This Dream had its Opposite.

I had a dream the other night when everything was still,
I thought I saw our old stove go rolling down the hill;
When I awoke and went down stairs, allayed were all my fears,
The same old stove was good as new, the one we've had for years.
This is the key to the mystery.
Benny, who makes a specialty of repairing stoves, had been there. 9sept3m

Of Interest to Travelers.—The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad announces that they have placed on sale round trip tickets at reduced rates to the Winter Resorts in Florida and the South, and also to such points of interest as Luray, Natural bridge and Gettysburg. This Company has also arranged to place on sale excursion tickets to San Francisco and other points in California on account of the Mid Winter Fair, at unusually low rates. Excursion tickets are now on sale to Philadelphia and New York via the famous Royal Blue Line.

With its vestibuled train service via Washington to Cincinnati, St. Louis and Chicago, the B. and O. is in the best of condition to handle western and southern travel. That the line is a popular one, is attested by the immence World's Fair business handled this summer.

Literary Notes.—The Christmas Number of Harper's Magazine published last week, contains ten short stories, including Thomas Nelson Page's humorous sketch introducing the "Editor's Drawer," and an unusual number of beautiful illustrations. Timely and attractive features are "The House of Commons," by Thomas Power O'Connor, with illustrations by Albert E. Sterner; "The Old Dominion," a contemporary view of Virginia, by Thomas Nelson Page, with pictures by C. S. Reinhart; and "An Outpost of Civilization," a sketch of Mexican ranch life, contributed by Frederick Remington, whose descriptions admirably fit his vigorous and characteristic drawings.

Harper & Brothers are to publish in the course of a few days The Masters and Masterpieces of engraving, by Willis O. Chapin, one of the most beautiful volumes of the holiday season in its illustrations, largely photogravure reproductions of notable prints and etchings. The books offer a brief historical and summary of two arts in which collectors are more and more interested.

Among the Christmas books from Harper & Brother which make their appearance next week will be the promised illustrated edition of Charles Reade's ever-delightful romance of the Middle Ages, The Cloister and the Hearth. It is lavishly and gracefully illustrated by William Martin Johnson, the same artist whose pencil bestowed fresh attractiveness on General Lew. Wallace's Ben-Hur. The pictures illustrate almost every phase of life at the period of the famous story.

Mrs. Maley Bainbridge Crist, of the Confederate War Journal, Lexington, Ky., paid Easton a rapid visit last week and made the acquaintance of several prominent citizens and interested them in her work. She is an enthusiastic and entertaining person and likely to win favor where ever she goes. This she did with the editor of Frank Leslie's Magazine who accepted her article written in reply to that work of Tolsti's that Post Master Wanamaker suppressed from the U. S. Mails. It will appear in the March number of that Magazine and will be entitled The Woman's Story of the Kreutzer Sonata. Mrs. Crist is a correspondent to the Cincinnati Post and other prominent papers.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Mark New vs. Thomas O. Cook and Wm. F. Payne; action to recover the value of a horse owned by New alleged to have been killed by defendants' runaway omnibus team; jury; Turner and Seth for plaintiff, Stewart for defendant; jury failed to agree.

State vs. Edmond Jackson for assault with intent to kill Asbury Stanford, verdict, guilty of assault; sentenced to six months in the House of Correction; Stewart for State, Gibson & Carrington for defense.

State vs. Kate Smith; indictment for assault upon Edmond Wilson with a razor with intent to kill; verdict not guilty; Stewart for State, Gibson & Carrington for traverser.

Alexis A. Pascault vs. John Outram, admr. of Benjamin Outram, dec'd., to recover amount due; trial before jury; Martin and Seth for plaintiff, Gibson & Carrington for defendant; verdict for plaintiff for $82.

The grand jury came into court and made the following report:

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY.

To the Honorable the Judges of the Circuit Court for Talbot county:

The Grand Jury for Talbot county, November term, 1893, having finished their deliberations, respectfully report that they have carefully investigated all violations of the law coming under their kndwledge, and in the course of said investigations have had before us 48 cases and examined 103 witnesses, and made 14 presentments.

Finding so many trivial cases brought before us through the efforts of our constables that we deem it advisable that they act with more discretion in the discharge of their duty in preserving peace and good order, thereby saving expense to the county.

In visiting the jail we found it well kept and in good sanitary condition with the exception of insufficient ventilation of the water closets, and would recommend that a ventilation be placed in the top of same.

We think the jail should be inspected by an expert, as in our opinion it is insecure. We also think some method should be adopted to prevent prisoners from communicating with outside persons, thereby preventing a nuisance much complained of—also that sexes should not be allowed together while exercising. We found imprisoned 14 persons, 5 awaiting trial, 2 waiting to be transferred to the House of Correction, 3 serving sentence for disorderly conduct, 2 lunatics, 1 simple minded boy and one awaiting sentence. The public roads are reported to be in good condition with the exception of a piece on the Centreville road, leading from Easton to first intersection of the Chapel road, about ¾ of a mile, we would earnestly recommend that the County Commissioners have said piece of road graded and shelled at their earliest possible convenience.

After a careful investigation of various charges against officers connected with the late election, of alleged violation of the law relating to said election, we have been convinced that no acts have been committed to warrant us to make any presentments—but that the various charges and counter charges are exagerated and arise more from the heat and passion of a political contest than from any other cause. We would suggest that the registration books of the county, whilst out of the custody of the Clerk of the Court, be more securely guarded.

The clerk, officers of the court and obliging State's Attorney have done everything in their power to facilitate our work, and have our thanks.

Our labors being at a close, with thanks to your Honors for courtesy received and information given, we ask to be discharged. GEO. C. MOORE, Foreman.

We neglected to state in the above, we have granted to the following gentlemen licenses to sell spirituous and fermented liquors in quantities not less than one pint: Spencer W. Calloway, John W. Anthony, William A. Walls, James Ahern, Joseph H. Ross, John M. Beaven, Wm. T. Callahan, Henry M. Ziegler, William H. Warner, Samuel T. Rhodes, Geo. W. Parrot and J. A. Morgan.

Mark New vs. Cook & Payne; jury; Turner and Seth for plaintiff, Stewart for defendant; verdict for plaintiff for $200.

William Kreiger, a native of Germany, was naturalized. The first papers were issued Nov. 10, 1891; witnesses, George F. Kinnamon and August Hemmerle.

State vs. Otho. J. Seward, indictment for burning the dwelling of Thomas Elliott, in Oxford; plea not guilty; jury; Stewart for State, Gibson & Carrington and Tilghman for prisoner; submitted without argument. Jury acquitted the prisoner without leaving the box.

State vs. Geo. W. Keys, for larceny of suit of clothes belonging to R. R. Butler; jury; Stewart for state, Kirby for defendant; verdict guilty.

Court adjourned until Tuesday, Dec. 5.

ORPHANS COURT.

Orphans' Court met on Friday, 24, Present, Jerome B. Bennett, chief judge; Ormond Hammond, Wm. C. Dudley, associates; E. H. Roe, register of wills; H. G. Pascault, deputy; Samuel E. Tucker, crier.

IN THIS BUSY WORLD.

"GOSH" SPREADS HIMSELF ON NUMEROUS SUBJECTS THIS WEEK.

His views on turkeys as legal tender, and other interesting subjects.

In this month of Thanksgiving while we are looking over our blessings and privileges, as we are supposed to do, do not let us forget to give thanks for the fact that we are Americans. Born and bred in this Land of Liberty the finest land under the sun, the land which holds for each one of us greater possibilities than any other land can offer. Even the cold November days, with the clear, crisp air we breathe, seem to give us fresh vigor and energy, and to strengthen our feelings of independence, the characteristic, most prominent of the Americans,

> "Breathes there a man with soul so dead
> Who never to himself hath said
> This is my own my native land,"

The other day, when the wind was blowing quite lively around the corners, a piece of paper flew up in my face and on examining it, I found it to be a fragment of an old letter. It ran somewhat as follows:—"That great mogul of correct grammer has went evidently to a great deal of trouble in lectining other peeple who have saw a great maney more summers than he did and I seen other peeple who done exactly what he did and a few others is doine and they was none of your Nancy Hanks peeple either. These kind of peeple are to be founded every where that don't see nothin and do not feel tolerable well unless they can make others feel sickly. It is about time some one asked him who is be talking to and me and me brother, we hereby do so and I hope others will also. If I should take time to expose this sham pretender we could—" and there it ended. A unique character certainly to talk about "correct grammer", and "other peeple." Who this writer with the picturesque grammar is. I do not know and I hope he won't see this and went to me and gave me his opinion.

The Moreland Block has now one of the handsomest buildings in the town, and instead of being an eye sore, as it used to be. It is very pretty in its new paint and improvements. Steam heaters are being put in, and also electric light and when entirely completed it will be a model office building, and an ornament to which we can point with pride.

I had supposed that Congress had settled the financial question long ago, and I also read of its proceedings, but it seems there is one important feature that escaped me. In reading the Democrat last week I read a notice stating that turnips were acceptable on subscription accounts, but that turkey would be much more appreciated, after delicately hinting for that all important Thanksgiving dinner adjunct, the turkey. The editor says he will gladly welcome all fowls answering by that name. Holy Smoke, what is the county coming too, when money is so scarce that turkeys and turnips have to be used as legal tender. It will be amusing in the extreme to go through our extensive market and hear such questions and replies as these; "How much are your potatoes a bushel?" "One turkey and a quarter." Well Mr. editor, you deserve credit for suggesting and putting into practice an idea that (it is hope) will relieve the general depression of the times. I hope it will be a leg-al Tender.

The entertainment by the Avon Cycle Club has been much talked about and these who were so unfortunate as to miss it are clamoring to have the club give another. It is the most obliging club you ever saw and has decided to gratify the people and will give another entertainment, only more elaborate, soon. Details will be published at an early date. Good people encourage this orginization. It is doing a power of good for our young men.

"Hamlet" was produced at the Opera House Wednesday evening before a large and critical audience and it was truly a remarkable performance where ability and genius were most conspicuous. Indeed I have seldom seen a company exhibit such talent as did this company Wednesday eve. I enjoyed it ever so much—was sorry I could not be there.

The people of Easton sustained a loss the early part of this week and a loss that cannot easily be repaired. I refer to the removal of ex-sheriff Fairbanks to his estate in Bay Side. We have all grown much attached to the kind hearted, popular sheriff and regret exceeding that he cannot remain in this community. He and his excellent family have been greatly liked by our people and then removal from us is regretted deeply. Seldom has Taibot had a more acceptable sheriff, and seldom has Easton had a more popular and upright citizen.

The Sunday School organ of the M. E. Church, I was told had become quite dull in tone and a new one is about to be put in. What's the use of going to all that expense? Why not call on an organ grinder?

I hope, so sincerely that the readers of the GAZETTE enjoyed their Thanksgiving dinner but I particularly hope they had an easier time digesting it then did "GOSH"

Christian Endeavor Conventions—There will be held in Baltimore next week two conventions of the Christian Endeavor Society. The first will be under the auspices of The Methodist Protestant Church and will be held in Lafayette Ave. Church. J. W. Kirk Pastor. It will open Dec 4th, and last two days.

Rev. H. L. Elderdice will preside Miss Katie E. Moore, Mrs. E. H. Roe and Mrs. J. M. Sheridan have been elected delegates from Calvary M. P. Church. Many interesting subjects pertaining to Christian Endeavor work will be discussed by prominent workers throughout the State. Dr. Clark of Maine and Rev. J. F. Cowan of Pittsburg will also deliver addresses. The other convention will be composed of societies from all denominations in the State and will be held in Brantly Baptist Church Dec. 5, 6, and 7th. W. C. Perkins will preside.

The address of welcome will be by Dr. Wharton and the response by Rev. A. L. Elderdice. Prominent speakers from N. Y. and other States will deliver addresses. The convention sermon will be by Rev. M. B. Babcock. Address on Christian Endeavor and the Unchurched, by Mr. Anthony Comstock of New York. "How to Save the Children." by Mrs. Scudder of Jersey City. "The Problem of the Unemployed," by Dr. F. E. Clark of Maine. Other prominent speakers will speak on "The Pledge," "Convention Work," "Prayer Meeting," and "Christian Fellowship." Also addresses by Rev. T. H Lewis of West Minister and Dr. Burrell of New York.

There will be a large gathering of Christian Endeavor workers from all over Maryland, and great interest and enthusiasm will be manifested. A choir of one hundred voices will lead singing. All rail roads and steam boat lines will issue tickets and reduced rates. There is a strong effort being made to hold the National Convention of 1896 in Baltimore. The National convention this year was held in Montreal, Canada, at which there were twenty five thousand delegates.

Didier and Bartlett Wedding.—On Wednesday evening a brilliant assemblege of people crowded the church of SS. Peter and Paul to attend the marriage of Mr. T. Tennant Didier to Miss Mary Bartlett. Promptly at 7 o'clock the bridal party entered the main entrance of the church and was escorted up the aisle to the chancel railing by the ushers, Messrs. James Dixon, William H. Kemp, Frank Gibson and Samuel Harper. The marriage ceremony was performed by an uncle of the bride, Rev. Wm. Bartlett of St. Anne's Church, Baltimore, assisted by Rev. Laurence McNamara of Washington D. C., and Rev. T. F. Waldron, pastor, Easton.

The bride wore a brown cloth traveling suit and carried La France roses tied with pink ribbon. The groom and ushers were in full evening dress; there were no bridesmaids. The chancel was elaborately decorated with hundreds of candles and the choicest of potted plants. The entire communion railing was covered with smilax relieved by tea roses. The part of the church allotted for the intimate friends of the contracting couple was enclosed in white ribbon. During the services Mrs. Wm. Coney presided at the organ. After the ceremony the young couple received the congratulations of their friends at the rectory and left on the night boat on an extended tour. Relatives were present from Philadelphia, Baltimore and New York.

Death of Alexander R. Parks—Alexander R. Parks died of typhoid fever at the home of his son-in-law, W. J. Coleman, at Coleman's, yesterday, aged 68 years. Mr. Parks was taken sick about a week ago. He was a most exemplary citizen, and a successful farmer until several years ago, when he abandoned rural pursuits, having accumulated a valuable property. He was a consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and at the time of his death was a member of the official board of the church at Still Pond. Scrupulously honorable in all business affairs he commanded the respect of all who knew him. He leaves three children, Mrs. Dr. J. B. Merrit, of Easton; Mrs. M. M. Rasin, of Zanesville and Mrs, W. J. Coleman, of Coleman's—Chestertown Transcript.

Fifty-Eighth Annual Report of the Union Dorcas Society.—Another year has been added to the long list of those that have rolled by since the organization of the Union Dorcas Society, and the record of its usefulness has suffered no diminution. With unflagging zeal and unfailing hope the Managers pursue their quiet routine of benevolent work giving, according to our financial ability, to those who are proved upon investigation to be worthy recipients of charity. And in some cases of utter destitution, though the persons may have brought the suffering upon themselves, we can but follow the example of our Savior Christ, and the teaching of Him "who maketh His sun shine upon the evil and the good, and sendeth rain upon the just and the unjust."

We are glad to acknowledge from Miller Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, the handsome donation of Fifty Dollars, without which we should have been much restricted in our work. And from the Directors of the Talbot County Fair Association we received a large box of bread which was distributed among our pensioners and was most gratefully received by them.

We have paid during the year one hundred and twenty-three visits and relieved twenty-four individuals. For the means to continue our work we rely upon the aid of a generous public to whom we have never appealed in vain. We know that the late financial crisis will somewhat restrict the means of many of our patrons, but we trust they will be "merciful after their power. If thou hast much give plenteously. If thou hast little, do thy diligence gladly to give of that little, for so gatherest thou unto thyself a good reward in the day of adversity."

Subjoined is the Treasurer's Report.

Dr. Harlan H. Ballard, President of the Agassiz Association, in Popular Science News, on the Birds of North America.—In Connection with the foregoing report of our Ornithological Chapter, it is only right to call the attention of all lovers of birds to the magnificent work now being issued by the Natural Science Association of America, and entitled. "The Birds of North America." Edition limited to 1,000.

It is emphatically an original work, original in design and execution, and whether in letter, press, illustration or price, it is unapproached by anything of the kind in existence.

It is recommended by the highest scientific, ecclesiastic and educational authority as being the most attractive, meritorious, pure and ennobling exposition of our ornithology yet given to the public.

Dr. Elliott Coues, author of 'Birds of the North-West," says: "It is a really notable work." Prof. C. J. Maynard, author of the "Birds of Eastern North America," says; "It contains the best pictures of the species which I have ever seen." Thomas G. Gentry, author of "Life Histories of Birds," and "Nests and Eggs of Birds of the United States," says: "It is the cheapest and best publication on ornithology in this country. The drawings are of a very high order, and rivals in beauty of design and finish the more costly works published abroad or in this country. It should be found in our homes and libraries generally." And according to Dr. Theodore Gill, a member of the National Academy of Sciences, "It is not only a meritorious volume, but is altogether so handsome as to make it a very appropriate presentation book or ornament for the family table."

It is an imperial quarto volume of engraved figures of all our species artistically reproduced, true in all hues of color to their natural plumage and botanical surroundings. It also includes a copious text description of their habits and characteristics, and embracing in general the observations made by the most eminent writers on ornithology, and a systematic table, arranged according to the classifications adopted by the American Ornithologists' Union, includes all the additions and corrections of our North American species which have been made to date, with an index to page, plate and figure of each species according to the A. O. U. number. It is illustrated with one hundred and nineteen full page colored plates, each representing from one to thirty or more species. It is the finest book on American birds issued since Audubon, and is announced by some authorities superior to that now rare and costly work. It is issued in half and full bindings, Russia, seal, or morocco, at the net price of $40 and $45 respectively; but in response to a special letter, the association authorizes me to say that a substantial discount will be made to such of our A. A. members and others as are working naturalists. We commend this work especially to members of the Wilson Ornithological Chapter.

It is also a very useful and appropriate addition to the house and reference library, and for presentation purposes generally. Address regarding it, the NATURAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION, 114 Fifth Avenue, New York, N. Y. Samples of plates and text can be had by sending twenty five cents in postage stamps. dec2tf

A Cold Winter Expected—A dispatch to the New York Sun from Northwood, N. Y. says: When the long headed old Adirondack men gather down at Grant on election day to vote the one topic that interested them next to the political situation was the weather. They all agreed that "finer weather never laid out o' doors that what we've been havin' but unless the signs fall we're goin' to get it right smart the other way," beginning very soon. And here are some of the signs on which Adirondack folks rely when they are looking into the future of the weather.

The boys have had to dig deeper for foxes this fall than at any time for six years, and about all the fox holes of which report was made in the hotel horse shed at Grant had been found in the earth instead of the rocks, where they are usually found. The fox is "a right cunnin' critter," and he knows in some way when cold weather is to be expected, and digs a hole accordingly.

Then attention was called to the horses that came into the shed. Everyone was sweating although it was a cold if very bright day.

"See the sweat," said Uncle Daniel Higgins "It's because every one of 'em has an unusually thick coat. Why' just rub your hand on any horse here and you'll find the hair as thick as a bear's skin. It is confidently asserted that a thick coat always grows on all domestic animals when a very cold winter is expected.

Another woodsman called attention to the old beaver meadows. "The grass on Flae Brook hasn't been so long in—well, not since '87. I can show you stalks from six to six and a half feet long in what I cut for bedding" he said, and that growth is noticed, they say, only in the kind of a year when the muskrats are likely to need a particularly warm house for the season. The muskrat homes have not been attacked yet in the regular fall hunts, but one man, Bill McDougal, of the Twin Lake stream settlement had "opened one for luck," and found the walls, he said, at least a quarter thicker than they were last year.

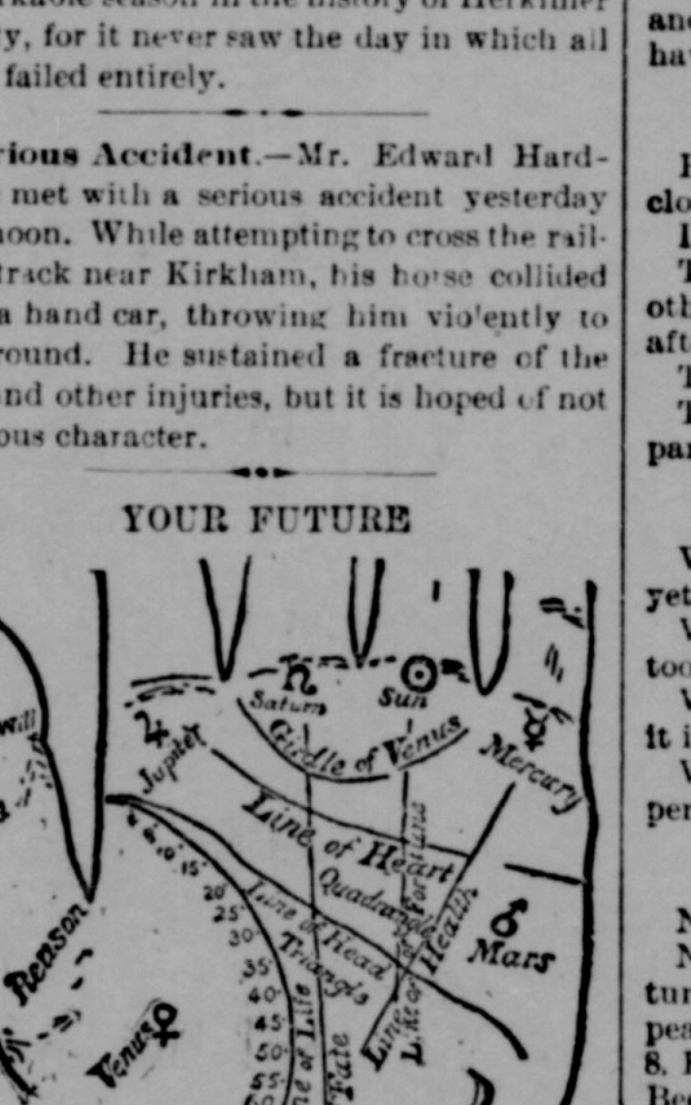
The old stand by sign of the goose bone is hooted at by the woodsmen of this section but two men who brought deer out of the woods on the last day of the season, and kill many partridges every fall, said that all kinds of game are dressed in unusually warm coats, as the domestic animals.

The last sign to be mentioned was probably the most important, because the most trustworthy of all. After listening to what the rest said Superintendent Talbot, of the Hickley lumber mills, went to an apple tree not far away from the shed and took away a cocoon made there by some kind of a caterpillar and broke it open before the woodsmen Very few, if any of the spectators were familiar with cocoons, but Mr. Talbot, who is a natusalist as well as an expert republican politician and a lumberman, said that the softness as well as the thickness of the material indicates the kind of weather to which the other signs pointed.

The weather probabilities are of interest to all kinds of people, but to none more than to the Adirondack folks. A cold winter with its continuously deep snow, is just what they want. They call snow the poor man's fertilizer, because the meadows produce better hay when covered deep all winter. Then the deep snow enables them to lay out highways in all parts of the woods, including swamps, while a low temperature makes all kinds of fur prime, so that better prices are realized By the time this is printed every man in the region will be busy overhauling his bobsleds and making trails for the winter's teaming while Sunday will regularly be devoted to regularly laying out lines for traps. If Adirondack folks don't winter well it will be a remarkable season in the history of Herkimer county, for it never saw the day in which all signs failed entirely.

Serious Accident.—Mr. Edward Hardcastle met with a serious accident yesterday afternoon. While attempting to cross the railroad track near Kirkham, his horse collided with a hand car, throwing him violently to the ground. He sustained a fracture of the arm and other injuries, but it is hoped of not a serious character.

YOUR FUTURE



IS IN YOUR OWN HAND.

Palmistry assumes to tell what the lines in your hand indicate. It will amuse you, if nothing more. The above diagram almost explains itself. The length of the LINE OF LIFE indicates probable age to which you will live. Each BRACELET gives you thirty years. Well-marked LINE OF HEAD denotes brain power; clear LINE OF FORTUNE, fame or riches. Both combined mean success in life; but you must keep up with modern ideas to win it. You will find plenty of these in Demorest's Family Magazine, so attractively presented that every member of the family is entertained. It is a dozen magazines in one. A CLEAR LINE OF HEART bespeaks tenderness; a straight LINE OF FATE, peaceful life; the reverse if crooked. A well-defined LINE OF HEALTH spares you doctors' bills; so will the health hints in Demorest's. No other magazine publishes so many stories to interest the home circle. You will be subject to extremes of high spirits or despondency if you have the GIRDLE OF VENUS well marked; keep up your spirits by having Demorest's Magazine to read. By subscribing to it for 1894 you will receive a gallery of exquisite works of art of great value, besides the superb premium picture, 17x22 inches, "I'm a Daisy!" which is almost a real baby, and equal to the original oil painting which cost $300; and you will have a magazine that cannot be equaled by any in the world for its beautiful illustrations and subject matter, that will keep you posted on all the topics of the day, and all the fads, and different items of interest about the household, besides furnishing interesting reading matter, both grave and gay, for the whole family; and while Demorest's is not a fashion magazine, its fashion pages are perfect, and you get with it, free of cost, all the patterns you wish to use during the year, and in any size you choose. Send in your subscription at once, only $2.00, and you will really get over $25.00 in value. Address the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th St., New York. If you are unacquainted with the Magazine, send for a specimen copy. A large QUADRANGLE means honesty; a large TRIANGLE, generosity; long FIRST DIVISION OF THUMB, strong will; LONG SECOND DIVISION, reasoning faculty. The MOUNT OF JUPITER betokens ambition; that of SATURN, prudence; the SUN, love of splendor; MARS, courage; MOON, imagination; VENUS, love of pleasure; and MERCURY, intelligence. Take our advice as above and you will be sure to possess the last and most valuable quality.

The first vertical or left side of the frame of nine large circles represents a word which signifies "a distinct part of a discourse;" "any portion or section of a writing or chapter which relates to a particular point." The right side of frame, "an instrument to prevent rapidity of descent in 'a hollow vessel filled with gas.'" The upper round of four large and small circles, a Latin word meaning "water." The second, "the superficial contents of a thing;" "an inclosed space or open surface." The third, "a violent motion;" a plant. The fourth, "a substance resembling turf, used for fuel."

No. 302.—Metagram.

1. I am decayed; change my head, and I am a whim; again, and I am to have possessed; again, and I am out of my mind; again, and I am a cushion; again, and I am sorrowful.

2. I am a winged animal; change my head, and I am a domestic animal; again, and I am stout; again, and I am an article of apparel; again, and I am a rug; again, and I am to hit lightly; again, and I am to have reclined; again, and I am a tub.
