And the said William Wydmyre being called upon, appears, and at the prayer of the said Joseph Chapline by his attorney aforesaid, the said William Wydmyre is adjudged to give special bail to the action aforesaid, Whereupon the said William Wydmyre by Richard Potts his attorney files in Court here the following bail piece to wit

Joseph Chapline, Plaintiff against
William Wydmyre, Defendant

You Daniel Dingle and Jacob Meyer do jointly and severally acknowledge yourselves special bail for the said William Widmyre at suit of the said Joseph Chapline in an action of trespass on the case brought by the said Joseph Chapline against the said William Wydmyre in the General Court for the Western Shore. You acknowledge yourselves to be content therewith this twenty ninth day of August 1787. before. John Stull, Jr. Shryock. -

To the Honorable the Judges of the General Court,

R. Potts attorney for the Defendant. —

And the said William Wydmyre by his attorney aforesaid defends the force and injury when and so forth, and prays leave of the Court to imparle hereunto until next Court, and he hath it, and the same day is given to the said Joseph Chapline also.

At which said next Court to wit, the second tuesday of May being the thirteenth day of the same month Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty eight, comes again into our General Court, as well the said Joseph Chapline by his attorney aforesaid, as the said William Wydmyre by his attorney aforesaid. And the said William Wydmyre by his attorney aforesaid as before defends the force and injury when and so forth, and prays further leave of the Court here to imparle hereunto until next Court, and he hath it, and the same day is given to the said Joseph Chapline also.

At which said next Court to wit, the second tuesday of October being the fourteenth day of the same month Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty eight comes again here into our General Court as well the said Joseph Chapline by his attorney aforesaid, as the said William Wydmyre by his attorney aforesaid. - And the said William Wydmyre by his attorney aforesaid prays that the said Joseph Chapline against him may declare: And thereupon day is given by the Court here until the second tuesday of May then next following, to the said Joseph Chapline to declare against him the said William Wydmyre: And it is said to the said Joseph Chapline by the Court here, that he on that day shall declare against the said William Wydmyre or that Judgment for default thereof against him the said Joseph Chapline, for the said William Wydmyre shall be rendered; and the same day is given to the said William Wydmyre there and so forth.

And now here at this day to wit, the said second tuesday of May being the twelfth day of the same month Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine, comes again here into our General Court the said William Wydmyre by his attorney aforesaid; but the said Joseph Chapline, altho' solemnly called, comes not, nor does he file his declaration in the plea aforesaid against the said William Wydmyre, nor does he further prosecute his writ aforesaid against the said William Wydmyre:

Therefore it is considered by the Court here, that the said Joseph Chapline take nothing by his writ aforesaid, but be in mercy, And that the said William Wydmyre go thereof thereof without day and so forth; And it is further considered that the said William Wydmyre do recover against the said Joseph Chapline the quantity of four hundred and ninety three pounds and one fifth of a pound of tobacco for his costs and charges by him about his defence in this behalf expended, unto the said William Wydmyre by the Court here with his assent adjudged, according to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and that the said William Wydmyre have thereof his Execution: And the said Joseph Chapline in mercy and so forth.
