June 25th 1788.

This day settled the accounts of Edward Lloyd Wailes, James Somerville and Henry Truman Compton under the firm of Edward Lloyd Wailes and company, with Uriah Forrest and Benjamin Stoddert leaving a balance due to the said Forrest & Stoddert of one thousand three hundred and eighty six pounds one shilling and ten pence British sterling, which we acknowledge to owe and stand justly indebted and promise to pay the same or the value thereof in Current money with legal interest thereon upon demand.

Edwd. Lloyd Wailes for self &c —

Robt. Bowie.

A Copy of which aforegoing Declaration and Account was made and sent with the writ which issued in the plea aforesaid.

At which said second tuesday in October to wit, the fourteenth day of the same month Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty eight, being the day of the return of the aforegoing writ, come into our General Court here, the said Uriah Forrest and Benjamin Stoddert by their attorney aforesaid, And the sheriff of Prince George's county to whom the same writ was mod. & directed, likewise comes and makes return thereof to the Court here the indorsed to wit

And

And the said sheriff, although solemnly called, to bring into Court here, the bodys of the said Edward Lloyd Wailes, James Somerville and Henry Truman Compton according to the return of the writ aforesaid, brings him not in, but makes default; Whereupon it is adjudgd, that the said sheriff be amerced, the sum of five pounds current money, unless he has the bodys of the said Edward Lloyd Wailes, James Somerville and Henry Truman Compton here, on the second tuesday in may next.

At which said second tuesday in May to wit, the twelfth day of the same month Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine, come again into our General Court here the said Uriah Forrest and Benjamin Stoddert by their attorney aforesaid, And the said sheriff being called upon to bring into Court here, the bodys of the said Edward Lloyd Wailes, James Somerville and Henry Truman Compton according to the return of the writ aforesaid, brings him in; Therefore it is adjudgd that the amercement aforesaid be struck out. And the said Edward Lloyd Wailes, James Somerville and Henry Truman Compton by William Hilty their attorney come and defend the force and injury when and wherefore, and saith, that they cannot deny the action aforesaid of the said Uriah Forrest and Benjamin Stoddert so as aforesaid against them brought, nor but that the said Uriah Forrest and Benjamin Stoddert has sustained damage to the sum of five thousand pounds current money, by occasion of the promise and assumption aforesaid in such manner and form as the said Uriah Forrest and Benjamin Stoddert heretofore against them have declared. — Therefore it is considered by the Court here, that the said Uriah Forrest and Benjamin Stodder recover against the said Edward Lloyd Wailes, James Somerville and Henry Truman Compton as well the sum of five thousand pounds current money their damages aforesaid in form aforesaid confessed, as also the quantity of eight hundred and twenty one pounds of tobacco unto them on their assent adjudged, for their costs and charges by them about their suit in this behalf laid out and expended, and the said Edward Lloyd Wailes, James Somerville and Henry Truman Compton in mercy and so forth.

Memorandum, Judgment was rendered in this cause on the twenty eighth day of May Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine, for the sum of five thousand pounds current money and costs, to be released on payment of two thousand three hundred and ten pounds, three shillings current money, with interest thereon from the twenty fifth day of June Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty eight and costs, And the Plaintiffs agree to stay Execution until the tenth day of May next.
