Melchor Keenor against John Weatherburne

Be it remembered that heretofore to wit, on the twenty sixth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty seven Melchor Keenor by Hebulon Hollingsworth his attorney sued out of our General Court here, the State of Marylands writ of capias ad respondendum, directed to the sheriff of Baltimore county in the words and figures following to wit

The State of Maryland &c. To the sheriff of Baltimore county Greeting; We command you that you take John Weatherburne late of Baltimore county yeoman, otherwise called John Weatherburne merchant of Baltimore Town in the State of Maryland if he shall be found in your Bailiwick, and him safe keep, so that you have his body before the Judges of our General Court, to be held at the city of Annapolis on the second tuesday of October next, to answer unto Melchor Keenor in a plea that he render unto him the sum of two hundred pounds specie of the value of two hundred pounds currentmoney of Maryland which from the said Melchor the said John unjustly detains and so forth: Hereof fail not at your peril, and have you then and there this writ. Witness Robert Hanson Harrison esquire, chief Judge of our said Court the 25th day of May Anno domini 1787.

Issued the 26th day of July 1787. (Heb. Hollingsworth) Thos. B. Hodgkin Clk

And the said Melchor Keenor by his attorney aforesaid, declares against the said John Weatherburne in the plea aforesaid as follows to wit.

Western Shore of the State of Maryland, Baltimore county &c.

John Weatherburne late of Baltimore county yeoman, otherwise called John Weatherburne merchant of Baltimore Town in the State of Maryland, was summoned to answer unto Melchor Keenor in a plea that he render unto him the sum of two hundred pounds specie of the value of two hundred pounds, current Pledges to prosecute John Doe and Richard Roe.

The oyer of the writing obligatory in the Declaration aforesaid mentioned, and the condition thereof follow in these words to wit.

Know all Men by these presents, that we John Weatherburne merchant and Jacob Graybill shoemaker both of Baltimore Town in the State of Maryland, are held and firmly bound unto Melchor Keenor merchant of the same place in the just and full sum of two hundred pounds specie to be paid to the said Melchior Keenor or to his certain attorney his heirs executors administrators or assigns; For the which payment well and truly and truly to be made we do bind ourselves our heirs executors administrators and every of them jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated the twenty second day of March one thousand seven hundred and eighty two 1782. The condition of this obligation is such that if the above bounden John Weatherburne and Jacob Graybill their heirs, executors administrators or any of them shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the above named Melchor Keenor his heirs executors administrators or assigns the just and full sum of one hundred pounds specie and that at or upon the first day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty six, with lawful interest for the same, and that without fraud or further delay then this obligation to be void and of none effect, otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue.

Sealed and delivered in the presence of } John Weatherburne (Seal)
Geo: Welch, Peter Shepherd. } Jacob Graybill (Seal)

A copy of which aforegoing Declaration and Bond was made, and sent with the writ which issued in the plea aforesaid.
