common council of the city of Annapolis the sum of three hundred and fifty pounds current money in such manner and form, as the said Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and common council of the city of Annapolis above against him declared.

Therefore it is considered by the Judges of this Court here, that the said Mayor Recorder, Aldermen and common council of the city of Annapolis recover against the said Alexander Trueman as well the sum of three hundred and fifty pounds current money, the debt aforesaid in form aforesaid confessed, as the quantity of six hundred and seventy seven pounds of tobacco, by the Judges of the Court here, unto them the said Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and common council of the city of Annapolis on their assent adjudged, as well for their damages, which they sustained by occasion of the detention of that debt, as for their costs and charges by them about their suit in this behalf laid out and expended; And that the said Alexander Trueman be in mercy &c.

Memorandum, Judgment was rendered in this cause on the ninth day of June Anno domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine, for the Penalty and costs of suit, to be released on payment of principal interest and costs.

The Marquis Del real Soccarro against
William Smith.

Case,
Non prosequendo for want of the return of the commissions

Therefore it is considered by the Judges of the Court here, that the said Marquis Del real Soccarro take nothing by his writ aforesaid; but that he and his pledges of prosecution, to wit, John Doe and Richard Roe be in mercy &c. and that the said William Smith go thereof without day &c. And it is also considered that the said William Smith recover against the said Marquis Del real Soccarro the quantity of six hundred and thirty nine and three fifths pounds of tobacco, by the Judges of the Court here unto him the said William Smith on his assent adjudged, for his costs and charges by him, about his suit in this behalf laid out and expended: and that the said William Smith have thereof his execution &c. James Murray.
William Worthington.

Be it remembered that heretofore to wit, on the fourteenth day of January Anno domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine, James Murray by Jeremiah Townley Chase his attorney sued out of the General Court here, a writ of Capias ad respondendum of the State of Maryland, directed to the sheriff of Ann arundel county in the words and figures following to wit,

The State of Maryland SC. To the sheriff of Ann arundel county, Greeting:

We

We command you that you take William Worthington late of Ann arundel county Gentleman otherwise called William Worthington of Ann arundel county State of Maryland, if he shall be found in your bailiwick, and him safe keep, so that you have his body before the Judges of our General Court, to be held at the city of Annapolis on the second tuesday of May next, to answer unto James Murray of a plea that he render unto him the sum of four hundred and twelve pounds four shillings and four pence current money which to him he owes and unjustly detains &c. Nor fail not at your peril, and have you then and there this writ. Witness Robert Hanson Harrison Esquire chief Judge of our said Court the 18th day of November Anno domini 1788.

Issued the 14th day of January 1789. (J. T. Chase) Jno. Gwinn Clk.

And the said James Murray by his attorney aforesaid declares against the said William Worthington in the plea aforesaid as follows to wit.

Ann Arundel county to wit. William Worthington late of Ann arundel county Gentleman, otherwise called William Worthington of Ann arundel county State of Maryland was summoned to answer unto James Murray of a plea that he render unto him the sum of four hundred and twelve pounds four shillings and four pence current money which to him he owes and unjustly detains &c. And whereupon the said James by Jeremiah Townley Chase his attorney complains that whereas the said William by his certain writing obligatory made on the fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty seven, at Ann arundel county aforesaid acknowledged himself to be held and firmly bound unto the said James in the sum of four hundred and twelve pounds four shillings and four pence current money to be paid unto the said James his certain attorney Executors, administrators or assigns when afterwards he the said William should be thereunto required. Nevertheless the said William altho' often thereunto required the said sum of current money to him the said James hath not contented or paid but the same to content & pay the said William hath altogether refused and still doth refuse wherefore the said James saith he is the worse and hath damage to the value of five hundred pounds current money, wherefore he brings suit and &c. and brings here into Court the writing obligatory aforesaid, sealed with the seal of the said William which the debt aforesaid in form aforesaid witnesseth the date whereof is the day & year aforesaid &c.

J. T. Chase for the Plff. Pledges &c. { Jn. Doe & Rich. Roe.

The writing obligatory whereof mention is made in the declaration aforesaid, and the condition thereof follows in these words to wit.

Know all Men by these presents, that I William Worthington of Ann arundel county State of Maryland am held and firmly bound unto James Murray of the city of Annapolis in the full and just sum of four hundred and twelve pounds four shillings and four pence current money to be paid unto the said James Murray his certain attorney Executors administrators or assigns; To the which payment well and truly to be made and done I bind myself my Heirs, Executors and administrators firmly by these presents, sealed with my seal and dated this fifteenth day of May in the year of our Lord
