TERMS, $1.50 PER YEAR.

Easton, Maryland, September 5th, 1896.

Republican Ticket.

Protection to American Industries and American Labor and Sound Money.

FOR PRESIDENT:

William McKinley,

of Ohio.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT:

Garret A. Hobart,

of New Jersey.

FOR ELECTORS:

ADAM E. KING,
J. COOKMAN BOYD,
WASHINGTON A. SMITH,
MONITOR WATCHMAN,
ROBERT M. WELCH,
ALEXANDER FRANK,
TALBOT J. ALBERT,
MERRITT WILSON.

FOR CONGRESS.

Isaac A. Barber,

of Talbot County.

REPUBLICAN mass-meetings will be held over the county as rapidly as possible. See posters.

WE are indebted to Mr. Trustin Pippin, of Ridgely for a basket of his most delicious golden peaches. They are from the "Oakland" farm and are said to be the finest on the peninsula.

DR. COUNCELL, of the Health Board of Talbot county asserts that St. Michaels is the cleanest town in the county. Streets and premises in general being above those of other towns.

THE Republican Club will hold a meeting at G. A. R. room, corner of Washington and Dover streets on Tuesday night next at 7.30 o'clock. Dr. Barber has been invited to address the Club. A full attendance is urged.

IT is a patent truth that the silver issue was sprung as a trick to divert the minds of the laboring classes from the utter failures made by the democratic administration There are many honest and sincere men wedded to the "free silver" fallacy, but who would be equally strong in the opposition after a test trial of free silver.

IN the GAZETTE of last week the item written on the coming Talbot Fair had in it an error relative to the receiving of articles. It stated that "Exhibits from those living at a distance will be received antil 10 a. m., Tuesday." This was intended to be confined entirely to butter, as plainly set forth in the Premium List on page 7, where the rules for entries are laid down.

ATTENTION is called to the beautiful advertisement, inserted for the first time in this issue on page 6, of Geo. F. Sloan & Bro., lumber merchants of Baltimore. No better evidence of the value of advertising can be found than by comparing the prosperity of this firm. There has not been an issue of the GAZETTE for more than twelve years in which their advertisement has not appeared, and the manner in which they transact business with their customers shows conclusively that the house is one of the reliable sort that a newspaper takes pride in bringing before its readers.

JOHN M. PALMER, of Illinois, and Simon Bolivar Buckner, of Kentucky, two white-haired veterans of the war, rival commanders of the Blue and Gray, were nominated Thursday by the National Democratic Convention at Indianapolis for president and vice president on a brief but emphatic platform, which repudiates the doctrine enunciated by the Chicago convention; endorses President Cleveland and his administration in glowing terms; declares for the gold standard, tariff for revenue only, liberal shipping laws, currency reform, civil service and economy in public expenditures.

Wilson in the Wet.

Professor Wilson and his little dog "Amendments" are not having a very enjoyable time just now.

THE VALUE OF CONFIDENCE.

No better illustration of the value of confidence could be found than the Vermont election and its results. As soon as it was known that the state had gone for the Republican ticket by an unprecedented plurality, and that this meant overwhelming sound money sentiment of one of the most agricultural of the states the effect was immediate and widespread. Although the contest was local, it created new confidence in the ultimate results of things that was worth hundreds of millions dollars to the country. Maine will vote on the 14th inst., and the home state of the vice presidential nominee of the Popocrat ticket will join Vermont in showing that the people are against free silver and repudiation.

Then business will take another boom. Talk with the man of capital or the man of trade or the man of industry, and you will find him speaking more cheerfully than he did a week ago, and plans that seemed abandoned are coming up for fresh consideretion and for progress. Confidence brings back prosperity, and that is what is wanted now. The only way it can come is through Republican success, and all the signs point to the most stupendous victory in the records of American politics.—Balto. American.

MR. M. B. NICHOLS has most generously turned over proceeds of his last moonlight excursion to Ocean City, consisting of $80, to the chairman of the book purchasing committee, for the Mercantile Library, to be used alone in the purchase of books for the Library. Mr. Nichols has named the folllowing committee to select the books: Col. J. C. Mullikin, Mrs. Theo. Pattison, Wilson M. Tylor, Mrs. J.S. Griffith and Mr. Jas. L. Banning. This is as unexpected as it is generous and Mr. Nichols deserves the highest commendation. He is one of the foremost men we have in charitable work.

WE hope our readers will note an improvement in the make-up of the GAZETTE this week. We have gone to no small expense in changing forms and arrangement of matter and hope it will at least be noticeable.

The Subscriber's Notice.

The editor of a newspaper that has adopted phonetic spelling in a measure received a postal card from an old subscriber in the country which read as follows: "I hev tuk your paper for leven years, but if you kant spell enny better than you hev been doin fur the las' to months, you may jest stop-pit."—Tid-Bits.

For the Gazette.

A Silvery Song.

Vive la Silver! Whoop! Hurrah!
Poor man's money come at last,
Brand new coin without a flaw,
Set the mill to grinding fast.

'Round with the crank, boys! Faster! Faster!
Silver dollars! They're the stuff.
Give us each a half a million,
Hold! I fear that's not enough.

Down with bonds and yellow money!
Down with their bloated holders too!
Give us lots of bright new silver
And we'll put the Nation through.

What if "Uncle Sam" did pledge his Faith to pay in standard gold—
Both principal and interest
The bonds the hatred tyrants hold?

What if they did lend their money
In our country's time of need?
We have now no "Rebs" to conquer,
And 'tis sweet to make them bleed.

What if with the fever stricken,
They did share the wealth they hold?
We have not the yellow fever,
Neither have we yellow gold.

Pay their bonds in half price dollars,
Pay old Europe in them too.
If they will not take our silver,
Let them whistle for their due.

Then we'll be at peace and prosper,
You must see—if not a dunce—
That with lots of silver dollars
We shall all be rich at once.

'Round with the crank, boys! Faster! Faster!
Silver dollars! They're the stuff!
Give us each a dozen millions,
That I'm sure will be enough.

C. G. DAVIS, Tilghman.

Sick Headache.

"I regard your pills as a godsend to me. . . . I could not make a business engagement without the proviso, "unless I have sick headache." Now my health is excellent, and all from the use of Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills." So writes Hon. W. H. Beveridge, one of Richmond, Va.'s, prominent lawyers.

Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills are a sure cure for sick headache and indigestion. Why not try them? At druggists', 25c. and 50c.

MULE FOUND.

There came to my premises near Lednum's Corners on Monday, August 31st, a large brown mule, slightly lame in front foot, light nose, probably ten years old. The owner will come forward, pay costs of this advertisement and other damages and take him away.
A. W. WOOLEY,
8-5-tf EASTON, MD.

"Those desiring to escape the heat and dis-comforts of this weather should take the palace train of Lehigh Valley Railroad for the mountains of Pennsylvania, the lakes of northern New York State and Niagara Falls. For full particulars address, C. S. Lee, G. P. A., L. V. R. R., Philadelphia." tf
