Easton Gazette:

TERMS, $1.50 PER YEAR.

Easton, Maryland, June 13th, 1896.

CONGRESS adjourned this week.

MCKINLEY'S nomination is almost a matter of fact now. Next week tells the tale.

ATTENTION is called to the third column of this page showing the new election precincts of this county, officially published.

IT would have been good policies for the regulars to have sent Cowen to Chicago. They make nothing from a party standpoint by electing Hurst as a delegate at large.

THE Chicago pork packers, it is said, utilize every part of the hog but the squeal. It now turns out that they are canning the squeal and shipping it to Kansas populists and a few free silver men in Talbot county, Maryland.

THE Maryland Democrats will find a free silver President on a free silver platform tendered them at Chicago. After Wednesday's sound money resolutions, it rather looks as if the party in this State will have no alternative but to help elect a Republican sound money President.

THE St. Louis convention will declare against the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 in very convincing language. At least such is our opinion, and we think the coming week will support our conclusions.

THERE will be lively times in St. Louis next week. Honesty is the best policy, and the Republican party had better suffer defeat at the polls by proclaiming fearlessly its true principles on the financial question than to succeed by catering to the western vote at the expense of its own honor and a sound and honest currency. No straddle, if you please, at St. Louis.

IT seems the Democratic resolutions adopted at the State convention could not find any fault with Maryland under Republican control. "Restore our State to its true place in the Democratic column", is as far as they got. It should have been: "If we ever do get back, we promise the people never to humbug them again, but to follow the example of the Republicans and carry out all promises made prior to election."

WE call attention to the article of Col. Prentiss Ingraham begun in this issue, which he has prepared for our use The Col. is one of our distinguished citizens who has had a wide experience in travel and adventure and as an author has made a wide reputation for himself. He is the son of the author of fame who wrote Prince of the House of David, and it is with unfeigned pleasure we receive from his pen his tour through wonderlands.

FORD'S Opera House had no room for the stars and stripes at the Democratic convention Wednesday. In the Major's big speech, the applause which followed his reference to having shouldered a musket in the southern confederacy, was in keeping with a sentiment that often manifests itself in Democratic conventions in this State, and of course "Old Glory" would neither enthuse nor fascinate. To the credit, be it said, of Democratic conventions in Maryland, the National flag quite often remains on the outside.

OWING to extra expenditures for Reassessment, Elections, etc., and a deficit of $7,000 by the tax rate of 1895, the Board of County Commissioners will not be able to bring the rate much below $1.00 this year.

The tax basis for the county is $9,006,137.00, and not $3,066,998, as published "first" in one of the great unparalleled American journals, and from it copied in the little city dailies.

This information is copied from neither the great I nor from the little city sheets, but is the work of even our own investigations.

AMONG the great number of people whose names have been put foward in New York and New England for Vice-Presidential nomination, there has been a move started to press the nomination of ex-Governor Bulkeley as a candidate of the Republican party for that office. Should the effort that is being made meet with success it would seem to be a just recognition of the loyalty of the State of Connecticut to the Union, and further recognition of her most prominent citizen. Governor Bulkeley has been twice Governor of the State, seven times Mayor of the City of Hartford, and financial manager of one of the noted and successful Life Insurance Companies of America; and it would only seem fitting that some such recognition be given to the sturdy Republicanism of one who has been politically prominent for so many years and the representative of some of the most progressive and successful business interests in the country. The position that Gov. Bulkeley holds upon the leading questions of the day—sound money and protection—was clearly evidenced by the Connecticut Convention, largely through the instrumentality of Gov. Bulkeley, adopting the following plank in the platform:

"We are unalterably opposed to the issue of unsecured paper currency either by the Government or the Banks, of the free coinage of silver at any ratio, and favor a free standard of values and that standard gold."

THE Democratic State Convention met at Ford's Opera House, Baltimore, on Wednesday. The building was only fairly well filled, and vacant seats both below and in the galleries attested an apathy unlike the inspiration prevailing upon former occasions of the kind. Senator Gorman was chairman of the convention. Upon taking the chair he urged the followers of true democracy to lay aside factional differences and "if mistakes had been made," to overlook them and present a solid front in "opposition to the party of McKinley and the Force Bill." The Senator's speech failed to enthuse very much, and the convention settled down to business. Sound money resolutions were adopted by a good majority, but not until after Major William E. Stewart, of Talbot, had presented a minority resolution favoring free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. The Major backed up his resolution by a vigorous speech which lasted over an hour. He delivered it in an off-hand, characteristic style and entertained the convention immensely. Hon. J. Frank Turner also delivered an address trying to disseminate free silver logic among the delegates. While the free silver sentiment was pretty general on the outside, it was weak among those who voted on the resolutions, and Maryland democracy stands for the gold basis.

Pennsylvania Railroad Company's Summer Excursion Route Book.

THE MOST COMPLETE PUBLICATION OF ITS KIND.

The Passenger Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will, on June 1, publish its annual Summer Excursion Route Book. This work, which is compiled with the utmost care and exactness, is designed to provide the public with short descriptive notes of the principal Summer resorts of Eastern America, with the routes for reaching them, and the rates of fare. There are over four hundred resorts in the book to which rates are quoted, and over fifteen hundred different ways of reaching them, or combinations of routes are set out in detail. The book is the most complete and comprehensive handbook of Summer travel ever offered to the public.

Its 215 pages are inclosed in a handsome and striking cover, in colors. Several maps presenting the exact routes over which tickets are sold, are bound in the book. It is also profusely illustrated with fine half-tone cuts of scenery along the lines of the Pennsylvania Railroad else where.

Any doubt as to where the Summer should be passed will be dispelled after a careful examination of the contents of this publication.
