The best of the market will be served and accomplished young ladies will wait on the gentlemen. Go and get your meals there.

—It takes eighty men and women to make a postage stamp. First the white paper is cut into sheets, each large enough for a hundred stamps. The stamps on each sheet are counted 26 times to make sure the number is correct. The printer counts and passes the sheet to the gummer, the gummer gums the back, and having counted, gives it to the perforator, who divides the stamps by rows of little holes, not forgetting to count. It is surprising how quickly and accurately the hands can work. Seven hundred millions of postage stamps are made every year in the United States. New York City uses eight millions a month.

—Baltimore News says Ex-Comptroller J Frank Turner, editor of the Easton Star, whose ardor in the campaign was hardly as noticeable as his friendship for Dr. Barber, the Republican Senatorial nominee, comes along with this past election declaration. The Democracy of Talbot has outdone itself. Some Democrats think that it has overdone itself or rather it would have been better to have done a little less than it did do. But a majority is a thing you had better have too much of than not enough, and particularly when the man you have beaten is contemplating trying to prove that your election is all a mistake, and that he is elected instead of you.

THAT ENTERTAINMENT

OF THE AVON CYCLE CLUB

"Gosh," Our Special Correspondent, was there in all his Glory, and tells what he saw and heard.

During the winter months, as far as an elevating amusement is concerned, Easton is practically dead. We have but few entertainments of a high order to relieve the monotony of the long winter evenings. That is, in the past, but the future looms up brightly before us, already have we had the opportunity of spending a most enjoyable evening, an evening of refined enjoyment, and to the Avon Cycle Club the public is indebted. On Wednesday evening the handsome club room was filled with as respectable and representative an audience as could be found anywhere. The occasion was that of the presentation of the silver medal to Mr. Frank White, winner of the club race. Besides the presentation, a splend program had been arranged, which was as follows. Music, Orchestra; Opening Address, W. M. Tylor; Music, Orchestra; Presentation Maj. Stewart; Reply, F. A. White; Music, Orchestra; Tenor Solo, Henry Hollyday, Jr.; Reading, Mr. Chas H. Hughes; Music, Orchestra; Closing Address, Maj. Stewart. A number of other features were added which were duly appreciated. The orchestra was composed of Miss May Hubbard, organist; Messrs. W. M. Tylor and A. Robson, violins; Wm. Hull, bass horn; Jas. Spence, Walter Garey and Wm. Meintzer, cornets. The music was truly fine and each selection was applauded greatly. The orchestra was a No. 1. Mr. Tylor's address was extremely interesting and very amusing and he received a hearty encore. Maj. Stewart's address was—well everyone knows what he can do in this line. He excelled himself this time and spoke with a fire and eloquence that completely captivated the audience. He is a grand speaker and covered himself with glory The Tenor Solo by Mr. Hollyday—how can I describe it. It was beautiful, lovely, grand. He sang as a Siren, listened to by an audience spellbound with admiration and pleasure.—At the conclusion of the solo an unrestrained wave of enthusiastic applause swept the room. He was requested to sing again which he did. Mr. Hughes kept the audience in a constant roar of laughter. His reading was excellent and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Mr White replied to Maj. Stewart in a neat and appropriate address, thanking the Major and audience for their kindness. The entire entertainment was superb and the good people reluctantly departed, not however, before expressing their pleasure, and thanking the club. The committee who had the arrangements in charge and to whose good judgement the success of the entertainment is partly due was Mr. Walter C. Hughes, chairman, W. Harry White and R. Harry Soulsby. Great credit is due this committee. And those ushers—with the white ties, kid gloves and, and—the white chrysanthemums and—that's all, were the above named committee and S. E. Shannahan. Through their efforts everyone was comfortably seated. In conclusion, a few words should be said of the tasty little program presented to each visitor. Neatly arranged, it consisted of the program, a note explaining the objects of the club and also the following: "We bid you a hearty welcome to-night, and recognize the fact that by your presence, you confer upon us both an honor and a favor. We extend a welcome and also our thanks. We hope to have the pleasure of your presence at ALL of our receptions."—How could we help from feeling that we were indeed welcome. It was a good entertainment and enjoyed by no one more than by

Mr. Blake was a prominent member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and a great Sunday School worker and his whole life was devoted to doing good. He was spared to live beyond three score years and ten, and in his death he leaves many friends in this town saddened by the news.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Board of County Commissioners met on Tuesday.

Receipts were:

Jos. B. Wrightson, col, 1893,	$200 00
J. Harry Radcliffe, " "	140 00
W. T. H. Lee, " "	200 00
Thos. A. Lloyd, per R. J. Dawson, collector, 1893,	300 00
F. T. Gibson, oyster fines,	5 00
Total,	$845 00

Capt. J. W. Martin, J. L. Martin and C. B. Lloyd were before the Board urging that a piece of road opposite the Dickinson farm, Little Neck, Trappe district, be widened provided J. O. Dickinson will give the right of way.

J. W. Martin was given permission to change his fence on the public road near Clora's Point.

After a conference with all concerned the Board decided to abandon the Creamery road as laid down by the examiners, and will adopt one a little further north.

The Board would like to call the attention of the road supervisors to rules three and eight attached to their commissions, and insist upon a compliance therewith.

The Board ordered that the road supervisors cease work at once, that no work be done on the public road, except filling up holes and repairing broken bridges.

The Board wishes to say that throwing dirt on the roads at this season of the year is an extravagant waste of the public funds, and renders the road less serviceable for public travel.

A Camera Detective.—At Grand Rapids Mich., Nov. 15th, three burglars confessed to robbing the Hardware store of Foster, Stevens & Co. For some time the firm had been a loser by robbery.

A detective arranged a photographer's camera focused on the cash drawer. An electric connection was fitted to the drawer and the camera so that when the drawer was opened the shutter of the camera would be operated, and at the same instant a calcium light would be flashed.

The three young men, when about to rob the till, were startled by the flash light, but as no demonstration followed they finished their work.

The suspects were arrested, and, when confronted by the photograph taken during the flash light exposure, they broke down and made a full confession. Their names are Lewis Stoneburner and Charles and Henry Snyder. They all reside in that city.

This Dream had its Opposite.

I had a dream the other night when every thing was still,
I thought I saw our old stove go rolling down the hill;
When I awoke and went down stairs allay'd were all my fears,
The same old stove was good as new, the one we've had for years.
This is the key to the mystery,
Benny, who makes a specialty of repairing stoves, had been there. 9sept3m

From the Centreville Observer, Democratic

The Talbot County Election Fraud.—Of all the political tricks intended to make majorities for a party the trick just unearthed in Talbot county takes the lead. As all voters know the emblems of the various political parties are printed at the head of the ticket to be used at elections, the emblem of the Republican party being a picture of Mr. Lincoln. On the sample ballot used in Talbot and other counties the face of Mr. Lincoln is looking towards the right. Republican leaders and orators in that county, instead of instructing the colored voters to stamp their ballots at the right of the emblem, contented themselves with instructing them to stamp opposite Lincoln's nose. This would place the stamp in the proper square to make the vote a solid one for the Republican ticket. In order to cheat the poor negroes the election supervisors had a picture of Lincoln procured and used on part of the official ballots which made the face look towards the left. Thus in stamping opposite "Lincoln's nose" the voter put his stamp in the Democratic square, and instead of the vote being a solid Republican vote it became a solid Democratic vote. By this trick the negroes were fooled into voting straight Democratic tickets all day instead of straight Republican votes as they supposed. This accounts for Republican Talbot piling up a Democratic majority of over 500 votes. The trick was of course a fraud up on the poor voters, intended to cheat or, at least, mislead them, and thus to carry the election by unfair means. Of course there is no law which requires Lincoln's nose to point to the right, but the law does require the official ballot to correspond with the sample ballot, and this it did not do, and in that regard at least was a violation of the law and a fraud upon the voters. The gentlemen who were elected have an election tainted with fraud Will they accept office thus tainted? or will they refuse to accept the reward of fraud? We shall see. Certain it is that no party can command the respect of the people which permits such fraud to be perpetrated. Let us have a clean party, or let us have none.

The Phrenological Journal and Science of Health for November deserves particular mention because of its very interesting features. For instance a succinct outline of the life of Prof Charcot, the eminent physician of La Salpetriere, Paris, with an appreciative character sketch and speaking portrait. A very elaborate and philosophical illustrated analysis of the faculty of Weight follows; then the able paper on "How to Study Strangers, and the Character Studies by Prof. Sizer will command a close reading. Experience and Brain Growth come also from a practiced hand. Dr. Charles A. Lee and Prof. Kirkham are sketched by Mrs. C. F. Weil's; and Cyril Tyler, the "boy soprano," has a delineation well drawn by Dr. Edgar C. Beall. In the departments of Child Culture, Hygiene and Anthropology are many interesting articles and items, while the Editorial and Correspondence annexes fill out the number to an unusual bulk. We should note the continuation of the valuable discussion of Moral Education, in which the editor writes of that fundamental faculty, Conscientiousness. The Journal is published at $1 50 a year; 15 cts a number. The last three month's free to new subscribers for 1894. Address FOWLER & WELL's Co., 25 East 21st street, New York.

Gossip From Various Points Collected by Faithful Reporters,

ST. MICHAELS.

"GOSH" in last Saturday's issue writes of one of our cornet bands. If he thinks one of them plays such soul inspiring music, I wonder what he would think if he heard them both at the same time blowing for all they were worth. I've had that terrible agony as mine, one at the east, the other at the west of me, either within a stone's throw. In the nights that are numbered with the past, as I've tried to woo Mr. Morpheus, but in vain, the thought has stole over my mind, boys you may have religion and possibly you may keep it, but I'll be darned if I can or could.

Did you read last Saturday's Comet, it was a screecher from Screechingtown. I read the editorial and it gave me a ——. The Editor intended to do the rooster biz for one entire column, told the Devil to get all the roosters in the case, and the devil looked; the roosters were all out courting the hens in the Argus office; that's why there was only one old cock at the head of his column.

Things have changed since I was a boy. It used to be that the word Democrat meant majority rules, but now it is reversed, particularly so in the appointment of Post Master at this place. From what we can learn Mr. Willis will receive the appointment. As a gentleman I respect and admire Mr. Willis, but at the same time I do not think he is entitled to the office of post master to the people of St. Michaels. Mr. Easter, Mr. Willey and Mr. Sewell all had petitions, some of them with over 130 democrat signatures. Mr. Willis could not have possibly had fifty and so the minority rules and Mr. Gibson pays no attention to the wishes of the people. Go ahead Charlie, I'm no democrat, for which with many other blessings I thank the Lord.

Who turned Abraham's face on the ticket. I've heard it on the street that Mr. Collins will refuse to go to the ancient city this winter on account of the great fraud perpetrated by his party on Nov. 7th, but that's all in your eye. ANOTHER DEMOCRAT HEARD FROM

I am not, of course, aware as to whether your charges of fraud in the last election are well founded or not, but as a Democrat, I hope that if any fraud has been committed you will prosecute the culprits without fear and to the bitter end.

The moral tone of any community where election frauds can be practiced with impunity is a sad one and as a good Democrat I am only too painfully aware that the charge of conniving at such practices has at times driven from my party thousands of good citizens.

This is not a party question and every decent Democrat in our county, the successful candidates most of all, should aid in punishing the criminals. P. B. SPRING.

Dear Auntie is sleeping so free from all pain
Awake not her sweet spirit, to suffer again;
She slumbers so soundly, oh, let her sleep on,
Her sickness is ended and troubles are gone,

In the long night hours, we soothed her in vain
'Till God in his mercy sent down from above,
An angel that whispered a message of love.
