When I awoke and went down stairs, allayed were all my fears,
The same old stove was good as new, the one we've had for years.
This is the key to the mystery.

The Lowest Rate of the Year to Chicago via Pennsylvania Railroad.

A FURTHER REDUCTION IN FARE FOR THE COACH EXCURSIONS.

The rapidly approaching termination of the Columbian Exposition and the enormous travel now directing itself to Chicago prompt the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to still further reduce its round trip rate on the popular World's Fair Coach Excursions. The rate from Philadelphia will be $17, and a proportionate reduction from other points along the main line and branches. These rates apply only to special trains leaving on September 28th, October 2d and an additional one just arranged for October 6th. The tickets will as before, be good for return passage within ten days on trains leaving Chicago at 3.15 and 11.30 P. M.

The rate has now reached the lowest possible point, and is in the means of almost every one, which end the railroad company has long been endeavoring to attain. Early application for tickets is urged, in view of the increased demand which will undoubtedly follow this liberal announcement.

The service for this travel will be maintained at the same standard for which the Pennsylvania Railroad Company is justly world-wide famous.

Three Pretty Weddings.—At Trinity Cathedral on Tuesday evening, a most delightful wedding took place. The contracting parties being Miss Katie Golt and Mr. Milton Soulsby, both of this town. The church, beautiful at all times, was made doubly so by large quantities of lovely flowers and ever green, so tastefully arranged as to give a most resplendent effect to the whole church. The young couple, being very popular in Easton, attracted an immense crowd to the wedding. Indeed the church was literally packed. With Miss Josie Dawson at the organ, beautifully rendering Mendelsshon's march the wedding party entered the church. It was very pretty and a picture not soon to be forgotten. The bride was met at the altar by the groom and was given away by her father. The Rev. A. R. Walker performed the ceremony. The marriage was in the English style, now so much used. Walter Elliott was best man. The ushers were Wallace Heather, Frank White and Leonidas Leonard.

After the ceremony the bridal party slowly left the church, followed by the good wishes of all, but by none more than by the GAZETTE representative.

Miss Emily J. Faulkner of New York and Mr.T. Clark Mason of this town were married at Glen Cove, N. Y., on Tuesday last, Oct. 17 at 8.30 a. m. The wedding was a surprise to many, but none the less a delightful surprise. Mrs. Mason is well known in Easton as a very modest and lovable young woman, and has a host of friends and relatives who extend their congratulation most heartily. Mr. Mason is one of our most promising young business men and is known for his ability and energy in conducting the large furnishing house of John Mason & Co. The GAZETTE wishes to add its congratulations with the hundreds already received.

Miss Annie E. Brenneman of Easton and Mr. Harry Stewart of Philadelphia were united in marriage at Calvary M. P. Church last Wednesday evening by the Rev. J. M. Sheridan. The church had been decorated profusely by the loving hands of the many kind friends of the bride and groom. Prof. Brandts Buys was at the organ and displayed his skill in rendering the wedding march. He played in a beautiful manner Mendelssohn's March; Bridal Choir; and several selections on which he should be complimented. The ceremony was impressive and lovely and attended by hundreds of people. The bride wore a traveling dress of light blue cloth. The groom was dressed in the conventional black. The bride is well known in Easton and is loved for her sweet and beautiful disposition and besides she has a face no less attractive. Mr. Stewart was formerly a resident of Talbot, but for the past few years he has been a successful merchant in Philadelphia. May joy and happiness ever be theirs.

Another Deep Well.—Mr. J. H. K. Shannahan has just completed another deep artisian well at Crisfield this week. This is the second well he has sunk there and obtained water this time at the depth of 1030 feet. The well is a ten inch well and flows an enormous quantity of water. Mr. Shannahan is the only man who has ever been successful in Crisfield, hundreds of attempts have been made but none succeeded. His first well there is 1000 feet deep and flows more water in an hour than Easton would use in a day.

Gossip From Various Points Collected by Faithful Reporters,

ST. MICHAELS.

Rev. W. Sherman Philips preached to a large and attentive audience last Sunday morning and evening. Tomorrow morning he will take for his text "Pure Hearts;" in the evening will take for his subject, Mother, the first of a series of sermons on Mother, Home and Heaven. All are cordially invited.

"Gosh," in last Saturday's issue says that I'm a grumbler, that I grumbled because Miss Baker did not get the scholarship at the Western Maryland college, and that the hand of fate gave it to Miss Kemp of Trappe. Well brother I admit that I'm a grumbler; I grumble because justice was not done. These two young ladies were examined as to their merits for that scholarship by Prof. Chaplain, and he publicly says that Miss Baker came out of the examination two points ahead. One would naturally suppose that after Prof. Chaplain had told the school commissioners this that Miss Baker would have received the appointment. It was not the hand of fate but it was the will of men that cared nothing for what Prof. Chaplain might say or what the public at large might think.

Mr. Brown who came here just one month ago and opened a confectionery store in conjunction with his photograph gallery has folded his tent and left us. We are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Brown, they had made many friends during their short stay.

Rev. Wm. Poisal of Oxford was in town this week.

Rev. John Warthman who preached to the people of town nearly thirty years ago, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. E. G. Harrison this week.

Rev. S. J. Morris talked to the Wittmans people last Thursday eve, taking for his subject, "the Methodist Church of the twentieth century.".

Last Thursday John Thomas, a colored oysterman, who lives in St. Michaels, and had what is termed a shanty on the banks of the Wye River, where, while helping launch a boat, in sone unexplainable way broke his leg; he was brought here the day following, then taken to one of the hospitals in Balto., for medical attendance.

The people of this town were sorry to hear of Senator Gibson's illness and hope ere this that he has entirely recovered.

The cider man, I mean the man that sells that liquid says that it is not the cider they sell that make drunk come so quick but some kind of stuff procured at our drug stores that the men bring with them and put into the cider before they drink it. If such is the truth the ladies had better get another petition in addition to the one already before the public, let the last one be to shut up the drug store that will sell anything that acts as an intoxicant.

Oyster market extremely dull. in fact every thing else. The only men that are making money are the constables and magistrates, and they wouldn't be so flush if there was no cider nor whiskey sold in St. Michaels.

Last Thursday's excursion to Balto. via B. & E. S. R. R. was well patronized by our people.

The remains of Mrs. Arthur Marshall, wife of Arthur Marshall who died at Wittmans last Saturday was brought to this town and interred in Mt. Olivet Cemetery last Sunday morning.

Mrs. Mary Kinnamon aged 78 died at the residence of her nephew, Thos. H. Carey, last Saturday, Interred in Mt. Olivet Cemetery Sunday following. Rev. S. J. Morris officiated at the funeral service.

Dr. William Caulk has rented for the coming winter the residence of G. K. Benson, Esq.

One day last week Charles W. Willey, Sr. of Church Creek lost his fodder house by fire, supposed to be result of spontaneous combustion or somebody's pipe, the latter more plausible.

Mrs. G. K. Benson is visiting friends in the city of Philadelphia.

Thos. E. Harrison and wife are the guests of Mr. Harrison's brother, Chas. E. Harrison W. Chestnut street.

Jno. C. Thomas of Balto., visited friends in St. Michaels this present week.

Mrs. Samuel Marshall spent part of this week in the city of monuments.

Tyler's Oyster House was totally destroyed with all its machinery last Wednesday night, partially covered by insurance. How the fire originated no one seems to know. The fire was discovered a little after ten o'clock and soon a great crowd had gathered and the engine, our fire engine was there with its usual promptness and with its usual incapacity for any good whatever as to putting out a fire—that engine is N. G. Old man Noah used that self same engine in pumping out the ark after it had landed on the Mount, naturally it is worn out, and the people want a new one. If something is not done in the way of improving our fire apparatus, some of these nights that are still to come will find a great many people in St. Michaels homeless.

SHERWOOD.

The storm of last Friday did considerable damage in Bay Side. Bridges were washed out from Tilghman's Island to McDaniel and the tide covered the bridge that crosses to the Island rendering it impassable.

Mr. Douglass Sears, of Washington, after a pleasant visit to relatives in Bay Side rereturned home this week.

Mrs. Emie Williams, who has just returned from the World's Fair is visiting her father.

Mrs. Ensey, returned to her home in Baltimore after spending the summer at Mary's Delight, the delightful country seat of her mother, Mrs. Mary F. Lowe.

The family of post master Johnson of Baltimore, who have spent the summer at Rich Neck, has returned to the City.

The revival services at the Sherwood M. E. Church were brought to a successful close last week.

The Anniversary of Methodisom in Bay Side is now being celebrated at Wittman M. E. C.

OXFORD.

The recent storm of Friday last was very severe here.

A number of persons have not rebuilt their bulk heads and consequently the waves from the usual high tide carried a good portion of Oxford into the river.

The ferry steamer flying between Oxford and Belvue was broken from her moorings and washed ashore somewhere along Plain Dealing Creek. The Ferry accommodation here has been very uncertain of late. The ferry boat has been greatly out of repair and travellers have been compelled to row across the ferry or sail, which last method is slow business when there happens to be no breeze.

The wind also gave the Methodist Episcopal Church a considerable twist and a quantity of plastering was wrenched from the walls.

Considerable damage was done to boats. One oyster boat with its cargo was sunk at Morrow & Hadaway's wharf and several small boats were torn from their moorings and washed ashore.

The tide was the highest of the year.

The oyster business here is very dull. Men are compelled to take starving prices for good oysters.

The extra meetings commenced at the Methodist Episcopal Church last Sunday and have continued during the week. The attendance has been very good and the interest seems to bid fair for a revival of religion. There has been one conversion.

Last Sunday eve Master Alfred Mason of Easton led the Epworth League prayer meeting to the delight and profit of a large congregation. After the League meeting the Rev. George Phoebus, D. D. of Brooklyn preached an excellent sermon.

Speciel services are being held at the Ship yard for the benefit of the dredgers who came here just for the oyster season. The services are conducted by Rev. J. W. Fogle.

The Gruber Family have been in town for two weeks and have given entertainments of a high order. They expect to leave by train on Saturday morning.

The Lowest Rate of the year to Chicago via Pennsylvania Railroad Company's Coach Excursions.

At a recent meeting the rate to Chicago via the Pennsylvania Railroad was definitely decided upon, and will hold good during the remaining excursions of the people's popular coach series: $18.00 from New York, $17.00 from Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, and proportionately low rates from other points on the company's division and branches. These rates are the lowest that have yet been authorized, and their ultimate legality has been brought about mainly through the efforts of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

The Remaining dates on which this remarkable rate will apply are Oct. 17, and 21, from New York and Philadelphia, and 14 th, and 21st, from Baltimore and Washington, when trains will leave the several Eastern terminals fully and comfortably equipped with Pennsylvania standard coaches, and all taking advantage of these exceptional opportunities are assured of being amply cared for in transit. The arriving time in Chicago, early the next afternoon, is one equality with the fast express trains schedule, and affords sufficient time for a selection of accommodations for the stay in Chicago.

The immence volume of travel now directing itself towards the World's Fair, and the rapidly approaching termination of the exposition influence the company to place every inducement possible before the public. There could be no better way devised to encourage visits to the most marvelously gorgeous exhibition the people of this generation have ever seen.

It Should Be in Every House.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay St., Sharpsburg, Pa. says he will not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatered with Pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe," when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good, Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa, claims Dr. King's New Discovery did him more good than anything he ever used for lung trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free trial bottles at J. C. Henry's Drug Store. Large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

THE PUZZLER

No. 256.—Transposition.

Some puzzles, although sprightly, breezy,
Are wrongly named, they are so easy,
So simple that by much expressing
They leave no chance at all for guessing.
The word for this that I select
Means "hidden from the intellect."
Now, this explains it, can you guess it?
If you cannot, why then confess it.
I'll call it one and then transpose it
And give a clew that plainer shows it.
Two will denote you've made one trial
And failed to get a true espial,
But to go on with further teaching
Would falsify what I've been preaching.

No. 257.—Double Acrostic.

Highest in rank of all thy glorious kind
Thou hadst thy stand.
Far spread the musings of thy master mind
From land to land.
Thy pen recalled romantic histories
Of days of old,
But best undying friendship's memories
By thee were told.

Attend to me and open both your ears.
An edge that's cut off by the tailor's shears.

When a book's very long, we often shorten it.
How nice, when fishing, upon this to sit.

A perfect state, if wedded tastes agree,
How all poor folks detest in this to be.

To give up everything which they might claim.
Again, a second time, to write one's name.

Round in a circle here the current flows.
My little boy by this name always goes.

Wise seers of old, who could events foretell.
Some tools whose use all carpenters know well.

Soldiers must hasten home when this they hear.
Stars, crescents, anchors, in blue lines appear.

The style of any painting, good or bad.
To have this in your house would make you sad.

The words of this acrostic are of unequal length.

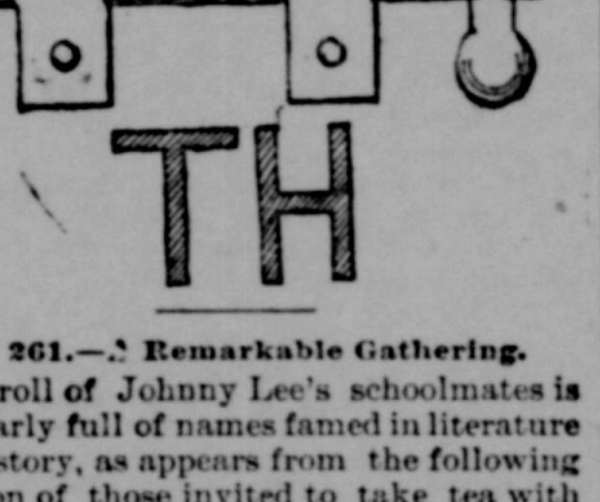
No. 258.—Transformation.

Let "i" and "a" change places,
And, lo! what change it brings!
A record of events is lost,
And to it as she sings
The merry maid at setting sun
Her shining milk pail brings.

No. 259.—Anagram.

A Famous Man of Letters:
Tom, as a bomb, chaunting a lay.

No. 260.—Illustrated Word.



No. 261.—A Remarkable Gathering.

The roll of Johnny Lee's schoolmates is singularly full of names famed in literature and history, as appears from the following mention of those invited to take tea with him on his birthday one summer afternoon:

The Admirable Doctor (1) was the first to arrive and was soon deep in the discussion of favorite scientific mysteries. Bell-the-Cat (2) took part with characteristic boldness when he came in a few moments later, and Christian Seneca (3) was by that time at hand to point out the moral beauties of the subject. The Ettrick Shepherd (4) was not too late to make a neat point in impromptu verse. The Father of Jests (5) made an especially happy hit by bowing profoundly when "the grinding out of grains of truth" was eloquently referred to by The Great Commoner (6). A learned observation by The Infant Phenomenon (7) astonished all. By this time the guests had all arrived, and the interest reached fever heat when The Irish Agitator (8) sought to give a political coloring to the arguments and was jocosely aided by Orpheus C. Kerr (9), and most patriotically by The Liberator (10). This charge was brilliantly turned aside by Light Horse Harry (11). The remarks of the Lord of Crazy Castle (12) were not in good taste and quite uncalled for, which led Old Public Functionary (13) to direct the conversation into other channels by an anecdote of personal experience. So rapidly had time flown that all were surprised by the entrance of The Female Howard (14) with a summons to tea.
