slain on the field of discussion. And Brothers Plummer should not assume that the Oregon judge (whom they quoted) had any reference to peanut newspaper discussions of the great McKinley tariff act, or any kindred measure, when he laid down the right of newspapers to expose flagrant wrong doing. It never occured to anyone familiar with legal proceedings that any publishing company would be liable in a suit for libel in discussing the merits or demerits of the McKinley bill.

Our friends of the Free Press are ambitious "to wallop the people's most inveterate foe, the McKinley Tariff Law." This harmless spurt does not rise to the dignity of a libel—Why, thousands of half blind lookers on have indulged in such chaff as this, about the McKinley act, and who has ever thought of holding them legally or even morally responsible? They ordinarilly tail even to attract the attention of the most shallow of readers, and certainly never command the notice of the intelligent and discriminating reader of either political party.

Our contemporary appeals to the agricultural interests to observe the depressing effect of the present tariff laws, and the loss of the home market and the falling off in the prices of products until checked by the "extraordinary action of the new administration." The "new administration" has done nothing so far that is either extraordinary or even ordinary. Its assession to power has however, served to check the most extraordinary prosperity that for four years had been vouchsafed to the people of this country by the administration of Benjamin Harrison. And does not our contemporary remember that both Senators Carlisle and Harris signed the report of the Senate Finance Committee last year, which declared that since the passage of the McKinley bill, the cost of living had declined and the wages of the laborer had advanced! And who that is well informed does not know that our home market has been enlarged and that prices have ranged higher than hitherto on the account of the reciprocity provision in the McKinley Act, which has given us an increased foriegn demand? Prior to the Mc Kinley tariff act of 1890 we shipped but 50.000 barrels of flour to Cuba, whereas, under this act we are shipping ten times as much or 500,000 barrels, thus affording a foreign market, in one port alone, for 450,000 additional barrels of our flour.

And the same act has thrown open the ports of the principal countries of Europe to our pork and many other commodities, that either could not enter, became prohibited, as in the case of pork, or did not find sale in those countries.

The enormous crop of cotton and sereals have in some instances somewhat lessened the price for the time being; while scarcity at other times have afforded high prices, as in the case of wheat, which commanded $1.25 per bushel. And it is well known that the labor of the country has never, in the history of wage-earners, commanded such constant employment and received such remunerative wages as during Harrison's term of office under the protective law known as the McKinly Act.

And further, our contemporary says "Has not the coffers of the government treasury been depleted, while the influx of revenue has been cut off to a great extent by class legislation? Is not the depletion of the surplus in the treasury what Grover Cleveland and his party demanded should be done in the campaign of 1884? And could the surplus be prevented by any other method than that of cutting off the influx of the revenue into the treasury? This was done by reducing the internal revenue tax and the number of dutiable articles, which the McKinley bill accomplished, but of which the democrats now complain.

The passage of the McKinley bill, however, gives protection to all farm products and such manufactories, as we are capable of establishing in this country, by which employment is given to the American laborer; and both indutries have been enormously developed by the McKinley tariff law and great prosperity has attended them. And the only reason why the mills are now shutting down and labor is being thrown out of employment, is simply because the democratic party is in power, and the people of the country are fearful that its leaders may repeal the protection laws and throw open our doors to the productions of the foreign countries where labor is paid one-half or less than one-half the rate that is paid in the United States. It must not be overlooked that the fields, mills and shops furnish the arena in which the skill and muscle of workingmen of this country obtain their means of support—and they are not menaced by the threatened repeal of the protection laws under which they have grown up, and by which they alone can exist. Destroy these and you tear down the temple of American prosperity and turn the honest sons of toil away from their comfortable abodes of peace and plenty to weather the storms of adversity which the Democratic policy of non-protection inevitably invites.

Half Rate Excursions to the World's Fair via Washington and the B. & O.

The Baltimore and Ohio R. R. will run a series of special excursions from Baltimore and Washington to the World's Fair at rate of $17.00 for the round trip. The trains will consist of first class day coaches, equipped with lavatories and toilet conveniences.—The trains will start from Camden Station, Baltimore, 9.30 a. m. and leave Washington, D. C. 10.35 a. m, October the 10th, 17th and the 24th, and running via Grafton and Bellaire, and will reach Chicago at 1.15 p. m. the following day. Tickets will be valid for outward journey only on the special trains, but will be good returning from Chicago in day coaches on any regular train within ten days, including day of sale. Stops will be made for meals at the dining stations on the line. A tourist Agent and a train porter will accompany each train to look after the comfort of passengers. Gossip From Various Points Collected by Faithful Reporters.

ST. MICHAELS.

Last Saturday night, Horace Thomas (colored) filled up on cider, got unrulely, used profane language and flourished his silver mounted revolver; for this, one of our justices fined him a certain amount and costs amounting in all to twelve dollars. Horace had not that much of the root of evil, then the justice sentenced him to sixty days in the County jail, where, at this writing he is having a good time. Sixty days board at forty cents per day amounts to twenty-four dollars; Talbot county would save money by paying his fine of twelve dollars; the confinement is no punishment to Horace, he is certain of three meals a day, that in all probabilities is more than he would get if he was at home.

Peter D Hunt and son lost a valuable horse last Monday.

John Young, Esq, who has been sick for a long time, has improved greatly and is now visiting his son, W. Reese Young, our popular shoe merchant.

E. M. Jefferson, the Argus man spent last Tuesday in Baltimore.

O. H. Benson and Clifton Hope, Esqs., left here last Wednesday for Chicago, where they will spend a fort-night in seeing the sights of the World's Fair.

Died last Sunday, Oct. 1st, George West, aged fifty-five, interred in Mt. Olivet Cemetery the following Monday. Rev. W. Sherman Philips preached the funeral sermon. The Order of Mechanics, of which the deceased was a member attended the funeral as a lodge and took charge of the body at the grave; deceased was also a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Miss Lena Baker of this town and Miss Kemp of another part of the county were examined last August by Prof. Chaplain, school examiner for Talbot county, the one examined having the most points to receive the scholarship of the ladies' college at Westminister, Md. According to Prof. Chaplain's report Miss Baker came out two points ahead of Miss Kemp, yet Miss Kemp received the scholarship. The people of this part of the Lord's Vineyard want to know why things are thus.

Saturday night happenings in St. Michaels are something that is a disgrace to any town. A drunken woman on the streets—a drunken father with his child crying for him, the father staggering from one side to another, taking up the entire pavement, using the worst language known; all this in a local option town, yet cider is allowed to be sold, it must be equal to the Jersey lightning that we read about. The ladies of this town have a petition which they want every one to sign. After they have secured all the names that they can get, the petition will be forwarded to the Legislature that will meet in Annapolis, asking that honorable body to suppress the sale of cider in this district. Every one should sign it that cares for the welfare of our town.

SHERWOOD

There is no lovelier country in the world than Bay Side, especially in these beautiful hazy autumn days with the great Choptank sweeping around it on one side like a belt of silver and the waters of the Chesapeake stretching away, blue and misty on the other. Nothing is needed to attract home seekers to it but rapid transit to the metropolis of the state and county.

Miss Emily Nutz, one of the teachers of the Easton High School, is quite sick at her home near Whitman. She has the sympathy of her many friends who hope she will soon be well again.

During Mr. Frank Wrightson's absence a few days ago, his farm was visited by three men who evidently had the "jag" on them. They were en route for Tilghman's Island, and implored to be sent thither, offering to pay any price for a team. They were certainly a novelty in the way of drunken men as they acknowledged they were drunk and declared they could get no further. The ladies would have been frightened but for the timely presence of Captain Ned Dawson who promptly dispatched them, advising them to walk to the Island, saying by way of encouragement, that he had often walked there himself. "Ay Boss," said one of them, "but you were sober; we are drunk." Whether they reached the Island or not we have not learned.

ATTENTION FARMERS.

WE ARE IN THE FIELD THIS SEASON with the best and most complete assortment of Implements and Machinery ever offered on the Eastern Shore. First come Plows, and the "Bissell" leads them all in lightness of draft and best work in all conditions of land. Next comes the "Oliver" pattern plow manufactured by Bissell, which is, we claim, superior to any Oliver sold; this plow we have sold a great many of during the past and present seasons and can give a host of references supporting our claim. Lastly comes the "Advance," which is too well known to need any comments. Of the Harrows we are selling the complete line made by D. M. Osborne & Co., including Spring Tooth, Spike Tooth, and Disc—the Spring Tooth especially being the grandest thing of its kind ever put on the market. One of them last winter sold at a sale for $16 which was within $2 of what it cost originally, the bidding having commenced at $10.

In Corn Planters we have the U. S. Combined Check Row Corn Planter. This Planter uses a plunger direct from the check row rod to the rotary seed plates and does away with all the shakebar and center irons between the seed boxes. A single pin spring anchor is furnished with the U. S. and with their use the wire can be drawn the same tension at each end of the field, thereby insuring great accuracy in planting.

Our Sulky Cultivator is the "Akron," which is already at the top of the heap both as a cultivator and as a fallow worker.

We are still selling the Osborne Binders and Mowers, which are most reliable, and also the Empire Binders and Mowers, which are new to this section, but have more good points than any machine ever sold.

Farm Wagons—We are handling the "Jackson" and "Auburn." The Jackson is the old Webster very much improved and no one should think of buying a wagon without seeing them. To continue to enumerate all the good things that we have would take up so much of your time that we will cease with the assurance that no matter what you may want we believe we can suit you from a shoe peg to a traction engine.

P. S.—Barb Wire is lower than ever before. Do you need some? We have a large supply

Why it's Done
Why it's Done

First, to stimulate business. Next, to give our tailors work. We believe much of the stagnation of our various industries can be changed by a bold determination for business. It's for everybody to assist in bringing about better times. Our wage-earners want work. Give 'em the work to do. It will scatter millions of money through every channel of trade. We're not after profits. We've cut everything to the quick, and are willing to get nearly a new dollar back for an old one.

We'll not confine this great sale to made-to-measure goods.
