Cecilia Bond admx. of Thomas Bond. against. Justinian Jordan.

Be it remembered that heretofore to wit on the fifteenth day of September Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty seven, the Plaintiff by Gabriel Duvall her attorney sued out of our General Court here the State of Maryland a writ of Capias ad respondendum directed to the sheriff of Saint Mary's county in the words and figures following to wit

The State of Maryland Sc. To the sheriff of Saint Mary's county Greeting. We command you that you take Justinian Jordan late of Saint Mary's county gentleman sheriff also called Justinian Jordan of Saint Mary's county and State of Maryland gentleman, if he shall be found in your bailiwick, and him safe keep, so that you have his body before the Judges of our General Court, to be held at the city of Annapolis on the second tuesday of October next, to answer unto Cecilia Bond administratrix of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits, (which which were of Thomas Bond deceased at the time of his death who died intestate as it is said of a plea that he render unto her the sum of two hundred pounds ten shillings and two pence sterling money of the value of three hundred and thirty four pounds three shillings and seven pence current money of Maryland which from her he unjustly detains &c. Hereof fail not at your peril, and have you then and there this writ. Witness Robert Hanson Harrison Esquire chief Judge of our said Court the twenty fifth day of May Anno Domini 1787.

Issued the 15th day of September 1787. (G. Duvall) Thos. B. Hodgkin Clk.

And the said Cecilia Bond administratrix as aforesaid by her attorney aforesaid declares against the said Justinian Jordan in the plea aforesaid as follows to wit

Maryland, Saint Mary's county to wit. Justinian Jordan late of Saint Mary's county gentleman, otherwise called Justinian Jordan of Saint Mary's county and State of Maryland gentleman was summoned to answer unto Cecilia Bond administratrix of all and singular the goods and chattels, rights and credits which were of Thomas Bond deceased at the time of his death, who died intestate as it is said of a plea that he render unto her the sum of two hundred pounds ten shillings and two pence sterling money of the value of three hundred and thirty four pounds three shillings and seven pence currentmoney of Maryland, which from her he unjustly detains &c. And whereupon the said Cecilia Bond by Gabriel Duvall her attorney saith that whereas the aforesaid Justinian on the ninth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy seven at Saint Mary's county aforesaid by his certain writing obligatory acknowledged himself to be held and firmly bound unto the said Thomas Bond in his lifetime in the aforesaid sum of two hundred pounds ten shillings and two pence sterling money to be paid unto the said Thomas Bond when he the said Justinian should be thereunto required, And the said Cecilia Bond administratrix as aforesaid in fact saith that the said sum of two hundred pounds ten shillings and two pence sterling money was at the time of making the writing obligatory aforesaid always since hitherto hath been and now is of the value of three hundred and thirty four pounds three shillings and seven pence current money of Maryland to wit at Saint Mary's county aforesaid. Nevertheless the aforesaid Justinian the aforesaid sum of sterling money or the value thereof to him the said Thomas Bond in his life time, or to the said Cecilia Bond after the death of him the said Thomas Bond (to which said Cecilia the administration of all and singular the goods, chattels rights and credits which were of the aforesaid Thomas Bond at the time of his death was at the county aforesaid after the death of him the said Thomas Bond committed) although often thereunto required hath not rendered or paid but the same to him the said Thomas in his life time; or to the said Cecilia after the death of him the said Thomas hath refused; and the same or any part thereof or any part of the value thereof to her the said Cecilia to render or pay still doth refuse and unjustly detains. Wherefore she saith she is the worse and hath damage to the value of five hundred pounds currentmoney of Maryland aforesaid, and therefore she brings suit and so forth. and the said Cecilia brings here into Court the writing obligatory aforesaid sealed with the seal of the aforesaid Justinian, the date whereof is the day and year aforesaid, which the debt aforesaid in form aforesaid witnesseth, as also the letters of administration aforesaid, which the commission of the said administration to the aforesaid Cecilia in form aforesaid testify and so forth.

Gabriel Duvall for Plaintiff. Pledges and so forth. { John Doe and Richard Roe.
