TALBOT'S DUTCH COLONY.

LANDS ALONG THE CHOPTANK RIVER BEING SETTLED UPON.

The Advance Guard of The Hollanders Have Arrived, More Will Quickly Follow. Other News Notes.

It is expected that next week the population of Talbot, Caroline and Dorchester counties will be increased by the advent of three hundred colonists from Holland. The new comers will be thrifty, hard working agriculturists, who propose to settle upon lands acquired by a company which has, for the past six months or more, been busily engaged setting forth the advantages of Maryland for those desirable immigrants from foreign countries, many of whom have heretofore sought the less inviting field of the West and Northwest.

Captain Willard Thompson, general manager of the B. C. & A. Railway Co., is in receipt of a letter from Mr. C. W. Van der Hoogt, stating that an anvance guard of Holland immigrants has arrived in New York, their ultimate destination being the Eastern Shore of Maryland. Those who have already arrived will be followed by others to the number stated, and Mr. Van der Hoogt says the new colony will be established before Spring is very far advanced.

Mr. Van der Hoogt is the general manager of the Prudential Land Company of Talbot County. The company's main office is in Easton, and there is a branch office located at 27 and 29 Pine street, New York city. Mr. Van der Hoogt is a Hollander of culture and experience, and the company which he represents is composed largely of Hollanders who have been seeking, on the Western Continent eligible locations for the colonization of their countrymen engaged in agricultural pursuits who desire more advantageous environment than can be afforded in their over-crowded native land.

The Prudential Land Company of Talbot County was incorporated under the laws of Maryland, September 19, 1895. The capital stock is $100,000 divided into 1,000 shares. The board of directors is composed of Messrs. William Dagnes, John H. Armstrong, Henry W. Schloss, Justin Meldelson, C. W. Van der Hoogt, John F. Beysens, Oswald Tilghman, Albert Hoffman and Edw. Hoffman. Mr. Dagnes is president; Mr. Armstrong, vice president; Mr. Schloss, treasurer; Mr. Van der Hoogt, general manager, and Mr. Beysens, agricultural superintendent.

It is to Mr. Beysens, a native Hollander, that the task of organizing the colony of desirable agricultural immigrants from Holland has been entrusted, and after some months of earnest endeavor, he reports a signal success.

The actual purchases of the company thus far have been in the southern part of Caroline county, as follows: The Kelley farm, of 200 acres; the Meeds or McGregor farm, of 100 acres; the Hubbard farm, of 400 acres; the Hog Island farm, of 914 acres, and the Smith farm, or Frazer's flats, of 750 acres. The farms are all situated on the Choptank river, and are watered by its tributaries.

The land is traversed by the B. C. & A. Railway, and is near the junction of that road and the Peninsula line of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The B. C. & A. Railway Co proposes to establish a station on the Hubbard property, to be known as Wilhelmina, and this the land company proposes to make the nucleus of a town with urban aspirations. In addition to the railway station, the commercial importance of the projected town and circumadjacent colony is to be enhanced by facilities at Hog Island, now a landing stage for steamers plying on the Choptank river between Denton, the county seat of Caroline county, and Baltimore. The whole property is in direct communication with Baltimore, Washington and Philadelphia, as well as New York, Brooklyn and Boston.

The land company has secured options upon other tracts of land, aggregating several thousand acres in area, in Talbot and the adjacent counties of Caroline and Dorchester. The immigrants will devote their attention mainly to trucking and fruit culture. As the land already acquired is taken up, the land company will reach out with a view to providing a greater area for the occupancy of other immigrants.—American.

EASTER AT THE CHURCHES.

HOW THE DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED IN EASTON.

Special Music and Sermons, Beautiful Floral Decorations. The Programs Of The Services in Detail.

Tomorrow will be Easter, the great festival of the Christian Year. The churches that will celebrate the resurrection of the Lord of Life have been diligently preparing to make their services on this day grand and imposing, as befits the occasion. The programs will be as follows:

At 7.30 p. m., semi-choral Evensong and Sermon. It will be a union service for the congregations of the Cathedral and Christ Church. The congregations of the two Churches will of course, be present, and the general public is cordially invited, but it would be well to go early, as the seating capacity of the sacred building will no doubt be taxed. The ushers will, however, make every effort to comfortably seat all who come. The services will be in charge of the Very Rev. the Dean (Dr. Sutton), assisted by the Revs. W. Y. Beaven and Edward M. COL. THOMAS H. HUGHLETT DEAD.

The Clerk of the Circuit Court Passes Away.—Large Funeral.

On Monday evening, March 30th, at his residence on South street, Col. Thomas H. Hughlett died, after a lingering illness of some weeks. The deceased was about 70 years of age, and until his illness was actively engaged in the affairs of life, being a man of large business interests, as well as clerk to the Circuit Court of this county.

He leaves one son, Thomas, of Cambridge, and one daughter, Mrs. John C. Henry, of Easton. His wife died a few months ago. Two sisters survive him, Mrs. Mary E. Adkins and Mrs. Tamsey A. Reese, both of Easton.

During his long life he was actively engaged in business and more or less in politics. Once a County Commissioner, also for a number of years Fish Commissioner, which offices he filled with great credit. He has held the office of Clerk since 1883, and his present term would have expired in 1897. He was a member of Christ church from which the funeral services were conducted on Thursday by the Rev. Mr. Baldwin, rector of St. Peter's parish assisted by the Right Rev. W. F. Adams, bishop of the diocese of Easton, and the Rev. Franklin B. Adkins, rector of Spring Hill and Stepney, Wicomico, a nephew of the deceased. The pall bearers were Col. Edward Lloyd, Dr. Thomas W. Martin, Louis W. Trail, Frederick P. Dimpfel and Thomas W. Warfield. A delegation of Masons attended the funeral in a body, Colonel Hughlett having been one of the oldest members of the Masonic fraternity in Easton. Among those present from a distance were ex-Congressman John W. Causey, of Delaware; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dereeves, of Philadelphia; John W. Graver, of Baltimore; ex-Congressman and Mrs. Winder Laird Henry, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hamilton Bayly, Dr. and Mrs. Brice W. Goldsborough, Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Creigton, Levin H. Henry, Charles S. Henry Willian H. Ross and Thomas C. Ross, of Cambridge.

Which Is It?

From December 18, 1895, to March 26, 1896 the Orphans' Court of this county granted administrations in only two cases, and those two granted did not amount to more than $1000.

Heretofore the average has been about four per month or one a week, and the above showing demonstrates one of two things, to wit: either the number of deaths in our county have been exceedingly small, or those who have died have been persons who left no estate to be administered on.

If the former be true, it argues well for our salubrious climate; if the latter be true, it is a sad evidence that the times are hard, that property has been losing its value at a rapid rate. So that we should either be proud of the one or ashamed of the other.—Comet.

FREE SILVERITES MEET.

TWO HUNDRED DEMOCRATS DISCUSS THE MATTER IN EASTON.

Silver-Tongued Orators Boom Maj. Wm. E. Stewart for Congress. Series of Resolutions Were Adopted.

A meeting of no insignificant importance was called at the Court House last Tuesday afternoon, and despite the weather, was quite well attended. Mr. William Willis, chairman, called the meeting to order.

The following Vice Presidents were chosen: Charles M. Jump, John B. Fairbank, Louis W. Neal, Robert H. Jump, T. R. Tarbutton, James A. Gannon, George C. Moore, Levi T. Dukes and Col. J. Percy McKnett. The secretaries were Edward H. Roe and Dr. Chas. H. Rose, and the executive committee consisted of L. Clayton Willis, F. E. Towers, J. C. Davis, John R. Warner, George F. Kinnamon, Robert James, G. M. Thomas, George H. Seymour, S. T. Love, Charles W. Baker, Alexander Lednum, H. H. Carroll, L. T. West Dean Calloway and William F. Jump.

The committee on resolutions, consisting of Maj. Stewart, chairman, John Ornett, Robert Coulby, W. W. Barwick, Thomas Hopkins, jr., Andrew J. Dewlin, James E. Rice, J. Frank Turner and Elmer E. Andrews, reported these resolutions, which were adopted:

Recognizing the well established fact, "that an increase in the quantity of money raises prices, and a diminution lowers them, as a most elementary proposition in the theory of coinage," we are convinced that the continuing "hard times" are mainly the result of vicious legislation, chief of which is the demonetization of silver, whereby one-half of our constitutional money lost its primary and redemption functions, in consequence of which prices of products were halved, and debts doubled. By the remonetization of silver prices will rise, "labor and industry gain life, the merchant become more enterprising, the manufacturer more diligent and the farmer more prosperous."

The thirty millions of people of the United States who live in the country and are supported by agriculture have been as disastrously affected by the action of our Congress in aping the gold-bug legislation of the British Parliament as were the farmers of England. When silver was demonetized in England in 1816, there were 180,000 land owners, but now there are less than 30,000; and at the present time of the 14,000,000 of homes in the United States, 9,000,000 of them are heavily mortgaged, and if there is not a change for the better our farmers will soon be homeless.

Ours is a debtor nation. We owe $35,000,000,000. We owe to England $5,000,000,000, the annual interest on which, payable in gold, at 5 per cent., amounts to $250,000,000, whereas the entire gold production of the United States is but $35,000,000 a year, less than one-seventh of what we have yearly to pay to England.

The trade of the United States annually amounts to billions and billions; our foreign trade amounts to over a thousand millions every year. All this trade demands a large and sufficient circulating medium of gold and silver; yet to benefit a few covetous money changers in this country and grasping foreign creditors, we have struck down one-half of our constitutional money. Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By this mass-meeting of true democrats of Talbot county, that the demonetization of silver was a crime against the people of the United States.

2. That we firmly adhere to the principles maintained by every democrat President from Jefferson to Buchanan, and enunciated in every National Democratic Platform, and held by all the leading statesmen and patriots of the country, including among the number Madison, Hamilton, Jackson, Benton, Taney, Webster, Clay, Calhoun, Lincoln and Blaine and a host of other worthies, who were all bi-metallists and favored the free coinage of both gold and silver as the honest constitutional money of the United States.

3. That we are unalterably opposed to the single gold standard, and demand the free coinage of both gold and silver, without discrimination against either metal, at the coinage ratio of 16 to 1.

4. That we will use all proper means to send from this county delegates to the State Convention and also to the Congressional Convention for this District who favor the free coinage of gold and silver.

5. That we ask all democrats of the State to meet in convention and send delegates in sympathy with these resolutions to said State Convention.

The speakers were Wm. H. Kelly of Washington, Major Wm. E. Stewart, Dr. Chas. H Rose and Editor Turner, who elicited considerable applause.

The meeting adjourned sine die, after endorsing Maj. Stewart for Congress on the silver platform.

Tuckahoe Tribe, of Trappe, Celebrates Its Twenty-first Anniversary.

Tuckahoe Tribe, No. 64, Impd. O. R. M., of Trappe, celebrated its twenty-first anniversary in a most happy and entertaining manner at their wigwam in Trappe on Monday evening last at 8 o'clock. The program was most judiciously arranged. The chairman, A. P. Ross, after announcing the object of the assemblage, introduced Past Great Sachem R. T. Mullikin, who gave a very comprehensive history of the order to the palefaces present. He was followed by Col. J. Percy McKnett, who entertained his large audience in his usual happy manner, after which remarks were listened to with attention from Prof. Long, Junior Sagamore; Rev. E. E. Taylor, Brother; and James Simmons and John F. Mullikin, palefaces. Miss Laura Sullivan, daughter of ex-Sheriff John S. Sullivan, also contributed her share to the enjoyment of the evening by a most humorous recital of an interrupted "train courtship." At the conclusion of the speech making letters were read from Rev. R. K. Stephenson, P. G. S.; Gr. Sr. Sag. Rotan, Rev. E. V. Regester and other prominent Red Men, expressing their regret at not being able to be present. Brother Ross in a few well chosen remarks gave the invitation to all present to partake of corn and venison. Sheriff Seymour was the first Red Man to say ready and the last to say enough. All present voted that the entertainment of Tuckahoe Tribe, No. 64, Impd. O. R. M., was a success. A GUEST.
