TERMS, $1.50 PER YEAR.

Easton, Maryland, June 27th, 1896.

Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT:

William McKinley,

of Ohio.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT:

Garret A. Hobert,

of New Jersey.

HAVE you made your returns to the assessors as required by the new reassessment law?

HARVEST is over and anxious farmers are watching the wheat market. We will try to keep them posted in our Market Reports.

NEXT Monday Major McKinley will be notified of his nomination by the committee appointed to carry out that formality.

THE Chicago convention will stand about as follows: For gold, 346; for free silver 584. Rather looks as if the silver Democrats would carry the day.

GORMAN showed his political sagacity by deciding to remain away from the Chicago Convention. No doubt Mr. Whitney by this time wishes he had purchased his ticket for Europe.

THE McKinley ticket, much like the Lowndes campaign in this State last fall, will run itself. The people wanted a change in Marylann. They got it. They want a change in National politics. They will get it.

MR. CLEVELAND has been fishing most of this week. Evidently the expressions of the late session of Congress on the Cuban question don't worry him in the least.

INTEREST now centres at the Chicago convention. Since Cleveland and Whitney are out of it—maybe the democrats will unite on that anarchistic crank, Altgeld, of Illinois. He could head their ticket—head anything where frenzy and inexpediency were controlling featutes.

MR. M. B. NICHOLS is getting up an excursion to Ocean City the proceeds of which he proposes to give to the Dorcas Society of Easton. This is one of the many commendable charities which has given Mr. Nichols the name of being one of the foremost in philanthropic work in this town.

A SCHEME is being hatched up to get enough silver votes added to the solid sound money vote to nominate ex-Gov. Campbell, of Ohio, at Chicago. Campbell is now in Washington. What his real position on the money question is, nobody knows. He has said himself that he had no decided convictions.

SENATOR WELLINGTON speaks most positively when he says Maryland's electorial vote will be given to McKinley this fall. If the democrats nominate a free silver candidate at Chicago, there will be little question as to how this state will go.

WITH the exception of New York and Wisconsin, the various democratic State Conventions this week have adopted strong free silver resolutions. Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Texas went wild for the white metal. The roll is now made up and the free silver men will have nearly a two-thirds vote in the convention.

A GENTLEMAN stepped into the GAZETTE office on Thursday and sighed that he was not an editor of an independent paper in order that he could give vent to his feelings produced by reading the McKinley editorial in the Easton Ledger. He was answered by a straight out democrat present to the effect that it would do no good because no one put any value or meaning in what the Ledger said, whether it be good or bad. Both agreed, and the desire to be an editor was dispelled.

FROM "inside information" as published by the Phila. Press on Wednesday, it appears that at the St. Louis convention Mark Hanna and McKinley were immovable in their conviction that a strong gold plank should be inserted in the platform. If McKinley's critics will be just, as well as indulgent, they will have abundant opportunity to learn the true position held by the republican nominee in reference to the currency question long before they will have the chance to help make him President.

ABOUT the oddest thing in the present political situation is that although Mr. Cleveland said in his broadside against the silver democrats, published last week, that his only desire hereafter was to be a private in the party ranks, the belief is generally held in Washington that he is willing to accept the democratic nomination again, even upon a silver platform. This isn't complimentary to Mr. Cleveland, but it is the fact all the same.

THAT the democratic party is as ever ready to do anything that will give it a chance to win is shown by the alacrity of democrats to consider even the wildest sort of a proposition which promises to gain populists and silver republican votes. One of these propositions which has been seriously accepted by some democrats and the carrying out of which may even be attempted at the Chicago convention, is that a democrat be nominated for president and a populist for Vice President, and that a resolution endorsing Senator Teller for Secretary of the Treasury be adopted by the Convention. And these men actually seem to think that the voters of this country can be bamboozled by such a crazy quilt sort of an arrangement as this. They will know better later.

THE coming Congressional Convention to nominate a republican to represent the First District, will have a responsible duty to perform. Responsible in the sense that the present opportunity of electing a Republican from this section of Maryland is more favorable than for years past and hence the very great necessity of avoiding mistakes. Several counties in this District have available men who are in a position to receive congressional recognition at the hands of the convention and would no doubt appreciate the honor.

But availability is not the only consideration. A man might make a good congressman yet receive a week support at the polls. We want this fall a good strong candidate, popular and aggressive and Talbot will present such a man, and if the convention will pander to no other sentiment, but give us this kind, his election will surely follow. Let us have a republican from this district in Congress for once, then, possibly, the performance may be the more easily repeated.

Letters From the People,

EDITOR GAZETTE:

This is vacation time. School is over and the children are at home. Harvest is over too and now we can begin to look around us more freely and see how best to "have a good time." Why not try something new this year? Picnics seem tame, straw-rides are not as much fun as they used to be, even amateurs shows have lost their spice. The trouble is we have had so many good times that our pleasure easily flags. But there are some people whose good times are fewer. In the heat and dust and smells of the city are boys and girls, ill fed and poorly clothed, whose hard working parents have little time or money for what we call pleasure, and they are just as full of life as our boys and girls and as we were ourselves and ache for some good time. Lets give them some. If neighbor Smith would have four at his house and neighbor Jones could manage three, I believe we could pack away four or so. We could give them all of the picnics and straw-rides we don't want ourselves and see if they don't like them. The only trouble is to find the children. Rich city children are so stuck up and full of airs and how could we reach the poor ones. Did you ever hear of the Children's Fresh Air Society in Baltimore, Maryland? Their room is 112 N. Charles St. I believe if we wrote to them they could put us on the track of some. I have heard that in the city sometimes a whole family live in one room. Must be hot work this weather. I should think a little Christian civilizing might not be amiss, if we could get hold of them. I believe for one I'll try taking a few. Neighbor Johnson let's make it a carload in the village. How many will you take? Then we'll let those fellows in town have the job of prowling 'round the alleys to look the kids up, that's a nice piece of work. INTERESTED.

WANAMAKER CLOTHING

The market is broken.

All three stores.

All summer.

Take these four as samples of one grade of clothes—fine worsteds:

(1) gray-mixed pin-stripes, a clouded effect, $20 for $10.

(2) gray soft twill, $18 for $12.

(3) black-and-blue mixture smooth, $15 for $11.

(4) black-and-light-blue not very small checks, $13.50 for $10.

And this is not one-hundredth part of a proper advertisement.

All summer clothing, including black, except serge and Thibet—these two, no change. We never make any profit on Thibet; we make a good deal on serge.

Take our whole stock of men's and boys' suits at a loss of $20,000 to $40,000—except those two—those two as usual.

Seems absurd; it isn't absurd; it is wise. It was wise to get ready for prosperous trade this summer; it hasn't come. It is wise to get ready for prosperous trade next fall; it may not come. To get ready, we ought to get our money out of summer stuff.

Such risks belong to the business: the losses have got to be met to make sure of the profits. It isn't all fair weather in business.

There is another way to get through these difficulties; that is to lie and cheat; to pretend to sell cheap and not do it.

You scarcely need to be told that the custom of shopkeepers generally—we don't like to call 'em merchants—is to pretend and not do. It is the custom of saying one thing and doing another that levels us all.

You distinguish between us though. You know, and yet you do not always use your prudence. It is so easy to slip; and hard to be always guided by judgment.

Boys' zouave suits (3 to 7 years):

$3 for $2.50
$3.50 for $2.50
$4 for $2.50
$5 for $3.50
$6 for $3
$6.50 for $4

Boys' short trouser suits (8 to 15 years):

$4.50 for $3.50
$5 for $4
$6 for $4
$6.50 for $4
$7.50 for $5
$8 for $6.50
$10 for $7.50
$12 for $9

Boys' long-trouser suits (14 to 18 years) in like way. There's no place to stop.

All three stores, and each store has its own.

WANAMAKER & BROWN.

Oak Hall, Market and Sixth.
Chestnut and Ninth,
the postoffice store.

WILLIAM H. WANAMAKER.

Market and Twelfth,
Philadelphia.

Golf and bike suits at all three stores.

We pay railroad fare on moderate purchases.

Closing Out

... And Going to the City ...

Beginning today, Thursday, June 11.

Mr. Kinnamon, of the Kinnamon Shoe Parlor, corner Dover and Washington streets, has decided to close out his stock of new shoes and go to the city, as his family is dissatisfied on the Eastern Shore. Remember, this is no closing out sale of old goods. They all are new, made in the last six weeks, and must go at some price, as he has made future arrangements in the city and cannot be delayed. They must go at once.

He has a large line of gents' and ladies', misses', boys' and children's shoes both in hand-made and regular made. After looking over his stock he finds that he has nearly $3000 worth of shoes, and to think he has to close out at once! That ought to convince you that you can get bargains and nothing else. Read some of his prices:

Ladies' Hand-Made Tan, Dongola and Kid Oxfords.

Oxfords in round, common sense and pointed toe, sold for $3, closing out at $2.25. Oxfords in round and pointed toe, sold for $2.50, closing out at $1.95. Same, sold for $2.25, closing out at $1.75. Same, sold for $2, closing out at $1.29. A good Oxford, not hand-made, sold for $1.75, closing out at $1.25 Same, sold for $1.50, closing out at $1.19. Tan pointed toe Oxford, sold for $1.25, closing out at 98 cents. Same, sold for 90 cents, closing out at 60 cents.

Ladies' Hand-Made Shoes in Kid and Dongola.

Ladies' common-sense, sold for $3.50, will close out at $2.75. Ladies' square toe button, sold for $3.50, will close out at $2.75. Ladies' round toe button, sold for $3.75, will close out at $2.89. Same, sold for $3.50, will close out at $2.75. Ladies' 20th century shoe, lace, latest style, sold for $3.50, will close out at $2.75. Ladies' round and square toe, sold for $3.25, will close out at $2.59. Goodyear welt shoe, in square and round toe, sold for $2.25, will close out at $1.56. Pointed and round toe sold for $1.75, will close out at $1.25. Pointed, round and common sense toe, sold for $1.50, will close out at $1.19.

Gents' Shoes in Tan and Calf, Hand-Made.

Gents' hand-made in pointed toe, tan, sold for $3.50, closing out at $2.69. Same sold for $3, closing out at $2.29. Gents' hand-made in square toe, tan, sold for $3.50 closing out at $2.69. Gents' hand-made in square toe, tan, Oxford, sold for $3, closing out at $2.29. A good line of gents' tan shoes, sold for $2.50, closing out at $1.79. Gents' black shoes, hand-made, pointed toe, sold for $3.50, closing out at $2.69. Same, square toe, sold for $3.50, closing out at $2.69. Same, square and pointed sold for $3.25, closing out at $2.49. Gents' black shoes, welt, square and pointed toe, sold for $3, closing out at $2.29. Same, square and round toe, sold at $2.50, closing out at $1.79. Good shoes, round and square toe, sold for $2, closing out at $1.29. Good men's shoes, sold for $1.75, closing out at $1.25. Same, sold for $1.50, closing out at $1.19.

Patent Leather--Very Handsome Line, Hand-Made.

Gents' needle cap, patent leather, sold sor $6, will close at $3.79. Gents' round toe, plain, pat. leather, sold for $6, will close at $3.79. Pointed toe, pat. leather, sold for $4, will close at $2.75. Good pat. leather, sold for $3, will close at $2.25.

Ladies' Patent Leather.

Ladies' pat. leather, pointed toe, sold for $5, will close at $3.49. Same, Oxford, sold for $4, will close at $2.98. Same, tan trimmed, sold for $3.75, will close at $2.75. Ladies' pat. leather Oxford, Dongola upper, sold for $3.50, will close at $2.49.

At these prices I will lose money, but they must go. What I lose you gain. Call and be convinced the prices are what I say. This is no humbug sale. It is straight. I have lots of goods I have not named you can buy at your price. Boy's and children's shoes from 35 cents up.
