Stephen Drapers
a Thomas Coale.

Be it remembered that on the twenty eighth day of October in the year seventeen hundred and eighty Nine Stephen Draper files in the General Court here, the following petition to wit.

To the Honorable the Judges of the General Court. The humble petition of Stephen Draper. Greeting— Sheweth to your Honors that your petitioner a poor servant lad and a native of Ireland and belonging to Mr Thomas Coale of Elkridge is cruelly treated by his said Master whom he has served already for four Years and having eighteen months to serve him from this time forth and being nearly famished for

for want of Bread his allowance being but half a pint of Corn flour with the husks ffdav, and when he gets a little flour for his labour in the Neighbourhood on Sundays they throw it away to the Creatures— therefore humbly prayeth your honors to consider his deplorable case and grant him some relief and in duty your humble petitioner will ever pray—

Octr. 28th 1789.

And the said Thomas Coale in his proper person comes and submits himself to the Judgment of the Court here Whereupon all and singular the premises being by the Court here seen and fully understood It is ordered by the Court that the petition aforesaid be dismissed and that the said Thomas Coale go thereof without day &c
