against her alleged; and of this she prays may be enquired by the Country: and the said Eleanor Ireland in like manner &c. Therefore let a Jury thereon come before the Court here, on the second tuesday in May next, by whom &c. and who neither &c. to recognize &c. because as well &c. the same day is given to the said parties then and there &c.

At which said second tuesday in May court, the thirteenth day of the same month, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty eight, comes again into our General Court here, as well the said Margaret Leatch administratrix as aforesaid by her attorney aforesaid, as the said Eleanor Ireland administratrix as aforesaid by her attorney aforesaid. And the said Eleanor Ireland administratrix as aforesaid by her attorney aforesaid prays leave of the Court here to withdraw her plea aforesaid above herein before set forth, and that she may have liberty to plead Plene administravit in the action aforesaid; and it is granted her, And the said Eleanor Ireland administratrix as aforesaid by her attorney aforesaid with the leave of the Court here, defends the force and injury when &c. and saith, that the said Margaret Leatch her action aforesaid thereof against her to have or maintain ought not; because she saith that she hath fully administered all the goods and chattels which were of the said Gilbert Ireland at the time of his death, and that she hath no goods and chattels which were of the said Gilbert Ireland at the time of his death in her hands to be administered, nor had on the day of issuing the original writ of the said Margaret Leatch, nor ever afterwards: And this she is ready to verify: wherefore she prays Judgment if the said Margaret Leatch her action aforesaid against her to have ought &c. * And the said Margaret Leatch for that the said Eleanor Ireland by her plea aforesaid doth not deny, but that the debt aforesaid in the writing obligatory aforesaid contained is a just and true debt yet unpaid and not satisfied or discharged and hath said nothing in bar or preclusion of the action of the said Margaret Leatch but the matter aforesaid by her the said Eleanor Ireland above pleaded that she hath no goods or chattels which belonged to the said Gilbert Ireland at the time of his death in her hands to be administered, nor had at the time of issuing the original writ of her in the said Margaret Leatch in this cause, nor ever afterwards: And because the said Margaret Leatch is not as yet advised but that the plea of the said Eleanor Ireland may be true she the said Margaret Leatch prays Judgment and her debt aforesaid of the goods and chattels which were of the said Gilbert Ireland at the time of his death and which to the hands of the said Eleanor Ireland hereafter shall come to be administered to be levied, together with her damages by occasion of the detention of that debt to her to be adjudged. Therefore it is considered by the Judges of the Court here, that the said Margaret Leatch administratrix as aforesaid recover against the said Eleanor Ireland administratrix as aforesaid as well the quantity of seventy seventy eight thousand nine hundred and ninety pounds merchantable tobacco her debt aforesaid, as the quantity of six hundred and thirty one and two fifths pounds of tobacco for her damages by occasion of detaining that debt, by the Court here adjudged to the said Margaret Leatch administratrix as aforesaid with her assent, to be levied of the goods and chattels which were of the said Gilbert Ireland at the time of his death, and which to the hands of the said Eleanor Ireland administratrix as aforesaid hereafter shall come, if so much thereof shall come to the hands of the said Eleanor Ireland administratrix as aforesaid to be administered: And that the said Eleanor Ireland administratrix as aforesaid be in mercy &c.

Memorandum, Judgment was rendered in this cause on the ninth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine, when a fieri for penalty and costs, To be released on the payment of the principal, Interest and costs.

Elijah Merryman and David M'Mechen's Lessee against James Maidwell.

Maryland Sct. Baltimore county Court. Be it remembered that on the twelfth day of October Anno domini seventeen hundred and eighty four, James Maidwell late of Baltimore county yeoman was attached to answer unto Simon Goodright of a plea wherefore with force and arms and so forth into all that tract or parcel of plantable land situate in Baltimore county, called Merrymans Lot containing one hundred and five acres, also thirty acres of land lying in the same county being part of a tract or parcel of land called Bales Addition, adjoining to the said plantation or part of a tract of land called Merrymans Lot aforesaid with the appurtenances which Elijah Merryman and David M'Mechen, Trustees of Joseph Enson an Infant to him the said Simon had demised for a Term which is not yet past he the said James did enter and him the said Simon from his Farm aforesaid did eject and other harms to him the said Simon did to the great damage of him the said Simon and against the peace government and dignity of the State of Maryland and so forth. And whereupon the said Simon Goodright by David M'Mechen his attorney complains that whereas the aforesaid Elijah Merryman and David M'Mechen on the first day of September seventeen hundred and eighty four at Baltimore county aforesaid had demised unto him the said Simon the said premises with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, To have and to hold the same premises with the appurtenances to him the said Simon and his assigns from the thirty first day of august then last past until the full end and Term of seven years, then next following fully to be complete and ended, And whereas the aforesaid Elijah Merryman on the aforesaid first day of september seventeen hundred and eighty four at the county aforesaid did demise unto the said Simon one undivided halfpart of the tracts or parcels of land aforesaid with the appurtenances thereunto belonging. To have and to hold the same premises with
