RELIGIOUS READING.

We want not time, but diligence, for great performances.—Dr. Johnson.

"Do not, because you can do so little for others, do nothing. Look around you, first in your own family, then amongst your friends and neighbors, and see whether there be not some one whose little burden you can lighten, whose little cares we may lessen, whose little pleasures you can promote, whose little wants and wishes you can gratify. Giving up cheerfully our own occupations to attend to others is one of the little kindnesses and self-denials; doing little things that nobody likes to do, but which must be done by some one, is another."

There can be no reason to persecute any man in this world about anything that belongs to the next.—Wm. Penn.

THE BROTHERHOOD OF HUMANITY.

Much eloquence and oratory have been expended upon what is called "the brotherhood of humanity." But if you were a Jew you would find precious little human brotherhood in Russia; and speaking generally there is little love lost between foreigners in non-christian countries. The fact is that Christian brotherhood is the only brotherhood that has the power to exterpate race hatred and caste hatred. It is only the bond of Christian love that can cement master and servant, conqueror and conquered, poor and rich, learned and illiterate, laborer and capitalist, Jew and Gentile, in the fellowship and feelings of one great family. Apart from this, all talk and attempts at fraternity and human brotherhood are chimerical as history has repeatedly demonstrated.

RUINED.

According to a popular standard a person is ruined if he has lost his property, whether in money or lands or both. How long before we learn the lesson that no man is ruined until the last spark of manhood is gone, and that no woman is ruined until the last spark of womanhood is extinguished?—Rev. W. E. Gleneville. Ph. D., Anamosa, Ia.

The spirit of persecution is the shadow of dogmatism. So soon as a band of men agree to all think in one narrow line the violence done to individuality results in a warping of soul by which they can see only a distortion of truth. When, on the contrary, each one allows another his distinctive soul-vision, the outcome is as delightful as the varied face of nature, where each seed produces its own kind and all grow in harmony and beauty side by side. And Jesus must have been thinking of the Gentiles when he said: "Other sheep have I also which are not of this fold. Them too must I bring."

Royal Oak Items.

Rev. J. S. Martin, new pastor of the M. E. Church South, preached here last Sunday morning to the delight of his people. The members of his congregation have been busy at the parsonage most of this week, making ready for the arrival of his family, who will be in their new home before Sunday. His daughter, who has been ill for some time is improving, but is not strong enough to be moved at this time.

Rev. Edward Gardner preached last Sunday evening at the M. E. Church on "Sidetracked, or Religious Railroading." His sermon was illustrated by a blackboard drawing of a straight road from the city of "Conviction" to the City of Eternal Life. From this road were a number of branch roads, such as "Morality R. R.," "Good Works R R." and "Resolutions R. R." All these ended in the "Chasm of God's wrath," and only the straight and rough road had a bridge across this awful "chasm," and that was the bridge "Christ Jesus," just this side of the "City of Conversion." After crossing the Chasm the road passed through the beautiful "Land of Canaan," but even up here there was a branch route which led in a semi-circular route to "Backslidersville," on the "Chasm of God's wrath." After riding some distance through this beautiful "Land of Canaan," we reach the "City of Consecration," some stop here but few they are. Then came the "City of Triumph" just beyond the River of Death. From this point the glory of the Beautiful City could be seen and he left us with the train entering the "Pearly Gates" amid the rejoicing of the multitudinous host. Special music had been prepared by the new choir, organized by the pastor. The closing hymn was, "I'm living in Canaan now," composed by Rev. Edwin Gardner which, with his cornet, made the old church ring. Notwithstanding the heavy thunder storm just at the time of service the congregation was good.

A musical and literary entertainment was given at the M. E. Church South last evening. A full account will be given in our letter next week.

Capt. Samuel Valliant and his daughter, Miss Elizabeth Valliant have moved into their old home near the village. We are glad to have them back again.

Miss Kate Newnam has been spending part of the week with Miss Valliant.

Mrs. A. Boley has returned to her home, Pebble Beech. She has been in Baltimore since the early autumn.

A parlor meeting, subject, "Temperance Remedies," was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. M. C. Moore, who is our our local president.

Mr. Oliver Dukes is building a boat, the capacity of which will probably be five tons. He is also building a large canoe.

Several weeks ago a saw mill was moved to Miss Maria Barnett's farm and men set to work to cut the timber from a piece of woodland on said farm. Although the tract is large, Manager Jones says he hopes to be ready to leave this locality in August.

The regular weekly meeting of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church was held last Wednesday instead of Friday, so the memders might attend the entertainment at the M. E. Church South on Friday.

A public meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held in the M. E. Church next Wednesday evening. The music will be under the direction of the pastor and there will be an address by an interesting speaker. Come out friends and hear for yourself.

CAN PRESENT LOW PRICES CONTINUE?

The question is vital to all except the few that have money to burn. We think they cannot continue. Prices should advance for one of two reasons.

First—Many manufacturers are tired of making goods at a loss and will stop producing until prices improve enough to make resumption profitable. Thus bargain-making chances will decrease.

Second—If demand should increase many goods will advance — present stocks are small. Any cause that will stimulate consumption must advance prices. It appears that either stagnation or activity will make prices go up.

The situation here is always upon one line. Best bargains possible. And the possibilities of continuous bargains have kept this business active and its growth cumulative while dullness has prevailed everywhere throughout the land.

The question of the hour which everybody should be asking is "Am I to share in the bargains now current at Wanamaker's?" You must answer it—we cannot. We give the chances. You must use them.

LINEN SELLING EXTRAORDINARY

News of Linens has set the town to talking. No such varied lot of staple housekeeping linens was ever offered at prices so small.

No matter the price, remember that every thread of every linen thing in this store is of pure flax.

WANAMAKER'S.

SHIRT WAISTS

Two thousand eight hundred and fifty-six Shirt Waists are on sale. Fresh and pretty—and cheap. And by cheap we mean that they are marked at prices less than we should fairly get for equal style and goodness. The loss of profit is shared by the makers and us—to move these lots so quickly that the makers may be saved from harm in the general markets.

At 50c there are Percale Waists made with pointed yoke back and front; laundered collar and cuffs; high sleeves. These are the entire stock-on-hand from a good producer. We sold a few dozens of them that came early at 63c, but the goods are worth 75c and more.

At $1.50 there are Waists of pretty cotton crepes; stylishly made, lined and boned. Their beauty is heightened with a touch of velvet here and there.

At $2 there are Waists of pretty striped silks. These are usually sold as "wash silks," but we do not so represent them. They are stylish and serviceable. Lined all through.

At 50c there are Flannelette Dressing Sacques—included with the Shirt Waists for want of a better classification. The 75c sort.

A FEW ITEMS of particular interest at this season.

WOMEN'S WASH WAISTS—Five hundred feet of counter space is devoted to the display and sale of our superb assortment of these garments. In the finer grades the materials were selected or imported especially for us—therefore, the same qualities and styles are not to be found elsewhere. It is advisable to make selections immediately, as hundreds of the choicest styles cannot be duplicated:

WOMEN'S WASH WAISTS—in fine Percale and Lawn, laundered collar and cuffs, extra full back and front, attached or detached collar of same material or white. Red, blue, pink, green, tan and black stripes and figures, at . . $1.00

WOMEN'S WASH WAISTS—in Percale and Lawn, Dresden effects and fancy stripes and figures on light and dark grounds, many with detached cuffs 6 inches long, choice colorings, at $1.25

WOMEN'S WASH WAISTS—laundered collar and cuffs, in beautiful Persian effects, yoke front and back, attached or detached collar and cuffs; also beautiful black and white and gray and white effects, at $1.50

WOMEN'S WASH WAISTS—in fine sheer Lawn, Percale and Madras, all the different effects in collar and cuffs, dainty colorings, at . . $1.75

WOMEN'S WASH WAISTS—with laundered collar and cuffs, in French Percale, Chambrey, Dimity and Lawn, solid colors and dainty figures and stripes—navy blue, cadet blue, green, lavender, pink, tan and ox-blood—many of them hemstitched on collar, cuffs and front pleat, at $2.00

WOMEN'S WASH WAISTS—with stiff collar and cuffs, in the finest lappards, with the softest colorings in stripes and figures, in Grass Cloths, Linen Lawns, Swivel Ginghams, Dimity, etc., a superb collection, at $2.50

WAISTS—excellent quality materials, made in the finest manner, no rough seams, double pointed yoke back, extra full front, guaranteed to wash, laundered perfectly, latest colorings, equal to any 75-cent waists in the country 50c

THE OUTING DEPARTMENT—offers exceptional opportunities to riders of the wheel. In suits, in belts, in caps and in golf stockings our assortments are complete. The prices are remarkable for moderation. For instance:

BICYCLE SUITS—excellently made, in all sizes from 34 up to 44 breast measure. Made of neat, durable mixtures that will not show the dust, and sewed throughout with silk. Coat has patch pockets. The bloomers have two hip, two side and two watch pockets. The cut is accurate.

Price, $3.75 each.

Separate Bloomers $1.75 per pair.

FLANNEL SHIRTS—not all wool—in neat patterns, just the thing for bicycling, at . . . $1.50

WOOL SWEATERS—with the popular sailor collar, at $1.50

THE "CAN'T SLIP" LEATHER BELT—the best so far devised, at 50c

BICYCLING CAPS—in mixed cloths and linen duck, golf shape, at 50c

GOLF STOCKINGS—of all desirable kinds, at prices from . . . . 25c to $2.00

WOMEN'S HOUSE GOWNS.

The following prices fail to convey an adequate idea of the value of the goods:

WOMEN'S HOUSE GOWNS—of Percale, three-inch ruffle over shoulders, full back and front, skirt three yards wide, choice colorings. Real value, 75 cents; our price 50c

WOMEN'S HOUSE GOWNS—of Percale, deep ruffle edged with narrow braid, a large range of colorings, at 75c

Also, HOUSE GOWNS—with deep ruffle, skirt three yards wide. Colors: black, blue and gray. Real value, $1.00; our price 75c

WOMEN'S HOUSE GOWNS—of fine Percale, skirt 3½ yards wide, deep collar, yoke and cuffs of solid blue, edged with fine embroidery, superbly made and finished. Actual value, $2.00; our price $1.50
