Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty seven; The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound William Worthington do and shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the said James Murray his certain Attorney Executors, Administrators or assigns the just and full sum of two hundred and six pounds two shillings and two pence current money on or before the fifteenth day of May Anno domini 1788. with legal interest thereon then the above obligation to be void else to remain in full force and virtue in Law.

Signed sealed and delivered in the presence of. } W. Worthington.

Mary Nevett.

A copy of which aforegoing Declaration and Bond was made and sent with the writ which issued in the plea aforesaid.

At which said second tuesday in May court, the twelfth day of the same month Anno domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine, being the day of the return of the aforegoing writ, comes into our General Court here the said James Murray by his attorney aforesaid, and the sheriff of ann arundel county to whom the said writ was directed, to wit Benjamin Howard, likewise comes, and makes return thereof to the Court here, that he hath taken the body of the said William Worthington and the same hath ready agreable to the exigence of the said writ. — And the said William Worthington by William Cooke his attorney comes and defends the force and injury when &c. and saith that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the said James Murray so as aforesaid against him brought, nor but that he owes to the said James Murray the sum of four hundred and twelve pounds four shillings and four pence current money in such manner and form as the said James Murray above against him declaid

Therefore it is considered by the Judges of the Court here, that the said James Murray recover against the said William Worthington as well the sum of four hundred and twelve pounds four shillings and four pence current money his debt aforesaid, in form aforesaid confessed; as the quantity of five hundred and eleven pounds of tobacco, by the Judges of the Court here unto him the said James Murray on his afsumpt adjudged, as well for his damages, which he — sustained by occasion of the detention of that debt, as for his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out and expended; And that the said William Worthington be in mercy &c.

Memorandum, Judgment was rendered in this cause on the eighteenth day of May Anno domini one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine, for penalty and costs, to be released on the payment of the principal, interest and costs, stay execution to May Term next, payments if any to be allowed.
